WILLIMANTIC

Norwich Bulletin, Willimantic Office, 23 Church St. Telephone 105.

The first case considered in the superior court Friday was the unconcealed divorce suit of Walter B. Coby vs. Lillian E. Coby.

The continued case of Bartholomew A. Moran vs. the City of Willimantic, which has occupied the attention of the court since Wednesday, was resumed.

Ex-Mayor Daniel P. Dunn testified to the controversy about the proposed change of grades: the question of the disposition of the trees came up but he did not recall the details.

Charles M. Holbrook, alderman-at-large at that time, testified that he as chairman of the street committee could remember no discussion over the cutting down of the trees.

John Collins, former superintendent of sewers and sidewalk inspector, claimed he never gave Mr. Moran orders to cut down the trees and to the Mayor.

Fredrick L. Mott of Lewiston avenue stated Mr. Moran had used his telephone prior to cutting down the trees.
