Catarrh Gone

In Seven Days

Thousands have hailed Goldine No. 2 as the best catarrh remedy in the world. Persons who have suffered with this disagreeable ailment for many long years, who have tried dozens of medicines without help, have found that Goldine, the herb remedy, was the only medicine they found that could give them relief. Here is one of the thousands of cases which Goldine No. 2 has helped:

Mr. Alward Allen of 637 Second Avenue, No. Troy, N. Y., went after a bottle of Goldine No. 2 on January 24th. He didn't have much faith, but would try anything to rid himself of catarrh. Seven days later he returned to the store and said:

"I suffer with catarrh for six years and had about given up hope of getting rid of it for nothing helped me. A week ago, I got a bottle of Goldine No. 2. The first three days I took Goldine, I felt worse, but I knew that the medicine was working. Then the mucus began to leave my head in great chunks and since then I have felt fine. I sleep, eat and feel better than I have in months and I am free from catarrh than I have been in years."

"Do you suffer with catarrh? Why not follow Mr. Allen's example and get a bottle of Goldine No. 2? Don't put it off. Just think a week from today you will probably be rid of the disease, if you start treatment now. Every day you put off getting Goldine, you are putting off your relief from catarrh."

Goldine is sold in your city by G. G. Engler's Drug Store. Remember, Goldine No. 2 for catarrh.

return will make their home at No. 17 Spruce street, Norwich.

FINDS HANOVER FARMER DEAD IN HIS BED

William Henry Adams, for nearly fifty years a resident of Hanover, was found dead in bed Thursday morning at his home on the road between Versailles and Hanover. Mr. Adams had apparently been in poor health on the day previous and had done his work about the farm which he conducted alone.

His son, Frank Smith, who peddles fish through the district on Thursdays called at Mr. Adams' home early Thursday morning he received no response to his knock at the door. Thinking that Mr. Adams might be in the barn caring for the stock, Mr. Smith went to the barn but found that the stock had not been tended it morning. He then went to the house, tried the door and finding it unlocked went in. Calling several times and receiving no answer he went to Mr. Adams' bedroom and found the man lying in bed dead.

Immediately summoned Mr. Adams' brother, John, in Hanover, who called the medical examiner and the coroner. It was found that Mr. Adams had died in his sleep as a result of heart disease with which he had been suffering for some time.

Mr. Adams was born in Devonshire, England on May 4, 1846, one of seven children of William and Betsey Adams. He came to this country when a young man locating with his brother John in Hanover where he has made his home for nearly fifty years. He was the calling of a farmer all his life and at the time of his death was conducting the Allen farm. He was a member of the Hanover Congregational church and the Patrons of Husbandry.

He leaves four brothers, John of Hanover, Walter of Hartford, Joshua of California and George who is in Australia. There are several nephews and nieces.
