

To Men Who Are Below Par THE EXPERIENCE OF THIS MAN WILL INTEREST YOU

Mr. George Reynolds says: "I am in the insurance business. I was overworked, tired out, nervous and all run-down so I could hardly keep around and it is remarkable how quickly I have been built up by Vinol and my working strength restored."

MACPHERSON "FOR QUALITY"

Just enough chill in the air to remind one of a light-weight overcoat.

Ours are fashioned from service-giving fabrics, practically modeled, carefully tailored and priced with considerable restraint on profit.

A fitting range of sizes.

MACPHERSON QUALITY CORNER

Opposite Chelsea Saving Bank

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES At Norwich, Connecticut

The W. W. Backus Hospital, a general hospital with well equipped medical, surgical and obstetrical departments, offers a three years' course to young women desiring a nurse's profession.

The Backus Hospital is delightfully situated in the best residential section of Norwich, about one mile from the heart of the city, on one of the main trolley lines.

K. A. DOWD, R. N. Superintendent of Nurses, Norwich, Conn.

NOTICE NOW OPEN Home-Made Pies and Cakes of all kinds.

Try Them. AT 11 Thames Street WEST SIDE ALSO Quick Lunch

"The Ring With No End" Lucky is the bride that receives one of FRISWELL'S WEDDING RINGS and lucky is the groom that gives one of these rings for the bride will always esteem his good judgment.

We also carry a full line of goods suitable for Wedding Gifts.

All advertised goods at the lowest prices.

The William Friswell Co. 25 and 27 Franklin Street

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

FRISWELL is an advertising medium in Norwich, Conn.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Monday, Oct. 11, 1920.

VARIOUS MATTERS

High tides will prevail today, the 11th. Light vehicle lamps at 6:45 this evening.

The day's length has decreased four hours. La Touraine Tea reduced to 40c a canister.—adv.

The trees are shedding their leaves too slowly to suit the hunters.

The rainfall in Norwich in October of 1919 amounted to but 5.92 inches.

Moop residents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benson, are ill with typhoid fever.

This term the Norwich Art school has the largest registration in its history.

A democratic caucus will be held at the town hall at Poquonnoc Bridge Tuesday evening.

Open tonight for business. Price's Lunch at the Otis Library.

The reading room at the Otis Library was in charge of Miss Martha A. Ward, Sunday afternoon.

Tale alumni in Norwich learn that the Grand Central Hotel is to be razed for the college year is 1,204.

It is claimed that Mormon missionaries are holding meetings openly in Danielson Sunday evenings.

Mrs. W. P. Backus and daughter Miss Eva Babcock of Plainfield are occupying the Royce cottage at roton Long Point.

Sunshine societies from this section will be represented at Hartford Tuesday at the annual convention.

Old timers were recalling Saturday that the previous day was the 43 anniversary of the great fire at Chicago.

The mercury standing at 78 degrees and a breeze from the west was marked Sunday Oct. 10 in Norwich.

Captain E. Harry Metcalf of Rockville has been honorably discharged from the army at Washington after service since August 1917.

At Mystic Manuel Sylvia has just completed a two-story block on West Main street and land purchased from Mrs. Belle Grant.

Those who own Italian flags will display them tomorrow (Tuesday) with the Stars and Stripes, in recognition of Columbus Day.

Entries for Stafford fair this week include Bonnie Burt, Jr., T. P. Burns, Norwich, Volo Russell, Esq., Frank A. Smith, Norwich.

The recent wind storm blew nearly all the apples from the trees and the wind falls are being made into cider in the suburban districts.

The fall meetings of the Connecticut State Teachers' association will be held at Hartford, New Haven, and New London Friday, Oct. 22.

It was a remarkable fact that in all Sunday afternoon's crowd not even a baby carriage was damaged—and the pedestrians were out in full force.

Sunday evening at the Central Baptist church B. Y. P. U., the leader, was Harold S. Burt, using the topic, Bible Verses Psalm 118:22-40.

It is learned here that the Amherst college alumni association of Connecticut is to inaugurate a Lord Jeffrey Amherst day.

Worcester Tech and the Connecticut Aggies battled to a close finish at Worcester Saturday, with the Worcester team in the winning side of a 9 to 6 score.

In the beautiful music Sunday always a feature at Park church—the anthem was Schumann's O Lamb of God, Still Keep Me, and the offertory, Only Waiting, by Berwald.

Open tonight for business. Price's Lunch Cart.—adv.

Good progress is being made in fitting in the new beach at Ocean Beach which because of neglect the past season proved little better than a breeding place for mosquitoes.

The woods in the valley below the Jerome place in Montville are as beautiful in the splendor of autumn as any other in the White Mountain section can offer.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds of Norwich have been visitors in Norwich recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harris of Chicago are visiting Mrs. W. M. Perkins of 118 McKinley avenue.

An exchange mentions that N. Eugene Smith and Frank Arnold, of Norwich, have been guests of E. T. Smith, of Haddon.

Capt. Samuel R. Knapp, who has spent the summer with his daughter, Miss Jessie K. Knapp, in Portland, Me., has returned to Norwich and is residing on Washington street.

FUNERAL

Funeral services for Timothy Duneagan were held from his late home at 113 Spring street on Saturday morning with relatives and friends in attendance.

There were many handsome floral tributes. At the services in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin was celebrant of the mass of requiem and Prof. F. L. Farrell was at the organ.

The bearers were James Manning, John Haggerty, John Barry, George Swanson, Timothy O'Connor and Dennis Coghlin. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Rev. Father Galvin read a committal service. Hourigan Bros. were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Charles A. Northrop (Contributed)

With the passing of Charlotte Elizabeth Hurbutt, beloved wife of Rev. Charles Addison Northrop, of Saturday at her home in Beach Drive, a most faithful character, loving, sympathetic, kind, generous and thoughtful, will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her intimately and by the memory of her who will live forever.

She was true, tender, noble and loyal and endeared herself to her children and friends by her warm, loving affection. She was ever doing deeds of kindness, giving to the poor and needy and ever trying to make some life brighter and happier by her generous contributions.

To see others being provided for and free from care was her greatest delight. Her interest in dumb animals and their welfare was always uppermost in her thought, for her tender and compassionate nature ever prompted her to help those who were in need.

She was a great lover of nature. She loved her home and her family and for this reason she did not care for society. Born at Georgetown, Conn., March 17, 1853, the youngest daughter of Edmund Ogden Hurbutt and Mary Gilbert Hurbutt, she spent her girlhood days in Western Connecticut, graduating from the Connecticut Normal school in 1875.

She was united in marriage with Rev. Charles Addison Northrop in Georgetown on Nov. 10, 1878, and after spending one year in Michigan, followed by three years in Jewett City, she came to Norwich in 1885 where she has since made her home.

Besides her husband and a sister, Mrs. O. S. Starr of Stamford, she is survived by all of her six children, Mrs. Robert A. King of Springfield, Conn., Mrs. Henry A. Morgan of Worcester, Mass., Miss Florence V. Northrop of Norwich, Mrs. George Palmer of Miami, Fla., Addison Hurbutt Northrop of Cleveland, O., and Mrs. W. J. Reynolds of Lebanon, N.H.

There are five grandchildren, Gilbert Donald and Cyrus Morgan and Robert Belden King.

WEDDING

La Chappell-Youngs On Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Youngs in Voluntown, their daughter, Miss M. was united in marriage with George D. La Chappell of Voluntown. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families by Rev. W. J. Reynolds of Lebanon.

There were five grandchildren, Gilbert Donald and Cyrus Morgan and Robert Belden King.

ATTORNEY DESMOND CORNER FOR BALANCE OF TERM

It was announced in Hartford Sunday night that the superior court judges of the state had appointed Attorney Jeremiah D. Desmond of this city corner for New London county to fill the unexpired term of the late Franklin H. Brown.

Since Mr. Brown's death on Sept. 25, Mr. Desmond has been acting corner under the appointment by State Attorney Hadial A. Hull.

Fixed $50 and Costs. In the police court Saturday morning, Fred W. Johnson of Washington street, was fined $50 and costs for driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Grand Marshal J. Edward Driscoll started the line moving from Burnham square shortly before 3 o'clock, the start having been delayed owing to the late arrival of the New London and Groton societies which came to the city on board the steamer Nelsco II, which had been obliged to put back after starting because of the sudden illness and death of one of the Nelsco band members Melvin W. Gross of New London, a former resident of this city for many years. The parade moved as follows:

First Division. Platoon of Police, Capt. D. J. Twomey Commanding.

Grand Marshal Edward Driscoll, Rev. W. A. Keefe, Diocesan Director of Holy Name Societies, Chief of Staff John W. Burke, Adjutant Edward G. McKay, honorary staff, Henry D. Buckley, William T. Mox, George Chapman, Paul Schepps, James Purcell, Peter J. Kelly, Thomas Bruno.

Tabler Military Band. St. Mary's Norwich, Rev. W. H. Kennedy, chaplain; Wm. T. Mahoney, president, 460 men.

Tatville, Rev. U. O. Bellerose, chaplain, 250 men. Baltic Band.

Ocum and Versailles, Rev. F. R. H. Deshaumont, chaplain; Denis Welch, marshal, 60 men.

2,800 IN LINE IN HOLY NAME PARADE

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

2,800 IN LINE IN HOLY NAME PARADE

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

It was estimated that the parade was two miles long. Five bands and a drum corps furnished the music for the marchers, of whom every man carried the blue Holy Name banner.

By train, trolley and boat the Holy Name societies from all parts of the county converged on Norwich Sunday afternoon to take part in the state-wide Holy Name demonstration, which sent a marching host of 2,800 men parading through the streets of the city.

Catarrh Germs Move Out When Hyomei Moves In

No stomach aches, Hyomei is made chiefly of eucalyptus taken from the coastal forests of inland Australia, and combined with other excellent antiseptics.

M-I-O-N-A Ends indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching and all stomachic ailments or money back. Large box of tablets at all druggists in all towns.

COLCHESTER

The Colchester Rifle club held a meeting at the Otis Pharmacy Friday evening with a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Chapman moved to Norwich Friday.

A large number from town went to auto trucks Sunday at Norwich at the demonstration and services of the Holy Name societies.

SCOTLAND

Misses Nellie Gerhardt, Ella Place and Nettie Moseley, also Harry Chesnut, spent Sunday, the 9th, at Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Taylor and family and Eugene Kimball, all of Lebanon, spent Sunday of last week in town.

The grange held its meeting last week Friday night. There was a good program.

Another Clark spent a few days in New Britain last week.

There was a hard frost here Thursday morning, the hardest of the season thus far.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

is its new location is installing new equipment, a new lighting system, etc., but teaching the same courses by the same methods as used heretofore—no new instructors—experienced a certified teachers and the best of anything for our 1920 class of which we hope you'll be a member.

JEWETT BUSINESS SCHOOL

50 FRANKLIN STREET

Why Not Enroll Now?

You can start any time but there is no time better than the present.

JEWETT BUSINESS SCHOOL

50 FRANKLIN STREET

We sell Office Supplies, Rent Typewriters, and do High Grade

STENOGRAPHIC WORK

"You Can Do No Better Than Buy Our Wurst."

No Salad Complete Without Thumm's Home-Made Mayonnaise

THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE

40 Franklin Street

THE LA VIDA ELECTRIC VIBRATOR

Quaranteed in every respect. Let us demonstrate this vibrator and prove to you that it is an excellent appliance.

GAS AND ELECTRIC WORK

WESTERN LIGHTING POWER CO.

Westerly, R. I.

THE MYSTIC POWER COMPANY

1 East Main St., Westerly, Conn.

Build Well on Grape-Nuts For breakfast each day, this palatable nourishing blend of wheat and malted barley. Ready-cooked Needs no Sugar "There's a Reason" J. EDWARD DRISCOLL, Grand Marshal of Parade.

By the courtesy of the Plant-Cadden company, leaders containing the two stanzas of this hymn were distributed among the crowd, that all might join in the singing.

Notes. A few years ago, during a similar Holy Name demonstration in Norwich the Catholic women of the city served a lunch to the men at the army. This year, as the hour for the parade was early in the morning, a large number of men that no building in town was big enough to accommodate them, above all as the demonstration was a purely religious one, it was decided to omit that feature, ending the formal demonstration at the close of the out-of-doors Benediction in the grounds of St. Patrick's church.

Many of the visiting men were entertained informally at the Knights of Columbus' Home, on Broadway, or spent a short time at the rooms of St. Mary's Total Abstinence and Benevolent Society.