

Marvelous Prescription for Stomach Distress

Rejoice and be glad ye army of nervous wrecks and dyspeptics. No more will you need to explain in that hopeless tone, "Oh! my poor old stomach."

The Bulletin

Norwich, Tuesday, Feb. 15, 1921.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Dealers from eastern Connecticut are in New York to attend the Toy Fair. The day's length has increased an hour and a half since the shortest days about December 21st.

Follow the crowd to the Rebekah what tonight in Odd Fellows hall—adv. Enough snow lingers on lawns and in shaded places to remind observers that it is not yet winter.

Flowers, candy hearts, cupid and the other customary Valentine favors found a ready sale.

The Haven Dairy Company has finished its new creamery at Amston and the building is now in use.

Regular meeting Catholic Ladies of Columbus tonight, St. Anne's room, 8 o'clock—adv.

A West Stafford resident, Dwight J. Quinn, died at his eighty-fourth birthday Monday, St. Valentine's day.

There will be a sitting of the superior court at Middletown this week, Judge Gardner Greene of Norwich presiding.

An interesting collection of rare and beautiful Japanese prints is on exhibition at Messrs. Art Gallery, Slater Hall, Norwich.

George Benjamin Hanna, whose death occurred recently in the Hartford hospital, was a resident of Hebron for a number of years.

Monday's highest temperature was 44 degrees. There were showers during the morning, intermittent sunshine and snow surges after noon.

It is announced from Sterling that Rev. J. J. Carroll, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, will hold the fourth quarterly conference March 3.

According to the reports of the dog wardens about the state no less than 100,000 dogs were killed during the six months from July to December 31.

St. James Lodge, No. 33, P. and A. M., works the second degree at Masonic Temple tonight at 7:30—adv.

In their report to Governor Lake the directors of the State Agricultural College recommend that a course of journalism be established at the college.

Oliver J. Lyman has returned to Connecticut Agricultural College at Storrs having been ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. L. M. Lyman, of Broad street.

A month's mind requiem high mass for Jeremiah O. Reardon, long a resident of Mt. Pleasant street, was sung in St. Patrick's church Monday at 8 o'clock by Rev. James A. Broderick.

Says the Moomoo Journal: Christopher Johnson has cut and drawn 1320 beans to his garden lot on Highland street. A lot of peas brush. Looks as if spring was nearly here.

Just now in the state industrial school at Middletown there are 215 girls. The institution asks for $272,732 for the ensuing year for maintenance and $119,000 for buildings and repairs.

The annual luncheon of the Connecticut Federation of Women's Clubs is to be held at the Hotel Green in Danbury, Saturday, Feb. 19, at 1 o'clock, by invitation of the Federation of Danbury.

The pastor at South Willington, Rev. Theodore Bachelor, his wife and family, are planning to move this week to Prov. where the pastor has accepted the pastorate of the Union Congregational church.

Clarence Granger, of East Randolph, Vermont, was a week-end visitor to friends in Saybrook. His wife was killed when a train hit the automobile, last May, when several were injured at Saybrook Junction.

Including the members of the Thursday afternoon class at Norwich Art school and pupils from Norwich Free Academy, about fifty are receiving instruction from Miss Watrous in the department of pottery.

Just now the J. B. Martin Velvet company is running 24 looms in its Chestnut street plant, whereas 24 other looms are installed, but not connected up yet. At its Pequot mill, Montville, the firm is keeping 150 employees busy.

The special preachers for the mid-week Lenten services at St. Alban's Episcopal church, Danbury, include Feb. 24, Rev. Walter F. Berchert, St. Paul's church, Willimantic; March 10, Rev. David Coombs, St. Paul's church, Plainfield.

A Westford patient, Miss Ellen L. Whitton, who fell and broke her hip last week, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Willimantic January 30. She is making steady recovery, is comfortable and contented at her home.

Among attendants at Park church, families having old linen or cotton for donation to the Backus hospital are being asked to leave it the coming week with Mrs. R. A. Smith, 52 Oneco street, or to telephone 744 and any donations will be gladly received.

The question has arisen among state S. A. R. members whether or not the $600 paid annually by the Connecticut society to the Hartford National Society, toward the payment of the operating expenses of that body, could be better employed in some form of Americanization work.

Train crews from points north tell of a heavy fall of snow in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont Thursday. Three feet of snow is reported in Maine.

At the annual meeting of the Connecticut Nurses' Association last week Henry W. Gottschalk of Manchester was elected president.

Storrs branch of the American Red Cross by doubling its quota made the best record in the Hartford district during the fourth roll call in December, according to George W. Fraser, the local chairman who has been notified by W. H. Johnson, chairman of the district.

The prize for 1920 comes to Storrs. Mrs. John Hick of Hartford, a former resident of Portland, who died at her home in Hartford Friday, is survived by her husband, five sons, including Edw. H. of Rockville, and a daughter, Mrs. Doris Pooley of Hartford, and one brother. The funeral was held from 1185 Main street, Hartford, on Monday afternoon.

In addition to the appropriation of $1,750,000, which covers maintenance for two years, based on average cost of $6 per week for each of the patients at Middletown state insane asylum, now about 1,700, the legislature has authorized a special appropriation of $225,000 to cover constructing and equipping an acute reception hospital.

Board of Assessors Complete. The recent appointment of John B. Oat to fill the vacancy on the board of assessors made by the death of Frank H. Woodworth will not occasion any reorganization of the board, said Alder L. Hale, chairman of the board, Monday. Some time before it was time to prepare the abstract of the grand list Mr. Woodworth, who had been clerk, had resigned this position to Michael J. Curran, because he did not feel equal to the task of making up the abstract, so that the board as at present constituted has a complete organization with Mr. Hale as chairman, Mr. Curran as clerk and Mr. Oat as the third member.

Business premises in London have, on an average, more than doubled in rent since 1912.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Caroline Tompkinson of Norwich was a recent visitor in Westminister. Miss Elizabeth A. McCabe and Miss H. A. O'Donnell, of Norwich, have been in New York on a business trip.

James J. Finnegan of Asylum street and James Brady of Prospect street were in New Haven Sunday as delegates in the interests of the drive for funds for Ireland.

Charles H. Strong, of Colchester, a patient at Norwich hospital, was spending a few days at the home of his sister, Mrs. Harriet A. Reynolds, on Ann street.

Rev. James A. Broderick, of Terryville, is spending several days with his brother, Rev. John Broderick, rector of St. Patrick's church, who is recovering from illness and is expected to be down in his study before the end of the week.

VENISON SUPPER AND TALK ON HONOLULU

The members of the City Bible class for Men of the Central Baptist church were Monday evening at the home of Mrs. M. J. Carroll, 100 Prospect street, for a venison supper.

The speaker was introduced by Charles D. Noyes, president of the class. Mr. Carroll described the beautiful natural beauty of the country, the customs of the population and other things of interest which the majority of people have no intimate knowledge except through books.

Mr. Carroll described the ideal school systems in Honolulu saying that there the people placed much on physical training as well as mental. He mentioned the industries of the island Mr. Carroll said that the principle ones were the sugar industry, growing of rice bananas and pineapples. Although much sugar is grown very little is refined on the island but is shipped to American refineries.

In speaking of the beauties of the island Mr. Carroll said one is impressed with this as soon as the ship passes the outer fortification at Diamond Head. Boys meet the ship to divert for money and as the ship comes in a band greets the arriving vessel. A band meets every boat present at the wharf and the meeting. The supper was served at 8:30 o'clock under the direction of the ladies of the United Church. At the close of the meal the remainder of the evening was spent in a social manner.

Orchestra selections were followed by two very well rendered selections by a quartet of the ladies of the United Church. B. P. Bishop, chairman of the town school board, was the first speaker of the evening. Mr. Bishop, after clearly explaining the situation existing in the town school board, said that the school board had made an earnest plea for support for the school board when they ask for an appropriation for the school board at the next town meeting. Mr. Bishop's talk made a deep impression on the audience and more representative citizens gathered in the room, a number of whom are members of the school board.

Mr. Bishop said that the school board and the teachers in their efforts to keep up a high standard of education.

When we opened the schools last fall we found the school house on the East Side in a very poor state of repair. There were two things to do; either give up the kindergarten there or else have it somewhere else. We decided to have it somewhere else. We decided to have it somewhere else. We decided to have it somewhere else.

At the conclusion of Mr. Carroll's talk he was given a rousing vote of thanks. A venison supper, provided by Henry R. Woodward from deer which he shot in the Maine woods, proceeded the talk. The ladies of the United Church, under the leadership of Mrs. Henrietta Taft, were in charge.

There is a lot just east of the building about an acre in size, with a dwelling on it. It is a very nice place. It is a very nice place. It is a very nice place.

There are three things to be done in the number of voters since the adoption of woman suffrage and the creation of an apportionment committee to take care of appropriations.

Mayor Lerou spoke very highly of the splendid cooperation given him from the corporation council down through the commission.

Referring to Hazy Drivers. Speaking of his recent work on the Hazy Drivers, Mayor Lerou said: "One condition which should never have tolerated was the 'jitney' condition on Franklin square and in Rose alley. We got rid of the Rose alley nuisance and the 'jitney' condition. They came back under private numbers. We stationed an officer there in private clothes and believe me, there is not any of them there now."

There is room for only one common carrier in this city. That is the one that gives the service—the trolley car. Don't misunderstand me. I don't own any trolley stock and never did. I am glad I don't just now, the mayor added as an afterthought, to the amusement of the audience.

For the Salvation Army. Touching on the matter of obstruction of thoroughfares, which it will be remembered came into the limelight last fall through the activities of local socialists, the mayor said: "I believe the streets are for the many and not for the few. He said he had been asked why he allowed the Salvation Army to hold street meetings. The Salvation Army build up rather than tear down. Their work alone entitles them to the little space they have."

On the Volstead Act. The Volstead act was the next topic touched by the mayor. He told of how the act had brought a number of times to existing conditions in the liquor line in Norwich and of how he decided to go ahead and clean up. "I am glad that there is considerable stuff in the city," he said. "I believe we are going to get them."

In concluding his talk, Mayor Lerou said that he has tried to do his best without being a politician. He is going to continue to do the same thing through his term.

Mayor Lerou was greeted with a thunderous applause and a number of his very interesting talks to an audience expressed himself as being very pleased. The gas is rotten poor, the price is high and nobody knows anything about it. From what was brought out at the meeting, it is plain to see that the gas seems to be a poor distribution system which results in considerable leakage.

Several new members were voted into the Brotherhood before adjournment was taken at 9 o'clock.

CITY G. & E. COMMISSIONERS PREPARE FOR MEETING. The gas and electric commissioners, in anticipation of the public hearing this (Tuesday) evening before the court of common council, held a three-hour session on Monday evening, preparing a lengthy report which is to be presented to the public at the hearing.

This report, according to Daniel T. Shea, president of the board, will cover practically all questions regarding the activities of the department, which are likely to be presented to the public during the hearing. When asked if the commissioners were prepared to state how much it cost the department to generate a kilowatt hour of electricity, Mr. Shea said that under present conditions he thought it would be impossible for anyone to state the exact cost. The cost, said Mr. Shea, varies with the conditions, whether there is a big load, how much current is generated at the Uncas Power company and many other conditions that vary accordingly.

He said that at one time it might cost a certain amount and then in a few weeks or months the cost might fluctuate.

In regard to the letter sent to the commission by Mayor Lerou, Mr. Shea said that the commissioners would endeavor to answer as many of the questions as possible. He stated that the time was very short in which to work out some of the questions but that they had been turned over to the superintendent and he would be glad to answer any questions that would be made to him at the hearing.

This was practically all the business that was considered at the three-hour session on Monday evening.

Before adjournment it was through the sounding and drying are essential, by the city and of

SCHOOL BOARD PLANS NEW BUILDING FOR MT. PLEASANT ST.

The town school board, through its chairman, B. P. Bishop, divulged plans Monday evening for a new school building to cost from $175,000 to $200,000. The plans were made public by Bishop in an address which he delivered at the monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of the United Congregational church at the Community House at the West Side. The house is intended for the West Side. If the town school board's plan goes through the building, which will have sixteen rooms with a large auditorium, will be erected near Mt. Pleasant street.

Mr. Bishop also divulged plans for the purchasing of an acre lot with dwelling on the East Side. The lot is known as the 'Bishop' lot. It is a very nice place. It is a very nice place.

Mr. Bishop said that the school board and the teachers in their efforts to keep up a high standard of education.

When we opened the schools last fall we found the school house on the East Side in a very poor state of repair. There were two things to do; either give up the kindergarten there or else have it somewhere else. We decided to have it somewhere else. We decided to have it somewhere else.

At the conclusion of Mr. Carroll's talk he was given a rousing vote of thanks. A venison supper, provided by Henry R. Woodward from deer which he shot in the Maine woods, proceeded the talk. The ladies of the United Church, under the leadership of Mrs. Henrietta Taft, were in charge.

There is a lot just east of the building about an acre in size, with a dwelling on it. It is a very nice place. It is a very nice place. It is a very nice place.

There are three things to be done in the number of voters since the adoption of woman suffrage and the creation of an apportionment committee to take care of appropriations.

Mayor Lerou spoke very highly of the splendid cooperation given him from the corporation council down through the commission.

Referring to Hazy Drivers. Speaking of his recent work on the Hazy Drivers, Mayor Lerou said: "One condition which should never have tolerated was the 'jitney' condition on Franklin square and in Rose alley. We got rid of the Rose alley nuisance and the 'jitney' condition. They came back under private numbers. We stationed an officer there in private clothes and believe me, there is not any of them there now."

There is room for only one common carrier in this city. That is the one that gives the service—the trolley car. Don't misunderstand me. I don't own any trolley stock and never did. I am glad I don't just now, the mayor added as an afterthought, to the amusement of the audience.

For the Salvation Army. Touching on the matter of obstruction of thoroughfares, which it will be remembered came into the limelight last fall through the activities of local socialists, the mayor said: "I believe the streets are for the many and not for the few. He said he had been asked why he allowed the Salvation Army to hold street meetings. The Salvation Army build up rather than tear down. Their work alone entitles them to the little space they have."

On the Volstead Act. The Volstead act was the next topic touched by the mayor. He told of how the act had brought a number of times to existing conditions in the liquor line in Norwich and of how he decided to go ahead and clean up. "I am glad that there is considerable stuff in the city," he said. "I believe we are going to get them."

In concluding his talk, Mayor Lerou said that he has tried to do his best without being a politician. He is going to continue to do the same thing through his term.

Mayor Lerou was greeted with a thunderous applause and a number of his very interesting talks to an audience expressed himself as being very pleased. The gas is rotten poor, the price is high and nobody knows anything about it. From what was brought out at the meeting, it is plain to see that the gas seems to be a poor distribution system which results in considerable leakage.

Several new members were voted into the Brotherhood before adjournment was taken at 9 o'clock.

CITY G. & E. COMMISSIONERS PREPARE FOR MEETING. The gas and electric commissioners, in anticipation of the public hearing this (Tuesday) evening before the court of common council, held a three-hour session on Monday evening, preparing a lengthy report which is to be presented to the public at the hearing.

This report, according to Daniel T. Shea, president of the board, will cover practically all questions regarding the activities of the department, which are likely to be presented to the public during the hearing. When asked if the commissioners were prepared to state how much it cost the department to generate a kilowatt hour of electricity, Mr. Shea said that under present conditions he thought it would be impossible for anyone to state the exact cost. The cost, said Mr. Shea, varies with the conditions, whether there is a big load, how much current is generated at the Uncas Power company and many other conditions that vary accordingly.

He said that at one time it might cost a certain amount and then in a few weeks or months the cost might fluctuate.

In regard to the letter sent to the commission by Mayor Lerou, Mr. Shea said that the commissioners would endeavor to answer as many of the questions as possible. He stated that the time was very short in which to work out some of the questions but that they had been turned over to the superintendent and he would be glad to answer any questions that would be made to him at the hearing.

This was practically all the business that was considered at the three-hour session on Monday evening.

Before adjournment it was through the sounding and drying are essential, by the city and of

CHARGES ADVOCATED

Among the charges advocated by Mayor Lerou are the creation of a board of commissioners, separate from the court of common council, with full control of the police department, a ward system to take care of the increase in the number of voters since the adoption of woman suffrage and the creation of an apportionment committee to take care of appropriations.

Mayor Lerou spoke very highly of the splendid cooperation given him from the corporation council down through the commission.

Referring to Hazy Drivers. Speaking of his recent work on the Hazy Drivers, Mayor Lerou said: "One condition which should never have tolerated was the 'jitney' condition on Franklin square and in Rose alley. We got rid of the Rose alley nuisance and the 'jitney' condition. They came back under private numbers. We stationed an officer there in private clothes and believe me, there is not any of them there now."

There is room for only one common carrier in this city. That is the one that gives the service—the trolley car. Don't misunderstand me. I don't own any trolley stock and never did. I am glad I don't just now, the mayor added as an afterthought, to the amusement of the audience.

For the Salvation Army. Touching on the matter of obstruction of thoroughfares, which it will be remembered came into the limelight last fall through the activities of local socialists, the mayor said: "I believe the streets are for the many and not for the few. He said he had been asked why he allowed the Salvation Army to hold street meetings. The Salvation Army build up rather than tear down. Their work alone entitles them to the little space they have."

On the Volstead Act. The Volstead act was the next topic touched by the mayor. He told of how the act had brought a number of times to existing conditions in the liquor line in Norwich and of how he decided to go ahead and clean up. "I am glad that there is considerable stuff in the city," he said. "I believe we are going to get them."

In concluding his talk, Mayor Lerou said that he has tried to do his best without being a politician. He is going to continue to do the same thing through his term.

Mayor Lerou was greeted with a thunderous applause and a number of his very interesting talks to an audience expressed himself as being very pleased. The gas is rotten poor, the price is high and nobody knows anything about it. From what was brought out at the meeting, it is plain to see that the gas seems to be a poor distribution system which results in considerable leakage.

Several new members were voted into the Brotherhood before adjournment was taken at 9 o'clock.

CITY G. & E. COMMISSIONERS PREPARE FOR MEETING. The gas and electric commissioners, in anticipation of the public hearing this (Tuesday) evening before the court of common council, held a three-hour session on Monday evening, preparing a lengthy report which is to be presented to the public at the hearing.

This report, according to Daniel T. Shea, president of the board, will cover practically all questions regarding the activities of the department, which are likely to be presented to the public during the hearing. When asked if the commissioners were prepared to state how much it cost the department to generate a kilowatt hour of electricity, Mr. Shea said that under present conditions he thought it would be impossible for anyone to state the exact cost. The cost, said Mr. Shea, varies with the conditions, whether there is a big load, how much current is generated at the Uncas Power company and many other conditions that vary accordingly.

He said that at one time it might cost a certain amount and then in a few weeks or months the cost might fluctuate.

In regard to the letter sent to the commission by Mayor Lerou, Mr. Shea said that the commissioners would endeavor to answer as many of the questions as possible. He stated that the time was very short in which to work out some of the questions but that they had been turned over to the superintendent and he would be glad to answer any questions that would be made to him at the hearing.

This was practically all the business that was considered at the three-hour session on Monday evening.

Before adjournment it was through the sounding and drying are essential, by the city and of

DACHIAS IN NORWICH JAIL FOR MAY SUPERIOR COURT

William D. Dachias, of New York, arrested in this city on Friday of last week, charged with theft of $1,200 from John and Emma Madley of Lebanon, in 1917, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace William T. Curry of Lebanon this morning at 11 o'clock. Dachias, on the advice of his attorney, Arthur M. Brown of Jewett City, who was not present at court, entered a demurrer which was overruled by the court. Dachias was bound over to the next term of the superior court, to be held at New London, Tuesday, May 3. Bonds were reduced from $5,000 to $2,500 and Dachias asked for a further reduction to $1,500. The court refused to grant his request and Dachias was taken to the Norwich jail by Sheriff Stanley Briggs. Dachias has two friends from New York attended the hearing and it is believed that they will raise the amount needed to secure Dachias' release.

SAYS SAYBROOK TROLLEYS WILL SURELY RUN AGAIN

Despite an assertion, made in New Haven, that the proposed resumption of the Shore Line Electric Co. trolley service between Danbury and New Haven is a new charter and new system may be all off owing to the inability of L. R. Levinson, purchaser of the rails and steel to raise money promptly for the operation, it was stated Monday by one of the petitioners for a new charter that the trolley cars will probably run very soon.

The petitioners applied in the general assembly for rights to operate trolleys between Saybrook and New Haven and the Judiciary committee will probably grant them a request without a hearing. Inasmuch as everyone along the right of way wants the service a hearing is almost superfluous.

HEARING WILL USE TOWN HALL

A great deal of interest was manifested in the hearing tonight (Tuesday) on the proposed legislation regarding the giving supervision to the public utilities commission over municipally owned public utilities which involves among other things the Norwich Gas and Electric company. This hearing is set for 8 o'clock in the council chambers but if the members of the society for the chamber will not accommodate the crowd the hearing will be held in the town hall. This will give everyone who wishes to attend ample opportunity to be present and hear and take part in the discussion.

VALENTINE SOCIAL HELD

The Vineyard Workers of the Central Baptist church held an enjoyable Valentine social Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Stewart, 122 Broad street, followed by a short business meeting. About 80 were present. The members of the church attending as well as the members of the society.

PAID FINE IN POLICE COURT

With Judge John H. Barnes on the bench of the city court on Monday morning, Antoni Fiore of Franklin street, charged with illegal possession of liquor, was fined $200 and costs, which he paid.

FRANK GLEBER RETURNS HOME

After searching Sunday night for Frank Gleber of 214 East Third street, a police officer called the search of early Monday morning when they were notified that the missing man had returned to his home. Gleber disappeared early Sunday evening after expressing his intention of working to New London. As Gleber was said to have been mentally deranged for the past few months much anxiety was expressed and the police asked to search for the man.

CITY GAS PRESSURE POOR

Complaints were general about the city Monday of the poor pressure of the city gas and the amount of air in the pipes. As a number of instances, it was said it was almost impossible to light the jets for stoves and commercial apparatus using the city gas.

IRISH BULLETIN GIVING REPORT OF DALL EIREANN

Dublin Feb. 14.—The Irish Bulletin issued tonight, summarizes the report of the Dall Eireann, held in the last week of January, at which there was a full attendance of available members, including the president, Archbishop Clune, De Valera, which dealt largely with the peace negotiations of December, an outline of which was printed some time ago. The Bulletin said: "Perturbed at the effect on world opinion of his unrestricted black and tan warfare upon the Irish people, the British premier commissioned the Archbishop Clune to come to Ireland as an official intermediary to arrange a truce."

The statement adds that Archbishop Clune came to Ireland and interviewed Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization, the minister of finance and others, and found that they were "fair and reasonable men" and so reported to Premier Lloyd George.

It is asserted that the attitude of Mr. Lloyd George meantime had undergone a change as a result of a peace proposal of his of a thirty-day truce with the Galway county council and other O'Flanagan's telegram, both of which he pretended to believe were indications of a general break-up in the morale of the Irish people and a cry for "peace at any price."

On Dec. 14, says the Bulletin, the British cabinet "intimated" its willingness for a truce extending over a month on certain general conditions. These terms were reduced to a written formula by Archbishop Clune and presented to Dublin Castle Dec. 16. The formula, as given by the Bulletin, follows:

"The British government undertakes during the truce that no raids, arrests, detentions, courts martial or other acts of violence will be carried out by its forces and that there will be no enforcement of the term of the martial law proclamation."

"We on our side undertake to use all possible means to keep away acts of violence should occur on our side during the truce."

FOR THIN WAISTS AND SLEEVELESS GOWNS

A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths is as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy parts about three minutes, rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid any mismanagement, please see to it that you get genuine delatone. Mix fresh as wanted.

A HELPFUL HAIR HINT

A lady visiting friends says "Parisian Sage is the best thing I have ever used to make my hair wavy, lustrous and abundant. It keeps away all dandruff and stops itching." Lee & Osgood Co. sells it with guarantee of money back if not satisfactory.

What One Doctor Says

Dr. M. C. Lyons says: "After careful investigation I heartily recommend (Rheum) for all forms of rheumatism." Lee & Osgood Co. sells and guarantees it. Use of one bottle will convince you why this well-known doctor praises it so highly.

TROUBLE OVER BETROTHAL OF JAPANESE CROWN PRINCE

Tokio, Feb. 14.—Rifts between the ancient army clan of Chou and the navy clan of Satsuma, which popularity are supposed to be weighty in the council of the emperor, is ascribed to be behind the alleged movement to annul the betrothal of Crown Prince Hirohito to Princess Naigako. The nephew of Princess Naigako is a sister of Prince Shintaro, head of the Satsuma clan, while Field Marshal Yamagata, who is regarded by the people as the power behind the throne, is the undisputed leader of the Chou clan.

More resignations of persons in the imperial household are expected as an outgrowth of the alleged "intrigue" to break off the engagement between the crown prince and Princess Naigako. The newspapers are depicting a great amount of speculation to the court "intrigue." They print in detail sketches of the alleged intrigues, which are being followed by the public.

More resignations of persons in the imperial household are expected as an outgrowth of the alleged "intrigue" to break off the engagement between the crown prince and Princess Naigako. The newspapers are depicting a great amount of speculation to the court "intrigue." They print in detail sketches of the alleged intrigues, which are being followed by the public.

Congressman Wants Government to Erect Apartment House

In the southern part of Arizona the wild rubber plant grows abundantly and may be cultivated in a large way if present experiments prove that from it a remarkable quality of crude rubber can be extracted.

CONGRESSMAN WANTS GOVERNMENT TO ERECT APARTMENT HOUSE

Washington, Feb. 14.—Congressman John W. Langley, of Kentucky, chairman of the House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, who is sponsor for the "movement" afoot to erect in Washington a modern hotel and apartment house for the exclusive use of the Vice-President and members of Congress—a bill to this effect has been introduced in the House by Mr. Langley. It would be a sort of government co-operative establishment with no free rents but within the reach of members. Mr. Langley contends that representatives and senators are worn out by the job of trying to find places to live.

Don't Stop Him!

HE'S ON HIS WAY TO OUR COAL OFFICE

Our quick delivery service will help him out; he will get his coal—GOOD COAL too—in a hurry! The quality of our coal makes us popular with those who want the best and best only.

CHAPPELL CO.

PHONE 24 Central Wharf

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUSINESS BEFORE THE PUBLIC, THERE IS NO BETTER PLACE THAN THROUGH THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS OF THE BULLETIN.

HOME! Ends Catarrh or money back. Just locate it in. Outfit includes inhaler. Extra bottles at all druggists.