THIS SALE OF STAR VALUES AT DANIELSON'S LIVE STORE. The Keystone Store, Danielson Trust Co. Building

DANIELSON (Continued from Page Six) state itself in a civil suit is open to serious question. Attorney E. L. Darbie was counsel for Mr. Hopkins in the action, which came into the superior court through the filing of a plea in abatement. Following a conference of the warden, members of the court of burgesses, selectmen of the town of Killingly and representatives of the Brooklyn Fire district, it was announced on Wednesday morning that the conference had decided to name Warden Damase Boullas to take up with the borough counsel the matter of bringing before the Public Utilities commission the subject of the proposed increase in water rates by the Crystal Water company. Warden Boullas and all but one member of the court of burgesses, Selectmen John A. Gilbert and James Bacon, representing the town of Killingly, and E. C. Babson, DeForest Wells and Arnold Wild representing the Brooklyn Fire district, attended the meeting. The proposition to be undertaken was discussed from various angles. The representatives of the different governments were agreed in a general way on the procedure and unanimous in their stand that the increase of water rates should be sharply contested. C Company's team finished third on Tuesday evening in the three-team rifle match shot in the state armory at New London. Mystic's company won the match with a score of 373, Norwich was second with 371, while Danielson's score was 368. Captain A. P. Woodward, inspector of small arms in the Third Regiment, State Guard, went down with the Danielson team an acted as range officer. The match was unofficially observed by Colonel Kirkland. Danielson's team was made up of Burton, Earl, Hale, Wood, Withey, Gilbert, Laflamme, Mathieu, Burns and Stinson. Captain F. O. Armington of G Company went down in charge of the local team. Refreshments were served the local team at the New London armory before and after the match, which showed how closely the three teams even up on a night's work at an indoor range.

WESTMINSTER Sunday morning the pastor announced as his text Genesis 3: 22 and 24, first clause of each—"Enoch walked with God" several hundred years on this earth; it is possible for each of us to walk with God in daily life. Cultivate living as in the visible presence of God. One of the oldest members of Westminster church, Mrs. Albert Safford, died March 24th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marshall Frink, who helped her sister, Miss Della Safford, in tenderly caring for their mother during her long illness. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the home. Mrs. Safford was born in Westminster and always retained a keen interest in the place, its people and her church. Westminster mourns her loss. Clarence Smith, who has been ill at his home, Brookside farm, continues to gain and sat up for a little while Sunday. All the teachers of the town, with a single exception, attended the teachers' meeting at the Green with Supervisor Greer March 26th. Easter vacation began in the schools Friday, March 26, extending to Monday, April 5. Two schools are in session this week, making up time lost on account of the illness of their teachers during the recent epidemic. Raymond school, Miss Emma Holmes teacher, and Gayhead school, Miss Esther Kimball teacher. Honey Rosenzweig has gone to New York to take the position on a harbor boat which has been held by Allen Moody, who is expected home next week. Edith Olsen is making a good recovery from influenza. Her sister, Miss Signe Olsen, of Norwich, spent Sunday in her home here. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Bengtson were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Olson, parents of Mrs. Bengtson, Sunday last. Mrs. Jessie A. Meade of Sunnymede farm is going to New York to spend Easter with her sisters and to visit other friends. Easter will be observed at Westminster by a short program given by the church school at 9:45 a. m. There will be Bible and chart work, prayer and music several recitations, an presentation of cash prizes to the three having the best record of attendance during the year. The usual Easter offering will be taken and a surprise for the children conclude the exercises. The morning worship will follow at 11 and include the reception of new members and the observance of the sacrament of the Lord's supper. The church will be decorated for both services and donations of flowers and plants have been solicited. A public Good Friday service will be held at the parsonage Friday morning at 10:30, as for several years. The service will be short. Last week Mrs. T. Edward Davies received word of the death of Miss Mary McGarry of Hartford, founder of the Charter Oak private hospital. Miss McGarry had been ill for five weeks with that rare and little understood disease—sleeping sickness. Benjamin Davies has sold his sheep, H. A. Rix being the purchaser. The Wednesday evening prayer service in the homes, April 7, will have the topic The Living Christ. Scripture, Matt. 23: 1-15. Miss Elizabeth Sterling of Windsor Locks is spending the vacation with friends in Old Hamburg. Dr. and Mrs. Morrill of New Jersey were Hill Hill visitors Sunday. Mrs. Mary Hill went to Woodbury, N. J., the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harding of New Britain spent Sunday on Hill Hill at Ashlawn farm. Mr. and Mrs. Harris Wood and children of Springfield, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Wood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Reynolds. The schools of the town closed last week Friday with an entertainment at the public hall consisting of recitations, singing and a spelling match. Miss Rachel Tiffany, who is attending Connecticut college, is spending the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tiffany. Mrs. Tessie Harding, who is teaching in Glastonbury, is spending the Easter recess at her home in Sterling City. The Connecticut river is open from Saybrook to Hartford. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hurd of New London were calling on local relatives Sunday. Bristol—Judge James L. WESTERLY There is much interest in Westerly as to the official census return of the population of the town. The state census taken five years ago gave the town a population of 13,500, and there is a general belief that the 15,000 mark will be reached. If not there will be disappointment, as in the past five years several prosperous industries had located here. It is not believed that the people who came with these industries are outnumbered by those who secured employment elsewhere. Representative Samuel H. Davis, of Westerly, was in the city Tuesday in the house, Tuesday, and both were referred to the finance committee. One provides for an appropriation of $6,000 in recognition of patriotic services of non-resident Rhode Island soldiers who served in the world war, to be paid in the form of a bonus of $100 each of these men. The passage of the resolution would mean, for instance, that all members of the Fifth Company, Westerly, Rhode Island National Guard, would be placed on the same bonus basis. They have been members of the membership of this company when mustered into the federal service were residents of Pawcatuck. Some had no military standing in Connecticut. Some of those men had been in the Rhode Island military service for years before as well as during the war. Under the state bonus law they are entitled to funds as they are not residents of Rhode Island. The other resolution would appropriate $30,000 for women's bonuses of $100 each, as under the present law only soldiers, sailors and nurses are recognized. The searching squad, seeking merchandise stolen from freight cars at Bradford and Westerly, is finding goods outside of the cars in the houses searched under the warrant. Goods have been found in dwellings and in the woods, and the latest find was in a barn in Central park, owned by Luigi Marchese. Sunday Luigi was at work cleaning up the barn and there was nothing therein that did not belong to him. He visited the barn again Tuesday night and found a three-bushel bag filled with merchandise in the center of the cement floor. He notified the police and the big bag was taken to the police station, where it was ascertained that the contents were parts of the shipments missed from the cars. The bag contained army cloth, suitings, dress goods and men's and boys' clothing, identical with other goods that have been recovered and identified as stolen property. While a large quantity of the stolen merchandise has been recovered fully as much more is yet to be located. Representative John Ferguson, Jr., of Westerly, has presented an act amending Chapter 363, general laws, in relation to salaries. This section is to save the way for proposed increases in salaries of judges, clerks and clerks of courts, principally, and with special reference to these officials of Washington county. Referred to finance committee. Senator P. H. submitted a resolution, which was referred to the militia committee, providing for the use of the state armory at Westerly by Rhode Island ones, of Westerly fire department. Salvatore Paladino, the eighth Westerly man to be held in connection with robbery from freight cars, pleaded not guilty before United States Commissioner Mattheson, in Providence, Tuesday afternoon. He was ordered a preliminary hearing and was held in bail of $5,000 for the action of the grand jury. The latest real estate transfers recorded in the office of Town Clerk Whipple are: Gertrude S. Fowler to A. Sullivan, lot at Pleasant View; Joseph Recchia, et ux, to Natalie Cornelli, et ux, house and lot in Granite street; Mary S. Damare to Ada E. Sherman, house and lot on State road; Woodman and Sons company to George B. Langworthy, two tracts at Watch Hill; Salvatore Albamonte to Frank Vitello, et ux, two lots in Central Park; Francis G. Hawley to Westerly Industrial and Improvement company, land in Pleasant street; Demenico Brogno, et ux, to Vincenzo Turo, et ux, house and lot in Dayton street. The same period there were recorded five mortgages aggregating $13,500, with only one loan of $100 from a bank, four releases of mortgages, one lease and one attachment. Senator Maurice A. Flynn, of Westerly, presented an act increasing the appropriation for the janitor of the Westerly court house from $250 to $450 a year. Referred to finance committee. The present janitor of the court house is also janitor of the rest of the building, the town hall, and receives from the town the same amount paid a policeman, plus $2 for opening the town hall in the evening. The present janitor, with the proposed increase, would receive about $1500 a year, or only $5 a day for each working day. None too much for the service rendered. William A. Countryman, of Hartford, clerk of the Connecticut house of representatives, who is in charge of taking the census of manufacturers in Connecticut and Rhode Island, has appointed George Ambrose Donnelly of Apogony, state road, Newport, census agents. Mr. Donnelly will enumerate all manufacturing and textile plants in Westerly and the rest of Washington county, also in Kent county. Mr. Short will do duty in Newport county. Thomas Hope of Potter Hill has been appointed director for Washington county, in the financial campaign of the fifth anniversary of their marriage, to raise $238,717.77 from April 25 to May 2. The Rhode Island quota, irrespective of sums to be obtained by the various denominations, is $418,000. A county conference will be held in Westerly April 15. Local Laocenes. Miss Ellen F. Pendleton, after spending a few days at the home of her brother, James M. Pendleton, returned Wednesday to her duties as president of Wellesley college. Miss Elizabeth M. Needham was given a shower Tuesday night at the home of Miss Margaret Gomena in Tower street in anticipation of her marriage with Orrin Spencer of Stonington. The religious caucus in Westerly will begin April 14. Gilbert McClurg will read a paper at the meeting of the Green Ward Chapter, D. R. this (Thursday) afternoon. Subject: Battle Hymn of the Ward Family of Rhode Island to the Battle Hymn of the Republic. Miss Barbara Marr of Newport is visiting her sister, Mrs. Adam Archie in Beech street. Miss Marr is state critic teacher. Mrs. Elizabeth Ross Spicer, 85, widow of J. Dennison Spicer, for many years a resident of Westerly, died Tuesday at her home in Plainfield, N. J. She is survived by a son, Arthur J. Spicer and a daughter, Mrs. Irving Huntington, both of Plainfield. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bedford, former residents of Westerly, observed the fifth anniversary of their marriage, Sunday, at their home in Lawrence, Mass. They were married in Westerly by Rev. J. P. Hubbard, rec-

SPRING HILL Services were held at the Baptist church Sunday after several weeks' vacation on account of the snow and severe winter weather. The Ladies' Aid society served a baked bean supper to about 40 at the church last Wednesday evening. A social hour followed. H. C. Hawkins is making repairs at the parsonage. Frost coming out of the ground has made travel on roads leading off from the main road almost impossible. W. W. Storrs' meat wagon got stuck last Saturday on the West road and he was obliged to get help. There are some bad breaks in the state road in Willimantic for treatment. Mrs. Edward Sawin is visiting in Philadelphia. Mrs. E. F. Storrs and Mary Storrs are in Salem, Mass., for a visit. R. R. Knapp and family of Bridgeport have been at Judge L. J. Storrs' for a short visit. The deep snow and crust made it impossible to cut and haul the usual amount of firewood, and that necessity brings almost any price.

EAST KILLINGLY Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peake of Providence were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Soule. Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Moran have purchased what is known as the Pettigill farm. Frank Harrington and family are to move to the Columbus house. Miss Etta Aldrich is ill. Mrs. Ethelyn Gove is to move to Edgar Miller's cottage on the pike. Davis Theatre Here in a dramatic production that is manifestly even better suited to the screen than it is to the stage it requires an expansiveness that the cramped quarters of the largest stage will not admit. Quite probably the screen version of "Everywoman" has realized more perfectly the author's conception of his story than have all the productions of the play since its famous premier in New York in 1911. The title role is portrayed in masterly style by beautiful Violet Hening, the young actress who made such favorable impressions in "Three Faces East" and "Under the Cross." Miss Hening lends the dignity and univers-

EVERY WOMAN A PARAMOUNT-ARTCRAFT PICTURE. Davis Theatre Today, Friday and Saturday. ally to her interpretation of Everywoman that the allegorical character of the story demands. The remainder of the cast is far above the usual in merit, including as it does such names as Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Monte Blue, Charles Ogil, Raymond Hatton, Bebe Daniels and Tully Marshall. Mr. Roberts as Wealth, Miss Hawley as Beauty, and Mr. Blue as Love, are perhaps the high spots in an interpretation that is uniformly excellent. Scenes of lavish splendor form the setting for the story. The revels in the magnificent palace of Wealth, where scores of beautiful women disappear at a monster banquet board, one part of which encircles a swimming pool and the other a dance hall, and the episodes in the great gaming hall are among the most elaborate ever screened. The bazaar at the opening of the story is virtually a great fashion show. Women arrayed like birds move through the picture like extraordinarily elegant mannequins. The latest creations of the modistes. A shows daily at 2:15, 6:45 and 8:45. An advance program. Watch for the big vaudeville bill next week.

Strand The Strand will feature Awanna and girls Thursday, Friday and Saturday. There are girls with pretty costumes in a dancing revue. All special scenery is to be used. Wilkolia and Kahala will be seen in something unusual in the line of entertainment in the great gaming hall are among the most elaborate ever screened. Breed Theatre One of the best features included in the Breed Theatre program for some time is the William Fox photoplay "Tin Pan Alley," which ends its run here tonight. The picture has proved as interesting as the story on which it is founded, a story written by William O. Lengel and embodying the theme of home and love, with scenes set partly in the famous "tin pan alley" of New York, centers of the famous publishing houses where aspiring song writers drummed out the songs they hoped would make them famous. Gladys Leslie will also be seen in "The Midnight Bride," a modern dramatic story and Frixma, the picture beautiful will complete the bill for today.

CHESTERFIELD John Kaplan made a business trip to New York Friday. Mrs. William Howard of Lake Konomoc was a recent caller on Mrs. C. J. Tinker. Donald Fraser and Walter De Wolfe of Fairy Lake farm were recent callers in New London. Mrs. Robert George and Ruth Morgan were callers on Mrs. James Miller of New London the first of the week. The fifth anniversary of their marriage was celebrated by Mrs. George and Mrs. Robert George and Mrs. Albert Walden are ill with measles.
