

The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, Nov. 15, 1929.

START HOLY CROSS DRIVE FOR $15,000 IN EASTERN CONNECTICUT

THE WEATHER.

Winds off Atlantic coast. North of Sandy Hook—Fresh and strong shifting winds blowing north-west, rain or snow followed by clearing weather Friday.

Forecast.

Northern New England: Clear and colder weather Friday, followed by rain in early morning, Saturday, fair and continued cold.

Observations in Norwich.

The following observations show the following record from changes in temperature and barometric pressure:

Table with 2 columns: Time and Temperature/Barometric Pressure.

SEAS, MOON AND TIDES.

Table with 2 columns: Time and Sea/Moon/Tide data.

TAFVILLE

Robert McArthur who recently enlisted in the U. S. army left for Springfield, Mass. he will be stationed at the army.

GREENEVILLE

Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Margaret Sidel of Greenwich, Conn.

BACKS HOSPITAL ALUMNI

The Alumni Association of the W. W. Backs Hospital held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the music home.

MR. REGWIN TO SUCCEED

FOR REV. A. H. EDDOTT
Owing to the illness of a member of his family which calls him out of town, Rev. Alexander H. Eddott, who was to be the soloist at the third organ recital under the auspices of the Women's auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., will not be able to sing.

BRIGGS' MENTHOLATED-MORACAND COUGH DROPS

GET the BRIGGS' HABIT and colds or coughs won't bother you.

CARRIAGE COMPANY MASS.

REV. JOSEPH DINAND, S. J.

The Holy Cross alumni gave the Eastern Connecticut campaign for $15,000 of the college fund for their beloved college at Worcester a rosy and enthusiastic send-off with a reception and luncheon Tuesday evening at the Worcester Hotel.

Father Dinand Speaks.

Father Dinand was the next speaker introduced and his eloquent address held the closest attention of his hearers. He spoke of the 10 years in the history of the college which had brought it to a time when it was accommodating 725 students who were only about 500.

Relieve Neuralgia

Salicon TABLETS
Do not avoid the pain just after the stomach.

A Star.

Miss Sadie Driscoll, Tumble-down Shook in Athlete, Nicholas Speltman, Whete the River Shannon Flows, Edward T. Connelly.

Speech-making Begins.

At 9:30 Toastmaster Desmond opened the speaking programme, referring to the fact that he was the dean of the Holy Cross alumni present and declaring that the record of the college which would be heard tonight would be ample proof of its value in the formation of stable citizenship.

Welcomed by Mayor Lerou.

The mayor was greeted with cheers and the college yell as the banqueters rose to their feet as they did for each speaker who was introduced during the evening.

Father Keefe Speaks.

Father Keefe expressed his great pleasure at the fine attendance at the banquet and made a touching reference to his own father's daily thought as he carried his dinner pail through the streets of Watertown with the purpose ever in mind of giving his boy a better education than he himself had received.

Jewett City Pastor Speaks.

Rev. J. J. McCabe of Jewett City was asked to speak as substitute for a lay member from Worcester who was not able to attend. Father McCabe responded briefly but effectively, predicting success for the campaign in which the response will be a tribute to the great work these Jesuit fathers at Holy Cross are doing for God and country.

Bishop Murray Final Speaker.

Bishop Murray impressively presented the chains of the college when he was introduced as the last speaker. He referred in a complimentary way to the work of the college which had brought it to a time when it was accommodating 725 students who were only about 500.

of the kind of work Holy Cross has done in producing notable men by mentioning Governor David L. Walsh of Massachusetts, who when he came walking up Linden lane to enter college brought with him the simple note from his pastor saying "his sisters will pay."

State Chairman Keefe Speaks.

Toastmaster Desmond introduced Rev. W. A. Keefe of this city, state chairman of the Holy Cross campaign, with a reference to the great work that Father Keefe did in patriotic speaking during the war.

At 9:30 Toastmaster Desmond opened the speaking programme.

The singing of all soloists was thoroughly enjoyable and numerous encores were responded to. Community singing was a feature of the affair.

Speech-making Begins.

At 9:30 Toastmaster Desmond opened the speaking programme, referring to the fact that he was the dean of the Holy Cross alumni present and declaring that the record of the college which would be heard tonight would be ample proof of its value in the formation of stable citizenship.

Welcomed by Mayor Lerou.

The mayor was greeted with cheers and the college yell as the banqueters rose to their feet as they did for each speaker who was introduced during the evening.

Father Keefe Speaks.

Father Keefe expressed his great pleasure at the fine attendance at the banquet and made a touching reference to his own father's daily thought as he carried his dinner pail through the streets of Watertown with the purpose ever in mind of giving his boy a better education than he himself had received.

Jewett City Pastor Speaks.

Rev. J. J. McCabe of Jewett City was asked to speak as substitute for a lay member from Worcester who was not able to attend. Father McCabe responded briefly but effectively, predicting success for the campaign in which the response will be a tribute to the great work these Jesuit fathers at Holy Cross are doing for God and country.

Bishop Murray Final Speaker.

Bishop Murray impressively presented the chains of the college when he was introduced as the last speaker. He referred in a complimentary way to the work of the college which had brought it to a time when it was accommodating 725 students who were only about 500.

REV. W. A. KEEFE

reputation for hospitality which he said Eastern Connecticut had, and said that the world was now faced with an enemy from within, disintegration and demoralization which forgets that God is in the heavens.

At 9:30 Toastmaster Desmond opened the speaking programme.

The singing of all soloists was thoroughly enjoyable and numerous encores were responded to. Community singing was a feature of the affair.

Speech-making Begins.

At 9:30 Toastmaster Desmond opened the speaking programme, referring to the fact that he was the dean of the Holy Cross alumni present and declaring that the record of the college which would be heard tonight would be ample proof of its value in the formation of stable citizenship.

Welcomed by Mayor Lerou.

The mayor was greeted with cheers and the college yell as the banqueters rose to their feet as they did for each speaker who was introduced during the evening.

Father Keefe Speaks.

Father Keefe expressed his great pleasure at the fine attendance at the banquet and made a touching reference to his own father's daily thought as he carried his dinner pail through the streets of Watertown with the purpose ever in mind of giving his boy a better education than he himself had received.

Jewett City Pastor Speaks.

Rev. J. J. McCabe of Jewett City was asked to speak as substitute for a lay member from Worcester who was not able to attend. Father McCabe responded briefly but effectively, predicting success for the campaign in which the response will be a tribute to the great work these Jesuit fathers at Holy Cross are doing for God and country.

Bishop Murray Final Speaker.

Bishop Murray impressively presented the chains of the college when he was introduced as the last speaker. He referred in a complimentary way to the work of the college which had brought it to a time when it was accommodating 725 students who were only about 500.

SCHOOL ENUMERATION SHOWS GAIN OF 85 IN YEAR

The school enumeration of the schools of Norwich shows a total of 6,444, a gain of 85 over 1918. The annual report of the enumerators of children between the ages of 4 and 16 for the return required by the state shows the following results:

Table with 2 columns: District and Number of Children.

The schools showing the largest gains for the year are Greenville, West Side and the Falls.

Diphtheria Patient in Isolated Ward.

Mary Nesotes of 42 Thames street was taken to the Backus hospital shortly after 8 o'clock on Thursday evening in the ambulance suffering from diphtheria. She was placed in the isolated ward at the hospital.

Louis Raicet Recovering.

Louis Raicet of Cliff street, the boy who was accidentally shot by a playmate on Halloween, is improving rapidly at the Backus hospital and his complete recovery is practically assured. The boy was shot through the abdomen.

Skeleton in the Closet.

W. J. Bryan still insists that he is a democrat but what peevish with Bill is that he is on telling it on us—Lexington Herald.

Resolutions of Res. et.

At a meeting of the class of 1912, Norwich Free Academy, held Nov. 11, 1929, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

YALE WILL DEDICATE MEMORIAL TABLETS SUNDAY

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 11.—Henry L. Stimson, former secretary of war will deliver the address at the exercises to be held Sunday, November 21, when Yale University will dedicate memorial tablets in honor of the 225 Yale men who gave their lives in the war.

Winsted, Miss. Avia Talbot, who recently resigned as home economics demonstrator of the Fairfield county farm bureau, has concluded her duties and is at present visiting friends in Winsted before leaving for Des Moines, Ia. where she will spend the winter at the home of her sister. Miss Talbot's successor has not been appointed.

For Corns Little or Big--Use "Gets-It"

Whether your "pe" is on top or between the toes, no matter how big or how small or how "tender" three drops of "Gets-It" will hit you right out of your misery. You will laugh to see how quickly your corn lets go its grip, how it curls right up and dies so you can lift it off with your fingers. It's toky and non-toxic to give and trim a corn trying to ease its pain when "Gets-It" will easily rid you of it entirely.

The Only Way to Cure a Corn is to Remove it with "Gets-It"

"Gets-It" is sold at all drug stores and costs cents but a trifle. Your money back on request. Mfg. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Norwich and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Chas. Osgood and H. M. Lerou & Co.

THE BOSTON STORE

QUALITY INDIVIDUALITY SERVICE
The Boston Store's APPAREL SHOP

Suits 1/2 Price

Friday and Saturday

UNRESTRICTED CHOICE OF OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF WOMEN'S AND MISSES' SUITS. THE VERY LATEST MODELS AND MOST PLEASING FABRICS AND COLORINGS WILL BE FOUND.

None on Approval None Reserved Alterations Free

20% OFF On All Coats and Dresses
Our entire stock of modish frocks and handsome Winter Coats will be sold Friday and Saturday at a reduction of Twenty Per Cent.

20% OFF On All Apparel Shop Waists
This means everything, from the simplest Velle to the richest and more expensive Silk Crepes and Georgette—reduced just Twenty Per Cent.

ONE LOT OF $25.00 WOOL SKIRTS
We have just received a most attractive assortment of Plaid and Stripe Wool Skirts, from one of the makers of better grade skirts who was anxious to close out his stock. They have been selling this season for $25.00. Our price Friday and Saturday is just $16.50.

N. S. GILBERT & SONS

SPECIAL THANKSGIVING OFFERINGS
Dining Room

Table with 2 columns: Offering No. and Item/Price.

Come and See the New Rugs and Linoleums
N. S. GILBERT & SONS
ECONOMY CORNER SHETUCKET STREET
"PONY VOTES FOR THE CHILDREN."