DANIELSON

Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Ayer took into custody Thursday morning Everett Cobb, 19, of Killingly Center, to face a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Ralph Colvin of Hampton.

Cobb was brought here and lodged at the police station for about two hours pending the arrival from Hampton of Deputy Sheriff J. H. Fitts, who took him in charge and transferred him to Hampton for a hearing.

At the hearing, Cobb was presented in Justice William C. Oliver's court and charged with manslaughter. His attorney, Mr. Daniels, demurred to this charge, but the demurrer was overruled.
