PREDICTS TOWN CENSUS OF 40,000

Predictions were made Monday by a well known Norwich man with an acquaintance with the real estate situation in Norwich that when the census is taken next January if it is well and carefully taken, the population of the town will be shown to be at least 40,000.

Expressions of incredulity that such a figure would be reached were quite generally heard when the prediction was made. "I have my expectation," he said, "first upon the fact that when the town's population has been around 35,000 for some time, it has increased to 40,000 tenements empty and looking for tenants. Now there is hardly a tenement to be had in the city. That means that all the tenements are filled up full means a whole lot more people in Norwich than when they were empty."

There has been a great increase in the number of boarding houses in the city in the last ten years, too, and these are all full and that means more people. Along with this change in the housing situation, there are two or three apartment houses. That means more people under the same roof. The houses of the city, which had small families, with few children, have been replaced by large families.

At COLLEGE CLUB MEETING After a short business session by the Norwich College club at its December meeting held Monday afternoon with Mrs. Shepard E. Palmer, 142 Broad street, as president, Mrs. E. It's Time to Take Celery King

Many doctors say influenza may be with us before springtime. Get your blood in good condition—take Celery King three times a week for three weeks—that helps.

Give it to the children also, for it's a good old-fashioned vegetable tea that costs almost nothing but refreshes and restores the bowels and puts the entire system in fine condition. Buy "Celery King" Celery King. Your druggist is handling you the king of tonic laxatives.

WEDDING. Mowry-Heath. At the first Congregational church, Lowell, on Saturday evening, Miss Carol F. Heath of that city and Jared James Mowry of Haddam-on-Hudson, formerly of Norwich, were united in marriage before a large gathering of relatives and friends. The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock by Rev. Chauncey Harkins, pastor of the church.

The bride was attended by a matron of honor, Mrs. Paul E. Chandler of Lowell, two bridesmaids, Misses Mrs. Green of Lynn and Esther Rutter of Lawrence, and eight flower girls. Misses Helen Barnard of Uxton, N. Y., Frances Dixon of Uxton, N. Y., Elizabeth Hayes of Niagara Falls, N. Y., Paul Harrington of Providence, R. I., Oberon of Albany, N. Y., Louise Mills of Uxton, N. Y., Helen Robinson of New Rochelle, N. Y., and Isabel Van Dorn of Cleveland, O.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Percy Raymond Mowry, as best man. The ushers comprised Paul B. Chandler of Lowell, Robert S. Dilg of Marlboro, Frank P. Hight of Lowell, and Arthur H. Harkins of Boston. The wedding march was played by Miss Ella L. Gale, who also presided as the organ during the wedding.

In the decorative scheme carried out at the church the color tones were green and yellow, with an effective touch of blue here and there. The feature of the decorations was a large floral arch made up of a profusion of greenery almost hidden by a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums, relieved by a touch of turquoise blue. The beautiful arch was effectively thrown out by a background of greenery and noted plants, artistically arranged. During the ceremony the bridal party stood beneath the floral arch, the whole forming a most beautiful picture.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Mowry will reside at their beautiful home at Haddam-on-Hudson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Heath of Lowell and is widely known as an interior decorator. She was educated in the public schools of Lowell, then going to Rogers Hall school and then to the Pratt School of Fine and Applied Arts of New York.

Mr. Mowry, the bridegroom, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Mowry (Maw Williams) of Norwich, Conn. He was educated at Dartmouth college, the Pratt School of Science and Technology. He is a reserve officer in the United States air service, and is a member of the Massachusetts Aero club, the Dartmouth club, Beta Theta Pi fraternity, American Chemical society, and the American Chemical society, and is president of the Chemical Research.
