Simple Home Treatment to Remove Hairy Growths

(Beauty Culture) Two or three minutes use of a delicate paste will banish every bit of hair from your face, neck or arms. This paste is made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. After the paste is removed, the skin should be washed to free it from the remaining delatone and it will be clear and spotless. You will not be disappointed with this treatment if you are sure to obtain real delatone from your druggist.

"RESULTS MORE THAN CLAIMED"

So testifies Mr. J. F. ARENDT, Box 44, Romig, Texas

PE-RU-NA THE REMEDY FOR EVERYDAY ILLS

"I have used Pe-ru-na for years in cases of colds and catarrh. The results have been good, in fact, more than you claimed. Have also taken Lacupia and can easily say it is one of the best blood purifiers I have ever used."

Mr. J. F. Arendt

For Catarrh and Catarrhal Conditions

The evidence of one man like Mr. Arendt is more convincing proof to you of the merits of Pe-ru-na than any written words of ours. For fifty years Pe-ru-na has been the standard of the American family for diseases due to catarrhal inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the organs of the body. Thousands like Mr. Arendt, have proved the effectiveness of Pe-ru-na for coughs, colds, nasal catarrh, stomach, bowel and liver disorders or any disease characterized by a catarrhal condition. If your suffering is the result of a catarrhal disorder try Pe-ru-na. It is a true, tried medicine.

Sold Everywhere Tablets or Liquid Ninety-seven per cent. of the people have catarrh in some form.

implicated, according to Warden Charles S. Linscott. The plans for the escape were discovered by Deputy Warden Frank Crosby, two months ago. The prisoners had some assurance that an eight-wheeler automobile, owned by a man whose relatives visit the prisoners every week, could be used by the prisoners in the escape. Trent was implicated in a plot to escape a year ago this month. A visitor threw a bundle of 12 hack saws over the top of a grating and they were taken away from Trent after he had been charged inside the prison. James McLoughlin, the visitor, got a year in jail for his part in the scheme. Trent last year finished a 16-year sentence for robbery and began serving a life sentence for the murder of William E. Meagher, a Pawtucket storekeeper, imposed on Oct. 25, 1919. His arrest followed a series of terrifying crimes.

Mello was sentenced on Nov. 10, 1919, to the life term for his arrest occurring at Kingston, where three men were slain and robbed in a railroad shanty. Smith was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment on April 12, 1918. DeMarquette was sentenced to five years for burglary on March 28, 1919.

Corp. W. Russell Dower of Westerly, a veteran of the St. Mihiel and Argonne forest battles, after coping with his right arm, was elected paymaster of the Soldiers' bonus board. Mr. Dower was one of the seven candidates seeking the appointment. He will commence his duties soon, getting familiar with the law at the work which he performs when payments begin on May 1.

A gang of the strikers, forty or more, made a demonstration before the men in the employ of a New London contractor, threatening to burn the mill plant, and threatened to do bodily harm unless the men quit work. Special Officer Burke menaced the strikers, advising them not to resort to violence as it might injure their cause.

Other bodies of strikers went down Pleasant View road and tried to induce employees of the Newell company, of Uxbridge, Mass., to stop work on the highway and join their ranks. This the laborers from Massachusetts declined to do, as they were satisfied with their pay and were under agreement to continue work under the firm's contract with the town of Westerly. It is said these men were warned by the strikers that if they were on the job, Thursday morning, there would be something doing.

At the present time out-of-town contractors, five of them, have contracts for work in Westerly, begun before the local laborers went on strike, and upon which no local men had been employed, but jobs were open to them if they desired to work. Some of those contractors are hampered by the strike as they expected to secure a force of laborers here, but in no instance have men been brought here to take the places of the strikers.

Contractors have applied to the town council for police protection. By their workmen from outside intimidation. The police committee held a session following which Police Chief Brown was instructed to prepare for any emergency. Chief Brown does not anticipate any trouble. He declares that the main body of the strikers is disposed to reason with the town, but the situation and satisfied no good would come to the effort to secure more pay by resorting to methods unlawful.

The strike, if not speedily settled, is liable to interfere with the progress of sewer construction, the building of new roads, the widening of Pleasant View, the rebuilding of the Shore road, the Lorraine mill extension, the new silk mill, the work on the public highways, the sewer and water departments, and the general building throughout the town. The employers have offered a compromise, which has been rejected by the laborers who want 75 cents an hour for an eight hour day, with increase for overtime, and several conditions that are not approved by the employers. The laborers have been on strike a week, and thus far there has been no actual violence on the part of the strikers. Narragansett Commandery of Westerly, and twenty-five other commanderies of Knight Templars, have accepted the invitation to participate in the field day of the grand commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island to be held in Providence, May 27 and 28.

Mrs. Jerome Pitts, corresponding secretary of the Rhode Island Equal Suffrage League, has been selected Rhode Island representative in the Flying Squadron that is to tour Connecticut, urging a special session of the legislature for ratification of the federal amendment.

The petition for divorce of Marion L. House from Dr. Herbert E. House was granted in the superior court at Kingston by Judge George T. Brown. William L. Bent was granted a divorce from Belle Bronson Bent in grand division court for five years. May Collins Thomas from Charles B. Thomas, neglect to provide and custody of two children, was granted in superior court. Mabel P. Gorton against John R. Gorton was withdrawn. Frank Pierce was granted final decree of divorce on ground of living apart ten years. Final decree was entered in the case of Emma Curtis against Lincoln Curtis. The case of Ovidon Holland, Jr. against Catherine Holland and cross petition of Catherine Holland against Ovidon Holland, Jr. were heard. Both petitions were refused.

A resolution was passed in the house Wednesday, commencing the action to pay Sheriff John R. Wilcox, the fee he is to receive for his services for Washington county. One more day of work will complete the spur track to the new silk mill.

Miss Agnes Bradley is substituting for Miss Marie Zangrandi at the Westerly library.

Even men who are regularly employed in town, in the winter, regardless of weather conditions, have joined the strikers, but they say they really did not want to strike.

The town meeting for Washington county convened in Westerly Friday.

Attorney James A. Shields, 39, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon at his home in Providence. He was past grand monarch of the Mystic Nobles of Grenada, past grand knight of Cranston council, Knights of Columbus and director of the department of the Order of Owls in New England, was a member of Providence Lodge of Elks, the Modern Woodmen of America, and a trustee of St. Matthew's church, Auburn. WESTMINSTER

The Canterbury W. C. T. U. Buell union, met Wednesday, April 14, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of its secretary, Mrs. Martin Bushnell, at Canterbury Plains.

19 being present. Mrs. Ray Biven, vice president-at-large, occupied the chair of president, Mrs. Columbus Smith, removed by death, since the last meeting.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted. Special note was made of the fact that every union has paid its full amount of $85 levied on it as the union's share toward the $100,000-dollar drive of the national W. C. T. U. for work in this and foreign countries.

Eighty-five dollars paid by the members of this small union shows that it is truly alive and active in keeping on doing things worth while. A new department of work has been established lately, that of Americanization. Mrs. L. K. Sibley, editor of the Connecticut state paper, the White Ribbon Banner, is superintendent for Windham county, with headquarters at her home in Scotland. To fill vacancies left by Mrs. Sibley's death, Miss Nellie Corey was elected superintendent of literature and scientific temperance instruction and Mrs. T. Edward Davies prose superintendent. Resolutions were unanimously adopted expressing sorrow for the death of Mrs. Smith and appreciation of her work for the union.

After adopting the resolutions the union discussed the coming free-will offering meeting, May 23, at 7 p. m. in the M. P. church. Rev. Mr. Humphrey of Canterbury Green to be the chief speaker. Mr. Humphrey then gave a short, helpful talk the offering amounting to $146 was taken and the meeting closed with the W. C. T. U. benediction. It had been a good service, permeated by the thought of the ladies present.

The Ladies' Aid society met Tuesday afternoon. The society has a number of orders for work ahead.
