GRAND BENEFIT DANCE

Real estate is changing owners about this village in the vicinity of Black Point, Crescent Beach and Pine Grove. The property at the Point owned by Mrs. Colman, consisting of a large summer hotel, and conducted by her, for many years, was sold last week by her to Henry Black of New York city. He is a summer resident there and he intends to make many changes to alter the property into a summer home. Two pieces of property adjoining this hotel have been purchased by Mr. Black.

Announcements have been received in Pine Grove of the wedding of Miss Dorothy Irwin, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Irwin, and Walter Van Dyke Beyer of Brooklyn, N. Y. The wedding took place at the bride's home, No. 441 Jefferson avenue, Sept. 25th. Mr. Beyer is a graduate of Cornell, 1915, and has spent his vacations for several seasons at Pine Grove where he made many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Beyer are occupying their own home in Brooklyn.

The supper given by the class of 1921 of the Niantic grammar school was well attended and a good sum was realized. After the entertainment there was an auction by Miss Noughbor, who was in charge. The event was such a success it was decided to repeat it.

The Rebekah committee of Niantic lodge of Odd Fellows will hold a public meeting Monday evening at their building on Penn avenue.

Home's Dormant Mr. Black, has returned to his home in the Grove after a business trip to New York city and Cleveland, O.

Mrs. Carrie Alden of Southbridge, Mass., has sold one of her cottages in Pine Grove to Miss Barker of Paterson, N. J.

Mrs. Edward Rogers of Myrtle is keeping house for Mr. Harrington in the Grove. Mr. Rogers, who is working in Myrtle, is visiting her for a few days.

Mrs. Fannie Tracy has returned to the home of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Tracy, in East Haddam, to remain a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Tracy were in Willimantic Wednesday attending a lodge meeting to which they were delegates. They were en route to Hartford for a visit before starting on their long journey to Kansas City, Mo., to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. D. J. Ward.

Mrs. Olivia M. Case will leave soon for Brooklyn, N. Y., to spend the winter with relatives.

Selectman and Mrs. P. A. Beckwith have returned to their home on Grand street after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George Couler and family in Waterbury. The Coulers lived in Niantic for many years.
