

DON'T think that because your stomach can digest food you are proof against indigestion. The most important digestive work is done by the bowels, liver and kidneys. Unless these are active and work in harmony, you are in danger of self-poisoning.

BEECHAM'S

PILLS help the bowels to functionate properly, and influence the liver and kidneys to act very efficiently.

WE HAVE A LIMITED AMOUNT OF EGG COAL FOR PROMPT DELIVERY

HAVE YOU A SUPPLY OF OUR BUCKWHEAT TO HELP MAKE THAT FURNACE COAL LAST LONGER?

WE SHALL BE PLEASED TO QUOTE ON ANTHRACITE SCREENINGS FOR STEAM PURPOSES

THE EDWARD CHAPPEL CO.

Telephone 24 CENTRAL WHARF NORWICH, CONN.

MOTOR FREIGHT SERVICE

(All Goods Covered by Insurance During Transit) DANIELSON-PUTNAM-NORWICH-PROVIDENCE-FALL RIVER-NEW BEDFORD-BOSTON-LAWRENCE-LOWELL-WORCESTER and Connecting Points

E. P. WINWARD & SON

135 WATER STREET NORWICH Phone 1250 164 MAIN STREET DANIELSON Phone 403

COLUMBIA

The families of Pete Masinka and Mike Sokolicki who for some time have occupied together a farm in Hop River, decided to separate and Monday last the Masinka family sold out their interest in the property to the Sokolickis and moved to one of the houses of the paper mill at Hop River. The families have been constantly quarreling since they moved together and twice the Sokolickis have been brought into court and sent to jail for disturbing the peace.

Miss Rachel Hutchins who was graduated from Windham High school last spring has entered the State Normal Training school in Willimantic and will reside there during the week.

The storm last Thursday night occasioned considerable damage in town, the ground being littered with branches broken from the trees. In the road to Hop River the mail carrier found at Miller's corner two good sized trees blown down and lying across the road, one a telephone pole and wires. A road gang not far off was unaware of it, but soon put the road in passable condition.

Congressman Augustus Lomenax, democratic candidate for United States senator, addressed a good sized audience composed mostly of women, last Friday afternoon at the town hall. The democratic candidate for governor, Rollin H. Tyler of Hadam was present and made an address also.

Arthur Nye, a foreman on the state highway stated that about two weeks ago a boy from this town who was in Andover, begged a ride with him to Willimantic which was granted so far as the poor farm, where Mr. Nye turned to go to Coventry. The boy demurred at being ing asked to leave the truck, and the next time he saw Mr. Nye with other on the truck with others, hurried a rock at him, barely escaping him and his companions. Mr. Nye thinks the boy should be placed in a reform school and if such a conduct happens again he will make a complaint before a grand juror.

The case of William Mathieu against S. Kallenberg for trespass on his land, which case was to have been heard at the town hall last Saturday evening, has been continued again, coming up for trial next Saturday evening.

Mrs. Mary B. Yeomans had returned from her October 1st by the post office department a letter which she mailed last April from Atlanta to Rev. Dr. W. A. Shelton at Cairo, Egypt, who was formerly pastor of the church in the town. The letter followed him around Jerusalem, Mesopotamia, Port Said, Bagdad, Beirut and other places, the envelope being covered with post marks on both sides but failed to reach him.

Miss Eva Perry of Willimantic is staying in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown.

Mrs. T. R. Parker, Mrs. Raymond A. Parker and Mrs. Jay M. Shepard, of Willimantic, were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Clarke Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Jennie Hunt who has been at Groton Long Point visiting Mrs. F. Raymond Hunt returned Saturday.

The large foundation stones have been laid on a portion of the new state road which is being built from the Green toward Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. Ethel Blakeslee, the mail carrier is still confined to her bed with an ailment of organic heart trouble. It is not expected to be about for at least two weeks.

At the Congregational church in South Killingly, Tuesday afternoon, funeral services for William A. Slater were conducted by Rev. Wm. A. Williams of the Danielson Congregational church. Burial was in the Slater family cemetery in East Killingly.

Selection John A. Gilbert, James Bacon and Alcott D. Sayles, all re-elected Monday, Wednesday for the purpose of organizing the board for the coming year. This is the usual meeting at which division of the highways of the town for next year were made and other appointment of work made.

Intrusion of women into full voting rights in Killingly did not materially affect the outcome of the regular town election. It so happened at the point where the new women voters concentrated their activities on candidates for the school committees which three were women—that two republicans and one democratic won as usual, the solitary defeated candidate being a woman. The only noteworthy man among this group of candidates was re-elected.

Killingly's women who qualified as voters have, in the great majority, aligned themselves with the republican party. While the democrats have made some gains in strength because of the women voters, the complexion of Killingly is the same as it was in the days before the Nineteenth amendment to the constitution went into effect.

Deputy Sheriff C. E. Ayer was called into the town of Sterling to arrest a man charged with entering a home there, starting a fight, getting thrown out and returning to the house with a gun and a window with a barrage of Kilikney can-fell. The prisoner was before Justice Hazard of the town of Sterling and was sentenced to 15 days in jail for the disturbance was due to the prisoner's getting lighted up on something containing more than one-half of one per cent of liquor not being in the town.

In various circles in town Wednesday, expressions of appreciation were heard over the action of the town meeting on Monday in not rescinding the vote providing for the construction of a school building at Goodyear. Instead the town reserves by vote the privilege of not expending any money for the construction of the proposed building until such time as industrial conditions warrant the undertaking of the work.

Edward Nash, the boy wounded by a rifle bullet last Friday morning, was being taken to life during Tuesday at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

At the Congregational church in South Killingly, Tuesday afternoon, funeral services for William A. Slater were conducted by Rev. Wm. A. Williams of the Danielson Congregational church. Burial was in the Slater family cemetery in East Killingly.

Selection John A. Gilbert, James Bacon and Alcott D. Sayles, all re-elected Monday, Wednesday for the purpose of organizing the board for the coming year. This is the usual meeting at which division of the highways of the town for next year were made and other appointment of work made.

Intrusion of women into full voting rights in Killingly did not materially affect the outcome of the regular town election. It so happened at the point where the new women voters concentrated their activities on candidates for the school committees which three were women—that two republicans and one democratic won as usual, the solitary defeated candidate being a woman. The only noteworthy man among this group of candidates was re-elected.

Killingly's women who qualified as voters have, in the great majority, aligned themselves with the republican party. While the democrats have made some gains in strength because of the women voters, the complexion of Killingly is the same as it was in the days before the Nineteenth amendment to the constitution went into effect.

Deputy Sheriff C. E. Ayer was called into the town of Sterling to arrest a man charged with entering a home there, starting a fight, getting thrown out and returning to the house with a gun and a window with a barrage of Kilikney can-fell. The prisoner was before Justice Hazard of the town of Sterling and was sentenced to 15 days in jail for the disturbance was due to the prisoner's getting lighted up on something containing more than one-half of one per cent of liquor not being in the town.

In various circles in town Wednesday, expressions of appreciation were heard over the action of the town meeting on Monday in not rescinding the vote providing for the construction of a school building at Goodyear. Instead the town reserves by vote the privilege of not expending any money for the construction of the proposed building until such time as industrial conditions warrant the undertaking of the work.

Edward Nash, the boy wounded by a rifle bullet last Friday morning, was being taken to life during Tuesday at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam.

At the Congregational church in South Killingly, Tuesday afternoon, funeral services for William A. Slater were conducted by Rev. Wm. A. Williams of the Danielson Congregational church. Burial was in the Slater family cemetery in East Killingly.

Selection John A. Gilbert, James Bacon and Alcott D. Sayles, all re-elected Monday, Wednesday for the purpose of organizing the board for the coming year. This is the usual meeting at which division of the highways of the town for next year were made and other appointment of work made.

Intrusion of women into full voting rights in Killingly did not materially affect the outcome of the regular town election. It so happened at the point where the new women voters concentrated their activities on candidates for the school committees which three were women—that two republicans and one democratic won as usual, the solitary defeated candidate being a woman. The only noteworthy man among this group of candidates was re-elected.

Killingly's women who qualified as voters have, in the great majority, aligned themselves with the republican party. While the democrats have made some gains in strength because of the women voters, the complexion of Killingly is the same as it was in the days before the Nineteenth amendment to the constitution went into effect.

Deputy Sheriff C. E. Ayer was called into the town of Sterling to arrest a man charged with entering a home there, starting a fight, getting thrown out and returning to the house with a gun and a window with a barrage of Kilikney can-fell. The prisoner was before Justice Hazard of the town of Sterling and was sentenced to 15 days in jail for the disturbance was due to the prisoner's getting lighted up on something containing more than one-half of one per cent of liquor not being in the town.

In various circles in town Wednesday, expressions of appreciation were heard over the action of the town meeting on Monday in not rescinding the vote providing for the construction of a school building at Goodyear. Instead the town reserves by vote the privilege of not expending any money for the construction of the proposed building until such time as industrial conditions warrant the undertaking of the work.

Edward Nash, the boy wounded by a rifle bullet last Friday morning, was being taken to life during Tuesday at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam.

At the Congregational church in South Killingly, Tuesday afternoon, funeral services for William A. Slater were conducted by Rev. Wm. A. Williams of the Danielson Congregational church. Burial was in the Slater family cemetery in East Killingly.

Selection John A. Gilbert, James Bacon and Alcott D. Sayles, all re-elected Monday, Wednesday for the purpose of organizing the board for the coming year. This is the usual meeting at which division of the highways of the town for next year were made and other appointment of work made.

Intrusion of women into full voting rights in Killingly did not materially affect the outcome of the regular town election. It so happened at the point where the new women voters concentrated their activities on candidates for the school committees which three were women—that two republicans and one democratic won as usual, the solitary defeated candidate being a woman. The only noteworthy man among this group of candidates was re-elected.

Killingly's women who qualified as voters have, in the great majority, aligned themselves with the republican party. While the democrats have made some gains in strength because of the women voters, the complexion of Killingly is the same as it was in the days before the Nineteenth amendment to the constitution went into effect.

Deputy Sheriff C. E. Ayer was called into the town of Sterling to arrest a man charged with entering a home there, starting a fight, getting thrown out and returning to the house with a gun and a window with a barrage of Kilikney can-fell. The prisoner was before Justice Hazard of the town of Sterling and was sentenced to 15 days in jail for the disturbance was due to the prisoner's getting lighted up on something containing more than one-half of one per cent of liquor not being in the town.

In various circles in town Wednesday, expressions of appreciation were heard over the action of the town meeting on Monday in not rescinding the vote providing for the construction of a school building at Goodyear. Instead the town reserves by vote the privilege of not expending any money for the construction of the proposed building until such time as industrial conditions warrant the undertaking of the work.

Edward Nash, the boy wounded by a rifle bullet last Friday morning, was being taken to life during Tuesday at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam.

At the Congregational church in South Killingly, Tuesday afternoon, funeral services for William A. Slater were conducted by Rev. Wm. A. Williams of the Danielson Congregational church. Burial was in the Slater family cemetery in East Killingly.

Selection John A. Gilbert, James Bacon and Alcott D. Sayles, all re-elected Monday, Wednesday for the purpose of organizing the board for the coming year. This is the usual meeting at which division of the highways of the town for next year were made and other appointment of work made.

Intrusion of women into full voting rights in Killingly did not materially affect the outcome of the regular town election. It so happened at the point where the new women voters concentrated their activities on candidates for the school committees which three were women—that two republicans and one democratic won as usual, the solitary defeated candidate being a woman. The only noteworthy man among this group of candidates was re-elected.

Killingly's women who qualified as voters have, in the great majority, aligned themselves with the republican party. While the democrats have made some gains in strength because of the women voters, the complexion of Killingly is the same as it was in the days before the Nineteenth amendment to the constitution went into effect.

Deputy Sheriff C. E. Ayer was called into the town of Sterling to arrest a man charged with entering a home there, starting a fight, getting thrown out and returning to the house with a gun and a window with a barrage of Kilikney can-fell. The prisoner was before Justice Hazard of the town of Sterling and was sentenced to 15 days in jail for the disturbance was due to the prisoner's getting lighted up on something containing more than one-half of one per cent of liquor not being in the town.

In various circles in town Wednesday, expressions of appreciation were heard over the action of the town meeting on Monday in not rescinding the vote providing for the construction of a school building at Goodyear. Instead the town reserves by vote the privilege of not expending any money for the construction of the proposed building until such time as industrial conditions warrant the undertaking of the work.

Edward Nash, the boy wounded by a rifle bullet last Friday morning, was being taken to life during Tuesday at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam.

At the Congregational church in South Killingly, Tuesday afternoon, funeral services for William A. Slater were conducted by Rev. Wm. A. Williams of the Danielson Congregational church. Burial was in the Slater family cemetery in East Killingly.

Selection John A. Gilbert, James Bacon and Alcott D. Sayles, all re-elected Monday, Wednesday for the purpose of organizing the board for the coming year. This is the usual meeting at which division of the highways of the town for next year were made and other appointment of work made.

Intrusion of women into full voting rights in Killingly did not materially affect the outcome of the regular town election. It so happened at the point where the new women voters concentrated their activities on candidates for the school committees which three were women—that two republicans and one democratic won as usual, the solitary defeated candidate being a woman. The only noteworthy man among this group of candidates was re-elected.

Killingly's women who qualified as voters have, in the great majority, aligned themselves with the republican party. While the democrats have made some gains in strength because of the women voters, the complexion of Killingly is the same as it was in the days before the Nineteenth amendment to the constitution went into effect.

Deputy Sheriff C. E. Ayer was called into the town of Sterling to arrest a man charged with entering a home there, starting a fight, getting thrown out and returning to the house with a gun and a window with a barrage of Kilikney can-fell. The prisoner was before Justice Hazard of the town of Sterling and was sentenced to 15 days in jail for the disturbance was due to the prisoner's getting lighted up on something containing more than one-half of one per cent of liquor not being in the town.

In various circles in town Wednesday, expressions of appreciation were heard over the action of the town meeting on Monday in not rescinding the vote providing for the construction of a school building at Goodyear. Instead the town reserves by vote the privilege of not expending any money for the construction of the proposed building until such time as industrial conditions warrant the undertaking of the work.

Edward Nash, the boy wounded by a rifle bullet last Friday morning, was being taken to life during Tuesday at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam.

At the Congregational church in South Killingly, Tuesday afternoon, funeral services for William A. Slater were conducted by Rev. Wm. A. Williams of the Danielson Congregational church. Burial was in the Slater family cemetery in East Killingly.

Selection John A. Gilbert, James Bacon and Alcott D. Sayles, all re-elected Monday, Wednesday for the purpose of organizing the board for the coming year. This is the usual meeting at which division of the highways of the town for next year were made and other appointment of work made.

Intrusion of women into full voting rights in Killingly did not materially affect the outcome of the regular town election. It so happened at the point where the new women voters concentrated their activities on candidates for the school committees which three were women—that two republicans and one democratic won as usual, the solitary defeated candidate being a woman. The only noteworthy man among this group of candidates was re-elected.

Killingly's women who qualified as voters have, in the great majority, aligned themselves with the republican party. While the democrats have made some gains in strength because of the women voters, the complexion of Killingly is the same as it was in the days before the Nineteenth amendment to the constitution went into effect.

Deputy Sheriff C. E. Ayer was called into the town of Sterling to arrest a man charged with entering a home there, starting a fight, getting thrown out and returning to the house with a gun and a window with a barrage of Kilikney can-fell. The prisoner was before Justice Hazard of the town of Sterling and was sentenced to 15 days in jail for the disturbance was due to the prisoner's getting lighted up on something containing more than one-half of one per cent of liquor not being in the town.

In various circles in town Wednesday, expressions of appreciation were heard over the action of the town meeting on Monday in not rescinding the vote providing for the construction of a school building at Goodyear. Instead the town reserves by vote the privilege of not expending any money for the construction of the proposed building until such time as industrial conditions warrant the undertaking of the work.

Edward Nash, the boy wounded by a rifle bullet last Friday morning, was being taken to life during Tuesday at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam.

At the Congregational church in South Killingly, Tuesday afternoon, funeral services for William A. Slater were conducted by Rev. Wm. A. Williams of the Danielson Congregational church. Burial was in the Slater family cemetery in East Killingly.

Selection John A. Gilbert, James Bacon and Alcott D. Sayles, all re-elected Monday, Wednesday for the purpose of organizing the board for the coming year. This is the usual meeting at which division of the highways of the town for next year were made and other appointment of work made.

Intrusion of women into full voting rights in Killingly did not materially affect the outcome of the regular town election. It so happened at the point where the new women voters concentrated their activities on candidates for the school committees which three were women—that two republicans and one democratic won as usual, the solitary defeated candidate being a woman. The only noteworthy man among this group of candidates was re-elected.

Another Chronic Case of Rheumatism Yields to Treatment of Var-ne-sis

Further Proof That

W. A. Varney, Dear Sir—

"For 27 years I suffered all the tortures of pain that go with rheumatism, in my feet, knees, hips, elbows, shoulders, neck, all over my body. I doctored for it in Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Michigan and Wisconsin. Went to a sanitarium in Milwaukee, took all kinds of baths, etc., but got very little relief. I saw a case like mine that was recommended me to relieve rheumatism, but only got a little relief for a while. I was laid up in bed for over a year together. One day, while reading a Boston newspaper, I saw a case like mine that Var-ne-sis relieved. I made up my mind to send for it, and thank God I did, for I am now a well man, entirely free from rheumatic pains. Wishing you success with your medicine, and hoping you will live a great many years to help others as you helped me. Yours respectfully, (Signed) A. P. ALGER."

Don't suffer another day. Get that pain driven out of your system with Var-ne-sis. You ought to read "The Best of Human Nature" by W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass.

VAR-NE-SIS RUB-ON EASES PAIN

during the coming cold weather season. Federal and County Game Warden Harry E. Battey of East Killingly is keeping tabs on those hunters who are inclined to sneak out before the beginning of the open season for shooting and try their luck at game birds.

Harold S. Corbin, special writer on a Worcester paper, has returned to that city after spending a vacation at his home in Putnam.

The diocesan budget of the Episcopal church in Connecticut for St. Phillips mission of this city is $2,500.

The football team of Pomfret school has commenced practice for the schedule of games to be played during the fall season.

Putnam turned out a higher percentage of women voters at Monday's election than any other town in this part of the county.

Tuesday, Registrars Hermon G. Carver and George Polvin were in session at the municipal building to receive applications of those who wish to be made electors.

A Boston paper of recent date contained the following announcement: Eldon

BORN. CORIN—In New York city, Sept. 2, 1920, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Max Corin (widow of Edith L. Cheney, formerly of Norwich).

WASHBURN—In Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 21, 1920, a daughter, Jean Way, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson Washburn (granddaughter to Mrs. Fletcher Wilson of Brooklyn and Gales Ferry).

LANDON—In Danbury, Oct. 4, 1920, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Landon.

MARRIED. RIORDAN—HERBERT—In Westbury, N. Y., Oct. 5, 1920, by Rev. Joseph Carroll, William A. Riordan and Miss Rose A. Hervey.

JOHNSON—ADAMS—In Worcester, Mass., Oct. 2, 1920, by Rev. Dr. Shepard Knapp, Eldon Seaver Johnson of Worcester and Miss Abbie L. Adams of Putnam, Conn.

DIED. CURRY—In Norwich, Oct. 4, 1920, John Curry, funeral at his late home, 309 Otisland road, Thursday morning at 8:30. Requiem mass at Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Mary's cemetery. Automobile cortege.

BROWNING—In Providence, R. I., Oct. 2, 1920, Mrs. Desira Browning, widow of Samuel Browning, formerly of Norwich.

BROOKS—In Carolina, R. I., Oct. 2, 1920, Mary Brooks, aged 77 years.

NICHOLS—In Hope Valley, R. I., Oct. 3, 1920, Silas A. Nichols, aged 85 years.

WALLWORTH—In Stennington (Connecticut), Oct. 4, 1920, John Wallworth, aged 80 years.

PARMELEE—In New London, Oct. 5, 1920, Frederick H. Parmelee, aged 87 years.

MITCHELL—In New London, Oct. 2, 1920, Bertha Wilbur, wife of Millard F. Mitchell of Groton, in her 52d year.

IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of DORIS AUSTIN, who died Oct. 6, 1918. Gone but not forgotten by her mother and sisters.

MRS. JULIA AUSTIN AND DAUGHTERS.

CARD OF THANKS. I wish to express my sincere thanks to friends and neighbors who have so kindly assisted me during the illness and death of my wife; also for the flowers. Those deeds will always be remembered.

CHARLES W. KINGSLEY.

CARD OF THANKS. We are deeply grateful to our relatives and many friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of my wife. Their thoughtfulness and acts of kindness helped us bear our great sorrow. We are especially appreciative of the many floral tributes from relatives, friends, fraternal societies and other organizations, and of their assistance rendered at the funeral.

MRS. HELENA YOUNG AND FAMILY, COSMOS YOUNG AND FAMILY, Danielson, Conn., Oct. 5, 1920.

UPSET STOMACH

Gases Sourness Indigestion Heartburn Flatulence Palpitation

Just as soon as you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Dispepsin all the stomach distress caused by acidity will end. Pape's Dispepsin always puts sick, upset, acid stomachs in order at once. Large 60c case—drugstore.

Church & Allen

15 Main Street

Funeral Directors

AND

Embalmers

Lady Assistants Telephone 328-3

HENRY E. CHURCH

WM. SMITH ALLEN

PRICES—Matinee 20c—Night 25c and 25c—Special Matinee Saturday, Children 15c

TODAY

HOUSE PETERS in "THE CLOSED ROAD"

WARD-RAND & CO. Songs and Dances

TYLER & CROLIUS The Two Nuts

LEW LEONARDS Jew Comedian

THREE HOWARDS The Comedy Jugglers GAUMONT WEEKLY

THURS., FRI., SAT.

ALICE BRADY in "THE DANCER'S PERIL"

Dawson Sisters & Harry Song and Dance Revue

MANNING & LEONARD Comedians

ADDIE WALDOS That Clever Comedian

HILL & SYLVANI Bicycles and Unicycles

HAPPY HOOLIGAN COMIC

—TODAY—

PRINCE IRMA FOUR

HARMONY SINGING OFFERING

SKATING HAMILTONS WILL J. EVANS Novel Roller Skating Offering "The Happy Hob"

MACK AND LANE Eccentric Singing and Dancing Offering

FEATURE PHOTOPLAY

ROBERT WARWICK in "THOU ART THE MAN" FIVE PART PARAMOUNT SPECIAL FEATURE

PARAMOUNT SCREEN MAGAZINE

THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE CAN BE HAD AT THE NORWICH-NEW LONDON BASEBALL GAME

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE W. W. BACKUS NEW AMBULANCE

GAME TO BE PLAYED ON THE NORWICH STATE HOSPITAL GROUNDS AT 3 P. M. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6th

TICKETS, $1.00

EXTRA TROLLEYS WILL RUN

TUBB'S BAND WILL PLAY

"LET'S GO"

GRAND OPENING

1920 DANCE SEASON

ROWLAND'S JAZZ BAND

T. A. B. HALL

FRIDAY EVENING

OCTOBER 8, 1920

SOME GOOD TIME FOR ALL—DON'T MISS IT

FOLLOW THE CROWD

DANCING 8:30

Seaver Johnson, of 112 Main street Worcester, and Miss Abbie Louise Adams of Putnam, Conn., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Adams of that place were married October 2, in Central Congregational church, Worcester, by Rev. Dr. Shepard Knapp. Harold Miller was best man, Miss Bertha A. Willard of Westboro, maid of honor, Miss Alice A. Adams bridesmaid, and Harold S. Johnson ushers.

Asst. Mayor Fest, American Legion, held its meeting Monday at the Arcanum club rooms, by invitation from the club. The entertainment committee gave an interesting report of the convention, and was able to inform the local members, regarding matters which were not clear to the officers and members of the local club. The entertainment committee, Thomas W. Colley, Clifford Trubar, and Michael I. White, gave a preliminary report of the plans for Armistice Day, and was instructed to get the committee on a permanent memorial resolution, and make Armistice Day celebration in Putnam more of a success, if possible, than that of a year ago. The legion will probably ask other organizations in the city, fraternal and patriotic, to join with it in this celebration. The committee on a permanent memorial resolution, that the reserve fund of the Legion had set aside for the purpose, should be used for the purchase of a building, and to hold regular meetings on the side and third Mondays of each month at the Arcanum club rooms. The executive committee appointed James E. Murray, a member of the memorial committee, to take the place of a member who has left town.

Ex-service men who wish to obtain Victory medals before Armistice Day, should see Joseph D. Fitzgibbon, chairman of the committee at an early date, and bring their discharge papers with them. It is pointed out that these medals have already arrived and the boys are crowded with them.

LIST OF CRIMINAL CASES FOR THE OCTOBER TERM

Windham County superior court list of criminal cases for the October term, continued cases: State vs. Charles D. Pomeroy, theft; Lester Broussard, theft; Ponderous Cowen, horse stealing; James C. Caseman, violation of motor vehicle law; Emil Klein, non-support; George J. Barbour, embezzlement; Daniel T. McCarthy, violation of motor vehicle law; William G. Mason, violation of motor vehicle law; Oliver G. Galt, violation of motor vehicle law; Louis A. Gironard, violation of motor vehicle law; Russell Ide, driving auto-