

WESTERLY

The Westerly Board of Trade has voted to aid in the project of the Westerly Historical Society, in an observance of the Pilgrim tercentenary, Wednesday evening, Nov. 17. The historical society was represented at the meeting by Librarian Basil Wood and Rev. Samuel M. Cathers. It is expected that the local churches and schools will cooperate. There will be two speakers of national fame. One speaker is P. Whitwell Wilson, representing the London Daily News in this country. He was a member of parliament from 1868 to 1910 and has been with the News twelve years. He took mathematical honors at the University of Cambridge and was president of the University society, this being his highest distinction for distinction.

The other speaker will be Rev. J. Percival Hugel, D.D., pastor of Tompkins Avenue Congregational church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The board of trade voted to share the expense equally with the historical society.

President John O. Mills presided at the meeting. Secretary Edgar P. Maxson was instructed to inform the Providence Chamber of Commerce that the Westerly board heartily endorses the action of Governor Heckman in proclaiming Armistice Day, November 11, a legal holiday.

Frank W. Coy made a report regarding the added railroad service at Westerly, by the stopping here of the 3:19 p. m. west bound express, and expressed pleasure of the consideration given Westerly by the railroad company.

President Mills appointed the following committee on soldiers and sailors' memorial: Charles E. Fowler, Arthur L. Perry, W. Russell Dowse, John O. Mills, George H. Utter, Charles J. Butler and Louis Deane.

Thursday was the eighth court day convened by the United States district court, in hearing the case of Braggio Gradione James Assanous and Salvatore Padino, on a consolidated indictment charging the three Westerly men with breaking the seal of a freight car at Bradford, March 9, larceny therefrom and conspiring to receive, buy and take away stolen goods in interstate commerce. More than forty witnesses appeared for the government and thirty for the defense. A complete denial was entered by the defendants, and each offered the jury an alibi that he was not in Bradford on the night of the robbery.

Associated with John J. Fitzgerald, of Pawtucket, in representing the defendants is John J. Ryan, of Westerly. District Attorney Cannon has been aided in the prosecution by Assistant Attorney Mahoney.

Mr. Fitzgerald argued Wednesday afternoon for an hour and forty-five minutes, and when court adjourned at five o'clock, United States District attorney had not completed his argument.

The funeral of Sarah Sheldon Loveland, widow of John I. Loveland was held from her residence in Elm street, Thursday afternoon. Burial was in the family plot at River Bend. Mrs. Loveland has always been affiliated with the Calvary Baptist church and the funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Louis A. Vothel. There were beautiful floral tributes and a large number of friends attended the funeral. Mrs. Loveland was a generous contributor to the church, and it is supposed to be her aim to aid and comfort others. She frequently visited the sick and lightened the burden of the deserving poor.

Prize of New England League, No. 6989. J. O. F. Manchester Unity, will observe the thirtieth anniversary of organization next Saturday. The lodge will open at four in the afternoon, with grand officers of the district at the official and guests of honor. At 8:45 there will be a banquet in the parlor of Grace Methodist church, where 175 persons can be accommodated. There will be a dance in the town hall from 8:30 to 11:30.

While blasting rock, Sunday afternoon, on Tower Hill, South Kingston, William straight was seriously injured by reason of a premature explosion. One arm was blown off and three fingers of the other hand. He was blinded and received several body wounds. He was taken to the South County hospital, Wakefield.

Local Deaths.
Miss Helen Chates of North Stonington, in substituting for Miss Marie Zangrandi for two weeks at the Westerly Public Library. Miss Zangrandi is now in New York with her sister, Miss J. Emma Zangrandi, who is soon to sail on her annual trip to Bermuda, where she spends the winter.

Coroner Ferguson recently appointed, is giving attention to the fatal Bailey shooting case.

The Colonial Aircraft company is to have an airplane in North Carolina for commercial purposes. George H. Harper is to start for the south Monday to make the preliminary arrangements.

Edward A. Farrell expects to start for Miami, Florida, Monday next.

The narrow light nuisance case is on the docket of the Third District court for trial (today Friday).

Narransett council, Knights of Columbia, is to have rooms in the village building.

Mrs. Ella J. Farnsworth, 64, wife of John F. Farnsworth, died Thursday, at her home in Newton avenue.

CANTERBURY PLAINS

There is much rejoicing in Canterbury over the election Tuesday. El Ethen Johnson and Mrs. Lillian Frink are the representatives from Canterbury. Mrs. Frink is very popular in church and social circles and has many friends in the nearby towns. All feel sure that she will make a good representative from Canterbury.

Mrs. Harry Dean of Central Village and Mrs. Alice Moffitt of Wareham visited their mother, Mrs. Henry Williams, Tuesday.

Dwight Bushnell, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Emily Bushnell, for a few days, has returned to South Willington to work. Arthur Bushnell has come home for a few weeks' rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooley and infant have gone to Boston, where Mr. Cooley will work this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ericson have moved from New York and will occupy their home, known as the Ward place.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schults and Mr. Robinson from Addison were week-end visitors at E. P. Sabins.

F. A. Hicks is able to be up and around the house after an illness of four weeks.

Mrs. E. P. Sabins has bought the place owned by William Pope.

Litchfield.—The funeral of Hon. Morris W. Seymour was held at his home in Litchfield Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. William J. Brewster, rector of the Episcopal church, conducted the service. Burial was in the family lot in the East cemetery. The casket was borne by porters.

Stonington Pointers.
Mr. and Mrs. Jerome E. Anderson, Jr., were in Westerly Thursday.

The Republican of Myrtle celebrated the big victory by a parade Tuesday night, and enthusiastic republicans from the borough rallied the ranks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Linden are visiting in Boston.

E. W. Beattie, Jr. leaves today (Friday), for St. Petersburg, Florida, where he will spend the winter.

Misses Mary A. and I. Hicks have closed their summer home in the borough and returned to New York.

Stonington High School football team and the Varsity of State London, are scheduled for a game on Owen field, Saturday afternoon.

Stonington.—The funeral of Alfred N. Y., was held in Stonington, April 5, 1917, the son of the late Benjamin F. and Ella Irish Langworthy. In 1917 the family moved to Alfred. He became a factor in religious, educational and civic affairs. In 1913 Mr. Langworthy joined the Alfred Seventh Day Baptist church. He served in the navy in the Civil war. In 1879 he married Miss Louise Stillman. She survives him, as does also three sons, Olin F., Howard S., and Quincy B. Langworthy, also a daughter, William I. Langworthy, Jerome Anderson, Jr., succeeded to the idea that the time to celebrate was when the enjoyment was at white heat, and he determined to start something in celebration of the big political victory in which the borough did well its part. In short order he collected funds sufficient to hire the band and the drum corps and hired red fire and the big demonstration took place on Wednesday night. The earliest possible time after election. Nearly every republican in the borough fell into line and the result was a big parade in keeping with the big event celebrated.
