NORWICH TOWN

At the annual meeting of the First Congregational church, held in the church New Year's day at 3:30 o'clock, the pastor presided, read the second chapter of Philippians and offered prayer.

Herbert L. Yerrington was re-elected clerk and Henry T. Frazier treasurer and accountants. Committees were elected as follows: Missionary, Miss Susan Hyde, Miss Mary E. Watson, Mrs. John L. Browning, Rosey Yerrington, Mrs. Frank Steery, Clyde Beebe, Arthur, Philip Whaley, George F. Hyde, Arthur Kruok, Arthur Avery.

A special committee to arrange for the installation of the pastor was appointed and consists of D. W. Avery, C. M. Beebe, Mrs. H. L. Yerrington, Mrs. Frank Steery, Mrs. Abbie Hale.

Following the election of officers, the society held a social hour in the various organizations of the church. The special work of the Home Missionary society as reported by Mrs. H. L. Yerrington was the filling of a cabinet of books in the home of a family in Pennsylvania.

Cash collections were also made and disbursements of same through the year. Three social teas open to the public and for which special charge was made were held. Mrs. Walter Potter, the treasurer reported for the Larthrop Memorial Foreign Missionary society, six meetings were held at homes of members during the year.

The society has been studying the text book, Women Workers of the Orient; for the ensuing year the book for study will be "A Crusade of Compassion for the Healing of the Nations." The society disbursed about $88 in benevolent contributions for work in foreign lands.

The Y. P. S. C. E. has had a busy year as shown by the report of Miss Ida Beebe, secretary. Fifty-two devotional hours were held either in the chapel or in co-operation with other societies. One service in mid-summer was held on the high ledge near the church where the original church building was located in the seventeenth century.

The society of the United Church joined in this service which was held at sunset. Six members of the society, the largest delegation from any society in New London county, attended the service.

Thirteen members were added during the year. Miss Susan Hyde's report of Junior C. E. work showed activity on the part of the little ones and their faithful leaders in such of the Junior League of Goodwill as the Junior League of Goodwill and the Junior League of Goodwill.

Interesting features of the party were the opening of the mits boxes and the illustrated talk by Miss Hyde on "The Story of the Christmas Tree." The society had benevolent contributions to the State Educational work in the south.

A Christmas offering of $50 to the Near East Relief Work in Armenia, a total of $142 for the year. Miss Jennie G. Bonney, superintendent of the Home Protection reported a membership of 24 at the end of the year. Calls have been made quarterly by the seven visitors. The department has been financially self-sustaining.

The First Congregational Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening will begin at 8 o'clock in the evening and then usual, in order to permit the members to attend the Union service at the First Methodist church, at 7:30.

Watch night services were held at the First Methodist church New Year's eve, from 9 to 12:30. The first hour was devoted to the singing and praying, the numbers of which included, hymn, congregation; piano; Hazel Cruthers; reading, New Years. Mrs. Albert Palmer; reading, A Good Year; Miss Edith Benjamin; Mrs. Hazel and Gladys Cruthers; reading, One Short Year; Mrs. Fredrick H. Bushnell; reading, Tolling of Bells; George Randall; recitation, Rings out the Bells in the New Year; Lewis Fish; trio, Better Each Day; Donald Terrell; L. Roy Miner; Lewis Fish; hymn, Another Year is Dawning, congregation. Following this a social hour was enjoyed by the fifty or more in attendance.

Miss Edna Herbert of Griswold, was a guest over New Year's of Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lamb of Town street. Miss Herbert was on her way to her home, after having several days with friends in Niantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kinney, former residents of Norwich, Town, who recently visited for several days with relatives on Town street, have returned to their home in Providence, R. I.

DANGERS OF A COLD

Norwich People Will Do Well to Heed Them.

Many had cases of kidney trouble result from a cold or chill. Congested kidneys fall behind in filtering the poison-laden blood and backache, headache, dizziness and disordered kidney action follow. Don't neglect a cold.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of kidney trouble. Follow this Norwich resident's example: Mrs. Henry L. Grainer, 806 East Main Street, says: "At times a cold has affected my back and sometimes over-work has caused dull, nagging pains across my kidneys. My back has felt weak and tired and I have been worn out. When bed-ding, sharp pains have seized me in my back and it has been hard to straighten up. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for these attacks and they have done me lots of good."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the safe that Mrs. Grainer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Private New Year's day to remain over the week and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adalbert H. Geer of Scotland road. Other guests for the holiday included Mr. Geer's sister, Mrs. Lucy Chesbro, and L. C. Rano from Norwich.

Mrs. Nina Browning of Westery, R. I., has been visiting for a few days, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allyn Tracy, of Town street.

The New London County Congregational Ministers' association, will meet Tuesday morning at 10:30 at the First Congregational church. Luncheon will be served in the chapel at noon by members of the church.

SURPRISE ON SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Wepwick of 114 Broad street, were guests at a surprised Thursday evening when a number of friends remembering the date of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary dropped in to celebrate the event. While taken very much by surprise the happy couple quickly rallied and responded very creditably to the various toasts and good wishes.

They were presented many handsome silver gifts and after a dainty repast, music and games, the party broke up all wishing the happy couple many returns of the anniversary.

DIVORCE SUIT WITHDRAWN FROM SUPERIOR COURT. The divorce suit of Chester A. Churchill of Marlhead, Mass., has been withdrawn from the superior court. The couple were married on February 10, 1917 and the suit for divorce was brought on the grounds of intolerable cruelty since January 4, 1918.

It's a pretty hard thing to make a schoolboy believe in an all wise Providence when it rains on a holiday.

POETRY

THE TENDER SIDE OF A WORLDLY MAN. There's a tender side to a worldly man, And it shows itself as he runs his errands. Though oft he's misjudged by his Christian (C) friend, He many the times to the Lord do lead.

By giving his "bit"—says the bluff old man— To some poor soul, who is down and out; The worldly man often will take a drink, And sometimes he'll give a nice girl a ride.

He is often careless in choosing paths, And will gamble at dice and pool and cards; He'll smoke black cigars, or a cigar, etc. And he's apt to swear—if you make him fret— But show him a home that is cold and drear.

Where comforts are lacking throughout the year, And a "Johnnie on the Spot" He will tear fall from his eyes, so He'll give them succor and cheer and aid. To buy necessaries; then off he'll dash, To forget there's misery on this fair earth.

For many more of the very day of birth, He believes all dogmas and creeds are good. After these things thoroughly understood: But, as for him, God's great "Golden Rule" Is his only available working tool.

And so, good friends, as he plods his way Over the rough road of life, each day, He keeps on his lips a smile and song, Which gives him life, courage, and makes "him strong."

To give you the "best" of a busy span— So give me a cheer for the worldly man. —Willie Doolittle.

HUMOR OF THE DAY. "Wrote a ballad on my cuff the other day. What would you advise me to do with it?" "Send it to a laundry."—Life.

Mr. Pecked-Smith is king in his home. Mrs. Pecked—Yes; I was there the day his wife crowned him.—Detroit News.

Diner—Waiter! Bring me a knife for the butter. Waiter—Yes, sir. Diner—Oh, and, waiter, a revolver for the cheese.—London Tit Bits.

"Say boss," appealed a ducky doughboy convalescent in a recuperation hospital, "when a sawbones calls his way, 'that you reckon you keepin' me head to a souvenir?'—Star and Stripes.

"How did you prevent your mother-in-law's annual fall visit?" "Oh, it was very simple—I gave her some dried plants and she's afraid to leave home for fear they'll freeze."—Oxington Leader.

Jimmie—We had a bum winter, no skating. His mamma—it was a blessing to the poor Jimmie. "Jimmie—A blessing! Why, poor kids like to skate just as much as anybody.—Detroit News.

"Why don't those grand opera stars accumulate more money?" "Their expenses are heavy." "Eh?" "I've seen one wearing a milkmaid's costume that must have cost 3,000 bones.—Kansas City Journal.

"You say Smith came into sudden wealth?" "Yes, lucky dog that he is." "How was that—what do you mean—sudden wealth?" "An old maid with a million dollars said to him 'this is no sudden.'—Florida Elmer-Union.

Booker, the Agent—I have a small part for you if you thing you are qualified. It's that of a starving war refugee.
