Which is wiser—to have confidence in the opinions of your fellow-citizens, of people you know, or depend on statements made by utter strangers reading in far-away places? Read the following:

Calvin L. Briggs, carpenter, 37 Fenobest St., Norwich, says: "I think my work had a great deal to do with my trouble, as over-lifting seemed to aggravate the pains that were in my back almost constantly. I got so bad, I couldn't lift at all and I could hardly straighten up. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me good relief. I recommend them so that others who are troubled with kidney complaint will know of a good medicine."

MOSES KLINGON TAKES OVER OTHER INTERESTS BROADWAY REAL ESTATE

Moses Klingon of Colchester, who was one of a combination of four men who made a year ago bought from William H. Shields his building and lot 31-35 Broadway, with the announced intention of erecting a theater on it, has become the sole owner of the equity in the property. A deed to him transferring the interest of George Greenberger and Harry M. Lank was recorded in the town clerk's office Friday. M. J. Zuckerman, who was the other one of the quartette, had previously decided his interest to the other partners.

The coach Mr. Klingon Friday evening were without success, but it was understood that his acquisition of absolute ownership of this very eligible site means the building of a theater upon it before the year is out. The intention is it is believed, to start work in the spring and get the theatre ready for opening by the first of December. In this connection, it is said that the prospects may be that an entrance to the theater from Franklin square may be secured through the Thayer building, which has just been leased by Joseph C. Wood.

After the four men named had bought the Shields building early last year for the reported price of $45,000 of which $40,000 was represented by a mortgage for that amount on the property, plans were drawn up for the theater, but erec-tion was abandoned because of the high cost of building at that time. It was reported, since then the property has remained in the same condition, as when it was purchased. If Mr. Klingon now goes ahead with the erection of the theater, it will mean an important improvement of a valuable piece of business property in the center of the city.

THOMAS BROWNING HEWITT, NOTED NEW YORK LAWYER Thomas Browning Hewitt, a native of North Stonington, who died in the Skene Sanatorium in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Thursday was recognized as one of the most eminent men in the legal profession and one of a most successful lawyers in New York during his fifty years of practice in the New York courts.

Mr. Hewitt was not only endowed with a brilliant mind but also possessed a personality that created a lasting impression on all with whom he came in contact, either through professional or in a social way.

Born in North Stonington on September 5, 1842, the only son of Dennison and Mary Prentice Browning Hewitt, whose families have been prominent in North Stonington history since the days before the revolution, Mr. Hewitt has always been closely connected with the welfare of his native town. Although he has not devoted much of his life to active work in that town, he always kept its welfare close to his heart.

His early life was spent on the Hewitt homestead where he attended the schools of his native town. He prepared for Yale at Phillips-Andover Academy, entering Yale in 1860. His college career was one of brilliancy, not only excelling in his studies but in athletics. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, and his strength he showed on one of the first of the Yale crews which contributed so largely in giving this athletic sport such impetus that it has become a leading feature of the present day.

Mr. Hewitt was graduated from Yale in 1864 with the degree of bachelor of arts and seven years later was given the degree of master of arts.

At the close of the business season the remainder of the evening was devoted to an entertainment programme, after which one of Zabrick's chowders was served.

The programme included two solos. "Tired of Me and I Am in Heaven in My Mother's Arms," by Louis Swarburg; "African dancing by Frank Haste, a sailor at the suburban base, was an exhibition of magic by Prof. William J. Banfield; solo, My Bonnie, Bonnie Jean, by Fred B. Powers and a concert programme by the Hawaiian stringed orchestra from the suburban base, Eddie Peabody, the whirlwind banjo player.

Frank Haste made a decided hit with his "African dancing act and Prof. Banfield mystified his audience. The solos were heartily enjoyed for their excellent rendered selections.

The Hawaiian string orchestra was the big feature of the evening. The orchestra, comprising eight pieces, all musicians of unusual ability, is among the best of its kind ever heard in Norwich. The soloist, Eddie Peabody, the star player, Eddie, who carried all the solo parts, demonstrated his ability to handle almost any kind of a stringed instrument.

At the close of the programme all present enjoyed one of Zabrick's oyster chowders. The menu included chowder, crackers, rolls, doughnuts, cake and coffee, the cake being provided by the young ladies of the Y. W. C. A. and cigarettes were freely circulated.

The committee in charge of the evening comprised Edwin Del. Blood, chairman, William A. Anderson, William M. Skelley and Miss Gertrude O'Neil.

COUNTY Y. M. C. A. MAKING PLANS FOR TWELVE MONTHS Roy E. Keller, secretary of the New London County Y. M. C. A., attended a meeting of the various county secretaries in New Haven Wednesday. The meeting was held for the purpose of considering the work of the coming twelve months and to develop new phases of activities.

Preliminary plans were made for a county older boys' conference to be held the latter part of February. This conference is to be promoted by the County Y. M. C. A. and the County Sunday School association.

Last year the older boys' conference was held in Groton and was attended by over 100 delegates from various sections of the county. It is hoped that this year's conference will be even a greater success.

Palmertown has been added to the list of organized groups. County Secretary Keller met the boys of that town this week at which time a fourfold programme of activities was adopted for the winter, under the supervision of Percy Allen.

Recently a number of Everett City people enjoyed a concert given by the Rainbow Girls, the second number given by the White Entertainment Bureau this year, under the auspices of the County Y. M. C. A. The third number of the course will be given the latter part of this month.
