

THE CHRISTIAN

What is a Christian? come, forget the book and the text-divining;
 Forget the metes and the bounds of faith; we have come to a new defining.
 Forget the Christian who died the death for the faith he esteemed his Maker's,
 And the Christian who hacketed heretics and cheerfully quartered Quakers.
 Never mind the confessional Christian you may classify with a label;
 But what is your test of the Christian you seat at your family table?
 Never mind the communicant Christian whom you kneel beside Easter morning;
 Who's the man you endorse for the rest of the year, nor qualify with a warning?

Give us a "Christian"! Give us one, whatever his churchly rating,
 Whom we may trust in the market, unwatched and unhesitating;
 Give us the man who pays his debts in the spirit he makes collections,
 And we're willing to make some allowance if he lacks in genuflections.
 Give us the man who toes the mark and takes, if he must, his beating
 And we do not ask what his tally is at the Friday evening meeting;
 The man who respects his fatherhood as a mother her maternity;
 Give us the man who comes to time, and we'll trust him in Eternity.

—Edmund Vance Cooke.

PENDLETON HILL

The funeral service of Miss Edna Palmer, who died at the residence of Dr. Charles E. North in Montclair, N. J., Jan. 14th, was held at the church last Wednesday. Rev. Lucian Drury of North Stonington conducted the services, as the pastor, Rev. E. P. Mathewson was not able to be present. The bearers were G. D. Coats and Judge Charles Gray of this town and Messrs. William and Daniel Larkin of Westery. There were beautiful flowers.

Relatives and friends of Miss Palmer were saddened to hear of her death, which occurred at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. North of Montclair. Miss Palmer had been making her home with the Norths for some time. She was taken ill with bronchial pneumonia and died after a week's illness. Mrs. Charles E. North of Montclair, N. J., spent a short time at her home here last week.

The which formed on the trees last Thursday, Jan. 8, held on for a week. Mrs. Harris Boardman was in Montclair, N. J., the first of the week. Clark Coon was unable to have school Tuesday of this week owing to illness.

GLASGO

Local friends of Prof. W. O. Turner were glad to know that he had recovered from his illness so as to be able to be out and calling on friends in Willimantic.

Albert Pierce of Norwich has been a guest of his sister, Mrs. Sterry Kinney.

Earl Clark and Miss Rosanna Dumas were married Monday, Jan. 12th, and are guests of Mr. Clark's sister, Mrs. Benjamin Young, of Springfield, Mass.

The entertainment and dance in Social hall Saturday evening, arranged by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tift for the Near East relief fund, was a success, as $47 was realized, to be added to the fund of $600, Griswold's quota.

On account of the slippery condition of the roads, there was a small attendance at church Sunday and also prevented a large attendance at the cottage prayer meetings held last week.

EAST KILLINGLY

Misses Ada and Doris Burlingame of New York, Penner and Raymond Burlingame of Massachusetts, Mrs. Stephen Brown, Sheldon P. and Harris Burlingame of Worcester, Mrs. Esther Jacobs, Mrs. Minnie Warren and Abner Young of Danvers were among those who attended the funeral services of Penner Burlingame held Saturday, Jan. 10th, at his home.

Mrs. Henry H. Heath is employed at the Asceptic Products company.

Mrs. Walter Card is employed at the Connecticut mills.

Mrs. A. H. Shippee is ill.

There was no R. F. D. delivery Friday on route No. 2 from the Dayville postoffice through East Killingly.

Erwin Chase, Jr., who has been ill, is improving. His little daughter Vernice is also ill.

STAFFORDVILLE

Mrs. Sarah Smith, who has been in Johnson hospital for treatment, returned to her home Saturday.

Mrs. L. M. Booth, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grace West in Springfield, returned to her home here last week.

Archie M. Sanger visited friends in Pittsfield, Mass. a few days last week. Mrs. Martha Goodwill, who has been ill at her home for some time, was taken to the Johnson hospital last Saturday.

Rev. J. M. Von Deck preached a very interesting temperance sermon in the M. E. church Sunday morning from Heb. 2: 13.

STERLING

The grammar school is closed for two weeks on account of so many of the children having measles.

Miss Tacy Lincoln of Moosup spent

Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. David Miller.

Mrs. Bertha Bishop and daughter Doris spent Monday in Moosup.

The masquerade given by the X. Y. Z. girls Saturday evening was largely attended.

ROCKVILLE

Harold R. Crandall and family have moved to De Ruyter, N. Y., where Mr. Crandall has accepted the pastorate of the Seventh Day Baptist church. Before leaving here, Mr. Crandall was presented a nice Bible from the Sabbath school, of which he had been superintendent for a long time.

School here began after the holiday vacation with a new teacher, Miss Katherine C. Wells, of Ashaway.

BOZRAH

The beautiful views on ancient Egypt were highly enjoyed Sunday evening by a good sized audience notwithstanding the snowstorm and the icy walking. By special request the 100 views will be given again next Sunday evening, Jan. 18, at 7. The valley of the Nile is strewn with wrecks of monumental grandeur. The imperial palace of the Pharaohs, the Pyramids, obelisks, colossal statues give some conception of the brilliant period of primeval barbarism. The views will be shown at the church by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Hanna.

When a woman drops a hint it sounds like a sledge hammer chorus in a boiler factory.

To enable airplanes to alight at sea, Great Britain has built a ship with a deck 535 feet long, entirely clear of obstruction; the smokestack being horizontal and the pilot house and wireless masts collapsible.

The earliest coinage that can be called American was ordered by the Virginia company and was minted in the Bermudas in 1612. But then, and for long afterwards, the standard currency of Virginia was tobacco.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Wife—John, I shall have to get some new clothes this winter.
 Hub—Great Scott, woman! That's just what you said last year.—Boston Transcript.

Belly—You'll be sorry to hear that Pat Donovan was drowned yesterday.
 Doolley—But I thought he was a good swimmer.

Belly—Yes, but he was a staunch union man. He swam for eight hours, then gave it up—on principle.—London Opinion.

Patience—Do you believe that walls have ears?
 Patrice—Oh, yes. But even they can't believe everything they hear.—Yonkers Statesman.

"I saved eight dollars today."
 "That so? How?"
 "They had beefsteak on the bill of fare, and I took a ham sandwich and a glass of milk instead."—Detroit Free Press.

Hobb—Millington has got so he swears like a trooper.
 Nogg—"That isn't a good simile any more, old man. Why don't you say, he swears like the heroine in an English novel?"—Life.

"Cholly's father was handsome, brainy, magnetic and prepossessing. Did Cholly inherit any of these talents?"
 "No; all he left Cholly was a million dollars."—Judge.

"Were you annoyed because I sharpened a pencil with your razor?"
 "Twice," replied the patient husband.
