What is Going On Tonight
Olympic Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F. meets at 8:07 Main street.

Commencement exercises of the class of 1921, at St. Joseph's hospital training school for nurses were held Tuesday night at St. Mary's hall on Valley street. About four hundred relatives and friends of the graduates attended. The graduates, numbering eight were seated on the stage. Members of the medical staff at the hospital, the clergy of St. Joseph's and St. Mary's church, sisters from convents of both churches, and members of the Nurses' Alumni occupied seats in the front of the hall. The stage had been decorated in green, potted plants adding much to the effect. The class motto, "God Guiding, Nothing Hurts" was displayed. The class color was orange. Music was furnished by the Peerless orchestra.

The program of exercises began at 8:15 o'clock with a selection by the orchestra. The address of the evening was by Rev. Cornelius Tuohy of the Sacred Heart church, Waterbury, his subject being "Life Work of a Nurse." Father Tuohy compared the work of the nurses with that of the women who assembled at the foot of the cross at Calvary. Following a selection by the orchestra, Mrs. Henry J. Mathieu sang "Love's Sorrow," and as an encore "Candle." Miss Mildred Moriarty sang "Absent." The program was then presented by Dr. Clarence R. Simonds. The graduates were, Mary Grace Slatery and Winifred Connell of Norwich, Julia Madeline Murphy, Mary Ross Goss, and Len Loretta Sullivan of Willimantic, Marie Anna Conway of Hartford, Mary Helena Donohue of New London, and Frances Agnes Lynch of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. Keep Your Kidneys Flushed Rheumatism, backache and severe migraines more often come from the system through sluggish kidneys. People who eat heartily may go along for years and all of a sudden break down. They didn't realize they were adding a burden to the kidneys because these important organs do not usually play out. It is a safe rule for everyone who is troubled with backache, occasional rheumatism, rheumatic pain, swellings in legs, ankles or under the eyes to use a remedy that cleanses the kidneys. It is so good for the purpose that Druggists Lee & Osgood Co. and other leading druggists guarantee its effectiveness or will refund the money you paid. Try Solvaex and see if you don't feel altogether different. The improvement will be particularly noticeable in less irritation to the bladder, which often disturbs the sleep from two to six or more times a night. Other symptoms such as dizziness and rheumatic pain usually disappear over night.

For Coughs and Colds Use

Bronchitis, most stubborn of all coughs, yields to its healing properties. Try this famous old family remedy and experience the comfort it brings to those who use it. Pure and safe it aids nature in restoring vitality and in relieving coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all forms of throat and lung ailments.

If the weather holds good the ice houses will be cleared up by Friday of this week. The rain Sunday cut into the ice to some extent but a working force of sixty-five men started to cut again Monday. The ice house at the town farm was filled Tuesday and work at the other houses was continued Wednesday. Local dealers have been gathering their crop during the past few days and all should have their houses full before the end of the week.

Chief Killarey locked up a victim of "Jakes" Wednesday afternoon and the latter will be charged with intoxication at police court this (Thursday) morning. The committee in charge of arranging for the "Hoover Dinner" to be held at the state armory on Pleasant street on Sunday night, Feb. 14, are planning an additional surprise. Final plans will be made at the meeting to be held Sunday afternoon at the chamber of commerce rooms.

The American Thread Company men's basketball team won a hotly contested game from the Billings & Spencer five at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night by the score of 33 to 20. The visitors started out strong and rung up several baskets before the local team found themselves and at the end of the first half the score was 20 to 13 against the Thread Company team. With their backs to the wall in the last period of the game the local team went into the game determined to win and steadily picked up on the visitors. Twenty points scored by the locals in the last half against the ten scored by the Hartford five gave the game to the locals. Higgins at center was the individual star for the Thread Company, his eight baskets from the floor with three from the foul line accounting for nineteen of the local's 33 points. Cummings came second with three baskets from the floor. For the Hartford team Getershell, Hurwitz, Everle and Dully were tied with three field goals apiece. Hurwitz also made two goals from the foul line. The lineup and score:

Certain Relief From Bronchial Asthma

Simple Home Treatment Makes Breathing Easy. Just because you start the day tired, lifeless, worn-out from the loss of rest and the difficult breathing of miserable asthma do not think you have to stay this way long. Be strong and well, breathe clearly and easily again by using this simple treatment known as Oxidase, the prescription of a Worcester, Mass., physician.

For any form of asthma where the bronchial tubes are irritated, the breathing short and difficult, its healing, relieving action is really wonderful. Sufferers who can't breathe at night and who gasp for a good, clear breath will appreciate the relief and comfort Oxidase gives. Oxidase is a tablet made from essential oils which, when the patient inhales in the mouth, almost immediately soothes the irritation, clears out the choked up air passages and enables the sufferer to breathe easily and get a real comfortable night's sleep. It is sold by Lee & Osgood, leading druggists, who agree to refund the full purchase price of the first package to any sufferer who does not obtain satisfactory relief. Asthmatic sufferers should give Oxidase a trial. It is harmless and inex-

SAYS DEATH IS UNREAL

Proves That the Dead Still Live. Remarkable evidence that there is no death, there are no dead, is offered by Lloyd Kenyon Jones, Room 1127, 523 S. Clark St., Chicago. His book entitled "God's World," in which he shows how, through God's own law, the spirits of those who have passed through the portals of Death can and do communicate with those on earth. One should be cheered by the thought that loved ones have not been transmitted into cold, impersonal individualities by death, for God's door is always open between earth and eternal life, where we will not be united forever. In his illustrated booklet, "Communication," he presents his plan to his friends and beyond the grave which will enable you to understand "God's World" and show you how to obtain happiness and understanding of life here and in the hereafter. Simply send your name to the author at the above address and the book will be sent to you free of all charges.

EAST THOMPSON

Rinaldo Hoyle, who is at work in Victory Mills, New York, surprised his friends here Sunday afternoon when he drove into town with his Ford automobile that was stolen in Webster, Mass., Dec. 11. The car was found in Boston by a policeman when it was offered for sale by James A. Bennett, 26 years old, of Worcester center place, who was under $1,000 bond for some other crime he had committed. Chief of Police Patrick Canly of Webster was notified to issue a warrant for Bennett's arrest and he was taken to the police station where he immediately left for Boston, gave proof that he was the owner of the car, identified the same and then drove home. Mr. Hoyle left on an evening train for his work in New York with much satisfaction that his car had been recovered.

There were 25 other machines at the police station that had been picked up Saturday night by the police as stolen cars.

Sylvanus Woodward, 71, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Johnson, in Warren, R. I., where he had lived since retiring from a laundry business in Worcester, Mass., in 1896. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Lena Higgins, of Cornell, N. Y. The funeral was held in the M. E. church here Sunday at 1 o'clock. Rev. J. R. Miller officiating. Burial was at East-Thompson beside his parents. Friends were present from Woonsocket, R. I., Warren, North Grafton and Oxford, Mass.

The King's Daughters served a luncheon at the hall for the out of town friends who attended the funeral of Mr. Woodward.

When the body of Mr. Woodward was being brought here for burial, when near Mr. Hawkins place in West Grafton, R. I., as the procession was making its way, the car in the rear ran into the on-ahead. Owing to snow and ice on the windshield, the driver was unable to see ahead. The car ahead was pushed to one side, bending the mudguard, breaking windows, and pulled off a door handle. The rear car had a broken windshield and a few minor damages. In the car run into, Mrs. Jessie Woodward was injured so badly that she was not able to continue the funeral. She was taken to the home of Mr. Hawkins. Dr. Russell, who was called, said her backbone was injured badly. She was able to return home with the others of the funeral party. Others in the car were not injured, only were shaken up.

Everett Huntington was found in the barn where he was working Monday morning about 10 o'clock in a dazed condition, being discovered by Mrs. George Bixby, who with the help of Philip Thompson got him to the hospital. Dr. Paine and Dr. Bragg were called and found he had a deep cut on the back of his head, which required several stitches, and there were also two small cuts. Mr. Huntington was unable to "tell what had happened, only he remembered feeling dizzy. He is comfortable.

David Kaugh, local postmaster, has sold the remaining goods in the store to Bert Kingsbury, who will take charge of the store and postoffice and will move into the tenement over the store as soon as it is vacated.

A new pipeless heater which has been installed in the M. E. church was used for the first time Sunday when several were present. Bert Kingsbury has been ill the past few days.

Miss Lottie Jacobs of Worcester, Mass., and Miss Flora Stevens of Harrisville were at their homes for the week end. Mrs. George Bixby was in Providence Thursday of last week.
