

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Another musical organization has been added to the list of such in Killingly by the formation of a band at South Killingsly. About twenty-five young men who live in that part of the town have commenced rehearsals under the direction of Edward Bacon, one of Danielson's best known musicians. Some members of the new band are not at all familiar with music, but they are promising candidates for a band that it is believed is the first ever organized in that old section of the town.

PUTNAM

Fred Warner of Providence, district manager of the Providence district of the New England Milk Producers' association, visited the city Tuesday afternoon. He called on the city council members of the association and visited the large producers who ship milk to the Boston and Providence market, making a survey of conditions.

Tuesday morning, the funeral of Michael J. Sullivan was held from his home on High street, with services at St. James' church at 8 o'clock. Rev. John Roux, M. S. being celebrant of the high mass of requiem. Burial was in the family lot in St. James cemetery. The bearers were William McDermott, Edward McDermott, John Weaver, P. F. Murray, Thomas J. Aylward and James Monahan. There were beautiful floral pieces, including one from Putnam lodge of Elks, of which the deceased was a charter member. The bearers were all members of Putnam lodge of Elks.

It was also stated that there is a large surplus of milk in the Boston market at present forty per cent. For this the farmer is allowed much less than for fluid milk. It costs the farmer 25 cents per hundred pounds to get his milk from the farm to the city. The farmer gets $3.50 per hundred pounds. Boston for milk built only sixty per cent. is so sold, the other forty per cent. being surplus, for which approximately $1.50 per hundred is paid. This brings the producer's return down to about $2.00 per hundred pounds, or about five cents net at the farm, which is not a very profitable proposition for the farmer, according to Mr. Warner and Agent Davis.

DOCTOR ISSUES WARNING AND TELLS HOW TO STOP TOBACCO HABIT

New York: Dr. Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital, says: I am often asked if I know anything to stop the tobacco habit, and I always recommend Nicotinol, which I have prescribed with great success. Nicotinol contains no habit-forming drugs, is absolutely harmless and produces astonishing results in a very short time. The use of tobacco seizes the vitality, vigor and energy of the slave who is enthralled by its seductive effects. It undermines the health and leaves the victim an easy prey to general debility, throat and lung trouble, nervousness, insomnia, heart trouble, kidney trouble, headache, tongue and lip cancer and even blindness. Physicians the world over often trace the start of the above diseases to many others to nicotine poisoning.

If you want to free yourself from tobacco, go to any drug store and ask for Nicotinol tablets. Take one tablet after each meal and in a short time you will have no desire for tobacco—the craving will have left you. With the nicotine poisoning out of your system, your general health will quickly improve. Note: When asked about Nicotinol tablets, one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit—away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotinol is sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including Lee & Osgood, and Andrew McLoughlin.

Eliminate the Poison from your system and keep your blood clean, pure and healthy. SANSALT will do this for you, gently but effectively. This splendid tonic-laxative is one of the remedies—a preparation which has been used with unflinching success by many physicians for more than seventy-five years. As a blood alterative and tonic it has no superior.

In connection with the autograph letter received from John Burroughs by a local young man who unthinkingly shot the mocking bird, another equally treasured one has been found among some valuable papers by E. F. Burrows. Some years ago there arose a controversy in town about the "hya," better known as peep-frog. There are many who likened it to the toad. Also at the same time it being in the spring, some happened to be accidentally reading the Bible and discovered the verse in the Song of Solomon 2: 12 that tells about the voice of the turtle being heard in our land. Local authorities became much disturbed about the matter and many were the learned and heated arguments. Finally to settle these two matters Mr. Burrows wrote John Burroughs asking for information. He received in answer a letter from Woodchuck lodge, which now, since Mr. Burroughs' death, is more of a treasure than ever. Mr. Burroughs recognized no analogy in the peep-frog and the toad and explained in his inimitable way that "turtle dove" is meant in the Centiles, not the four-legged chap with the shell on his back, which same is dumb.

Young Clifford Burges, who was badly burned in the explosion at Charlie Wolf's garage Monday, was reported not getting along well Tuesday morning. The doctors are unanimous in the belief that the quick action of Peter Flynn saved the boy from being burned to death. Opinions have been many as to the reason for the explosion. It is believed that matches were thrown with impunity into an open pan of gasoline. The solution comes true in the fact that the tank the men were sawing was kept constantly oscillating by the continued action of the pump necessary to operate the saw. As the cut made by the saw in the otherwise tight tank increased air was admitted in greater quantities. Tank which contained quantity of gasoline inside was kept washing up and down the curved iron sides. Thus in an imperfect yet no less complete way the office of a carburetor was performed. The tank was full of gasoline. The spring of 1920 will go on record as a breaker of records. There were the warmest days in March of any recent year. There was a brisk snowstorm April 4th, with rain and sleet in the full bloom. Hardly anyone can remember when robins were nesting as early as April 1st. And no there has been up to Tuesday evening five straight days without a glimpse of either the sun, moon or stars.

Funeral services were held for Arthur Madison at the Voluntary Baptist church Monday. Rev. John Thomas, pastor of the Bethel Methodist church, officiated. There were many friends and relatives present at the services. The flowers were beautiful. Burial was in the cemetery. The directors of the church are in charge of the service. Thursday evening in the American Legion rooms a woman's auxiliary is to be organized, composed of the mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of the members. Everyone eligible is expected to show interest and attend this meeting. The Griswold Ladies' Aid society is to meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Montgomerie.

The dozen or more naval reserve boys in town received Monday a letter from the commandant of the Third naval district relative to checkage of retainer pay of members of instruction. The force who fall to perform the duty required by law to maintain efficiency. Some of the boys have received such pay and some have not. The boys were asked if they desired to visit Europe on a cruise. Frederick during the time of the Marathon races. Some of the first to enlist have completed four years' service this month. The boys are to be given a commendation for honorable discharge. Other opportunities for cruises are to be given, as the communication further states reservists will be informed of cruises that may be taken from time to time and should be taken advantage of the opportunities offered by such cruises in order to avoid having their retainer pay withheld.

PLAINFIELD

One of the biggest dancing crowds seen at the Community house was present at the Knights of Columbus dance Monday evening. The dance was given in honor of All Hallows' council at Mousop and to the newly organized St. John's council at Plainfield. The dance was given at the Community house at 8 o'clock and their friends from all over Knights of Columbus and a few from Rhode Island and Massachusetts. The hall was decorated with pink and white bunting. They had white balloons suspended from the lights. The stage lights were covered with pine branches. Big K. of C. insignia formed the background on the stage. The Epidy orchestra was heard and those who came merely to look on, besides those who danced, enjoyed the music. The dance was originally intended to be a 12 o'clock affair, but the committee decided to the wishes of the crowd and it was 1 o'clock before the orchestra packed up for home. During the intermission supper was served by the visiting grand knights. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Lee of Norwich, Henry P. Druce, E. Gladue, Taftville, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallagher, Central Village, Mr. and Mrs. James Coffey, Plainfield, George Dunsen, William Crookes, Plainfield, Edward Mullan of Putnam, the district deputy, and staff were also present. Rev. Richard P. Morrisey was toastmaster.

The committee in charge of the dance were: Peter Director, Eugene Wilmont, reception committee, Raphael Seney, James Coffey, Dan Burke, Albert Mollin and Eugene Wilmont; refreshment committee, Mr. and Mrs. John Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foy, Mrs. Wilfred Provost, footman, Wilfred Provost; tickets, Joseph Melvior, Joseph Sevinny, Jerry Salva, checker, Eugene Wilmont, Eugene Dupre; music, James Coffey, Eugene Wilmont and Peter Raymond. Mr. Raymond acted as chef for the supper served at 10 o'clock. The Girls' Friendly society held a meeting in the Community house Monday

EAST WOODSTOCK

Rev. and Mrs. Henry Baker are confined to the house with an attack of grip. Mr. and Mrs. Antony Kenyon of East Dedham, Mass., spent the week end with Arthur Dodge and family. Mr. and Mrs. Manning Anderson celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at their home last week Monday about 100 friends being present. They were presented a silver plate containing a goodly sum of money, and Mrs. Anderson was given a beautiful bouquet of carnations. The bridegroom was Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are both natives of Sweden and are active in the Swedish church. Both have resided in this section of the town since coming to this country about 30 years ago. They have four children, Gertrude, Arvid, Sign and Emil, all residing in town.

George Frink and family and his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Barrett, attended the funeral of Mrs. Frink's sister, Miss Jeannette Gallup, at Ekono last Wednesday. Miss Gallup had been in failing health for months and spent the winter at her home, leaving a few weeks ago for her old home, in Ekono.

BOLTON

Mrs. Eliza E. Daly's house was struck by lightning in a recent shower. The roof was struck at the base of the chimney and a strip of the roof shattered to the eaves. A dance was given in Bolton hall Saturday evening. Music was by the Victor orchestra of South Manchester. When Mrs. Cary D. Carpenter was collecting eggs a few nights ago she found the largest one she had ever seen. It measured 3 3/4 inches around lengthways and 5 3/4 inches in circumference. Mrs. Carpenter found on opening the eggshell that it was triple yolked; it also contained whites enough for three eggs.

Miss Maude E. White has returned from a visit with her aunt, Mrs. M. L. Holbrook, in South Manchester. Prof. Samuel M. Alvord and Mrs. Alvord of Hartford, with their son, Morgan H. Alvord, of Yale college, spent Sunday in town. Mr. Alvord is having the Alvord homestead, which is about 200 years old, largely built over. He has had the cellar dug deeper, sides and floor cemented. Masons are at work on the chimneys and carpenters on the house putting in new timbers where needed. The plan of the rooms is to be changed somewhat. Clement M. Sumner is having a well driven at the smaller barn at his home. Bolton people are pleased to learn that Mrs. John G. Kneeland, who has been confined to her bed since Jan. 1st, is now able to sit up, but cannot get about. April 1st the family moved from West Hartford to Oakland. During the moving Mrs. Kneeland was cared for at the home of her cousin, Levi Dewey, in Wapping.

William Hardman, the Wauregan man who was shot at a Sunday night a few weeks ago by Oliver A. Downs, was reported at Brooklyn jail Tuesday as having shown considerable improvement. His knee, which received the shot, remains quite stiff. Hardman is just beginning to use the leg and is now able to take a few steps. He is being held at the jail for trial in the superior court.

It was announced at Hartford that the bill providing for an appropriation for the construction of a section of trunk line highway from a point east of Danielson to the Rhode Island-Connecticut border at Little Rest will be reported adversely by the appropriations committee, in connection with this adverse action it is explained that the cost of building the stretch of highway referred to will be taken care of in the general appropriation bill for the construction of trunk line highways. Danielson people are not materially interested in which bill the appropriation is taken care of so long as the much needed route is completed, and it is promised on the very best of authority that this will be done.

A regular drill of the supply company of the mobile artillery regiment was held Tuesday evening at the state armory. The recruits are showing steady development though no effort is being made to hurry the work of instruction. The company has not as yet been outfitted with uniforms or rifles. Further recruiting for the company, which is filled practically to the maximum allowance, has been deferred until a little later.

As stated in the announcement column of the Bulletin today (Wednesday) the first special meeting of Quinebaug-Pomona No. 2, is to be held with Quinebaug-Pomona No. 65, at Chandler's hall, Thompson, Saturday, April 20th.

At their meeting Monday night in the town hall building, the board of directors of the Quinebaug-Pomona No. 2, at Adelard Rainville of Dyer street for a period of five years. Mr. Rainville was one of two bidders for the place, his offer of $240 a year, cash in advance, being accepted by Warden Keech and the burgesses. Mr. Rainville will take possession shortly and plans to engage in farming.

The burgesses also considered the question of awarding a contract for the care of Davis park for the coming several months. After considerable discussion two bids, the matter was left entirely in the hands of the park committee, comprising Messrs. Burrows and Banigan.
