BASS-CLEF CONCERT SCORES SUCCESS

With a well balanced programme that was admirably rendered throughout the Bass-Clef scored a pronounced success Friday evening at Slater hall in the second concert of its tenth anniversary season under Charles D. Geer, musical director of the club.

The club was assisted by Allen McQuah, the noted tenor, and by the Norwich String Quartette, whose members are Miss Isabel, Miss Ella, Miss Elizabeth Lane, Frederick W. Lester and Charles D. Gallup. The large audience gave insistent calls for encores to the club, Mr. McQuah and the quartette generously responded.

The following was the programme given:

Sword of Ferrara. Bullard

Where'er You Walk. Handel

Lying in Wait. Campbell

Twilight. Rachmaninoff

Ho, Ho, Jenkin. Allen McQuah

The Whale. Sullivan

Bon Jour, Ma Belle. Jacobson

Quartet in F Major, Opus 38. Dvorak

Allegro ma non troppo. Lento

Vivace ma non troppo.

The Bird String Quartette.

Macusha. Macmurrough

In Dublin's Fair City. Crist

A Bag of Whistles. Haynes

The Old Phil. Allen McQuah

My Ain Folk. Lemon

Mary. Richardson

Annie Laurie. Bullard

Hymn to the Madonna. Krenmer

Mr. McQuah, the Quartette and the Club.

The work of the club sustained the high standard in ensemble singing that has been maintained since its organization and it was called back for an encore of the final number of the first group of songs.

After his thoroughly artistic rendering of the Dvorak number, the string quartette was insistent on being returned two or three times to bow its acknowledgments and when this would not satisfy the audience responding with a beautiful rendering of Solitude on the Mountain (Ole Bull).

The club was warm favor with its audience from his first appearance, singing with fine expression and perfect enunciation, and showing remarkable skill in the use of light voice on his high notes which were drawn out to the merest thread with singular sweetness and smoothness. For an encore after his first group of songs he gave the little Boy Blue (Lusk), and when he was encored after the group of Irish songs he responded with another Irish selection, Molly Brannigan (Villiers Stansford). The audience was reluctant to let him go without another encore, but Mr. McQuah has merely bowed and smiled his appreciation and indicated with an expressive wave of the hand that there were other yet to appear on the programme of the evening. Then he walked over and shook hands with Frederick W. Lester, whose accompaniments for his songs had contributed so greatly to the work of the singer.

The following are the active members of the Bass-Clef:

First Tenors—Frank G. Aubrey, George A. Clune, Lyle H. Fillmore, G. C. Hall, Charles H. Lamb, Charles W. Parsons.

Second Tenors—William A. Buckingham, Oscar W. Carpenter, Lucius P. Danahy, Fredrick P. Manning, Leonard C. Prentice.

First Basses—Leroy Fielding, Charles D. Geer, Robert C. Johnson, Archibald Mitchell, 4th, James J. Moore, William H. Ruak.

Second Basses—William A. Andrews, Horace C. Bragg, Charles C. Gilchrist, Alvin Hill, George D. Hollingsworth, Chester L. Hussey, William A. Lund, John E. Vaughn.

Accompaniments for the club were by Miss Annie L. Taft and were played with artistic insight and sympathy.

POLICE ARREST BOYS AND RECOVER STOLEN GOODS

Four boys about 14 years old, living in the Thames street neighborhood, were arrested last night on the charge of thefts from several stores in the past two months. A miscellaneous collection of articles was recovered from places where the boys told the police to look for it.

Those arrested were George Romefski of North Thames street, Benjie Wineski, Samuel Ezenaki and Gemio Passani.

The articles recovered, which the boys say they got from Preston Bros' store, the Eaton Class Co. J. C. Macpherson, the Brackton shoe store and Sterilise's clothing store, include one dozen penknives, three watches, three baseballs, fish lines, two wrenches, five flashlights, fish pole, reel, net, hatchet and two pairs sneakers.

The trail of the pilfering was opened up early in the evening when Officer Ralph Divozo saw George Romefski on Central wharf showing a bright new knife to another boy. George's answers to questions about the knife led the officer to bring him to police headquarters, where after long questioning by Capt. D. J. Twomey the boy a length admitted the knife was one taken from the show case at Preston Bros'.

The whole story then followed and the four boys were brought in by Sergt. A. C. Matthews and Officer Divozo and the loot was located.

The boys are to be presented in hte police court this morning.
