

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

A call from Box 6 brought out the fire department shortly after 10 o'clock Monday morning for a grass fire that was raging along the railroad track just south of the North street crossing. An old-fashioned March gale that was kicking up a lot of dust at the time made the fire much more threatening.

First Selectman John A. Gilbert explained Monday that no special tax meeting will be necessary to pass upon the matter of the removal of a row of shade trees from Reynolds street. The process to be followed will be to post on each tree that it is proposed shall be cut down notice that this is intended and that a hearing on the proposal is to be held before the selectmen on a certain date.

With the courage that has been characteristic of him throughout his life, Peter Chabot, who lost his house, barn and half his herd of fine cattle in Sunday's fire at Wauregan was on his way Monday morning and covered his milk route in Danielson. The fire at his place was one of the most disastrous that has occurred hereabouts for a long time.

Citizens of the borough who are interested in having a hand in shaping the makeup of the official board in Sunday's election will be at the town hall this evening to attend the annual borough caucus. The retirement of Warden Damase Bonais and Clerk and Treasurer Wesley Wilson will make it necessary for the

To Make Hairs Vanish From Face, Neck or Arms

Keep a little powdered delatone handy and when hairy growths appear make a paste with some of the powder and a little water, then spread over hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be entirely free from hair or blemish. This simple treatment is unfailing, but care should be exercised to be sure and get genuine delatone, otherwise you may be disappointed.

was brought back to this country about three months after the signing of the armistice. His wife with the battery all through its active service, serving in the capacity of a company cook, and he was noted as one of the best in the regiment.

The following from a Boston paper, appearing under a Daily date line, will be of special interest to Killingly people: Deville, Conn., March 15.—Rare distinction is being claimed for Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson of this town, in that they are reputed to be the oldest living married couple in New England, both in point of years married and total ages.

Under bonds of $300, which he could not procure, Charles Larrance of Plainfield, was taken to the county jail at Brooklyn on Sunday morning. Larrance was bound over to Justice Torrey in Central Village for breaking and entering the home of Robert Genouart, at Plainfield, early Sunday morning. Larrance was taken and a cigar case that Larrance stole from the Genouart home was found tucked away under a section of metal flooring of the cell where he had been kept confined during Sunday night. He was not searched by the officer when he was placed in the cell.

There was no one at the Genouart home when Larrance, who is a painter by trade went there and removed a pane of glass in order that he might be enabled to enter the house. While he was not seen about the place subsequent to his being arrested and he was arrested and locked up soon after the loss was discovered by the Genouart family. Larrance is a wife and mother in Clinton, Mass.

Walter W. Murphy, who has been connected with the Attawaugan hotel, the greater part of the time as manager, for the past week has been in the city, his resignation to be effective about the first of the month.

During the past week Mr. Murphy has been in the city in connection with the purchase of the Young's farm, so-called, on the road to South Killingly, and as to develop it into a high class motor inn. Mr. Murphy's plans call for a popular place, as the Inn-Yankee, at Harmony, N. Y., and he will cater to motorists chiefly, though he anticipates that much business will be attracted from the immediate surrounding territory.

As a thoroughly experienced hotel man, Mr. Murphy is going about the development of his plans with a view to equipping an inn that people hereabouts will be proud of. His inspiration to establish the resort comes from the fact that a strain of the popular place, as the Inn-Yankee, at Harmony, N. Y., and he will cater to motorists chiefly, though he anticipates that much business will be attracted from the immediate surrounding territory.

The farm is beautifully situated and will readily lend itself to remodeling for use as an inn. It has spacious rooms, fireplaces and a general atmosphere such as an associate with the inn bygone days. Snake Meadow brook, one of the finest trout streams in southern New England, runs directly through the farm and in season, fishing for the silver headed trout will be one of the opportunities open to guests.

Mr. Murphy plans to produce all of the poultry, eggs, milk products and vegetables to be used at the inn. He is an experienced chef and this asset will permit of his keeping especially close supervision over the menu and the manner in which the food is prepared and served. Remodeling of the house will be undertaken soon and Mr. Murphy hopes to be able to open the inn within a few weeks. The inn, which has not been named yet, is about ten minutes' run by motor car from Danielson's business section.

Mr. Murphy is well known in Danielson and the surrounding towns. Though he was over the draft age, through the outbreak of the world war, Mr. Murphy volunteered and sacrificing rights that would allow him to withdraw from the army on account of his eyesight, which was slightly impaired, went overseas with the 56th Coast Artillery, Battery D, and remained there until the command

Announcement was made Monday that settlements have been reached in three cases that were pending trial in the superior court here. Two of the cases, W. B. Olmstead vs. Peter Murphy, and Peter Murphy vs. W. B. Olmstead—had to do with an accident in which motor cars owned by Messrs. Olmstead and Murphy were wrecked in a collision on Hospital hill, west of this city, one night a few months ago. It is understood that the cases were settled by the payment of a sum of money to Mr. Olmstead.

The other case settled was that of Ferdinand Gagnon vs. the N. Y. N. H. and H. R. company, the railroad company having made Mr. Gagnon a sum that was not made known. The railroad company also has arranged a settlement with Nelson Dubois, who was driving the motor car that figured in the accident over which the Gagnon suit was instituted.

A truck owned by Gagnon and driven by Dubois was struck a few months ago by a train at a crossing at West Thompson. The truck was hurled into the river, Dubois going down the stream and barely managing to make his way out of the cab. He had a leg broken in the crash and has not as yet fully recovered from his injuries, although he has been able to resume work.

When the superior court comes in here this (Tuesday) morning the case of George D. Brown of this city vs. John D. Stromberg of Abington will go on trial. In this case Mr. Brown is suing to recover money that he claims is due him for constructing a barn for Stromberg. The defense will be that the cost of the barn was far in excess of what Stromberg claims the agreed price would be.

The case of Harry E. Back of Killingly vs. the People's Fire Insurance company has as yet not been decided. The jury found in favor of Mr. Back on important questions in a series of interrogatories, but counsel for the defendant insurance company has requested the court to pass upon a legal point pertaining to the reformation of the insurance contract that was in force and the decision has not as yet been given.

Carroll Connell, K. of C., is to have newly appointed quarters when changes in a council in the city of Hartford, where an assembly of council has been formed. The council furniture that has been obtained is of solid oak. The rooms will be finished in ten days or a week. The expense to Carroll council will be approximately $1,000.

At the synagogue of the Sons of Zion here Sunday afternoon Miss Ethel Atromovitz and Mrs. B. W. Brown, who have been married in Putnam, will be present for the marriage. The bride only recently arrived in this country after a ten year stay in Virginia. She was separated from her prospective husband for a period of seven years.

The groom is a member of a firm doing business on South Main street. A record of seven minutes for the ten furlong race in the city of Hartford, established last Friday by Carlton J. H. Bulger and State Officer Howard E. Elliott in answering an emergency call.

Robert W. Day, who will come here about the first of the month as agent of the Manhusset Manufacturing company, will be tendered a reception by the people of Putnam on Friday evening. Fish have commenced to bite! A report was heard Monday of a string of over 70 perch captured. This is regarded as unusual for March.

Services for the Holy Week are to be held at St. Mary's church. Will be services on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. W. H. Brown, who died in Norwich, was a resident of Putnam and well known in this city.

Alfred Barber, manager of the Putnam school baseball team for the 1921 season. The announced change in schedules for teams on the New Haven road will be effective after the return of the school. The team will run in its classes an hour earlier than at present.

Friday—Good Friday—and Fast Day—will be quite generally observed as a school day in Putnam and many of the stores will be closed during the afternoon as has been the custom for years.

Mrs. Arthur S. Macdonald, who has been in Putnam for several weeks, being called there by the death of her mother, has returned to Putnam. Temperatures as high as 85 degree were reported in Putnam Monday afternoon. A strong wind from the southwest blew throughout the day, easing in some degree the unusual heat for this first full day of spring.

It is said that the Connecticut company will give increased service on the local lines if legislation of special interest to them and now pending in enacted. It was stated Monday that 405 shares were subscribed for in the last series of the Putnam Building and Loan Association. The inauguration of President Harding was shown on films exhibited at the Victory theatre Monday.

Miss Mariette De Pablie, teacher of French and Spanish at the school, will sail the day after the school closes in June for France, where she will pursue a special course of summer study at the University of Grenoble. B. Meredith, commissioner of education, who was to have come here March 30, to meet members of the town school committee and who was to speak at a meeting arranged by the Parent-Teachers' association, has been obliged to defer his visit until April 4.

erly of Putnam is visiting here with Mrs. Maud Allard. JEWETT CITY Many who were not directly interested in the mission services conducted at St. Mary's church, were occupied with the attendants to listen to the eloquent Mission Fathers who occupied the pulpit. One of the speakers, by means of a cleverly arranged story as to how the bells had in view, presented the cheery uplift side of daily life in an easily remembered way.

His admiration to his hearers was of a bee, not a crow. George La Barre, 77, life-long resident of Jewett City, died at his home in Canada, but came to the states early in life. In Griswold he was a respected, industrious citizen. He followed the business of retail butcher and farmer and he proved himself a clever manager and a courteous salesman. Always the same with an eye to economy and thrift, he was successful in his various business undertakings. He was living in Griswold for many years, but died there, also at the age of 77, in July of last year.

He is survived by two sons, George La Barre Jr. of Waterbury, a farmer, warden of the borough of Jewett City, and Joseph J. La Barre, of Plainfield. There are four living daughters, Mrs. Napoleon Hall, Mrs. Maud Allard, Mrs. A. W. Clifford and Mrs. Nelson Nash of Nashua, N. H., and Miss Virginia La Barre, of Plainfield.

At 2 p. m., Monday, the mercury stood at 33 degrees. Before 4 o'clock the sky cleared in the city. Heat returned at once. The thermometer reading at 4 o'clock was 52, a drop of 25 degrees in two hours. A smart shower from a black and gray mass a sprinkling which was not expecting it.

Officer John Dolan was on his 5 o'clock round Sunday evening when he was notified of the fire in the lower part of the town. He had with him his station clock with its strap and belt. This in his hurry to get to a telephone, he left on the curb of Fanning block. When he returned, he found the clock missing. He lifted it. Consider a man who would steal a watchman's station clock! This completes the list of articles that it is unsafe to leave unattended hereafter, there has been the one article immune from the attacks of the petty thief.

A number of automobile parties went to Wauregan Monday to see the remains of Sunday's fire at Bates' Corners. Rev. and Mrs. M. D. Fuller entertained Mr. Fuller's Bible class last Thursday evening at the parsonage.

BUILDING ACTIVITIES IN NORWICH

During the past week labor conditions have become more settled in some respects. Although no decrease in wages has been accepted by the masons and bricklayers, the Peck, McWilliams Co. for the time being at least. They walked out last week when a wage reduction was proposed. The garage is to be 15x15 feet and of frame construction. The foundation is of stone and concrete with the frame building with composition roof.

Mrs. A. F. Hinckley of 32 Albee street is to erect a veranda on her 1 1/2 story veranda will be 6 by 16 feet and will be of frame construction. The roof will be done in composition shingles. L. G. Hinckley, builder, is to do the work. Jarnal Monick is to build a stone barn on his lot at 66 Mt. Pleasant street. The barn will be 36x26 feet and one story high. The walls will be of stone with roof of wood covered with composition shingles.

In the rear of L. L. Chasman's property on Bath street alterations are being made for a garage. The large part of the building is being partitioned off and an entrance made on Durg's lane. The work has recently been started and floors and interior furnishings are yet to be made.

The property owned by C. Morgan Williams, formerly known as the Farmington property on Washington street, has been remodelled into a 3-apartment house. The interior is of hard wood floors and trim. Everything is of the most modern type.

REAL ESTATE SALES AND MORTGAGE LOANS Norwich had ten sales of real estate during the past week to eight for the respective weeks totaled $19,750 and $14,500. In New London there were five sales.

NEW LONDON Contractors have started work on the rebuilding of the structure located on Bank street and owned by Jeremiah Wharmy. It will be of brick construction, 14 by 85 feet, two stories high with a flag roof. On the first floor will be a number of stores and the second floor will be used for storage purposes. About two days ago Mr. Bell married Mrs. Elizabeth Hill of Norwich.

WINDHAM The bi-monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary society was held at St. Mary's church on Sunday evening, March 13th. The president, Miss Dorothy Brown, led the devotional exercises. Letters from Sarah, Neb., and Pleasant View, Tenn., were read by the secretary, Miss Grace Bates. The roll call, current events, discussion and other matters took up so much time that the fourth chapter from The Church and the Community was postponed until the next meeting. A meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society followed. The question of assuming responsibility of the running expenses of an automobile for the use of the pastor was discussed at some length and it was decided that the whole expense was too much for the society to undertake, although it was willing to help and to the men of the church. The women of the South Windham branch church are planning to purchase the car and suggested that the women here pay for the upkeep. Five dollars was voted for the purchase of the car. The car will be placed in the hands of the pastor. A letter was read from Mrs. L. P. Ochrig, thanking the society for letters sent her when she was in the hospital. After the meeting nut bread sandwiches, cookies and tea were served.

Young Girls Need Care FROM the age of twelve a girl needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time. If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter make life easier for her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions. It can be taken in safety by any woman, young or old. Read How These Mothers Helped Their Daughters. Guttenberg, N. J.—"My daughter was all run down and had fainting spells often, had a bad complexion, and suffered at her monthly periods. Her grandmother had been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the Change of Life, and got a bottle of it for her. She began to improve with the first bottle and took five in all and was entirely restored to health. For a time she had not been able to attend school, but she does now. She recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to her friends and I give you permission to publish this letter as a testimonial." Mrs. CATHERINE MCGLOVE, 304 24th St., Guttenberg, N. J.
