For Business Sake Cheer Up! Stop yer kickin' 'bout the times— Get a hustle on you! Skifmish 'round and grab the dimes If the dollars shun you. Croaking never brought a dress, Growling isn't in it, Fix your peepers on success, Then go in to win it. Times is getting good again— Try to help them all you kin. Don't sit 'round with hanging lip; That is sure to floor you— Try to get a better grip On the work before you; Put some ginger in your words When you meet a neighbor; Throw your troubles to the birds Get right down to labor, And you'll notice every day Things is coming right your way. Stop your kickin' get a hold, Of the wheel and turn it, You can never handle gold Lest you try to earn it. Brush the cobwebs from your eyes, Stop your blamed repining, And you'll notice that your skies Allus 'll be shinin'; Ef you haint the nerve to try, Sneak away somewheres an' die!

HUMOR OF THE DAY "Well, I drink tea and coffee."—D. ... "How time flies! It seems but yesterday I went to school." ... "Oh, for Maria for heaven's sake make it day before yesterday." ... LIBERTY HILL The sudden change in the weather Saturday afternoon brought a drop of the mercury from 75 degrees to 53 degrees, with a heavy shower of rain with some thunder. Monday morning the mercury stood at 33, followed by snow, until afternoon, when the sun partly shone. Dr. J. H. Alms said snow, but the government report doesn't mention it.

CHOSE NEW LONDON FOR N. E. O. P. CONVENTION CITY New London has been added to the cities wherein the annual sessions of the grand lodge of the New England Order of Protection are to be held. This fraternal order, more popularly known as the "N. E. O. P.," at the annual session held in Hartford Wednesday, amended its by-laws wherein it will now meet in New Haven, Hartford, Bridgeport, Waterbury and New London alternately on the second Wednesday of April of each year. The annual convention usually draws together some two hundred members of the grand lodge from the different subordinate lodges throughout the state, that are to have been representatives to the annual sessions of the grand body The results of the annual convention being brought to New London was through the persistent efforts of James L. Wheeler of that city, who was successful in getting the approval of the members at the meeting Wednesday to the amendment which he presented through the Grand Lodge committee on laws, which was approved by the members and up by all representatives from the lodges in the eastern portion of the state. New London is an ideal place for the holding of such meetings, because of the railroad facilities and the possibilities for the entertainment of visitors. The by-laws as amended brings the convention to New London in April, 1924, and a noticeable incident in connection therewith is that the annual session will occur on the thirtieth anniversary of Beulah Lodge, No. 238, of that city.

The report of Grand Warden Henry C. Kendall showed there is a membership of 1,156 in the state divided among sixty-eight subordinate lodges. There have been 148 deaths during the year in the order and $214,499 has been paid to the beneficiaries of these deaths. There were fourteen new members initiated to the Grand Lodge Wednesday and during the past fiscal year eleven deaths occurred in its ranks. The grand warden also recommends the continuation of the annual field day outing of members which in the past few years has been held at Swin Rock and other seashore places. Slater lodge of Norwich carried off the palm in percentage gain of members which amounts to about seventy per cent.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in the following choice: Grand warden, Henry C. Kendall, of New Haven; grand vice warden, Joseph J. Kelly, of Bridgeport; grand secretary, Harry P. Cummings of New Haven; grand treasurer, P. Edward Whalen of New Haven; grand chaplain, Sarah F. Cook of Waterbury; grand guide, Frank J. Harrington of Windsor; grand guardian, Emma Webber of New Haven; grand sentinel, Mary E. Eddy of Waterbury; grand trustees, C. J. Manwaring of Niantic, Frederick A. Pettengill, New Haven, and John N. Butler of Waterbury; chairman of finance committee, James L. Wheeler of New London; chairman of committee on laws, Fred W. Richards of New Haven; chairman committee on appeals, Joseph A. McConnell of Waterbury. Representatives to the supreme lodge to be held in Boston May 19th elected were Mable T. Kendall, New Haven; Emma L. Webb, Meriden; Louise G. Foley, Waterbury; John H. Butler, Waterbury; John E. Lyddy, and Bridgeport. Alternates elected were Minnie R. Ehrbrook, Anna G. McGrath, George A. Howard, Catherine A. Bristol, Lena Davis.

These in attendance from Norwich were Sumner W. Armstrong, representative of Norwich lodge, and George A. Howard for Slater lodge.

ALARM FROM BOX 15 FOR FIRE ON ROOF An alarm from Box 15, West Main and Shipping streets, called out the fire department at 12:24 o'clock Thursday afternoon for a small fire on the roof of the grocery store at No. 240 West Main street owned by Felix Barayok and occupied by Charles Nowinski. The fire was quickly extinguished. The cause has not yet been determined.

There's More than Flavor Many foods, while pleasing to taste, contain but little nourishment. Grape-Nuts combines with its rich, sweet flavor the full nutriment of wheat and malted barley, which makes it an ideal food. It has been the favorite ready-to-eat cereal for a quarter of a century.

NORWICH HUMANE AGENTS FOUND BOY'S MOTHER Work along humane lines is frequently cropping up for the local agents of the Connecticut Humane Society, John A. Bowman, Jr. and Dr. Charles H. Lamb. A few weeks ago Agent Bowman was requested by the humane society to locate the parents of Constantine Plytnick, then under the care of the New York society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. A visit was made to the supposed home of the boy by Agent Bowman, accompanied by Dr. Lamb. Facts disclosed that the mother of the boy had left town shortly before. The particulars concerning the case were published in the Norwich Bulletin, with the result that a telephone call was received by Dr. Lamb the evening following publication, which gave out information as to where the mother was located. Meantime she had returned to Norwich and was living in another section of the town. The person who called Dr. Lamb, stated that he had read the article in the morning paper and knowing where Mrs. Plytnick was, interpreted the news to her. Dr. Lamb communicated with Agent Bowman and the latter had an interview with the mother. As soon as the humane society learned the whereabouts of Mrs. Plytnick, she was informed that she must go to New York and bring the boy who was under age home with her, which she did. The boy ran away from his Norwich home last October. The New York society took up the case with the Connecticut society, with the above outcome.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE At present there is no metal currency in Turkey. Asbestos was known to the Romans 2,000 years ago. A square foot of honeycomb contains more than 3,000 cells. Many egyptians in London, it is said, are paid lower wages than street sweepers. Ireland spends less per capita on bread than any other part of the United Kingdom. The great dome of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, is supported on eight underground piers. Many old winter saloons in the west are being rebuilt into parsonages and churches. A recent invention is a clay photograph needle, made from a dark red clay, which is used to make a record of the greatest butler centers in the world. It is estimated that one year's export of butter amounts to 750,000 tons. In Spain women have had the right to vote since the invention of the telephone. MISS CIPA ROSENBERG PRIZE READINGS WINNER Miss Cipa Rosenberg, 21, was awarded the prize in the Williams prize reading contest held at Slater hall Wednesday evening. Honorable mention was given Miss Millicent H. Disco, 24. Miss Rosenberg's selection was "He Knew Lincoln (Ida Mae Tarbell)," and Miss Disco's selection was "In the Arena (Edwin Sabin)." The judges were Mrs. John Kulla, Mrs. James L. Case and Mrs. F. W. Lester. The decision of the judges was announced at the opening of school at the Academy Thursday morning. Miss Rosenberg is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Rosenberg of Greene avenue and Miss Disco is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David D. Disco of 117 Washington street.

LINE IS NEUTRALIZER THAT HELPS PLANT LIFE Farmers have long made practical use of the knowledge that the application of lime to acid soils will make it necessary to increase the growing of good crops, but it has remained for the experimental station of the Rhode Island State college at Kingston to make a long and reasoned case for it. Dr. E. C. Hartwell, director of the station, announced this week that a series of experiments had fully confirmed the fact that lime is a soil neutralizer and that the application of lime to acid soils will make it necessary to increase the growing of good crops, but it has remained for the experimental station of the Rhode Island State college at Kingston to make a long and reasoned case for it. Police Court Cases Continued. The case against Richard Hackley, 49 colored, charged with statutory rape of Sarah Epps, a 15-year-old colored girl, was continued until Friday when Hackley was presented in the city court before Judge Henry H. Pettis Thursday morning. He was released on bonds of $700 furnished by his employer. The case against Charles W. Thompson, 42, of Vermont, charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, reckless driving and failure to stop after an accident, was continued until Friday morning. Mr. Thompson is charged with running into and damaging the police patrol on North Main street Wednesday evening. In Cuba the children take the names of both parents, but place the mother's name after the father's.
