Northeast of Warsaw the Poles Are Rapidly Following the Retreating Enemy—To the East of the Polish Capital the Polish Forces Have Taken Thousands of Prisoners and Great Amounts of War Material—In Southern Russia General Wrangel Has Driven the Bolsheviks Back Across the Lower Portion of the Dnieper River.

Warsaw, Aug. 20.—Poland's army is rapidly following up the retreating enemy northeast and east of Warsaw, and further successes for the Poles are reported. The capturing of Sokolow, Drohiczyn and Biaha, with thousands of prisoners and great amounts of war material is reported in today's official communique. At Siedlice the Poles captured armed volunteers and detachments composed of local communists.

To the northwest of Warsaw, the bolsheviks attacked Ploch in a drive designed to carry the advance from the north. There, where there is a pontoon bridge, but a Polish counter stroke broke the attack. In this operation the Poles were aided by civilians who fought side by side with the infantrymen.

Today's communique announces the repulse by Polish infantry of a detachment of General Bierdzia's cavalry, which had reached Winiaki, nine miles southeast of Lemberg.

Peasants in the region of Lipno, southeast of Thorn, are reported to be fighting the bolsheviks with great success. Newspaper accounts of the operations there, say the peasants are taking no prisoners.

PEACE TERMS SUBMITTED BY RUSSIA AT CONFERENCE

London, Aug. 20.—The terms submitted by the bolsheviks, head of the bolshevik delegates at Minsk, at Thursday's session of the Russia-Poland peace conference, are given in a dispatch from Minsk. The bolsheviks' terms, which were issued by the Russian delegation in London tonight.

Article 1 announces that Russia and Poland recognize the full independence and liberty of the Polish republic and solemnly confirm the full right of the Polish people to establish its own form of government.

In Article 2 Russia and Ukraine renounce any form of contribution.

Article 3 provides for the return of Poland to its former boundaries, as defined by the note of Earl Curzon (British foreign secretary) with more territory east of Bialystok and Cholm.

Article 4 stipulates that the Polish army be reduced to 50,000 men, to be supplemented by civil militia, made up of workers, organized in preventive order and the population's security.

Articles 5, 6, 7 and 8 deal with demobilization of the army, the prohibition on importations of war material.

Article 9 says hostilities will cease 72 hours after the signing of the terms, and that all remaining on the line occupied, but not east of the line indicated in Earl Curzon's note of July 11. The Polish army will be reduced to 50,000 men, to be supplemented by civil militia, made up of workers, organized in preventive order and the population's security.

WRANGLER HAS CHECKED ADVANCE OF BOLSHIEVIKI

Washington, Aug. 20.—The army of General Wrangel has checked the advance of the bolsheviks in the direction of southern Russia and has driven them back across the lower portion of the Dnieper River, according to official advices received by the state department today.

Down the road the Reds are bolting, pulling out in large numbers of horses in their possession. The fact that they have these horses is said to account for the comparatively small number of prisoners being taken. The bolsheviks, however, have prevented the enemy from taking with him many guns and much material. Up to date, seven bolshevik divisions have been cut to pieces and all their guns captured.

The Polish right wing, advancing from the south is now before the forts of Brest Litovsk and part of the Polish army is providing a safeguard against flank counter-attacks. Polish forces in this region are supported by a Ukrainian division and General Bialyok-Grajewski's Russian volunteer army which had remained in Poland, east of Brest Litovsk and to the west of the bolsheviks. Thus, the army of General Wrangel at Brest Litovsk is virtually cut off on all sides.
