PUTNAM

Miss Ina Aldrich and Miss Jeanette Gilbert are at Willimantic campground this week, representing the Putnam Methodist church at the Epworth League Institute.

Under the direction of L. Stanley Kelley, fifty-three boys from the camp that Mr. Kelley conducts in East Hartford are at Beacon Park, on Webster Lake, on their annual Gypsy Trail. The boys left the shores of Crystal Lake Tuesday morning in an auto truck. It had been originally planned to hike to the Massachusetts lake, but owing to the excessive heat and unfavorable hiking conditions this was called off, and the trip was made by motor. Preceding the main body of campers went an advance guard of 15 boys who reached Webster Lake first and set up the camp. They were in charge of the camp paraphernalia and went straight to work building the "home tents" which the boys will occupy for the remainder of their stay.

When farmers from all over this county went on a field trip Tuesday afternoon and Woodstock, after the regular program had been completed, many of the farmers went to the Mackintosh orchard of Dr. C. N. Perley to see the result of spraying. Because of camp meeting at Willimantic there will be no services at the Putnam Methodist church Sunday. Don't fail to attend the auction sale of beautiful household goods from the estate of the late Alice M. Morse on Saturday, Aug. 21, 1926, at 10 a. m. at the residence of the rear of the residence of Henry Preston, South Main street, Putnam Conn.—adv.

Whitman Danielson, adjutant of Anselme Mayotte Post, American Legion, is in communication with the army recruiting station at Springfield, Mass., concerning the blanks necessary for excise service men to fill out in order to obtain Victory medals through the legion. As soon as these blanks reach Putnam, the committee consisting of Malcolm M. Wiley, Jacob Albert and Joseph D. Flagg will designate certain days and places at which former soldiers can go to fill out these papers of application. In filling out these, it will be necessary to bring a discharge certificate. The Putnam post of the legion will obtain the medals not only for its own members.

bers, but for service men of this city who are now members of the post. The medals, which are awarded by the United States government, will be sent to Putnam in care of the post commander, Dr. Edward Perry. It has not yet been decided how the medals will be distributed, but it will probably be done on armistice day as a part of the celebration. Medals will also be given to officers, and in cases where the soldiers have died, those next of kin may apply.

Manhasset baseball team has made arrangements for a game with a team representing Crompton & Knowles Loom Works of Worcester, to be played Sunday afternoon on Manhasset field. This is the strongest factory team in Worcester.

Mrs. Clara Louise Almqvist, 79, widow of Anders J. Almqvist, died Wednesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Anderson, in North Provençal, N. H.

Dr. Edward F. Perry, Attorney Archibald MacDonald, Jr., Mark F. Klebert and Malcolm M. Wiley left Putnam Thursday noon for Bridgeport, where they will represent Anselme Mayotte post of the American legion at the state convention of that organization which is being held there today (Friday) and Saturday. Klebert goes as an alternate, and the others are delegates. Charles Ryan and Gilbert Perry were elected to serve as alternates but were unable to go. The trip was made in automobile.

There was a general discussion all day Thursday regarding the situation the fire department is in relative to being without ladders for use at fires. Unless something is done this condition will remain, as the voters have refused to make the appropriation necessary to buy a motor driven hook and ladder truck. Many citizens are expressing regrets that they failed to turn out at the polls as only a few votes were needed to put the appropriation over. In the burning of the Congregational parsonage some months ago those early at the fire had an emphatic object lesson that they have not forgotten. The fire was at first confined to the roof of the house but as they were no ladders at hand the firemen were powerless to reach the blaze. It was some time before a driver of an automobile truck volunteered to bring a couple of ladders from the fire headquarters. Meanwhile the roof and second story were all ablaze. This incident is apt to be repeated at any fire that may break out and many substantial citizens are worried over the risk that members of the city under present conditions. Already there is talk of calling another special city meeting to see if the vote to appropriate $9,500 cannot be reversed. If such a meeting is called it will mean a fight on both sides and the polling of an unusually heavy vote.

Perhaps one of the most brilliant women in Connecticut over the fact that the 36th state has ratified the constitutional amendment, which gives women the vote is Mrs. Dorothy Jones Bartlett, active member of the National Woman's Party, who served sixty days in the District of Columbia jail and at Ossauan. When a Bulletin representative went to Mrs. Bartlett's home Thursday he found the front piazza decorated with flags of purple, white and gold, the party's colors. During the day telephone messages and telegrams had been received to express congratulations to the woman who neglected the White House gates in her belief that she was helping the cause, and who served time in jail rather than pay a fine. Mrs. Bartlett was supremely happy and excited over the fact that she is the eve of a two weeks' vacation at the shore, for she says, she is anxious to get out to work, call the women together and discuss the forthcoming campaign. According to Mrs. Bartlett, there are republicans in this state who have been unfavorable to the cause, who will learn the power of the woman vote, and before long, Mrs. Bartlett says that she hopes to see women in the state legislature and, with a laugh she said "I wouldn't mind being a representative or senator myself." Those who know her best are sure that if she was in office she would be heard from and would do something more on either the floor of the house or the senate than just "second the motion."

Miss Abbie H. Keith, of King street, left Putnam Thursday for New York where she will be the guest of Miss Emma Suydam. Miss Suydam was formerly a teacher at the Putnam high school, and during the war did Y. M. C. A. work in France. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Warren of Providence, R.
