The following proclamation in regard to "Clean Up and Paint-Up Week" has been issued by Mayor Charles A. Gates:

"The national clean-up and paint-up campaigns have resulted in many advantages to community life throughout the United States. In safeguarding health, in promoting thrift, in furthering fire protection, in stimulating civic pride, in making the home and city more beautiful.

"The best evidence of proper community pride is the interest shown in matters of this kind. It is our duty to promote conservation and production in every way possible—to conserve health and property as well as the more sentimental civic ideals and to increase commercial and industrial as well as food production, that all may be enabled as well as urged to have for our city and our personal prosperity. Cleanliness, thrift and civic pride are the essentials not only for homes and city beautiful but for the health and safety of the community from the ravages of disease and fire. Cellars, attics, vacant lots, yards and driveways should be cleaned of the accumulation of trash and fire risk, and liberal coats of paint should be applied wherever the ravages of the elements have begun to get in their work.

"Therefore, I hereby designate June 2 to 3 as Clean-up and Paint-up Week and urge all citizens to make every effort possible toward cleaning and renovating premises, thus adding to the health and the attractiveness of Willimantic as a place of residence.

"Let each do his or her part and the result will be a healthier hamlet and more prosperous city.

CHARLES A. GATES, Mayor of the City of Willimantic.

Henry Heller of Norwich is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital here, as a result of a collision Monday evening between the motorcycle he was driving and an automobile owned and driven by Fred W. Cunningham of this city. The accident occurred on Yorkham road opposite the greenhouses of John M. Gager, when Cunningham turned out to pass an auto delivery car with a top that obscured his vision. The motorcycle came along in an opposite direction and the collision resulted. Heller was treated for a deep gash on his left leg, cuts on the head and right forearm, and minor bruises. He will probably be released from the hospital within a few days. Cunningham took the injured man to the hospital and then reported the matter to the police.

She was born in Germany, the daughter of Joseph and Augusta Becker Dornbeck. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Josephine L. Skilton of Coventry and Mrs. Wallace Thrall of Rockville.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary E. Simonds was held from the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. C. Harley Smith, officiating. The bearers were Clarence Barrows, Clinton Barrows, Edwin P. Cross, Byron Potter, Morris Golden and Milton Carpenter. Burial was in the new Willimantic cemetery. Funeral Director Jay M. Shepard was in charge of the arrangements.

The body of William Truman Foster, 11, who died at the Mansfield State Hospital and Training School May 20 was taken Tuesday to Gastonbury for burial. The young man was born in Waterbury, the son of William H. Porter. Death resulted from chronic enteritis.

William Light of Putnam and Miss Irene Duval of this city were united in marriage at St. Mary's church Tuesday morning by Rev. J. J. Papillon, who also sang the nuptial high mass. Joseph Light of Putnam, a nephew of the groom, was best man and Miss Rose Duval of this city, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Miss Elsie Bernard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Bernard, daughter of this city, was ring bearer. The choir sang during the mass. Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the Park Central Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Light left Tuesday noon for Newport, R. I., where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home at Putnam after June 15.

John Gallop, Jr., the infant son of John and Alberta Perry Gallop, died on Monday evening at the home of his parents, 23 Jackson place. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Killoury Brothers were in charge of the arrangements.

Calceiro Geordan, the nine month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincenzo Geordan, died early Tuesday morning at the home of his parents on Windham road of a cerebral meningitis. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Word was received here Tuesday of the death early Tuesday morning of Lydia L. 78, widow of Otis W. Hopkins, a resident of this city for the greater part of her life. She died at the home of her son, Fred M. Hopkins of Youkers, N. Y. The body is to be brought to this city, where a committal service will be held at the grave in the Willimantic cemetery. Mrs. Hopkins moved to Youkers about three years ago. She was a member of the local Methodist Episcopal church. She leaves two sons, a daughter, nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The first man to pay his city taxes on the grand list of 1919 to Collector Hugh Gagnon at his office in the Wilson Block, 60 State street, Tuesday morning was Alford Dunham, of 52 Center street.

Joseph F. Lisse and Miss Jessie T. Somers, both of this city, were united in marriage at the First Baptist church on Tuesday morning by the pastor, Rev. A. R. Carpenter, in the presence of members of the two families. They were attended by Miss Marion Mame of Springfield, Mass., and Miss Mary Chappell of Windham. Mr. and Mrs. Lisse are spending their honeymoon in Boston.

Why a Majority of the Smaller Cars Come on Goodyear Tires

Last year more cars using 30x3, 30x3 1/2, or 31x4-inch tires were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

This is plainly a result of the high relative value produced in these tires for the smaller cars by Goodyear's enormous resources and scrupulous care.

They represent the same intense endeavor to supply utmost satisfaction in tires that has laid the basis for the marked preference which exists everywhere for Goodyear Tires in the larger sizes.

This real Goodyear value in tires is available for your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other car using one of these sizes, at our nearest Service Station. Go there for these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

- 30x3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30x3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50
Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3 1/2 size in water-proof bag $4.50 used a reward of fifty dollars for information in regard to the whereabouts of the man named Kramer who was riding with Kramer's car when it was wrecked. Kramer was thrown against the windshield and received a cut on his forehead and his right ear was badly lacerated. He was treated by Dr. F. E. Gould of Windham. With Mr. Whitte were his brother, wife and baby but none of the others were injured. Kramer agreed to settle for the damages.

The Colonel's Maid was successfully presented by members of the senior class of Windham High school in Loomer Opera House Monday evening before a large audience. The members of the cast did exceptionally well, a testimonial to the coaching of Miss May E. Gould of the school faculty.

The cast follows: Col. Robert Rudd, a widower of North Carolina, Albert Paulhus; Colonel Richard Byrd a steward of South Carolina, Alfred Stauder; Marjorie Byrd, Miss Sara Abbe; Ruth, Anthony Carvey; Mrs. J. John Carroll, a widow and Colonel Rudd's sister-in-law, Miss Helen Corbett; Julia Carroll, her daughter, Miss Eva Alperin; Ned Graydon, Lloyd Wilcox; Mr. James Baskom, Charles Haling, Ching-sh-Ling, the Chinese cook, Walter Gavigan. Three cases are to come up in the morning court this Wednesday morning. Charles N. Curtis, aged 41, a lumber man was arrested Tuesday evening, charged with the abuse of his 16 year old daughter, Crystal May Curtis. A complaint alleges January 10, 1920, as the date of the crime.

Pearl Berling, aged 22, giving Boston as his home, was arrested Tuesday, on the charge of vagrancy after a complaint had been received at police headquarters. His actions near the railroad track at Smith's crossing, Berlin, told the police that he worked for seven months at the Middletown insane hospital, leaving there about three weeks ago. It is thought possible that he is an escaped inmate from that institution.

The first case to come up in a continuation of the charge of non-support against Bert M. Lewis of South Windham.

Memorial day proved an ideal one. At 5:20 a. m. the members of Morton A. Taintor post, G. A. R., the local post of the American Legion and the Old Guard band went to North Westchester in automobiles and held memorial services at Potomac cemetery. There was singing and speaking by the pupils of the district schools of that place. The address was made by Rev. Edward Smiley of Westchester Congregational church. After the return from the cemetery a substantial lunch was served the soldiers and the band at the home of E. A. Carrier. The return to town was at 12:15. At 2 o'clock the members of the G. A. R., the American Legion and the Old Guard band met at the home of Rev. B. D. Remington and marched to Grange hall, where the program was as follows: Selection by the band; singing of America; audience recitations by the children of the schools in charge of Miss Lillie McDermott; invocation, chaplain of the post, Rev. Mr. Remington. The address of the afternoon was given by Edward Kelley, captain of the American Legion, and was one of the most able speeches ever given at an annual Memorial exercises. Mr. Kelley is a student at Yale law school. A selection by the band closed the exercises at the hall, with Commander George Brown marshal, the Old Guard band of 28 pieces, John Condon leader, American Legion of about 50 men in uniform, Morton A. Taintor post, G. A. R., and school children. After the march through Main and South Main streets the line halted at the Soldiers' monument, where brief exercises were held. The line then proceeded to the honor roll, where the members of the American Legion placed a handsome wreath on the roll in memory of their comrades. As each name was called the color bearer dipped the colors and the long roll was given by the drummer of the band. Taps was blown by Earle Holmes, cornet soloist of the band. The parade was then dismissed. There was a large crowd in town from the surrounding country. The speech of Mr. Kelley made a fine impression and was heartily applauded.

The Colchester baseball team defeated their old-time rivals, the Lebanon Athletic club's team, 4 to 4. Slavkin and Deimler were the battery for the locals and did some good work for the first game of the season. Manager Friedman has promised some extra good games and will have a number of strong teams from different parts of the state, so it is up to the fans to turn out to the games and support the players if they want good games.

Mrs. Alvin Fargo of Lebanon was in town Monday.

Saugus—On reopening the case of Irving Putney, former postmaster at Saugus, fined $100 and costs for embezzlement from the mails, Judge E. S. Thomas in the federal court imposed a fine of $1,500 and costs, as the law forbids a fine less than the sum stolen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

COMING TO BREED THEATRE

Playgoers who have been privileged to see D. W. Griffith's great spectacles, The Birth of a Nation and Hearts of the World, will be interested in the announcement that his recent colossal production, The Fall of Babylon has just been secured for a special engagement at the Breed theatre for three days beginning Thursday, June 3. From all accounts the magnitude of this super-spectacle is the most staggering and startling achievement Mr. Griffith has thus far produced. It is estimated that more than 115,000 men and women in one scene of splendor that shows all the color, life and abandonment of a beach-head in the East of players, too. It is typical of a Griffith company, including such established favorites as Constance Talmadge, George Fawcett, Mildred Harris (Mrs. Charles Chaplin), Daily Mary Kay, Pauline Starbuck, Rena Owen, Alma Rubens, Kate Brock, Alfred Paget and Edmo Lincoln.

BREED THEATRE

The Breed presents today for the last three times the E. D. Miller's latest Paramount-Artcraft picture, Why Change Your Wife. A notable group of stage and film favorites forms the cast of the wonderful production. Thomas Meighan who did such magnificent work in Male and Female and The Miracle Man, heads the masculine portion of the cast in the role of the husband with Gloria Swanson, the latest Broadway sensation, playing opposite. Theodore Kosloff, famous Russian dancer and pantomimist, is also in the role as a violinist of his own nationality, and Babe Danberg, the fascinating half-Oriental personality handles the difficult role of "the other woman." Other notable members of the cast are Sylvia Ashton, Clarence Gildart and Maysa Kay. A special orchestra will render a special score of music for this picture and other pictures on the bill include The Falbe News and Topics of the Day.

Davis Theatre

Large crowds saw the show at Davis theatre Monday and Tuesday. Heading the vaudeville is the Rose Revue in reception of song, dance and symphonies. This is one of the highest acts now playing. The second act is Jim and Edna Connors who present a novelty comedy sketch entitled "Bargain Day." The popularity of a bargain counter is undisputable and anything that has a general appeal is a source of amusement to the theatre. Jim and Edna Connors have taken bargain as a foundation for the musical sketch they are offering. The third act is Edna and Edna in a comedy offering entitled "On London Bridge" Dublin Circus and Pionically meet at London Bridge. There they are represented by Edna and Edna, apt impersonators of English and Irish characters in a way that is entertaining from the start. The fifth and last act is Provost and Geniel in "A Vaudeville Melange." The feature picture is Fryfford Washburn in "The Six Best Cellars," a six part comedy that is just one of the many comedies by Wm. and Hawley and Julia Page in the cast. Paramount Screen Magazine complete the show. Watch for our big vaudeville show Thursday.

"Fifty-Fifty" at the Davis Theatre

Fairly effervescing with musical gems of the liting, whistleble, humming variety, comes that tempting musical comedy, "Fifty-Fifty" to the Davis theatre tonight. Fresh from the comedy theatre, New York, it is a crowd pleaser, owing to the congested theatrical conditions, after four months of excellent patronage, it is breaking the journey with a brief engagement at several large cities on the way to Chicago. Herbert Corbell and the original metropolitan cast, in complete production, will be seen here. Harry Carroll, who is responsible for many tinkling, jingling melodies in the Dolly Sisters' presentation of "Oh, Look," has contributed his best efforts in association with Harold Atteridge to a remarkable list of song successes in "Fifty-Fifty." Tickets 50c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, plus war tax.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Mrs. Henry Bannister and children of Webster spent the week end and Memorial day with Gilbert Upham and family. John Chitt and family of Plain and Dr. R. C. Paine and family of Thompson spent Memorial day at N. T. White's. Memorial day exercises were held at the East Woodstock cemetery Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Robert of George O. Robbins, Mrs. Robert Paine, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. White and John Child sang Speed Our Republic and Tenth on the Old Camp Ground. Dr. Paine presided. The veterans' graves were decorated by the veterans, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. White and Mrs. Bannister. Many friends from out of town were present.

The union meeting of all the Woodstock churches was a great success. There was a large attendance and much interest was shown. Mr. Harrison, Mr. Baker and Mr. Lawson spoke. The music was in charge of Miss Burns, the music supervisor. It was voted to hold another union meeting July 14th at West Woodstock.

Mrs. Bogus and family from Kent have moved to their new home, the Checkley Ames place, in East Woodstock.
