

WHEN MEALS DON'T FIT "Pape's Diapepsin" is the quickest indigestion and stomach relief

When meals hit back and your stomach is sour, acid, gassy, or you feel full and bloated. When you have heavy lumps of pain or headache from indigestion. Here is instant relief!

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE PUBLIC

THE OPENING OF A BRANCH STORE OF THE NEW LONDON SALESROOM, AT 16 WATER ST., NORWICH, SATURDAY, FEB. 26th.

WE WILL CARRY A COMPLETE STOCK OF SECOND-HAND FURNITURE, ETC. — ALSO A COMPLETE LINE OF NEW BEDDING AND FLOOR COVERINGS.

WE TAKE ORDERS FOR ALL MAKES OF STOVES, AND CAN ASSURE YOU PROMPT SERVICE.

A GIFT THAT ALWAYS DELIGHTS

the receiver is a ring or other article of jewelry from this establishment. For in addition to the rare beauty of the gems we handle and the skill with which they are mounted there is an added pride in receiving a gift from this house, the admitted home of dependable jewelry at moderate prices.

LEE CLEGG YOUR JEWELER 827 MAIN STREET NORWICH NEAR POST OFFICE

HOUSE HAS UNRENTED REPRESENTATIVE MELANE

Washington, Feb. 25.—Patrick McLane of Scranton, democrat, representative from the Tenth Pennsylvania district, was unseated by the house late tonight on charges of violating the corrupt practices act and because of election frauds.

Immediately after taking this action the house adopted a report by the committee on elections declaring John R. Parr, republican, also of Scranton, duly elected and entitled to McLane's seat. The vote to unseat McLane was 161 to 151.

Charges by the committee that liquor dealers and brewers stood behind McLane threw the house into an intensely bitter wrangle. The committee held McLane should be unseated for violating the corrupt practices act and because of wholesale election frauds. Its report was unanimous.

STRIKE FAILS TO HALT TRAINS IN MEXICO

Mexico City, Feb. 25.—Trains were operated on all railroads today despite the fact that more than 125,000 employees went on strike early this morning. Strike-breakers, recruited from volunteers and soldiers who had previous experience, manned trains under military protection, and, except in a few cases, schedules were maintained with reasonable regularity.

Travelers arriving in Mexico City from Laredo and Guadalajara reported no disorders but it is not considered unlikely that as the strike progresses there will be some disturbances as the line is expected to embrace more than 17,000 kilometers of track.

CHAMP CLARK SUPPERS A COMBINATION OF ILLS

Washington, Feb. 25.—Physicians reported tonight that the condition of Representative Champ Clark, who will be 71 years old on March 7, had suddenly taken a turn for the worse.

The former speaker has been ill for several days but the condition he is suffering from is a combination of ills resulting from a cold and rheumatism.

NO OFFICIAL REPORTS OF FIGHTING AT MACROOM

Dublin, Feb. 25.—Official reports regarding the fight at Macroom this morning were still lacking tonight. It has been confirmed, however, that the commander of the auxiliary police, Major Seanfield Grant, was killed.

Beginning Monday February 28th

Cut Prices on All Laundry Work Will Prevail at Charlie Wing's Laundry

22 Broadway and 19 Franklin Street

NOTICE

No. 2 Machine will start up 7 a. m. Wednesday, March 2, instead of Mon. February 28.

KOLB CARTON CO. Successors to Ironsides Board Corporation

Nickel Plating UNITED METALS MFG. COMPANY, Inc. Norwich, Conn.

PERSONALS

Paul Ward of Lebanon spent Friday with friends in this city.

Leo W. Zeis of Stafford Springs visited in Norwich a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clark of Norwich visited relatives in Central Village during the past week.

Miss Marion Fisher and Miss Alice Remage of Uncaville, spent Thursday with Miss Gertrude Hodgson of Groton.

It is noted that Mrs. Bertha Bishop, sister of Mrs. Frank D. Davis of Norwich, died last week.

Supp. F. L. Hutchins of Norwich was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Agnes A. Hutchins, of Green River, L. I., early in the week.

Mrs. Lucy Gray MacBongal has returned to Norwich after a brief visit spent with Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Lane in Stafford Springs.

SON DRIVING FATHER'S AUTO IN COLLISION

Whether a son of the defendant had a right to drive his father's automobile was the question involved in the trial in the superior court here Friday of the case of the late George W. Black, who was killed in a collision with Daniel E. Black, formerly of New London, for $1,500 damages to the plaintiff's automobile as the result of a collision in January, 1920.

The plaintiff claims that on Jan. 4 of last year his automobile was struck in a rear end collision by an automobile owned by the defendant and driven by his son, Edgar Leroy Black, on the Montville road, and the machine was badly damaged.

Edgar Leroy Black, the defendant's son, was on the stand and testified that he took the machine from his father without his father's permission on the day of the accident, and E. L. Benson of New London, in whose garage the automobile was stored, testified to the young Black taking the machine from the garage of J. J. Byrnes, who was driving the Gordon machine, went on the stand for the defense and told the story of the accident, stating that he was driving along the highway when the Black machine struck the rear of the machine he was driving.

The testimony in the case was brief and the case went to the jury without argument, and Judge George E. Hinman reserved decision.

OBITUARY Mrs. Joseph A. Grey.

Mrs. Edith Butler, wife of Joseph A. Butler, died Thursday at her home at 11 Vine street, after an illness of three weeks with pneumonia. Mrs. Butler was born March 17, 1854, the daughter of the late Benjamin and Felicia Butler. All of her life has been passed in this city with the exception of a few years in Boston.

Her husband has three daughters, Leah, Margery and Florence. She also leaves a brother, Albert M. Butler of New York city, and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Brewer of his city and Mrs. Harvey Nease of Boston. Her stepmother, Mrs. Nannie Butler, is living in South Carolina, and an aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Johnson, is in Providence.

Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. Thomas Murray. Mrs. Ann Murray, 88, widow of Thomas Murray, died Friday morning at 35 Blackhall street, New London, after a brief illness. She was born in Ireland and came to this country when she was 16. She had lived in New London most of her life.

She was one of the oldest members of St. Mary's church. She leaves three daughters, Mrs. John W. Cassidy, Mrs. Edward T. Murray and Mrs. John F. Murray; two granddaughters and seven great-grandchildren. Also two nieces and one nephew. Burial will be at St. Mary's church.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. J. Hubrey. Mrs. J. Hubrey, a large circle of friends whose sympathy goes out to the family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

STATE GUARD COMPANY MUSTERED OUT

Company D, First Infantry, Connecticut State guard, passed out of existence Friday night, when two officers, six sergeants, four corporals, three buglers and 38 privates were mustered out by Captain A. P. Woodward of Danielson.

In accordance with orders the members of the company reported at the armory at 8 o'clock. After the roll call, etc., the company was dismissed and there was a general rush to turn in clothing and equipment as fast as possible. The supply sergeant, the men were given their discharge papers.

H. Q. Howa, who took over the company some months ago, when it was known as Company F, Third Infantry, Connecticut State guard, received a commendation for having passed the muster, and Albert Brend, who had been sergeant in Company D, was appointed a second lieutenant this week. The same order transfers Lieutenant Brend to the Connecticut State guard reserve corps.

The following officers, Connecticut State guard, reported by the examining board as having passed a satisfactory examination in accordance with regulations, C. S. G., 1918, and G. O. No. 5, M. E. B., 1917, are appointed and commanded in the Connecticut State guard with rank and date as follows:

Second Lieut. Harvey Quinton Howa, Company D, First Infantry, to be captain, same company, Feb. 23, 1921. The nomination of Sergt. Albert Brend.

THREE-ACT PLAY BY NORWICH AMATEUR CAST

The Elopement of Ellen a three-act play, was very successfully presented Friday evening before a large audience in Bushnell chapel at the Central Baptist church. The play was given under the auspices of the World Wide Guild, the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts.

The cast of characters was as follows: Richard Ford, a devoted young husband, Lewis Covey. Molly, his wife, Marion Royce. Liebner Shepard, Molly's brother, Kenneth Arnold. Max Ten Eyck, a chum of Robert's, Arnold Smith.

Act I—Morning room at Mrs. Ford's home at 5 a. m. Act II—Corner of Mrs. Ford's garden at 5 a. m. the next day. Act III—Same corner in the evening of same day.

Place—Pleasant Hill, a suburb of New York city. Time—The summer of 1905. Between the acts there was a sale of home-made candy with Misses Harriet and William Eaton and Elizabeth Smith in charge.

Howard Arnold, chairman of the dramatic committee, was in general charge of the play. Miss Helen Kilborn and Mrs. W. J. H. Brewster were in charge of the play, as they had charge of the training of the young people in the cast and the numerous rehearsals. L. Jordan and Harrison C. Noyes were in charge of the scenery, which was very pretty and appropriate.

COAST ARTILLERY COMPANY TO HAVE VENISON SUPPER

The boys of the Third company, C. A. C. N. G., are anticipating a roast venison supper to be given at the home of Henry R. Woodward, who has presented the venison to the company. The date for the supper has been arranged for March 10th and the menu has been arranged as follows: Roast venison, mashed potatoes, mashed turnips, pickles, olives, celery, Parker house rolls, ice cream, coffee, cigars, cigarettes.

The Third company entertainment committee and the sub-committee have been appointed as follows: Entertainment committee—Lieut. Ernest J. Tubert, chairman; Lieut. David T. Tongren, vice chairman; Sergt. George Malcolm, Sergt. James J. Caulina, Sergt. George A. Turner, Corporal Ives and Privates Stewart, Wilson, Charles Blair and Paul T. Brown.

Sub-committee—Corporal Howard, Privates Brown, J. S. Fitzgerald, Gauthier, Olson, Scott, Robinson, Beauvois and Gerhard.

Afternoon Tea Given by Sheltering Arms Committee

Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5 tea was given at the residence of Mrs. W. Prentice, 15 Washington street, for Mrs. Henry T. Arnold and Mrs. Lucius Brown by the twenty members of the sheltering arms committee. The United Workers at the recent annual meeting and has resigned from the committee, which Mrs. Brown has taken up.

Mrs. W. Russell Ball entertained with several soles during the afternoon. Mrs. Prentice, the hostess, had a very attractive and enjoyable session with delicate and beautiful bouquets were presented to Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. Brown.

GOVERNOR LAKE VISITS THE NORWICH SANATORIUM

During Friday morning, Governor Everett J. Lake paid a visit to the Norwich Sanatorium. He was received by the superintendent, Dr. Hugh B. Campbell and spent half an hour inspecting two patients, expressing himself as well pleased with all the appointments of the institution.

GILMAN BROS. MILL TO START IN FULL NEXT WEEK

Indications of return to normal conditions were given Friday with the announcement that the Gilman Brothers, of Norwich, are to start in full next week. The mill employs about a dozen to twenty hands on the average.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Frederick S. Camp entertained at cards Monday. Daniel L. Brown of Boston has been spending a few days at his home on Warren street.

The Fortnightly Bridge club met on Friday evening with Miss Ruth N. Kinney of Huntington place. Rev. and Mrs. Richard R. Graham returned to Norwich Friday afternoon after six months' absence in Europe.

Governor Everett J. Lake was entertained by Mrs. A. J. L. Brown at the residence of Mrs. A. J. L. Brown at 100 State street.

HEALTH EDUCATION FOR CHILDREN HIGHLY IMPORTANT

Health education for the children was advocated as of prime importance by Dr. Mase Andrews of Boston in a lecture Friday evening at the Community house on Church street upon the subject of Child Health Education which was given under the auspices of the Teachers' league of Norwich.

Dr. Andrews, who is head of the department of psychology and child study at the Boston Normal school, was introduced to the audience of about 104 by Miss Amelia M. Young, president of the Norwich league.

Dr. Andrews told his hearers that he considered health education fundamental, but as a people we do not seem to be convinced that health is of so great importance. Business men have awakened to this fact, as is shown by the claims that some big concerns have established for their employees, but the schools are lagging behind.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

He went on to speak of the weighing and measuring tests for school children by which it is determined whether they are up to the standard. If not, something is wrong, either some physical impediment or the child is not living by proper health habits.

WESTMINSTER

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

WESTMINSTER

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years" or "The Son of Heaven."

WESTMINSTER

Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession