What is Going On Tonight

American Benefit Society, Willimantic Lodge, No. 120, meets at 7:30 Main street.

Loyal Order of Moose meets at Moose Home on Pleasant street. Windham Encampment, No. 900, I. O. E. F., meets at 397 Main street.

School board meets in selection's office, Town building.

Proprietors of various Willimantic stores heard with interest Tuesday that in several places along Main street the long concealed tracks of the Willimantic-South Coventry line had made their appearance.

This fact interested all those who remember the subject "How can we keep the trolleys running when the snow is off the ground," which is to be discussed at the next meeting of the Willimantic Chamber of Commerce.

Residents in that section of the city who depend upon the trolley cars for getting to and from their city are anxious that service again be started on the line.

Following the summer of 1919 trolley service on the South Coventry line was cut down to a great extent and continued so until the storm of February 9 last.

Since that time nothing has been done to open the line, the trolley company giving as the reason the shortage of coal.

This shortage still exists, and will no doubt continue for some weeks. The time for the spring opening of local routes has arrived, and the question of providing transportation for those purchasers who live outside the city will soon become one of vital interest to both merchant and purchaser.

Nothing has been learned from the Shore Line Company manager as to the possibility of opening the line as far as the trolley cars are concerned. Conditions on the Willimantic-Norwich route have slightly improved during the past few days and trolleys have succeeded in getting as far north as Baltic.

Company officials stated that with good weather it might be possible to get the line opened to South Windham within a week and after that work will commence on the remainder of the line.

Willimantic has been allotted a quota of $2,000 as its share in the $10,000 drive that is soon to be made in this country by the Zionist organization of local America. This fund will be used in the restoration of Palestine, making it possible for the Jewish people to return to the land of their forefathers.

A campaign for the fund was started at this city last Sunday evening when at a meeting of the Zionist organization of Willimantic, held at the synagogue, the sum of $100 was collected.

The following honorary officers for the local campaign have been selected: Chairman, Mayor Charles A. Gentry; treasurer, W. O. Lathrop. Donations may be sent to Rabbi Max Levine, 13 Center street.

Funeral services for Thomas McCabe were held Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from his home at 522 Main street. The requiem high mass at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock was sung by Rev. John E. Clark.

Funeral services for Harry J. Lewis, John McKenna, Edward Brennan and George Ballardson. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Killourey Brothers.

Tuesday morning at 10:45 o'clock, the funeral of Thomas Devis was held from the undertaking parlors of the Killourey Brothers at 36 Union street. Services were held at 11 o'clock at St. Joseph's church. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Owing to the inability of Edwin Whitney to reach this city, the final number of the entertainment program has had to be changed. The last Open Review of Boston has been secured by the entertainment committee and with such characters as Janet Herguy, The Sunshine Girl, and Ethel Bentley, soprano. It is guaranteed that a program of the usual high type will be put on at the coming entertainment, which will be the last of the series.

A fight between a state highway foreman and a discharged employe caused considerable excitement among those persons who happened to pass by the Andover postoffice Tuesday morning. It is claimed that the fight was caused over trouble the workman had when trying to collect the money due him after working hours Monday.

Evidently the argument, taken up again Tuesday, grew too hot for words and mutual demonstrations were introduced in trying to settle the dispute. The men, both considerably battered, were finally separated.

The local Open Review of Boston was received by Miss Alice Healy of South street Tuesday morning that she had been successful in passing the state examination for registered nurses and that she would be licensed immediately.

Although the American Thread company of this city has taken great interest in the semi-pro league that was to be formed in this state, it seems that others have not. A meeting was held Monday afternoon at the hotel guards at Hartford for the purpose of forming this league and the following Massachusetts team attended the meeting, and but six from this state seemed interested. It was therefore deemed advisable to drop the project for this season, at least.

A special meeting of James J. Shea post, No. 18, was held Tuesday evening in the rooms of the Spanish War Veterans at the armory on Pleasant street. Matters of interest to the service men were discussed, among them being the bonus question, which is at present attracting the attention of congress and the nation.

At the meeting of the Willimantic welfare bureau held recently the postponed election of officers was held and resulted as follows: President, M. Eugene Smith; first vice president, Mrs. Robert H. Fenton; second vice president, Samuel Chesbro; secretary, Mrs. O. B. Clark; treasurer, Pierre J. Laramee; auditor, Fred A. Anderson and Herbert D. Pollard. The following were appointed chairman of committees with power to choose their own assistants: Executive, Andrew Roux; finance, George C. Moon; ways and means, Mrs. George P. Hinnman; decisions, Mrs. Robert H. Fenton.

The postponed meeting of the Willimantic Women's club was held at the room at 803 Main street Tuesday evening with a large number of members and guests present. Owing to the inability of George A. Parker, superintendent of parks at Hartford, to be present at the meeting, S. Wales Dixon, supervisor of recreation, gave the address his subject being Playgrounds and Parks. Mr. Dixon's address was of an interesting nature. He told of the great work done in the city of Hartford through the use of the many playgrounds and stated that the parks added greatly to the attractiveness of the city. By the use of stereoscopic slides Mr. Dixon was able to emphasize the work carried on in the city playgrounds and several of the sports enjoyed at the grounds were pictured. Other slides of parks in Hartford and these showed how much a park can add to the beauty of a city. His address was of interest to his audience and he was enthusiastically greeted the conclusion of his talk.

The next meeting of the Women's club is to be held at the room Tuesday afternoon, March 16, at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Louise A. Bever, chairman of the committee of production of the American Red Cross during the war, has been secured as the speaker and she will have for her subject "The Red Cross during the war." A brief account of the work done by the Red Cross during the war will form part of Mrs. Bever's address.

Mrs. T. C. Perrone of New York has arrived in this city, where she is to take up her work as head-trimmer at a local millinery store.

Miss Stella Bugbee spent Tuesday visiting relatives in New London. Mrs. W. H. Baskins, of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, was in town Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Frank Tufts of Main street spent Tuesday visiting relatives in New London. Elder Norton has returned to his studies at Worcester, Mass. after spending a few days at his parents'. Mrs. George Moran of Clark's Corner spent Tuesday in town.

John Murray of Putnam was a local visitor Tuesday. Rev. J. C. Baskins, spokesman on the local committee, is able to be out after having had up from injuries received in a fall a few weeks ago.

Joseph C. Perrone of Putnam was in town Tuesday on business. Mr. and Mrs. John Murray left on Tuesday for Long Island, where they expect to make their home.

Miss George Baskins has returned after a few days spent with her sister, Mrs. B. Solon, of Hartford.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

At the special town meeting held in the Conique theatre Monday evening it was voted to build a new nine-room grammar school building on the site north of the present high school building. The estimated cost of building not to exceed $125,000. Another meeting will be held within two weeks to see if the town will make an appropriation for the new building.

J. Allen Mix, 56, died at his home on Highland terrace. His health had been failing for the past five years and in recent years he was totally blind. Mr. Mix had been very active in the business and political affairs of the town. He was warden of the borough for four years. He also served on the board of selectmen and board of relief. In 1915 he represented the town in the general assembly. Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. John Hollister and Mrs. Walter Pease.

There were no trolley cars from Rockville from Saturday noon until Tuesday morning, on account of the big drifts on the interdenominational tracks. In some places the snow was 18 inches high and this had to be shoveled away before the cars could run.

Look Out for Your Health! Fight off that Cold!

Here's the Means TAKE no chances with a cold during the raw weather. Prevent colds if you can. Break up colds quickly when they do come.

Be prepared. Buy a tube of Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly. When wet or chilled use it as a preventative. Attack colds in their very beginning.

Kondon's is antiseptic and healing. It destroys germs in the nasal passages. It prevents colds. It helps break up colds.

Daily use of this fine, clean remedy is a good safeguard, and a habit of cleanliness that compares with scrubbing the teeth.

My Emergency Offer Go to your drug store and buy a tube of Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly. If it does not give you results worth several times the cost, I will gladly refund what you paid for it.

Red Cross society. The wooden blacksmith shop, for many years a landmark, at the foot of Bushy Hill, brought there in three parts over a century ago by John N. Fargo, for John Palmer, from Raymond Hill, using oxen to draw it, has been razed to the ground the past month by Calvin Edmondson of Norwich Town for Samuel Becker, the present owner. Mr. Becker has had the lumber and oil drawn to the foundation of the house, which was burned down a few years ago in the late south of the Rhode Island road. Mr. Becker is going to erect a suitable dwelling and rent it.

Frederick W. Porter of The Bazaar, Willimantic, made his first visit in a month to the Bazaar schools last Wednesday, being delayed on account of the drifted roads.

Jabez Bailey, R. F. D. carrier on Tuesday morning during the past route Saturday, neither was Julian Northrup of R. F. D. route 8, out of the Norwich Town postoffice, finding the roads so drifted that travel was impossible. Mr. Northrup got stuck in one drift so that in getting out his vehicle shafts were broken and he had to try to get back to the postoffice with the mail collected under difficulties. Like all who have of go on untraveled roads he has had a most trying time to deliver mail.

Nathan Gilman has been employing a trucking company during the past week to get out his manufactured shoddy to the freight cars in Yantic, where it has been shipped to the market destination.

S. S. Sturtevant recently received some fine healthy chickens from an Acton, Mass., chicken farm. Mr. Korkeniewicz, who has been employed at the American Express company's agency in Norwich for the past two years, has left that company and went Saturday to Hartford, where he is to be an express messenger on the New York, New Haven and Hartford system.

Frank Thompson, who has been confined to the house several weeks, is able to be out. The fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the Pinney school have been closed on account of the illness of the teacher, Miss Blanche Soule.

Mrs. George Lord was taken to the Johnson hospital Saturday suffering from a nervous breakdown following an attack of grip.

The convent meeting will be held in the chapel of the Baptist church at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Melissa Converse was called to Millbury, Mass., by the death of her daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Green, from pneumonia.

A civil service examination will be held at Stafford Springs March 27 to fill the vacancy at the local postoffice caused by the resignation of F. A. Lashbury. Applications may be procured at the postoffice.

Charles Wolf of Newark, N. J., has bought the William M. Webster place and will take possession in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. Webster have made no plans for the future. Mr. and Mrs.

BOZRAH

Mrs. John Fargo of Easton Hill, who has been spending the past six weeks with relatives in New Haven, has left there and is visiting Willimantic relatives.

Miss Yetta Botnick of Norwich spent the week end at her home here. Israel Botnick is spending some time in New York.

Samuel Becker, who has been confined to the house by illness for a few weeks, is recovering.

Morris Botwick recently purchased a fine work horse from E. R. Pierson of Norwich.

Hyman Arlevitz of Salem recently purchased the large farm known as the Markoff place from Nathan Koff and has moved there with his family. Mr. Arlevitz has a herd of 17 fine cattle and will improve his time farming.

Miss Rose Sullivan of Lebanon spent the week end at her home here. All the pupils of the Johnson school are enrolled this year in the Junior

JEWETT CITY

Mr. Phillips' book gives the following story of the Clark Saunders Burying ground: This family cemetery is situated in the southern part of Griswold, on the farm now owned by Gerry Kildie, near the road leading from the hamlet of Glasgow to Ashwillet. The farm on which it is situated was once the northern part of that great Billings tract which stretched southward from North Stonington village. Later it became the home of Captain Roger Billings, a soldier in both the Colonial and Revolutionary wars. A son and two grandsons of this

"Grippe" Leaves Kidneys Weak

The epidemic of colds and grippe that has been sweeping the country has seemingly left even a greater number of people than ever in a weakened, run-down condition. There is not a slow recovery. Much of this after weakness affects the kidneys and bladder, making it difficult for them to perform their natural functions. Sufferers have to get in and out of bed many times a night. Their backs are weak and painful, their heads ache and dizziness are common symptoms. No serious trouble may exist, but the time to check such symptoms is at once before matters grow worse. No complicated treatment may be needed if a few doses of a good kidney regulator like Solvas is taken right away. Solvas straightens out an ordinary case of weak kidneys in about twenty-four hours in many instances. It acts on the kidneys, cleanses the clogged up poisonous kidney waste from the body so that you can begin to feel better at once. It is a safe, harmless, contains no alcohol or habit forming drugs, and Lee & Osmond Co. and other leading druggists carry it. It is sold in full packages and in single doses. It is safe to give entire satisfaction.

New Ambassador To Rome

Robert Underwood Johnson, who has been selected by President Wilson as Ambassador to Rome, succeeding Thomas Nelson Page. Mr. Johnson is a New York author, and editor, and one of the founders of the League to Enforce Peace.

What is Going On Tonight

Strand Theatre. Today is the last day to take advantage of the high class show at the Strand. 'Lampin's is making a big hit with the people and there is a comedy. This is a great act and you should not miss it. Arthur Stone the blind pianist gives an exhibition of what a person that cannot see can do at the piano. This is a great act and you should not miss it. The Duro Bros are seen in an act that requires great strength and skill. Harry Cary will be seen for the last time in 'The Ropes of the Law'...

Coming to the Strand

The Strand will have the best show yet seen. Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They will feature the Black and White Revue with eight pieces of dancing, costumes, beautiful girls, some fine singing and dancing and some very clever black face comedians. This act has packed theaters wherever it played and about more than fill up the Strand. The other star acts are Nora and Sidney Kellogg in a surprise act. Come and see what the surprise is. The Strand is to keep a secret until the first performance. Allan and Purzell will also entertain you with a very clever singing and talking act of the highest class. Frank, who has starred in a great number of screen successes, will again be shown in his latest success with Ora Carow, another rising young star, who played opposite Mayra in the picture 'Ladies of the Peddler'. Lisa was taken from the Saturday Evening Post story. The Peddler. It is a pretty a plot as you have ever seen. It also has the ingredients of a great story.

Davis Theatre

Maurice Tourneur has a penchant for the sea. In 'The White Heather' and 'The Life of a Great City' he shows his unusual ability to produce thrilling scenes of the ocean in its varying moods on the screen. New he has taken one of the most beautiful of all times, Joseph Conrad's 'Victory', and used it as the basis of a motion picture that portrays in vivid detail the tale for love, adventure, and romance in the South Seas. It is a 6-part Paramount-Artcraft and will be shown at the Davis theatre today and tomorrow. Mr. Tourneur loves to deal with mankind in the rough. He has shown the production of life in the slums and low dives on the wharves of London are well known. Victory has given him the opportunity of making a picture exclusively of the sea. He has done so passionately, so that when they have and are quick with the trigger and knife. Life among the Europeans written by John Galsworthy, the South Seas reviewer, has been the basis of this story and Maurice Tourneur has entered into it with a vigor and there are the materials out of which Joseph Conrad waves his gripping stories and Maurice Tourneur has entered into it with a vigor and there are the materials out of which Joseph Conrad waves his gripping stories and Maurice Tourneur has entered into it with a vigor and there are the materials out of which Joseph Conrad waves his gripping stories.

Breed Theatre

Two star features will be shown at the Breed theatre today and Thursday. Will Rogers, former star of the Ziegfeld Follies, heads the program in 'Jubilo'. He is backed by Irving Berlin as the most humorous and "different" star that has ever graced the screen. If you have seen him in 'Almost a Husband', you have made his appearance. Whether or not you have already seen him, you will want to meet him again at the Breed theatre where his new Goldwyn photoplay 'Jubilo', from the Saturday Evening Post, is being shown. Ben Ames Williams will be shown tomorrow and Thursday. It is a bright human comedy-drama in which the smiles and the chuckles are mixed with tears as they are in real life. Will Rogers plays the part of a lovable hero who finds himself lumbered into the strange land of love and work via a big train holiday. It is a picture for the whole family. The most interesting productions the Breed has ever had the pleasure to show.

Majestic Theatre, Danielson

Suppose a beautiful and refined woman, with romance as one of the compelling motives of her life; a husband who is immersed in business, unambitious, neglectful and inclined to carelessness. Then imagine a handsome, debonaire, romantic and convincing young man who appreciates the situation and is overwhelmed by his admiration for the wife. Suppose the wife, swayed by the fine speeches and the result of odious comparisons, leaving her husband and marrying the interloper, who is at best, a trifle. Then consider her position when the second spouse proves selfish, is inclined to stray—while, meantime, the first husband reforms, becomes as neat as a pin and saves her from a disgraceful situation as the result of another woman's entrance into No. 2's affection.

What would the wife do? Go back to No. 1? To find the answer to this question, the public is referred to Cecil B. DeMille's newest special Artcraft picture, 'Don't Change Your Husband'. Leaving her husband, which will be shown at the Majestic today and Thursday.

Burnside

This is one of the best psychological photoplays which Mr. DeMille ever has produced. Although it is in no sense a sequel to Mr. DeMille's 'Old Wives For New', the two may be regarded as companion pictures and don't change Your Husband forms a sort of answer from her husband's point of view to the problem contained in 'Old Wives For New'. Gloria Swanson, Elliott Dexter, Lewis J. Coste, Theodore Roberts, James Neil, Julia Faye, Sylvia Ashton and others comprise the cast.
