

The Aftermath of Flu

This is No. 1 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

Your doctor will impress upon you that following recovery from the active stage of influenza, there often remains an inflamed, congested condition of the air passages—throat, larynx, bronchial tubes and lungs. Frequently the cough hangs on—soreness of the chest persists—you take cold easily and there may be obstinate catarrh. This condition is slow to clear up and if neglected may favor the development of pneumonia, or later on, serious disease of the lungs.

Such cases should continue under the care of their physician—should exercise moderately in the open air—eat plenty of wholesome food—avoid overwork and sudden chills.

Nightly applications of Vick's Vapo-Rub may help nature to complete the process of repair. Because Vick's acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vick's are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to the Vick Chemical Company, 231 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

WESTERLY

When the bell on the old town hall building was striking ten Wednesday morning a fire alarm was sent in from Box 57 at High and Canal streets. The bell on the fire house and the town hall bell are so near the same tone that the result was a confusion of the alarm. The fire apparatus, however, were driven in quick time to Railroad avenue, where the frame building utilized by Duce Flint as an automobile repair shop was a mass of flame and the whole section suffused by dense smoke from the fast burning building.

In short order the firemen had four lines of hose battling the blaze. The large wooden building not ten feet from the burning structure, was almost at the end and on the verge of bursting into flame. The lower part of this building is occupied by the Picard Automobile company and the upper floor is the tenement of Walter Dove. The firemen made an excellent stop in saving this building, the only damage being the scorching of the end of the structure nearest the fire, and the burning through the corner of one of Mr. Dove's rooms. The damage by fire is slight to this building and water-damage is Mr. Dove's only loss.

The Flint repair shop building is a total loss. It is owned by Mrs. Albert L. Chester, and is insured. There were seven cars in the shop when the fire started. Four of these were taken out to safety, while a truck belonging to Flint, and ready for delivery, and the automobile owned by Crist Ferraro, jitneyman, were completely destroyed. Both cars were insured. The Ferraro car was rolled into the canal about 20 minutes before the fire. The origin of the blaze is not known positively, but in the opinion of one of the employees, was caused by a customer dropping a match on the floor after lighting a cigar. The fire started on the floor and rolled rapidly enveloping whatever it came in contact with as it swept towards the rear of the building. The total loss is estimated at $3500.

The efficient work of the firemen deserved all the praise bestowed by the large crowd assembled. Chief Egger was on hand early and after directing the work on the burning building until the fire was well under control, he mounted a ladder placed against the Pickard building and, axe in hand, made an investigation. He cut into the corner of the building, just below the eaves, where smoke was issuing, and discovered a fire brisley burning and about to break through. He called for a fire extinguisher and, aided by John Reardon, soon smothered that threatening blaze. Then all danger was over and the firemen were ordered to "pick-up" just one hour after the fire alarm was rung in.

Narragansett Council, Knights of Columbus, the pioneer of the organization in Rhode Island, was fully represented, at the annual state convention held in Providence. In the distribution of honors, John F. Purtil, of Westerly, was elected an alternate to the session of the supreme council in New York in August. William J. Morton Ferrier has brought suit against the Arnold Realty company and the Mohican company, of Pawtucket, to recover $7,000 as commission which he alleges is due him. Mr. Ferrier claims he was asked by the Mohican company to secure for the company a place suitable for a grocery store in Pawtucket, and that he enabled the company to open negotiations with the Arnold Realty company with the result that the latter leased a store to the Mohican company for twenty years, for $100,000.

"Here is another letter that makes me happy," says Peterson of Buffalo. "One that I would rather have than a thousand dollars. 'Money isn't everything' in this world. There are a big hearted, rich man who would give all he has on earth to be able to produce a remedy with which I could heal my mother as Peterson's Ointment, to sell at all druggists' for 35 cents a large box. Just nine dollars' worth of the same I am cured. The ulcer was 9 inches by 4 1/2 inches. It is all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again."

"I was an untold sufferer from an old running sore and ulcers. I had tried most everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and the first box took away the pain that had not left me before in years, and after using just nine dollars' worth of the same I am cured. The ulcer was 9 inches by 4 1/2 inches. It is all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again. You may use this to recommend your ointment if you wish. I can say enough to praise it. Yours truly, Mrs. Albert Southcott, Medina, N. Y. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y."
