

American Chain Coming Here Tomorrow

The Norwich Knocys and the American Chain baseball clubs will clash at the fair grounds tomorrow and no doubt this will be one of the best games of the season as the American Chain will be the strongest club to come here this year with the possible exception of the Athletics, which will appear here on Sunday, Sept. 26. The American Chain Co. of Bridgeport are owners of the Bridgeport Eastern League franchise and some of the Bridgeport team will be stronger than ever in this game and are out to give Bridgeport a training.

the fans will sure see some baseball on Sunday. Jewett City fans are going up about 600 strong and this will give the boys an incentive to win. Have the boys polish up their batting lumps. Warhurst, and I'll give you several more guests as to who is going to pitch for Ashland.

"Rabbit" Maranville whose antics on the field rival those of "Nick" Altrock, baseball's clown. Then too there will be ex-Sergeant "Hank" Gowdy, hero of the 1914 world series and the first big leaguer to shoulder a gun for Uncle Sam in the world war and Leslie Marm, whom many class as the speediest outer gardener in the big show. The other outfielders will be Ray Powell, "Eddie" Kayser, and Christobury. The infield will be made up of Walter Holke or John L. Sullivan at first, Ford at second, Maranville at short and "Tony" Boeckel at third. Either "Joe" Geschger, the hero of a 25 inning game against Brooklyn last spring of "Mule" Watson will pitch. These are two of Manager Stalling's most reliable fingers.

Announcement Friday night by Manager McQuillan of the American Thread team that "Lefty" Watson of Georgetown University, would wear the American Thread uniform Sunday, created much talk here. Hyman as a pitcher ranks among the best in this state has never seen.
