GRAY BIRCHES IN AUTUMN

Leafless and slender, motionless and still, On tufted carpets, under autumn skies— I felt they saw me with their myriad eyes As I stole toward them o'er the gradual hill. Their silent welcome was more sweet than sound; Their thoughts, divined, more potent than all speech; Such skill had they old memories to reach. To wake the soul, to make the pulses bound. I saw their slender fingers feel the sky; Through their deep ranks the morning flush ascend. Pagan was I, with reverent heart to bend And feel that God had suddenly passed by? A swift flame flashed from peak to birchen wood; The morning incense curled from bush and soil. Birches or priests? All day at busy toil I felt the benediction of their mood. —Charles P. Cleaves in the Youth's Companion.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"Father, what is the difference between visit and visitation?" "Well, Sammy, when we go to grandma's is a visit, but when grandma comes to us it's a visitation."—Boston Globe. "Have you lip rouge?" "Yes, miss." "Well, personally, would you recommend?" "Well, personally, miss," replied the drug clerk, "I prefer the taste of this."—Louisville Courier-Journal. The lawyer turned to the witness, "You say that you were standing near this man when the shot was fired at him?" "Yes, sah?" "And that you ran away immediately afterward?" "Run, sah! I run so fast I had to turn sideways to keep from flying."—Exchange. Kicker—What were the terms of the divorce? Bocker—Each has the custody of the collar for six months.—New York Sun and Herald. Tactless Female Guest—By the way, what birthday is this we are celebrating? Hostess—My thirty-fifth. Guest—But we have not celebrated that before? Hostess (sweetly)—Oh, yes; it's one of my favorite birthdays.—Boston Transcript. "There ought to be a popular vote taken exactly when to retire on straw hat." "That would have to be done by a straw vote."—Baltimore American. Tollgate Sign in Frico—"No charge for funerals when the corpse is alone." Headline—"Rubber Bands Hold Up Americans in Crete." Advertisement—"Six Beans for sale, some laying $2 each." "Farm Sign—"Fine milch cow, with her own calf." Dairy lunch, we presume."—Boston Transcript. The leading lady of the play made her mark in the first scene. "Yes, I saw her do it when she kenneed her powdered face on the hero's black dress coat shoulder."—Baltimore American. A man who loses his temper immediately manages to find it again.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

The motion of waves ceases to be felt at the depth of 2,600 feet. During thunder and lightning the safest place indoors is the middle of a room. During the last year Chicago has lost six of its policemen through marriages. Twenty years were required to translate the Bible into one language—Latinian. In England, in 1665, when the plague was raging, tobacco was regarded as an excellent protection against infection, and even the boys in school were officially ordered to smoke. French Huguenot refugees and their descendants have worshipped in the crypt of Canterbury cathedral ever since 1550, when a royal charter of liberty to worship there was granted them. In view of the scarcity of farm help, a new automatic plow has been invented. The machine elevates the hay from the trough at the bottom of the hayloft by a revolving chain of pitchforks. Klamath Falls, Ore., lays claim to having the champion eater in the person of Vernon Anderson, a newboy, who consumed twenty large hamburger sandwiches in three hours and twenty minutes. New Orleans is decorating itself with a ten-mile belt of flowers which in time will extend to all parts of the city. About 130,000 annuals, with a host of roses ranging from white to dark red will be cultivated. Greenwich, England, is now testing the twenty-four-hour clock. If it is permanently adopted, clock faces will have to be enlarged and it seems likely that Arabic numerals will be used instead of Roman numerals. The up-to-date sled may be used in summer as well as in winter. It is equipped with three removable rubber-tired wheels and is guided down-hill in summer by rolls which turn the axle on which the front wheel is mounted. Wood for tennis rackets requires at least five years' seasoning—that is to say, it requires to be kept for five years in the rough timber state before being cut up for use. Wood for pianos is kept as a rule, for forty years before it is used.

The company will suffer a temporary loss while using up material bought at high prices. They are willing to make this sacrifice in order to bring business back to a going condition as quickly as possible, and maintain the momentum of the buying power of the country. Henry Ford says, "The war is over and it is time war-prices were over. There is no sense or wisdom in trying to maintain an artificial standard of value for the best interests of all. It is time a real practical effort was made to bring the business of the country and the life of the country down to regular pre-war standards.
