NORWICH TOWN

It is sincerely regretted by many that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marsh and family are to leave Norwich town. They have purchased a home on Peck street, Norwich, and expect to move there soon. The Marsh family has resided on Town street for the past six years, being most congenial neighbors and making friends among a large circle. The children are identified with the First Congregational church and Sunday school and the Christian Endeavor society connected with this church. Mrs. Marsh has been an active member of the First Congregational Home Mission society also being a member of the King's Daughters. Mr. Marsh, who is employed by the Falls Mill company, has of late been in charge of the power house there. Good wishes will follow them to their new home, as lasting friendships have been cultivated with whom the family members were most intimately associated. This was demonstrated Friday evening when a large gathering visited their home to give them a farewell party. In behalf of the call, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh were presented a large Christmas card. In the attendance were many from the Neighborhood Whist club, of which Mr. and Mrs. Marsh were members during the past few winters. The evening's entertainment comprised games, music and dancing. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

Ever Ready circle of the King's Daughters held a meeting Wednesday evening to make plans for Christmas gifts. Under the auspices of this circle, by invitation the Norwich town quintette will give a concert at the Backus hospital Sunday afternoon. This will be the third time this year the quintette has brought cheer to the patients by providing an hour of delightful music.

Rev. George H. Welch, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd (Universalist), will have charge of the Sunday afternoon service at the Sheltering Arms. Members of the church choir will provide the singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Greene have returned to their home on West Town street after passing Thanksgiving and the week end at the home of Mrs. Greene's sister, Mrs. M. H. Hansen, of Providence, R. I.

Mrs. Maurice Wallen (Ruth L. Petter) Hart was a caller in Norwich town Thursday, having motored here in an attractive new roadster.

What Navy Enlistment Offers.

The young man that enlists in the navy is offered in return for his services a chance to travel with pay—learn a trade with pay—learning—free clothing allowance—medical attention—athletics and sports of all kinds—a chance to take the entrance examination to the naval academy at Annapolis—splendid opportunities of becoming an officer from the enlisted ranks—above all, a chance to make a man out of himself—to be someone in this world.
