

SLIGHT INCREASE IN BUILDING

Building activities in Norwich showed little increase during the past week, although good progress has been made on some of the projects now in hand.

George G. Engler asks permission to erect a garage at his property at 32 Broad street. The garage is to be 12 by 20 feet with a cement floor and foundation.

Andrew J. Wholey is to erect a garage at 15 Park street. The structure is to be of frame construction with concrete foundation and 2-inch plank flooring.

At the Buckingham Memorial a new chimney is being built to replace the one which gave way last week. The old chimney has been in the building since the house was erected many years ago.

At the Robert Gair Co. mill in Uncasville the work on the new factory building is well along. The steel work for the roof is in place.

REAL ESTATE SALES AND MORTGAGE LOANS Norwich had 14 sales of real estate during the past week to 15 for the same

EASTER AND EVERYDAY

Rev. E. A. Legg spoke Sunday morning at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church with Easter and the Everyday Life as the subject of his Easter sermon.

The entertainment opened with two recitations. Hadassah, given by Miss Miriam Goldberg and Good Purim by Bessie Moskoff. After an address by Rabbi J. N. special program and an outside speaker for the occasion.

The Y. M. C. A. boys of Vernalis held a meeting on Wednesday night. County Secretary Keller gave a further talk on First Aid.

At the meeting of the Stonington group Thursday evening, Mr. Keller gave an illustrated lecture on Modern Views of the Holy Land.

Special slides dealing with electricity were shown at the weekly meeting in Oakdale last Monday evening. These were the first slides on this subject that have been shown and they proved to be educational as well as interesting to the unusually large number that were present.

Last Friday evening a community social was held at Fitchville, with eight men and sixteen boys attending. The program included an address by State County Work Secretary Harry Hedley Smith, of New Haven, and special games under the supervision of County Secretary Keller. Sandwiches, coffee, cake and ice cream were served.

At the meeting of the workers of the Uncasville M. E. church, County Secretary Keller gave an address on 'The Work of the Sunday School' with the Adolescent Boy and Girl.

The work here is progressing rapidly under the able leadership of Rev. Edw. Nield. Last evening a basketball game was played between this group and the Jewett City group, the latter winning by a score of 43-22.

The following program has been arranged for the boys: April 1, stunt night; April 8, girls' night; April 15, talk; April 22, literary night; April 29, trip to Norwich; May 6, talk; May 13, lecture; May 20, outdoor meet; May 27, talk; June 3, wrestling night; June 10, swimming meet; June 17, roast.

A reunion of all boys who attended Camp Terrehagan last summer will be held at the New London 'Y' Saturday, April 2nd, from 4 to 9 p. m. A live program including a social hour, volley ball tournament, swim, mock trial and tent stunts, has been arranged. A supper, prepared by Frau Straus, cook at the camp last season, will be served. A large number of old campers are expected.

Plans have been completed for the holding of the Second Annual County convention, at the Central Baptist church, Norwich, Monday, April 11th, at 6:30. A supper will be served to the guests by the ladies of the entertaining church.

Tenth Steamer at State Pier.

The nine boats tied up at the state pier in New London have been increased by one more, the steamer Wash, formerly the German steamer Tullingen. The boat has just arrived from Constantinople.

The Wash was in transport service during the war, and since has been in service for the U. S. Shipping Board. The Wash is of 5,672 gross tonnage and one of the largest freighters to come to New London.
