BLOCK ISLAND BOAT LINE GOES OUT OF BUSINESS

Block Island is again up against the old problem of providing transportation with the mainland.

The steamer Juliette is tied up at her wharf in Providence and it is announced that the line has been discontinued.

Last summer Frank H. Gethro of Dedham, Mass., the owner, died on the steamer Shoreham which he had leased for buying the Juliette.

A few weeks ago his brother, who has been managing the line, died of influenza and now the crew has been paid off by the estate and it is announced that the lease on the New Shoreham, which expires June 1, will not be renewed.

Besides serving Block Island, the line has been one of the two freight routes to Newport from Providence, and has also brought many passengers to Newport from Providence, and has also brought many passengers to Newport during the summer season.

The New Shoreham belongs to the town of New Shoreham, but under town management the boat proved a very expensive proposition, though the Gethros are said to have made quite a success.

Efforts in New York to Underseal "Milk Trust"

New York, March 22.—District Attorney Swann today conferred with officials of the Dairywomen's league regarding his plan for having the city unseal the "milk trust" by purchasing from operators a daily surplus of 2,000,000 quarts which it is alleged certain distributors have refused to buy.

Roswell D. Cooper, president of the league, declared that under such a plan league members would agree to deliver 7 1/2 cents a quart, the price obtained from distributors, if the city would assume charge of the shipments at the terminals.

Mr. Swann asserted that if the city would provide $50,000 for purchase of 10,000 quarts, the surplus might be sold at the $10 public schools in this city at 12 cents a quart.

According to Mr. Cooper, distributors own 90 per cent of the milk cans now in use.

TO RESTRAIN NEW YORK FROM ENGAGING IN BUS BUSINESS

New York, March 22.—An order for the city of New York to show cause why it should not be restrained from purchasing and operating motor buses was granted today by Supreme Court Justice Newburger upon application of Edward L. Schafer, a broker, acting in his capacity as a taxpayer.

The order also directs city officials to show cause why they should not be restrained from permitting buses to operate privately owned buses.

In his petition Schafer alleged the city was without legal authority to engage in the bus business.

FOR REUNION OF CENTRAL AMERICAN REPUBLICS

Washington, March 22.—Agitation for the reunion of the Central American republics into one nation has been revived in Guatemala, according to advisers reaching Washington today, the result being that a tense political situation has developed.

President Carrera of Guatemala has been an active opponent of the unionist idea. The report stated that the prisoners were filled with political offenders but the popular clamor continued.

Salvador and Honduras have been extending for such a union for years. Costa Rica is favorable to it, but Nicaragua is opposed to the project.

The committee recently elected to have charge and supervision of erecting the new grammar school held a meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of William R. Preble chairman, and J. H. Valentine secretary.

Architects in communication with the town board and hope to be able to let the contract for the new building within a very short time.

The six new houses recently completed by the Rhode Island company on Keele Plain will be ready to move over a year ago, will help out some in providing housing facilities for their help.

There is still a great many of them in the borough, however, as there is a great demand for many more houses than are available.

The Rhode Island company is contemplating the erection of eight more houses this spring.

The increasing production of local manufacturing industries has necessitated the employment of many additional hands and if the present building program is not given prompt and serious consideration.

Harry Mayo is arranging to move his family here from New London. They will occupy a cottage on West Main street.

The sidewalk on Main street, near the Fitzpatrick news room, which has been in poor condition since the sidewalk was laid in several months ago, has been repaired to the satisfaction of those who use the walk.

Louis Mullis of Bristol, spent Sunday with his father, John Mullis, in Stafford Springs.

Miss Mollie Kuslusky who is employed in Hartford, was in town over Sunday.

PLANS A CONTINENTAL COMMUNIST STATE

Warsaw, March 20 (By the A. P.).—An expert report submitted to the American and British representatives for Warsaw says that Nikolai Lenin, the Russian bolshevik premier, has personally assigned a task to become the head of a continental communist state, and that owing to this he is seriously endeavoring to bring order throughout Russia, establish peace with Poland and eventually create credits abroad for Russia.

(The expression "continental communist state" as used in this dispatch does not indicate clearly the extent of the state in Europe or one less in scope is meant.)

The report describes Russia as being without wheat or flax for export, saying the peasants have disposed of all the stocks they had hidden from the bolshevik. The mills are not operating and the peasants are spinning only enough for their clothing, raising just enough flax for their own use.

The report says that even if stocks for export existed shipment of them would be impossible because of the lack of rail and water transportation.

The efficiency of the canal system, which before the war was one of Russia's chief means of transportation, has so diminished that the canals now are carrying less than the railroads.

One reason why factory production in Russia is at its lowest ebb, according to the report, is because there are no shipments of cotton from Turkestan and because of the general desertion of workers from all kinds of plants, owing to the refusal of the peasant to send food to the cities.

As a consequence, the state of hunger among the people of the cities is worse than ever. The wealthy people, however, are able to buy, the report says. Mining in the south of Russia has ceased, the shafts and galleries having been neglected since the war began.

The report concludes by saying that the statements of the bolsheviks to the outside world are designed to deceive.

Comparing his own observations with the statements of the bolsheviks, the expert who compiled the report estimates that the bolshevik declarations contain 25 per cent of truth.

and it wasn't his crime

Justice sometimes goes wrong. Men are often punished for crimes they do not commit. And when we thoughtlessly take purgatives and cathartics to relieve stagnant bowels, we are committing a similar injustice.

When the system is unable to remove food waste at regular intervals, it is the food waste, and not the system, that needs correction.

Every other form of treatment either irritates or forces the system. Nujol works on the waste matter instead of on the system. By this entirely new principle Nujol will keep the poisonous waste moving out of the body.

Nujol prevents constipation by keeping the food waste soft, thus helping Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take—try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in bottles only, bearing the Nujol trade-mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger."

PREMIER OF ITALY OUTLINES POLICY OF NEW CABINET

Rome, March 22 (Havas).—Premier Nitti, outlining to the chamber of deputies today the policy of the new cabinet, declared that all the European countries were facing an extremely difficult situation and were threatened with famine unless peace should quickly be re-established.

The premier said that more than 300,000,000 workers had ceased producing the necessities of life. Russia, which should furnish raw materials, and Germany, with its great numbers of workmen, were producing hardly anything.

Europe, according to Signor Nitti, would only recover its balance by recognizing Russia and Germany, and the nations must unite in sympathy and clemency for the vanquished.

The political and economic disorder would only disappear when Europe had become imbued with the spirit of peace, the premier continued, and Italy would work to this end, feeling that the interests of Europe, threatened with ruin, should be put above hatreds and divisions.

"Before the league of nations, in which we believe and which we want, there is a society of European peoples, which by its own efforts must better the condition of humanity life," Premier Nitti said.

The senate yesterday confirmed the nomination of Charles E. Crane of Chicago to be minister to China, and William H. Joyce of Berkeley, Cal., to be a member of the farm loan board.

DAVIS THEATRE TODAY

Major Robert Warwick today fought bravely against the Huns during the war, succumbs quite easily to woman's wiles in his new picture, The Tree of Knowledge, which opened at the Davis theatre today.

The soldier-star has the role of a young Englishman, studying for the ministry, who falls under the influence of a female adventuress. After she has deserted him for another, he becomes manager of his best friend's estate. Later the friend returns from abroad with the woman as his wife.

Some highly dramatic situations follow, but the picture is finally followed, and the hero wins his happiness with a girl of quite a different stripe.

A beautiful prologue, supposedly laid in the Garden of Eden, precedes the main action and supplies the motive of the story. It is quite effective.

Wanda Hawley, Tom Forman, Kathryn Williams, and Irving Cummings are included in the cast supporting Mr. Warwick. The work of Miss Williams as "the woman" is especially meritorious.

The second big attraction is Charlotte Walker in Eve in Exile, the most exploited photoplay founded on Cosmo Titonoff's sensational play and novel.

Thrills, laughs, heart-throbs and breath-catches tread upon one another's heels. Not alone does the story hold the interest throughout, but the setting and photography in themselves make the play well worth seeing.

When coming away from Eve in Exile, more than one spectator will feel he has had something like a vacation on the seashore or in the piney woods.

Footlight Maids, a two-part Sunshine comedy completes the show.

What for the big spring opening on April 5th, vaudeville, augmented by orchestra, and the best feature pictures on the market.

ARRANGING FOR RECOUNT IN MICH. SENATORIAL CONTEST

Washington, March 22.—Plans for counting the ballots in the Michigan senatorial contest will be discussed tomorrow by the senate elections subcommittee, of which Senator Warren, republican, is chairman.

Attorneys representing Senator Newberry and Henry Ford, the contesting candidate, will attend the meeting.

Alfred Lacking, attorney for Mr. Ford, has written Chairman Williamson of the elections committee urging that "the full and complete investigation ordered by the senate resolution should proceed without further delay."

The letter was dated March 15, which was before Senator Newberry was found guilty of conspiracy to violate the election laws.

TO PROBE DEPORTATION OF UNDESIRABLE ALIENS

Washington, March 22.—Investigation of the labor department's activities in carrying out deportation of undesirable aliens was proposed by a resolution introduced today by Senator King, democrat, Utah. It asserted that reports were current that the department was not proceeding with proper dispatch in the execution of deportation warrants.
