

WILLIMANTIC

Newrich Bulletin, Willimantic Office, 22 Church Street, Telephone 105.

What is Going on Tonight. Knights of Pythias Natatorium Lodge No. 22 meets in I. O. O. F. Hall.

Independent Order of Foresters, Court Street. Papers No. 2495 meets at 25 Jackson Woodmen of the World, Willimantic Camp No. 85 meets in W. C. T. U. Hall Valley street.

Max Cohen of Woonsocket, R. I. was before the police court Saturday morning in connection with the Overland car he was driving when the Paige car driven by J. M. Tatem of Eastford, when Cohen smashed into the Paige through carelessness. Cohen entered a plea of not guilty to the charge but the court found him guilty technically, although there was no criminal intent on the part of Cohen. Mr. Tatem and Grant Trowbridge also testified. At the time of the accident both cars were running at a slow rate of speed and though both cars were damaged considerably, the only person to be injured was Cohen, who sustained a dislocated left shoulder. Cohen said he was watching the signs along the road as he was unfamiliar with this part of the country, and when he saw the Paige car he thought it was about to turn right but the Paige a glance and saw Judge Frank H. Ross fined Cohen twenty-five dollars and costs, the amount of which the fine was remitted, Cohen paid $13.15.

The continued case of Stephen Cronin of Bridgeport charged with reckless driving was next on the list and he entered a plea of guilty. The court fined him twenty-five dollars and costs amounting to $32.15. He paid. Cronin was taken up by the state policeman opening their visit to this city last week.

County detective William A. Jackson and city sheriff Elmer M. Young, with two prisoners charged with this city had a narrow escape from injury Saturday morning about 1 o'clock when the lights on the No. 10 touring car driven by detective Jackson suddenly went out, causing the driver to drive in darkness and lose the road. The machine was about a half mile this side of Bolton Notch hill when the lights went out and the machine plunged through a fence and down a steep embankment. The driver added to the trouble a board from the fence was jammed up through the bottom of the car making it impossible to apply the brakes and before the car could be stopped it had hit a tree damaging it to some extent. With the officers at the time were Edward Lamoreaux and Mrs. Emma Lamoreaux, also being wanted for theft in Mass. in Middletown earlier in the evening, shared with adultery. Lamoreaux was being wanted for theft in Mass. in Middletown earlier in the evening, shared with adultery. Lamoreaux was being wanted for theft in Mass. in Middletown earlier in the evening, shared with adultery.

County detective William A. Jackson and city sheriff Elmer M. Young, with two prisoners charged with this city had a narrow escape from injury Saturday morning about 1 o'clock when the lights on the No. 10 touring car driven by detective Jackson suddenly went out, causing the driver to drive in darkness and lose the road. The machine was about a half mile this side of Bolton Notch hill when the lights went out and the machine plunged through a fence and down a steep embankment. The driver added to the trouble a board from the fence was jammed up through the bottom of the car making it impossible to apply the brakes and before the car could be stopped it had hit a tree damaging it to some extent. With the officers at the time were Edward Lamoreaux and Mrs. Emma Lamoreaux, also being wanted for theft in Mass. in Middletown earlier in the evening, shared with adultery. Lamoreaux was being wanted for theft in Mass. in Middletown earlier in the evening, shared with adultery.

County detective William A. Jackson and city sheriff Elmer M. Young, with two prisoners charged with this city had a narrow escape from injury Saturday morning about 1 o'clock when the lights on the No. 10 touring car driven by detective Jackson suddenly went out, causing the driver to drive in darkness and lose the road. The machine was about a half mile this side of Bolton Notch hill when the lights went out and the machine plunged through a fence and down a steep embankment. The driver added to the trouble a board from the fence was jammed up through the bottom of the car making it impossible to apply the brakes and before the car could be stopped it had hit a tree damaging it to some extent. With the officers at the time were Edward Lamoreaux and Mrs. Emma Lamoreaux, also being wanted for theft in Mass. in Middletown earlier in the evening, shared with adultery. Lamoreaux was being wanted for theft in Mass. in Middletown earlier in the evening, shared with adultery.

Killourey Bros. FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS. 66 Union St. Willimantic, Conn. Phone 200. (Ledy Assistant)

JAY M. SHEPARD. Succeeding Elmore & Shepard. Funeral Director & Embalmer. 66-68 NORTH ST., WILLIMANTIC. Ledy Assistant Tel. connection

Dr. F. C. Jackson DENTIST. 715 Main Street, Willimantic. Hours—9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Phone 44

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE. Willimantic, Conn. AUGUST SHOWING OF BLANKETS

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE. Willimantic, Conn. AUGUST SHOWING OF BLANKETS. Even though the weather is hot, prudent shoppers will look to their Blanket requirements now, for prices will not be near as reasonable during colder months. The showing includes Cotton Blankets and Cozy Wool Blankets, at prices that will interest prudent shoppers. THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

WILLIMANTIC CAMPOUND.

Showers in the early morning cleared off about the beginning of the love feast at 6.30. Autos began to come in and by 10 o'clock over a hundred were parked near the barn. The annual love feast was held by Rev. Frederick C. Baker of Whitman, Mass., for many years the efficient secretary of the camp meeting association. There were numerous prayers and many testimonies given.

The audience was increased by the 10 o'clock preaching service by hundreds more. A feature of the praise services through the day was a large orchestra from Trinity Church, Norwich, consisting of William Crowe, soloist, and seven instrumentalists: Frederick Gage, C. G. Gage, and the Misses Elizabeth Lane, Gladys Boardman, Dorothy Maynard, Alma Pennington and Elizabeth Hagarston, also Roberta Bigelow of New London.

Names of local boys who have been in the habit of using the sidewalk for driveways have been handed to the police and if the practice is continued someone will explain the reason to the judge. Posters have been received in this city bearing Colonel William (Hank) Hall of South Willington for Governor. His experience in state matters and ability as a business man are set forth as reasons why he should make a good man for the position.

Names of local boys who have been in the habit of using the sidewalk for driveways have been handed to the police and if the practice is continued someone will explain the reason to the judge. Posters have been received in this city bearing Colonel William (Hank) Hall of South Willington for Governor. His experience in state matters and ability as a business man are set forth as reasons why he should make a good man for the position.

There was a large attendance Saturday night at Washburn Hall where the Music orchestra of the youth of the city dancing still holds the center of the floor in this city in spite of the hot weather.

Private Patrick F. Lynch, 34, who died in an American soldiers' camp at Liverpool England, October 15, 1918, was buried Sunday afternoon in the family plot in St. Joseph cemetery with full military honors. The remains were brought to this city from New York Saturday morning by a military escort and were taken to the funeral parlors of the Killary Brothers from where the services were held Sunday with church services at St. Joseph's church at 2 o'clock. Rev. John A. Sullivan officiating. The remains were taken from the church to St. Joseph's cemetery, the bearers being members of James J. Shea Post No. 19, American Legion.

Members of the legion and of the local post of the Killary Brothers were present. The grave was dug and the body was lowered into it. The services were held Sunday with church services at St. Joseph's church at 2 o'clock. Rev. John A. Sullivan officiating. The remains were taken from the church to St. Joseph's cemetery, the bearers being members of James J. Shea Post No. 19, American Legion.

After battling eight innings to a scoreless tie, Conroy, pitcher for the American Thread Company team of this city ended the best game seen at Recreation Park, by laying down a perfect sacrifice, scoring Adams who had worked around to third after making a clean single, plus a sacrifice by Smith. There was one down when Conroy did the trick and won his own game.

From every standpoint it is the prettiest game ever seen in this city, players on both teams getting all kinds of catches robbing their opponents of sure scores. Adams for the local team pitched head first over the ball, only to land safe with the ball for an out. For the next ball he made a bare hand play in the score book but lost the ball when he fell over a bench. McGinley made for a foul in the second and went over the railing halfway but held the ball. For the visitors, Bakos in eight batted pulled the stunts that held the crowd on edge. In the fourth with Hamel on first, Smith hit one on the seam that looked good for a homer. Bakos was out with the crack of the leather on the wood and pulled the ball down over his shoulder just as Smith was hitting second. In the seventh and eighth he nailed two more shoestring catches, slamming them to Jim McCarthy at third for a double.

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

Rein began falling in the seventh but the fans stayed by and cheered when the players were made. Normandin in left and Hortheimer at short came in for their share when they pulled off seemingly impossible plays ending the visitors' chances for scores. When the ninth came the American

"I ended corns forever in this scientific way"

Millions have said that about Blue-jay. Others tried it and told others the same story. So the use has spread, until corn troubles have largely disappeared. If you have a corn you can settle it tonight. And find the way to end every corn. Apply liquid Blue-jay or a Blue-jay plaster. The pain will stop. Soon the whole corn will loosen and come out. Think what folly it is to keep corns, to completely cured. The final day of the institute (Saturday) dawned clear and cool. The sun came out at the time of the Morning Watch, and a half hundred or more gathered in the tabernacle for the closing Morning Watch. It was in charge of the president of the Norwich district Epworth League, Rev. Marvin S. Stocking. The closing special theme was the missionary department. The Master, was The Secret of Steadfastness.

Blue-jay Plaster or Liquid. The Scientific Corn Ender. BAUER & BLACK Chicago New York Toronto. Makers of Sterile Surgical Dressings and Allied Products.

The meeting closed with a number of brief prayers and the singing of Nearer My God to Thee. Prof. E. J. Curry's final lecture was Community Leadership. The stewardship of the missionary department was left to the pastor.

Professor Cooper's last Bible study was on immortality, dimly heralded in the Old Testament, but brought to light in the New Testament. Prof. Sawyer spoke in his closing period of the aims of the Junior League. Miss Dorothy Wheeler led the children's prayer at 1 o'clock at the New London house.

Saturday at 2.15 p. m. Rev. F. D. Taylor gave the final address on Some Facts of Christian Experience. The special theme being The Fact of Christ. Rev. E. J. Curry of East Greenwich was the speaker. He spoke of the East Greenwich people who have been accepted as Junior League superintendent during the camp meeting.

The nominating committee, through E. A. Dalton, New London, brought in the following for the district officers for the ensuing year: President, Rev. Victor V. Sawyer, of Rockville; first vice president, Frank Florian of East Hartford; second vice president, Frank Hall, of Jewett City; third vice president, Rev. M. S. Stocking, of Danielson; fourth vice president, Mrs. W. J. Stephens, of Rockville; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Lane, of Norwich; Junior League superintendent, Miss Florence M. Thayer, of East Hampton. President-elect Sawyer made a few remarks. Minutes were read and the meeting adjourned.

At the close of this excellent sermon Mr. Taylor exhorted the people to give Jesus Christ, your rightful King. How many are ready to pay him homage? The entire company with across an earnest prayer was offered by Rev. Victor V. Sawyer of Rockville.

Stunts. The recreational hour at 4 o'clock was passed in the tabernacle where various stunts were pulled off. The blues won both a bare hand and an automobile race. The rads had 80 points and the blues 60. The blues were the winners. A golden glow show was presented the red leader, "John Pickins Out a Wife" was carried out by some twenty girls. Appearing before the yearling was a golden glow show, showing what they could do. He finally picked out Miss Lillian Potter of Portland. The latter was also leader of the rads.

Saturday Evening. The Epworth League held a cold reception in the tabernacle Friday evening. Cool weather and ice cream made an external and internal combination very appropriate to the day. The program was varied. Mr. Wood, who called upon to play his flute and gave the audience instruction as to how to use the organ. He played several pieces with hands has a fine touch. Numerous stories were told by E. J. Curry, V. V. Sawyer and others. Songs were interspersed. Ice cream and fancy crackers were served. The evening program was a most merriest alternated with words of wisdom. Then came the climax—a veritable clinic.

The feature of the "Cold Reception" was a clinic. A very sick Epworth League member, who had been in the hospital for some time, was brought to the platform on a stretcher. The whole audience beamed three wonderful operations, whereby a nearly dead member was resuscitated. Three marvelous amputations were suggested by the great surgeon, Dr. Pickens. (Rev. E. J. Curry). Dr. Chosen (Rev. W. V. Sawyer), administered the chloroform. The newly resuscitated member was in attendance, the Misses Lillian Potter of Portland and Dorothy Wheeler of East Hampton. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

The diagnosis revealed a tumor on the brain. The best feet and heart trouble. Dr. Pickens with a carving knife skillfully cut out the tumor (a head of cabbage). Next with an axe he cut away from cold the brain. The case grew rapidly more serious and G. Conditon (Rev. V. V. Sawyer) was called in for consultation.

What is Going on Tonight. Motion Pictures at Breech Theatre. Yanderhills and Motion Pictures at Davis Theatre. The O. O. F. meets in Odd Fellows Hall. The O. O. F. meets in Odd Fellows Hall. The O. O. F. meets in Odd Fellows Hall.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. Breed Theatre. For its feature attraction today and tomorrow the Breed will present Mitchell Lewis and an all-star cast in "Burning Daylight," an adaptation of Jack London's master work of the Northland. Mitchell Lewis is seen in the role of "Burning Daylight," a hungry gold miner, who strikes it rich and then, instead of staying in the gold country where he belongs, beats it to New York, and gets down to business with a big bank account. He is a man who is afraid of anything in the world, and the way in which he forces Letton, at the end of a gun to come across with his plundered coin, is a heart breaker. It is a story of heart interest in well worth while, and the magnificent scenery is well worth going miles to see.

"Burning Daylight" will also be seen in "The Black Secret" and other pictures on the bill include the Pathe News and a Century comedy.

Grand. The Strand has a big show for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The Strand is the coolest and most interesting town and also has the best music. The Strand show will start with Ethel Clayton, the popular screen star, in "Whims of Fate," a comedy. The Strand also has the star's best talent. Leading the vaudeville is Paulet and Ray, in a rearing comedy. The Strand also has a variety of musical offerings. Money and Conroy are two men who appear in a comedy. The Strand also has a variety of musical offerings. Money and Conroy are two men who appear in a comedy.

Follow the crowd to the Strand and see the best in entertainment. An up-to-date and interesting show at the Strand for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Through the agency of Francis D. Donohue, the property of the Strand is now owned by David E. Bennett, their block located at 125-127 Main Street. The property consists of two stores, one occupied by Myer Newell, and the other by Mrs. M. J. Groat and daughter Helen of Providence.

Rev. Walter S. MacIntyre led the Stafford Springs house meeting Friday evening, speaking upon The Baptism With the Spirit.

At Bid-a-Wee, I Haven avenue, are the owner, Mrs. Helen M. Ferguson of Providence, her sister, Mrs. Louise Tweedy of Mansfield, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Groat and daughter Helen of Providence.

At 18 Haven avenue are Mr. and Mrs. William Cummings and daughters, Mildred, Mary and Catherine. They come from Willimantic.

Mrs. George H. of Stafford Springs and Mrs. A. H. Cleveland of South Manchester are at the Cleveland cottage, 22 Haven avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mitchell and son Kenneth and Mrs. Mitchell's sister, Miss Flora E. Baldwin, autoed from Mapleville, R. I., Saturday afternoon to spend the week at the camp meeting.

Mr. Charles Morley of Lyme spent a part of Saturday and Sunday on the grounds.

The Saturday evening service suffered a little interruption during the usual praise service because of the fall in an able, as she was coming down for a seat, of Mrs. Lina Montgomery. She was led to her cottage, at Wesley circle, and Dr. Wilcox was summoned from Willimantic. He found she had dislocated her right wrist, and reduced the fracture.

The district superintendent, Rev. W. H. Bath, has wrought well in conducting the camp meeting. Careful and patient in the multiple and often perplexing duties of the week, he has kept a firm hand upon the services and his sincerity for the welfare of all has been clearly manifested.

Together with President Stocking of the Epworth League and the cabinet officers, one of the best programs ever was given by all attending. Already plans are being set in motion for new and helpful features to be enjoyed by the attendants of 1927.

The district superintendent, Rev. W. H. Bath, has wrought well in conducting the camp meeting. Careful and patient in the multiple and often perplexing duties of the week, he has kept a firm hand upon the services and his sincerity for the welfare of all has been clearly manifested.

At Tolland cottage are Mrs. I. F. Wilcox, of Tolland, and Mrs. E. B. Cleaton, of Tolland, Mr. and Mrs. Myron G. Sparrow with their children, Mrs. Helen and Leon, from the same village, who spent the day Friday on the grounds, also Miss Sarah Wilcox and Miss Celia Clough.

At Putnam cottage are Mrs. M. M. Simmons, hostess, and Mrs. D. R. Gilbert and daughter Jeanette; Misses Ruth and Ina Aldrich; and Miss Shaw, all of Putnam.

Mrs. A. J. Timmer and daughter Mrs. Nellie Saunders and grandson, Charlie Saunders, of Jewett City, are at Mrs. Tinker's cottage.

A camp meeting at the Stafford Springs house was well attended Friday. Rev. W. D. Woodward of Norwich spoke from Psalm 49:1. Seven messages were given. Among others who spoke were Rev. H. A. Ridgeway, of Manchester, John Miller of East Hampton, N. H., and Rev. W. H. Bath of Norwich. Frank Chamberlain of North Tolland, and Capt. H. M. Randall.

Saturday was the closing day of the institute.

Many remain on the grounds through September to enjoy the delightful days of early fall.

HANOVER. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Armistead have returned after spending two weeks in Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott spent their vacation by taking a motor trip as far as Toronto, Canada, to visit relatives in that section.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles H. Peck are guests of James W. Eadie for a few days.

Mr. Frederick Gauthier and son, and Miss Julia Delaney have joined Mr. Gauthier in Bethelton, N. H. for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blackburn and daughter, Florence, have returned from a two weeks' visit in Plymouth, Mass. to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bath, and daughter are spending a few days in Montville.

Frank M. Clark of Hadley, Tex., recently received $5,000 insurance on the life of the largest hog in the world, which died on his Silver Creek farm, Nettie long ago Mr. Clark received $5,000 for the animal.

About the Grove. At the Meacham cottage are Mrs. Elizabeth Hill of Niantic, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Haggstrom and daughter, Elizabeth. The Haggstroms remain through September.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA