

THE THREE B'S RECHARGING REPAIRING REBUILDING

THE B. B. STORAGE BATTERY & WELDING CO. 92 Franklin Street

Building Material and Labor Prices Have Gone Up. Furniture and Household Supplies Cost More.

ISAAC S. JONES Insurance and Real Estate Agent

BEFORE YOU PLACE ORDERS FOR COAL look at ours, especially our Lehigh Coal No. 1 and 2 mixed $11.90 per ton.

A. G. THOMPSON, F. S. Chiropractor, Foot Specialist (PROTECT YOUR FEET)

Nervous People should use KALPHO and observe its magical effect in the treatment of nervousness, insomnia, brain fog, irritability, mental exhaustion, nervous headache, loss of memory, etc.

POISONING DU ETO EATING RIPE OLIVES Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 8.—Fatalities attributed to poisoning due to eating ripe olives, served at a lunch here last Thursday, were increased to six today with the death of Currie Ivy, 10 years old son of Uziel K. Ivy.

ODESSA ENTERED BY BOLSHIEV TROOPS London, Feb. 8.—Bolshevik troops have victoriously entered Odessa, according to a wireless message sent out today by the Soviet government at Moscow.

FOUR INJURED WHEN JITNEY BUS OVERTURNED Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 8.—Four men and one woman were injured to-night when a large jitney bus overturned near the Barrum and Battery grounds on the outskirts of the city.

Men's "Y" Bible Class. On Tuesday evening at 8.30 o'clock, the Men's Bible class will hold its weekly session.

Brotherhood Meeting. Tuesday evening at the February meeting of the Brotherhood of the United Congregational church, in the Sunday school room of the church, the members will be addressed by Judge Alfred Colt of New London.

Back Hurt? When the kidneys do not properly do their work or purify the blood stream, waste products and poisonous acids remain in the system and cause backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, sore muscles, swollen joints, stiffness, lassaitude and similar symptoms.

Foley Kidney Pills regulate and restore the healthy, normal action of kidneys and bladder, bringing clean blood and better health, with freedom from aches and pains.

Back Hurt? When the kidneys do not properly do their work or purify the blood stream, waste products and poisonous acids remain in the system and cause backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, sore muscles, swollen joints, stiffness, lassaitude and similar symptoms.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Edwin Fay has been very ill with a grip cold, but is recovering, as her many friends are glad to learn.

Light vehicle lamps at 5.42 o'clock this evening. Someone has recalled that, like the present February, February in 1889 had five Sundays.

During the cold snap a number of wells in Voluntown were frozen over, something which occurs only in the most severe winters.

The speaker at the annual Washington Birthday supper, in Bushnell chapel, is to be Rev. Dr. Clarence M. Gallup, now of Providence.

At Moosup two classes in home nursing are definitely planned, one, a woman's class, in the afternoon, and one for the girls' club in the evening.

The Otis Library reading room proved a popular place during the Sunday afternoon. Miss Virginia E. Hall was in charge. There were seventy-seven visitors.

February 8th to 14th is B. S. of A. National Anniversary week. The Boy Scouts of America, being chartered by a special act of congress on February 8, 1910.

While sand and sawdust have helped safeguard the public, the factory owners on icy walks have proved about as efficacious as anything, the past week.

At Toland, District Supt. W. H. Bath of Norwich, preached Sunday morning at the Methodist church and held the fourth quarterly conference after the service.

Following the hardest week of the winter, Sunday proved a fine day, with bright sunshine, the temperature keeping below 34 degrees, and the air being clear and invigorating.

Five or six federal moth scouts, under Supervisor Graves, are working in and about Norwich just now, and during Saturday inspected trees on Church and School streets.

Personal taxes will be collected today at the store of Lewis B. Brand, Norwich town, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—adv.

An appeal was made Sunday from the pulpit of St. Patrick's church at the three Masses, for financial aid for Bishop Taccani, who is establishing a new mission station in Central America.

At the February meeting of the United Brotherhood Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the church, Judge Alfred Colt is to speak on Old Whaling Days in New London.

An anniversary requiem high Mass for Edward A. Pratt, sung in St. Patrick's church Saturday at 8 o'clock by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, was attended by relatives, business friends and neighbors.

A farewell reception was given by Bell Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Neis Rehak Lodge at East Hampton Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gaff, who are to leave soon for Worcester.

After the sun appeared Saturday afternoon there was a great rush of shoppers to the Norwich stores, helping compensate for the embargo placed on general business by storms and deep snow.

F. C. Ger, the piano tuner, who has been confined to his home by illness, will resume his work this week. Phone 511.—adv.

Not a vehicle in Bolton broke the record for the center all day Thursday, Miss Bertha Fitzgerald, teacher in charge of the Mountain School, waded home through snow waist high, after the session.

An office has been opened in the Capitol building, by the women's fair price committee, of which Mrs. James J. Grace is chairman and complaints and injuries are now being received there.

Malcolm Thompson has nearly finished sawing the timbers on the York lots, in North Stonington, and is soon to move his steam saw mill to the lot which he has purchased of George Brown in District No. 5.

In the account of the February meeting of the Frumhill Chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Elsie E. Bogers, general, it should have been noted that Mrs. Henry H. Pettis was elected as first alternate to the coming D. A. R. conference at Washington.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Edwin Fay has been very ill with a grip cold, but is recovering, as her many friends are glad to learn.

Light vehicle lamps at 5.42 o'clock this evening. Someone has recalled that, like the present February, February in 1889 had five Sundays.

During the cold snap a number of wells in Voluntown were frozen over, something which occurs only in the most severe winters.

The speaker at the annual Washington Birthday supper, in Bushnell chapel, is to be Rev. Dr. Clarence M. Gallup, now of Providence.

At Moosup two classes in home nursing are definitely planned, one, a woman's class, in the afternoon, and one for the girls' club in the evening.

The Otis Library reading room proved a popular place during the Sunday afternoon. Miss Virginia E. Hall was in charge. There were seventy-seven visitors.

February 8th to 14th is B. S. of A. National Anniversary week. The Boy Scouts of America, being chartered by a special act of congress on February 8, 1910.

While sand and sawdust have helped safeguard the public, the factory owners on icy walks have proved about as efficacious as anything, the past week.

At Toland, District Supt. W. H. Bath of Norwich, preached Sunday morning at the Methodist church and held the fourth quarterly conference after the service.

Following the hardest week of the winter, Sunday proved a fine day, with bright sunshine, the temperature keeping below 34 degrees, and the air being clear and invigorating.

Five or six federal moth scouts, under Supervisor Graves, are working in and about Norwich just now, and during Saturday inspected trees on Church and School streets.

Personal taxes will be collected today at the store of Lewis B. Brand, Norwich town, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—adv.

An appeal was made Sunday from the pulpit of St. Patrick's church at the three Masses, for financial aid for Bishop Taccani, who is establishing a new mission station in Central America.

At the February meeting of the United Brotherhood Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the church, Judge Alfred Colt is to speak on Old Whaling Days in New London.

An anniversary requiem high Mass for Edward A. Pratt, sung in St. Patrick's church Saturday at 8 o'clock by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, was attended by relatives, business friends and neighbors.

A farewell reception was given by Bell Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Neis Rehak Lodge at East Hampton Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gaff, who are to leave soon for Worcester.

After the sun appeared Saturday afternoon there was a great rush of shoppers to the Norwich stores, helping compensate for the embargo placed on general business by storms and deep snow.

F. C. Ger, the piano tuner, who has been confined to his home by illness, will resume his work this week. Phone 511.—adv.

Not a vehicle in Bolton broke the record for the center all day Thursday, Miss Bertha Fitzgerald, teacher in charge of the Mountain School, waded home through snow waist high, after the session.

An office has been opened in the Capitol building, by the women's fair price committee, of which Mrs. James J. Grace is chairman and complaints and injuries are now being received there.

Malcolm Thompson has nearly finished sawing the timbers on the York lots, in North Stonington, and is soon to move his steam saw mill to the lot which he has purchased of George Brown in District No. 5.

In the account of the February meeting of the Frumhill Chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Elsie E. Bogers, general, it should have been noted that Mrs. Henry H. Pettis was elected as first alternate to the coming D. A. R. conference at Washington.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Edwin Fay has been very ill with a grip cold, but is recovering, as her many friends are glad to learn.

Light vehicle lamps at 5.42 o'clock this evening. Someone has recalled that, like the present February, February in 1889 had five Sundays.

During the cold snap a number of wells in Voluntown were frozen over, something which occurs only in the most severe winters.

The speaker at the annual Washington Birthday supper, in Bushnell chapel, is to be Rev. Dr. Clarence M. Gallup, now of Providence.

At Moosup two classes in home nursing are definitely planned, one, a woman's class, in the afternoon, and one for the girls' club in the evening.

The Otis Library reading room proved a popular place during the Sunday afternoon. Miss Virginia E. Hall was in charge. There were seventy-seven visitors.

February 8th to 14th is B. S. of A. National Anniversary week. The Boy Scouts of America, being chartered by a special act of congress on February 8, 1910.

While sand and sawdust have helped safeguard the public, the factory owners on icy walks have proved about as efficacious as anything, the past week.

At Toland, District Supt. W. H. Bath of Norwich, preached Sunday morning at the Methodist church and held the fourth quarterly conference after the service.

Following the hardest week of the winter, Sunday proved a fine day, with bright sunshine, the temperature keeping below 34 degrees, and the air being clear and invigorating.

Five or six federal moth scouts, under Supervisor Graves, are working in and about Norwich just now, and during Saturday inspected trees on Church and School streets.

Personal taxes will be collected today at the store of Lewis B. Brand, Norwich town, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—adv.

An appeal was made Sunday from the pulpit of St. Patrick's church at the three Masses, for financial aid for Bishop Taccani, who is establishing a new mission station in Central America.

At the February meeting of the United Brotherhood Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the church, Judge Alfred Colt is to speak on Old Whaling Days in New London.

An anniversary requiem high Mass for Edward A. Pratt, sung in St. Patrick's church Saturday at 8 o'clock by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, was attended by relatives, business friends and neighbors.

A farewell reception was given by Bell Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Neis Rehak Lodge at East Hampton Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gaff, who are to leave soon for Worcester.

After the sun appeared Saturday afternoon there was a great rush of shoppers to the Norwich stores, helping compensate for the embargo placed on general business by storms and deep snow.

F. C. Ger, the piano tuner, who has been confined to his home by illness, will resume his work this week. Phone 511.—adv.

Not a vehicle in Bolton broke the record for the center all day Thursday, Miss Bertha Fitzgerald, teacher in charge of the Mountain School, waded home through snow waist high, after the session.

An office has been opened in the Capitol building, by the women's fair price committee, of which Mrs. James J. Grace is chairman and complaints and injuries are now being received there.

Malcolm Thompson has nearly finished sawing the timbers on the York lots, in North Stonington, and is soon to move his steam saw mill to the lot which he has purchased of George Brown in District No. 5.

In the account of the February meeting of the Frumhill Chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Elsie E. Bogers, general, it should have been noted that Mrs. Henry H. Pettis was elected as first alternate to the coming D. A. R. conference at Washington.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Edwin Fay has been very ill with a grip cold, but is recovering, as her many friends are glad to learn.

Light vehicle lamps at 5.42 o'clock this evening. Someone has recalled that, like the present February, February in 1889 had five Sundays.

During the cold snap a number of wells in Voluntown were frozen over, something which occurs only in the most severe winters.

The speaker at the annual Washington Birthday supper, in Bushnell chapel, is to be Rev. Dr. Clarence M. Gallup, now of Providence.

At Moosup two classes in home nursing are definitely planned, one, a woman's class, in the afternoon, and one for the girls' club in the evening.

The Otis Library reading room proved a popular place during the Sunday afternoon. Miss Virginia E. Hall was in charge. There were seventy-seven visitors.

February 8th to 14th is B. S. of A. National Anniversary week. The Boy Scouts of America, being chartered by a special act of congress on February 8, 1910.

While sand and sawdust have helped safeguard the public, the factory owners on icy walks have proved about as efficacious as anything, the past week.

At Toland, District Supt. W. H. Bath of Norwich, preached Sunday morning at the Methodist church and held the fourth quarterly conference after the service.

Following the hardest week of the winter, Sunday proved a fine day, with bright sunshine, the temperature keeping below 34 degrees, and the air being clear and invigorating.

Five or six federal moth scouts, under Supervisor Graves, are working in and about Norwich just now, and during Saturday inspected trees on Church and School streets.

Personal taxes will be collected today at the store of Lewis B. Brand, Norwich town, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—adv.

An appeal was made Sunday from the pulpit of St. Patrick's church at the three Masses, for financial aid for Bishop Taccani, who is establishing a new mission station in Central America.

At the February meeting of the United Brotherhood Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the church, Judge Alfred Colt is to speak on Old Whaling Days in New London.

An anniversary requiem high Mass for Edward A. Pratt, sung in St. Patrick's church Saturday at 8 o'clock by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, was attended by relatives, business friends and neighbors.

A farewell reception was given by Bell Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Neis Rehak Lodge at East Hampton Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gaff, who are to leave soon for Worcester.

After the sun appeared Saturday afternoon there was a great rush of shoppers to the Norwich stores, helping compensate for the embargo placed on general business by storms and deep snow.

F. C. Ger, the piano tuner, who has been confined to his home by illness, will resume his work this week. Phone 511.—adv.

Not a vehicle in Bolton broke the record for the center all day Thursday, Miss Bertha Fitzgerald, teacher in charge of the Mountain School, waded home through snow waist high, after the session.

An office has been opened in the Capitol building, by the women's fair price committee, of which Mrs. James J. Grace is chairman and complaints and injuries are now being received there.

Malcolm Thompson has nearly finished sawing the timbers on the York lots, in North Stonington, and is soon to move his steam saw mill to the lot which he has purchased of George Brown in District No. 5.

In the account of the February meeting of the Frumhill Chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Elsie E. Bogers, general, it should have been noted that Mrs. Henry H. Pettis was elected as first alternate to the coming D. A. R. conference at Washington.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Edwin Fay has been very ill with a grip cold, but is recovering, as her many friends are glad to learn.

Light vehicle lamps at 5.42 o'clock this evening. Someone has recalled that, like the present February, February in 1889 had five Sundays.

During the cold snap a number of wells in Voluntown were frozen over, something which occurs only in the most severe winters.

The speaker at the annual Washington Birthday supper, in Bushnell chapel, is to be Rev. Dr. Clarence M. Gallup, now of Providence.

At Moosup two classes in home nursing are definitely planned, one, a woman's class, in the afternoon, and one for the girls' club in the evening.

The Otis Library reading room proved a popular place during the Sunday afternoon. Miss Virginia E. Hall was in charge. There were seventy-seven visitors.

February 8th to 14th is B. S. of A. National Anniversary week. The Boy Scouts of America, being chartered by a special act of congress on February 8, 1910.

While sand and sawdust have helped safeguard the public, the factory owners on icy walks have proved about as efficacious as anything, the past week.

At Toland, District Supt. W. H. Bath of Norwich, preached Sunday morning at the Methodist church and held the fourth quarterly conference after the service.

Following the hardest week of the winter, Sunday proved a fine day, with bright sunshine, the temperature keeping below 34 degrees, and the air being clear and invigorating.

Five or six federal moth scouts, under Supervisor Graves, are working in and about Norwich just now, and during Saturday inspected trees on Church and School streets.

Personal taxes will be collected today at the store of Lewis B. Brand, Norwich town, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—adv.

An appeal was made Sunday from the pulpit of St. Patrick's church at the three Masses, for financial aid for Bishop Taccani, who is establishing a new mission station in Central America.

At the February meeting of the United Brotherhood Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the church, Judge Alfred Colt is to speak on Old Whaling Days in New London.

An anniversary requiem high Mass for Edward A. Pratt, sung in St. Patrick's church Saturday at 8 o'clock by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, was attended by relatives, business friends and neighbors.

A farewell reception was given by Bell Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Neis Rehak Lodge at East Hampton Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gaff, who are to leave soon for Worcester.

After the sun appeared Saturday afternoon there was a great rush of shoppers to the Norwich stores, helping compensate for the embargo placed on general business by storms and deep snow.

F. C. Ger, the piano tuner, who has been confined to his home by illness, will resume his work this week. Phone 511.—adv.

Not a vehicle in Bolton broke the record for the center all day Thursday, Miss Bertha Fitzgerald, teacher in charge of the Mountain School, waded home through snow waist high, after the session.

An office has been opened in the Capitol building, by the women's fair price committee, of which Mrs. James J. Grace is chairman and complaints and injuries are now being received there.

Malcolm Thompson has nearly finished sawing the timbers on the York lots, in North Stonington, and is soon to move his steam saw mill to the lot which he has purchased of George Brown in District No. 5.

In the account of the February meeting of the Frumhill Chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Elsie E. Bogers, general, it should have been noted that Mrs. Henry H. Pettis was elected as first alternate to the coming D. A. R. conference at Washington.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Edwin Fay has been very ill with a grip cold, but is recovering, as her many friends are glad to learn.

Light vehicle lamps at 5.42 o'clock this evening. Someone has recalled that, like the present February, February in 1889 had five Sundays.

During the cold snap a number of wells in Voluntown were frozen over, something which occurs only in the most severe winters.

The speaker at the annual Washington Birthday supper, in Bushnell chapel, is to be Rev. Dr. Clarence M. Gallup, now of Providence.

At Moosup two classes in home nursing are definitely planned, one, a woman's class, in the afternoon, and one for the girls' club in the evening.

The Otis Library reading room proved a popular place during the Sunday afternoon. Miss Virginia E. Hall was in charge. There were seventy-seven visitors.

February 8th to 14th is B. S. of A. National Anniversary week. The Boy Scouts of America, being chartered by a special act of congress on February 8, 1910.

While sand and sawdust have helped safeguard the public, the factory owners on icy walks have proved about as efficacious as anything, the past week.

At Toland, District Supt. W. H. Bath of Norwich, preached Sunday morning at the Methodist church and held the fourth quarterly conference after the service.

Following the hardest week of the winter, Sunday proved a fine day, with bright sunshine, the temperature keeping below 34 degrees, and the air being clear and invigorating.

Five or six federal moth scouts, under Supervisor Graves, are working in and about Norwich just now, and during Saturday inspected trees on Church and School streets.

Personal taxes will be collected today at the store of Lewis B. Brand, Norwich town, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—adv.

An appeal was made Sunday from the pulpit of St. Patrick's church at the three Masses, for financial aid for Bishop Taccani, who is establishing a new mission station in Central America.

At the February meeting of the United Brotherhood Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the church, Judge Alfred Colt is to speak on Old Whaling Days in New London.

An anniversary requiem high Mass for Edward A. Pratt, sung in St. Patrick's church Saturday at 8 o'clock by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, was attended by relatives, business friends and neighbors.

A farewell reception was given by Bell Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Neis Rehak Lodge at East Hampton Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gaff, who are to leave soon for Worcester.

After the sun appeared Saturday afternoon there was a great rush of shoppers to the Norwich stores, helping compensate for the embargo placed on general business by storms and deep snow.

F. C. Ger, the piano tuner, who has been confined to his home by illness, will resume his work this week. Phone 511.—adv.

Not a vehicle in Bolton broke the record for the center all day Thursday, Miss Bertha Fitzgerald, teacher in charge of the Mountain School, waded home through snow waist high, after the session.

An office has been opened in the Capitol building, by the women's fair price committee, of which Mrs. James J. Grace is chairman and complaints and injuries are now being received there.

Malcolm Thompson has nearly finished sawing the timbers on the York lots, in North Stonington, and is soon to move his steam saw mill to the lot which he has purchased of George Brown in District No. 5.

In the account of the February meeting of the Frumhill Chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Elsie E. Bogers, general, it should have been noted that Mrs. Henry H. Pettis was elected as first alternate to the coming D. A. R. conference at Washington.

Advertisement for Nickel Plating and Kindred Finishes at United Metal Mfg. Co., Inc. Thameville, Norwich, Conn. Prompt and Satisfactory Work.