

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Manufacturing and business interests here were discussing Wednesday a tentative schedule for passenger train service on the New Haven road through this place to be inaugurated April 24. A few like it, but the great majority do not.

Railroad officials came here and discussed the proposed changes with representatives of some industries and some business lines.

As near as could be learned on Wednesday, and the following data is set out as being official, Danielson's train service on and after April 24 and for the summer season is intended to be something like this: Northbound passenger trains, 6:47 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 1:10 p. m.; south bound trains, 10:25 a. m., 2:17 p. m., 7:47 p. m.

If the foregoing is the intended schedule, or if it is approximately correct, it is certain to impose many and varied inconveniences on the local public. In the first place it eliminates both of the present early evening trains, one northbound and the other southbound. The loss of the early evening southbound train will impose particularly severe hardships, inasmuch as this train is the mail and newspaper train, bringing in Boston, Providence, Worcester and Hartford papers as well as a heavy amount of mail matter.

This train, too, has always been one of the most popular on the line for the traveling public, getting many home after a day's visit out of town or bringing back those who are obliged to travel in connection with their work at the end of the day's labor. It will be replaced, it is said, by a 2:17 train—running in the middle of the afternoon—when few people are traveling and when mails are lighter than in the early evening.

It isn't going to be very pleasant for a great many Danielson people to know that the boat train, which will bring in the mails and newspapers, will not arrive here until 7:47 p. m. It will be replaced, incidentally, the post office will be closed.

Then again when one stops to consider that the last north-bound train out of Danielson will be scheduled to leave here at 4:10 p. m., the weakness of the talked of schedule will be noted in this respect. People will appreciate having a north-bound train at 4:10 p. m., but their appreciation will be more than counterbalanced by the loss of the early evening train, which brings in New York evening papers.

It was said Wednesday that the schedule as outlined here for Danielson, on the strength of available unofficial information, may be revised before it is made effective and subject to making arrangements with the post office department relative to getting open mails on Wednesday on a business trip.

Representative E. L. Darbie, of this town, presided as speaker at Tuesday's session of the house in Hartford.

PUTNAM

Radical changes in the running time of some of the passenger trains on the New Haven road through this city are contemplated to be made effective on Sunday, April 24, it was stated Wednesday. Some of the changes that are reported as likely to be made will not be at all pleasing to towns to the south of Putnam and along the route to Norwich. The objections will arise out of the upset of mail deliveries during the early evening hours and of one's ability to get a train out of here at a time, or thereabouts, that marks the end of the day's work for traveling men and other persons who use the train service when it is possible for them to do so without too much inconvenience.

At the present time the club has a membership of about 50 and the expectations are that this will be increased to 80 or 90 within two weeks.

Among the affairs that the club has planned to do is to give a party at the Gleis club of Brown university, a theatre party to Providence and a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Nickoloff, Esq. An appeal has been perfected by Terry and Geisler, counsel for the defendant, in the case of the People's Fidelity Insurance Company vs. Jesse E. Rich that was being tried at the attention of the supreme court of the state. Mr. Rich's attorneys claim that no ownership was proven sufficient to give possession to the plaintiff company of an automobile that was replevined from Mr. Rich as being a machine stolen from a Miss May Murray of Boston and later by a party whose whereabouts are unknown to Mr. Rich, who had no reason to know or believe that the car he purchased was not the property of the man who sold it to him. The case was on trial in the superior court here a few weeks ago and possession of the car, replevined from Mr. Rich by the insurance company which paid the loss on it to Miss Murray, was awarded to the insurance company.

Legislation passed in their work at Hartford Tuesday to pay a tribute to the late "Souvenir" William Harrison Taylor of this city and Hartford, for years a familiar figure about the capital and one of the most kindly and genial men that ever trod its marble halls.

The house adopted a resolution, drawn by a special committee of which Representative Luther M. Keith of this city was a member, in respect to the memory of William Harrison Taylor. The resolution set forth that the members of the house expressed sorrow in the loss they have sustained in being deprived of the genial companionship of William Harrison Taylor of Putnam, enjoyed through many seasons. Tokens of remembrance to him in commemoration of his life and other memorial occasions found on the desk of every member gained him his name of "Souvenir" and as "Souvenir" Taylor he is affectionately known among members and non-members of the legislature. The secretary of state was authorized and requested to forward a copy of the resolutions to George H. Taylor and Grace A. Richards, father and daughter, respectively, of Mr. Taylor, and in further respect to his memory, the house voted to adjourn.

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits. 14c and 30c a box.
