GREENEVILLE

The Cliff club held its business meeting Thursday evening with the president, Robert Bright, in the chair. Necessary business was transacted and a number of members were served by the ladies' society connected with the club. Among the business matters brought up and discussed was the trouble in securing coal for the furnace in the club house for this winter, but arrangements have been made with the miners to get part of a car load sometime next month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kies of Fourth street are visiting relatives in Thompson, Conn.

Mrs. James Bailey of Oneen, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey of Central avenue.

The death of Mary C. widow of James Moriarty, occurred Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at her home, 408 Central avenue, after an illness of only ten days. Mrs. Moriarty was born in Norwich, the daughter of Thomas and Mary Leary and was married in St. Mary's church, November 24, 1874. She has always lived in Greenville and was an active member of St. Mary's parish. At the time of her death she was president of the Ladies' Charitable society of the church. She was a charter member of the N. E. O. P. and a member of the Ladies' auxiliary, A. O. H.

Mrs. Moriarty is survived by a son, Dr. James L. Moriarty of Waterbury and a sister, Mrs. David Gilmore of this city. Two years ago on Oct. 14, her grandson, James Moriarty, Jr., died at Waterbury while his father, Dr. Moriarty, was in service overseas.

Few residents of Greenville were better known than was Mrs. Moriarty, who was noted for her public spirit, generosity and charity. She was a helpful member of the City Beautiful committee before it merged with the Chamber of Commerce and her efforts in inspiring the school children to care for and take pride in property of the town, the school and the home were painstaking and effective. She was prompt and faithful in her visitations to the hospitals, the almshouse, and the poor and sick and afflicted generally, her cheerfulness and her substantial help causing her to be gratefully remembered by many whom she has heartened and aided in the quiet, gentle, Christian way which reflected her refined, unostentatious nature and broad sympathies.

Anyways, Arranias was never accused of being the author of a tombstone inscription.

The new home of the Knights of Columbus should be another monument to the ideals of Columbia and an inspiration to the members of the order. Father Keeffe said. He considered that it should be not alone a place where the members may meet for recreation, but also be a club center and a place where the former service men may find a source of inspiration. He paid tribute to the patriotic services of the Knights of Columbus during the world war and brought applause when he said that if the people want to know the work of the Knights of Columbus in the war, all that had to be done was to ask any service men who served where the order was represented.

Columbus raised the standard of law and order, Father Keeffe said. "If America is to be happy, prosperous and free, there must be in the heart of the people the spirit of love for the law of God and of the land. Too often 'No God and No Master' is seen on banners. The Knights of Columbus know of but one flag. That's the best flag in the world, the Star Spangled Banner."

In concluding his remarks, Father Keeffe urged all to uphold the ideals of Christianity and the ideals of patriotism and to work together for the glory of God and the welfare of the community.

In the line of social service he laid special emphasis on mutual good will between employer and employe, saying that labor is honorable, is a remedy for sin and a source to develop character.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY FOR WIVES OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES. Since the women are being nominated for political offices, information has been asked as to whether the wives of government employes can have anything to do with politics aside from voting. According to the Official Postal Guide, issued in August, they are not prohibited from lawful political activity. The ruling reads in part: "Competitive employes, while retaining their right to vote and to express privately their opinions on political subjects are forbidden to take an active part in political management or in political campaigns. Employes are accountable for political activity by persons other than themselves, including wives or husbands, if, in fact, the employes are thus accomplishing by collusion and indirectness what they may not lawfully do directly and openly."
