DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON PUTNAM

Former Postmaster George Milton Pilling died at 2 o'clock Monday morning at the Backus hospital in Norwich. During the past week Mr. Pilling became ill and Friday evening, his condition having become so grave as to indicate the need of an immediate surgical operation, he was taken to the Norwich hospital, where the operation was at once performed. Mr. Pilling did not rally well and his condition indicated during Saturday and Sunday there was but slight chance of his recovery.

Cinot Man Says:—Vice President Marshall Told J. B. Morrow How a Small Bottle of Medicine Cured An Interesting Statement From Vice President Marshall As to His Restoration to Health After He Had Tried Many Ways and Many Things.

In conversation with the CINOT expert, he remarked: "I was quite interested in a statement I had written by James B. Morrow in the Boston Sunday Globe of Feb. 1st, in which the following paragraph drew my attention: 'Physically, they seem to be a pair of better. Until 1898, however, with malaria, dysentery and cholera, a doctor Marshall of Columbia City had me up and down experiences—on his feet one week and on his back the next. For 15 years straight through, his weight was about 101 pounds—a few ounces over, or a few less.'

Mr. Pilling was born June 4, 1854, at Cumberland, R. I., a son of Reuben and Ann (Worthington) Pilling. He came to Danielson with his parents when he was ten years of age and had since made his home here.

For a long term of years Mr. Pilling was engaged as a master painter, retiring from this business upon his appointment by President Wilson to be postmaster at Danielson.

There is special interest in this time in the welfare of Mr. Pilling and Mrs. John Howland, formerly of Danielson, now missionaries in Mexico, and well known throughout eastern Connecticut.

Very likely you have read of the new revolution in Mexico and were not surprised to have an interruption in the mail service.

ARCHITECT'S ADMINISTRATOR SUE TO COLLECT $2,500 DAMAGES Edward M. Sweeney of New London, administrator of the estate of his brother, the late James Sweeney, a New London architect, has brought suit in the superior court for $2,500 damages against Frederick H. Gavitt of New London on a claim that Gavitt has not paid a bill for the services of the architect.

There was a clause in the agreement that if Mr. Gavitt decided to postpone operations on the building for a period longer than three months, the whole should be paid without delay. The defendant, who wholly failed to have the work done at the Hotel Royal and has not paid the bill of the architect.

Professor Binder, of New York University, estimates that the United States has resources sufficient to provide for $250,000,000 inhabitants.

Danielson's committee, in carrying out its program of having teams go about the borough and collect such rubbish or discarded material as property owners or tenants wish to be rid of, had its service organized Monday afternoon and collections of waste matter were being made.

Another opportunity is offered to the public to avail itself of this free removal service. All that is required is that the material to be taken away be up in boxes, barrels or some other container and left out at the edge of the sidewalk, where the teams will readily see it when they can handle it without waste of time.

get up at 2:30 a. m. as must be done if cows are to be milked and the shipment made ready for delivery to a train that is now leaving Hartford, where they have daylight saving time, at 2:40 a. m. Everett E. Brown of Pomfret, a member of the state board of agriculture, urged the abandonment of the present early schedule for the milk train and the restoration of its former time of leaving Hartford, 4:40 a. m. or a little later.

Doesn't Need Any Laxatives Now Mr. Becker says life is a joy without constipation or stomach trouble.

I had catarrh of the stomach and head for three years. My stomach was so bad that every time I ate anything I felt as if I were being burned. The burning hot water would run out of my mouth. I took a laxative every night. Since taking Milks Emulsion my bowels move regularly. I have now taken 10 bottles and have gained 10 1/2 pounds. All my friends remark how fine I am looking, and it seems a pleasure to live again, without stomach trouble. I feel as if I were a new man. Physics usually make slaves out of their users and weaken the bowels instead of correcting them. Stomach trouble in many cases is directly due to constipation. Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickens up the digestive organs, so that they assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children. No food so how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee: Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and, if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. The Price 80c and $1.25 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

her of the state board of agriculture, urged the abandonment of the present early schedule for the milk train and the restoration of its former time of leaving Hartford, 4:40 a. m. or a little later. Under this arrangement the train would get over to Hampton about 6:20 or thereabouts and would reach Hampton, Abington and Pomfret stations a little later. Others who spoke in favor of changing back to the old time were Leonard H. Healey of Woodstock, Chester B. Jewett of Hampton and John M. Stromberg of Abington. The commission reserved its decision.

Sunday, June 27, has now been set as the date for the baseball game, planned as the season's opener, scheduled to have been played between the Elm City Colored Giants of New Haven and Tom McDermott's North Grovesdale team last Sunday. Cold and threatening weather caused an abandonment of the plans to open the season. Next Sunday the Ashlands will go to North Grovesdale for a game.

Frederick Damas of this city is a vice president of the State Firemen's association, the executive committee of which will meet in Hartford this week to consider plans for the annual convention of the organization to be held in the city on September 7-8. Mr. Damas has been a member of the executive committee for several years.

If J. Ellis, who has been engaged in trade school work at Torrington, took up his duties in this city Monday morning as a director of the state trade school, succeeding Mr. J. Bentley, who is going into the New Bedford district as manager for a textile concern.

This year's eighth grade graduates from the public schools within the city limits will number 47. Of these 40 are pupils at the eighth grade room in the high school building and seven are studying at the Smith Street school.

N. A. Ballard of the Putnam Cemetery association said that no effort will be made this year to build the Tourtelotte Memorial chapel in Grove street cemetery. The fund left by the late Mrs. Harriet Tourtelotte to be used for the erection of the chapel is safely invested and is steadily growing. It will not be used until the cost of materials and labor reach a lower level than the present unusually high one.

In special tests made at Putnam high school, students have shown a much higher average in use of vocabulary and in sentence work than the record made by the Mount Holly, N. J., high school. The tests were taken from an educational publication printed in New Jersey and containing tables showing what was done by students in the Mount Holly high school. The percentage attained by the Putnam students was from 10 to 25 per cent. higher than that of the New Jersey high school students.

The joint committee representing patriotic organizations of the city held a meeting Monday evening to further consider details of the plans for the Memorial day observance here on Monday of next week. Members of the Putnam Country club are looking forward with anticipation to the program arranged for the coming week-end and Memorial day at the links. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mowry of Woodstock were visitors in Putnam on Monday.

What remained of the third story walls of the burned Chickering hotel have been removed and repair work that will restore stores in the Union street end of the building is going on.

The city's young people are to make the most of this last week of the season for hanging May baskets. Several such parties are planned for evenings this week.

Former Postmaster George M. Pilling of Danielson, who died early Monday morning at the Backus hospital in Norwich, was well known in this city.

The sixteenth annual conference of the New London and Windham counties King's Daughters is to be held at East Thompson on June 3.

The City hotel is being gradually re-arranged so that a resumption of a general hotel business there may be looked for there in the not distant future. A considerable number of employees of the Putnam Woolen company, which closed last week, already have found work in other plants or at other than textile occupations in and about this city.
