Trend of the Modes - IN - Ready-to-wear Apparel

The first complete showing of Coats, Suits, and Dresses, in the cleverest originations and color combinations of exclusive designers is on exhibition during our Fall Opening.

COATS

Fashion has decreed the Coat for Fall and Winter wear, and the models shown in this most fascinating showing are remarkable for their happy combination of feminine charm and graceful symmetry line, revealed by delightful innovations in the way of smart effects that add to these garments—$22.50 to $95.00.

SUITS

Never has fashion's dictations been more carefully or successfully carried out than they are in these Fall Suits, the new jacket lengths, and fulness below the waist are some of the many Fall tendencies—Prices range from $28.50 and up to $75.00.

DRESSES

Dresses in the newer, finer silk weaves, and in smartest of Serge, Tricotine, Tricolette, and Jersey, are presented in this Fall display. Rich embroideries enhance their modishness, and while navy blue promises to be a favorite, there are hosts of lovely tans and browns to choose from—Priced at $18.50 to $69.00.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

The treasury contains $190. A report was received from an entertainment committee appointed at a previous meeting in regard to an indoor carnival to be given under the auspices of a company from Hartford. This committee was empowered to contract with this company to stage the carnival at a date to be decided upon later.

Members of the Y. M. C. A. and their friends have been invited to attend the fall opening at the local Y Monday evening, October 6 at 8 p. m. As has been the custom of the Y in past years there will be a social hour in the lobby, followed by games in the gymnasium and bowling matches between teams composed of members. All arrangements for entertainment of the evening are yet to be made, but the social department of the Y expects to have some local talent in the entertainment. During the past few months the Y has experienced many changes and during the evening persons desiring to become better acquainted with the building and its contents will be conducted through the building. The bowling matches to be held on the new alleys will no doubt prove to be one of the features of the evening and teams made up of men and women will compete for honors. Those who have attended fall openings of past years and have enjoyed the evening's delightful entertainment are expected to be present at the opening night for the year 1919.

The United States Civil Service Commission has called attention to the fact that in addition to the recent announcement of positions in the public service the United States Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Board will make a number of appointments to fill positions in its field service. Applicants qualifying for these positions as described in announcement No. 478 will be eligible to be considered for the appointment to the field service preference may be given to residents of the state when the vacancies may exist, but on request of the interdepartmental social hygiene board the highest eligible on the register, regardless of residence will be selected.

The United States Civil Service Commission also announced that both men and women will be admitted to the open competition examination for Artists to fill a vacancy in the public health service, treasury department, Washington, D. C., at $1800 a year, for which applicants must be filed with the commission at Washington, D. C. prior to the hour of closing business on Oct. 14, 1919.

White Sox backers had that "I told you so" look after the game was over Friday and were out looking for Red money which has suddenly become scarce in the city. Because of the fact that the next two games are being played at Chicago odds, are inclined to bet on the White Sox. One man in the city had $10 on his counter all day Friday but could find no Cincinnati money to cover it so he has left it there for today's game.

William Jane Mathews, 22, of Lowell, and Alphege Potvin, 27, of this city, will appear before the judge at the police court (Saturday) morning to answer to the charge of breaking and entering the saloon owned by Zepherin Cousak at 31 Jackson street owned by Samuel Eisenberg.

The breaks at these places of business took place on the night of June 30, between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock. Mr. Couak claims a loss of between $50 and $75 in liquor stocks and Mr. Eisenberg claims his loss to be $75 in silk goods and other bits of merchandise.

Chief of Police Killourey was notified of the break on the morning of July 1st, and since the time has been working on the case. Thursday morning he left this city for Lowell, and upon information he had received, arrested Mr. Mathews in a town just outside of the city. The arrest of Mathews at 11 a. m. Friday led to the arrest of Potvin of this city who was Mathews's accomplice in the crime. Chief Killourey before returning to this city telegraphed the local police to bring the man who was arrested at 3:30 Friday afternoon and on the night Chief Killourey returned to this city Friday evening, bringing Mathews with him and locked him up for the night. This is not the first instance when the local police have run their men to the ground and Chief Killourey deserves praise for his work in this case. A large quantity of the stolen goods have been recovered by the police and will be returned to the owners after use of evidence.

JEWETT CITY The condition which has existed on the East Main street highlands is better from the world's series. Besides a dressing of nearly five hundred loads of gravel, four large catch basins are being built at different points between Wilson street and Brown avenue. These will connect with the sewer main and in connection with the gravel will give added assurance that this usual stretch of mud will be remedied this winter and next spring.

This important piece of road carries all the Textile Novelty Company's travel, all the ice traffic, the travel to and from Hopeville and Stone Hill, not to mention the great volume of regular suburban passing.

For years attempts have been made to fix matters. Now it seems in a fair way to be accomplished. One man who knows says that at this point for several hundred yards the water is very near the surface during the spring months, and he, with many others interested, declares that the only complete and lasting remedy is to make it a state road, like Main and Stone Hill, and to have the present improvement will cost about $1500.

The local weather man pulled off his coat Friday and handed out some regular weather. Screens that had been put away were got out and good old fashioned weather enjoyed again. At 2:30 the mercury ran up to 90 in the shade.

Various improvements are being made at the plant of the Textile Novelty Co. on East Main street. The granolithic walk has been extended all along the front and to the eastern boundary of the property. A new office, built of brick, is nearing completion on the western front which will be equipped and fitted with every thing convenient and modern. Earl S. Hiscox is rewiring the entire main plant, in accordance with the company's policy of general improvement.

A special meeting of the Twelfth school district was held Thursday evening at which time it was voted to rescind the vote passed at the annual school meeting wherein a three mile tax was laid. PROVIDENCE THIEVES GET $750 FROM NEW LONDON Stephen Patkin, 28, millworker, of 15 John street, New London, was robbed of $750 in a downtown street in Providence Thursday afternoon after he counted the money.

Two men, who induced Patkin after a day's acquaintance to draw the money out of a savings bank and go to Providence to buy a store, took the money from him and eluded him. Patkin with police inspectors made the "rounds" Thursday night, looking in vain for the men who got his funds. He had 12 cents left.

Patkin told the police that the men came to Providence with him and on the train got him to put the money in a handkerchief. Inspectors think it was planned to substitute wads of paper, but that Patkin was too wary and they had not the opportunity. In some downtown street, which Patkin could not load the police to, while they were on the way to "the store," the men proposed counting the money.

One, a Frenchman, was helping Patkin, but he disappeared in an alley before the New Londoner could collect his wits. Patkin says he has $200 more in the bank, which will stay there.

Suspicious. Nearly all of St. Paul's saloons are open as soft drink places, and a lot of them are open to suspicion—Baudette Region.

THERE IS NOTHING SO CHEERFUL AS A WELL FITTED-UP BEDROOM

No matter how well the rest of the house may be furnished, unless the bedroom is cheerful, bright and new looking, the effect of a well-ordered house is lost. When you send your friends up stairs to "lay off" their wraps on the bed or when company comes to spend the night, isn't it gratifying to have a well-furnished bedroom—one that contains the right kind of furniture—furniture of quality and taste? Just such furniture is the kind we handle. Our array of Bedroom Suites should be seen to be appreciated, and the prices are economical, too.

We can furnish every room in the home beautifully, tastefully and economically. Our new 1919 Fall stock is now in and includes many strictly new designs in Furniture. An excellent line of Ranges, Floor Coverings, Etc., Etc.
