

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

This is the last day of the present train service for passengers who attend the New Haven road. Sunday the new spring schedule becomes effective. The changes in time, as previously published, are so radical that anyone intending to travel must bear in mind that most of the trains are leaving in the future at different hours than at present.

It is announced by Secretary A. F. Ralston of the Putnam Men's association that a mail car is to be attached to the southbound boat train each evening. This train, arriving at the present time just before 9 p. m., will be due here at 8:47 p. m. It will provide what is known as an "open mail" service, which will be appreciated by local business interests.

A special car bearing members of the local Putnam lodge of Odd Fellows of Putnam will pass through Danielson this evening en route to Central Village, where a degree is to be conferred upon a class of candidates. The meeting is one that is of interest to Odd Fellows all through this section of the county.

A number of members assembled at the Danielson central office of the S. N. E. T. company motored to Williamstown Friday evening to attend a telephone dance that attracted visitors from all of the churches in eastern Connecticut.

Two $1.00 boxes of Lagitta's chocolates for $1.00 today only at the One Cent Store, 100 Main street, Danbury, Conn. The store is now open.

Tomorrow, Sunday, will bring the opening of Children's week, which is to be observed by the Congregational, Baptist and Methodist churches of Danielson. Special programs of exercises have been arranged. On Sunday morning the pastors will preach special sermons prepared for parents.

Helped her little girl. Children need all their strength for growing. A lingering cold working so that the system is open to attack by more serious sickness. Mrs. Amanda Flint, Route 4, New Falls, Conn., writes: "Poley's Honey and Tar cured my little girl who had the worst tickling cough I had tried many times and found nothing to help until I got Poley's Honey and Tar. Gives immediate relief from distressing racking tearing, coughs. Lee & Osgood Co."

Members of the Connecticut Holstein-Friesian association are to meet in this city May 5 with E. C. Rogers, owner of a large farm just west of Putnam. The meeting will bring together some of the best known cattlemen of the state and is expected to be very interesting.

Leverett Burtill, who died this week at East Putnam, was well known and one of the successful millers of this part of the state. He had a wide acquaintance with farmers who used to raise their own grain and went to his mill to have it ground. He was in the East Putnam cemetery Thursday.

The students under the direction of Mr. Sogardus in the machine department have just completed changes on the text in a manual which has been submitted to the machine department for improvement. From all indications these changes are very satisfactory, three copies have been built and sent out in the last month.

In addition to this work, numerous other machines and tool jobs are under way. The electrical department has just completed wiring a house in Thomaston and is also working on re-winding two small motors.

The drafting department has completed a set of patent drawings for a sewing device. The announcement in regard to the summer extension home-making course has been of considerable interest among high school girls, not only of Putnam but of surrounding towns.

The athletic association is making excellent headway this year and the baseball team, under the management of Theo. F. Roche, is starting off in good form. It is expected some interesting games will be scheduled for this season.

Paul Johnson, the New Greenwalds baseball player, now with the Mackmen, was recently scratched by the pen artist of a Philadelphia newspaper. The little pitcher, known as Paul, is a native of Putnam. Here is the personal sketch made in camp by the sports writer:

He is a quiet fellow, is Johnson, and is hard to get much out of him about himself, but he talks well with his bat, and that is one of the most important and valuable things about a ball player, especially in Mack's camp, where hitting is weaker than the best allowed by the Anti-Saloon league. Johnson hit .323 in the Eastern league last year. Mack brought him to the Quaker Town last year and used him in several games. Another fine thing about Johnson is that he hit in the pinches, batting in 194 runs in the Eastern league last year.

John Johnson is only twenty years old and his home is at Grovesend, Conn. He has been playing utility outfield on the training trip and his batting has been excellent. He is a quiet fellow and shows no particular characteristic, except a very great love for baseball. He is what might call a Mackian type of player, plastic, amiable and capable of marvelous progress under the Old Master's guidance.

Following is the schedule of the Putnam High school baseball team as arranged for the remainder of the season: Tuesday, April 26, Pomfret at Pomfret (pending); Friday, April 29, Trade School at Putnam; Tuesday, May 3, Woodstock at Woodstock; Friday, May 6, Plainfield at Putnam; Tuesday, May 10, Killingly at Putnam; Friday, May 13, Trade School; Tuesday, May 17, Webster at Putnam; Friday, May 20, Plainfield at Plainfield; Tuesday, May 24, Windham at Putnam; Friday, May 27, Woodstock at Putnam; Tuesday, April 31, Stafford Springs at Stafford; Friday, June 3, Webster at Webster; Tuesday, June 7, Killingly at Danielson; Friday, June 10, Stafford Springs at Putnam (pending).

Union hall was decorated with special attractiveness, Friday evening, for the dance of the pupils and guests of John F. Gallagher, who has been conducting an evening class here. The stage front and the sides of the hall were banked with evergreen while across the hall were festoons of colored crepe paper, lines of decorated electric lights and bands of evergreen. The effect was particularly artistic and pleasing. A large number attended the dance, which was one of the best affairs of its kind held here in a long time.

Even in these Sahara-like days some men manage to get arrested for having been intoxicated and one such was before Judge Geisler in the city court Friday morning. The sentenced was 30 days in jail.

E. C. Rogers was at Williamstown, Mass. Friday on a business trip. Mr. Mark Gallant of this city and Mrs. Antoinette Gallant of Cold Branch, N. B., who has been visiting here, are guests of relatives in New Bedford.

South Main street and other thoroughfares in the city were treated to their annual spring bath of oil Friday. Superintendent Fred Dumas of the street department had a force of men at work to quickly cover up the oil with sand, so no serious inconvenience was experienced.

Members of the Parent-Teachers' association have plans in mind for furnishing apparatus for the playground for the summer season. An outdoor carnival is booked to appear in Putnam early in the coming month.

LEBANON. At the grange meeting April 14 a very interesting programme was given, consisting of a solo by Mrs. F. N. Taylor, reading by Mrs. David Piche, a paper by Mrs. Clement Fowler on "Why Should We Eat More Vegetables," and a talk by Leslie Clark on "Where the Best Plants and Seeds Can Be Secured the Cheapest." There were also several songs by the grange. The committee served refreshments and coffee.

A special town meeting was held Saturday to make plans for the George W. Lyman High School. The people were served by Mrs. F. C. Clark, chairman of the building committee, resin, but owing to ill health Mr. Clark felt that he could not serve on the committee any longer. He has worked hard, not only for the school, but for the best interests of the town. John Clarke of Liberty Hill succeeded him.

Wednesday Club No. 3, at the Social Center met in grange hall with about 100 members and visitors present. The hall was decorated in the club colors. A little after noon the company was seated at two long tables for a dinner of baked beans, salads, scalloped corn, escalloped salmon, macaroni, sandwiches, pickles, pie, cake, fancy cookies, cheese and coffee. After dinner an interesting programme was given including a play, a quartet, recitations, readings, etc. Members were present from both Club No. 1 and Club No. 2, people being present from Norwich, Norwich Town, Williamstown, South Main, Stafford Springs, North Franklin and Goshen.

Wednesday evening members of the Farm and Home Bureau held a meeting in the town hall. Friday afternoon about forty met at Grange hall for a convective instruction in

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lombard, with Mrs. Lombard's sister, Miss Mary Spicer, of New Haven, were week end guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Elmer Geor. Mrs. F. F. Manning and two sons of Norwich, were the first of the week of Mrs. Manning's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Horle. Special price of $2.15 on Hood's Workshus for men, women and children at Nade's—adv.

Virginia Taylor, 12 1/2 daughter of Harold Taylor, fell this week breaking her collar bone. She was taken at once to Hartford where Dr. Henry Sweet attended her. Mrs. Mrs. Charles Abell, with their daughter, Elizabeth, of New Britain, spent Sunday with the former's father, C. J. Abell. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abell, of Liberty Hill, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hoxie.

While working in the field one day recently, Albert Wheeler found a boy balloon with the name and address of a man in Jersey City and the request that the finder correspond with him. A number from this place attended a Pomona Grange meeting in Groton on Thursday. Charles Martin is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital, Williamstown.

ATTAWAUGAN. The body of Leon Smith, of Ballouville was found floating in the mill pond on Thursday morning by Henry Bourdeau. Mr. Smith has been missing for about ten days. Mrs. Joseph Stone has been suffering with rheumatism. Mrs. Percy Woodward of East Killingly visited her mother, Mrs. Joseph Glezer, Thursday. George Maumbar was a visitor at Plainfield Sunday.

No matter how he secured for the M. E. church; a minister from Moosub substituted last Sunday. Mrs. Osmun leaves today (Saturday) to join Mr. Osmun at Boston where he is finishing his schooling. From there they will leave next week for Rock River, a suburb of Cleveland, Ohio, where he has accepted a call. The prospects are that Attawaugan will have a baseball team this season. Mr. and Mrs. John Piche were in Norwich Tuesday. John Piche has concluded his duties as clerk at the Attawaugan store and is working at Danielson in the clothing business.

Miss Mae Waterhouse of Chester, Pa. is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Waterhouse, suffering from a nervous breakdown. Mr. and Mrs. John Piche have moved to Elmville. Miss Edith Taft of Providence visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weeks last week. Alphonse Lecomte of Hartford spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Prichard and his little daughter, Elizabeth. Frank Watson has concluded work at the Attawaugan store. The orchestra of the M. E. church played at the entertainment at the social club Friday evening.

CANTERBURY PLAINS. At the meeting of the grange Wednesday evening the lecturers put on a cake contest, in which the men were judges of the cake. The first prize went to Joie Shea and second prize to Mrs. Helen Hawes. A lively debate by Malcolm Wilberly and Henry Lecraw followed. The subject, Resolved, That in this country mixed husbandry is not profitable than special farming. Both sides brought out excellent points. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. Mrs. Leveil gave one of her recitations which was very much enjoyed by all.

Word was received here that Mrs. Martha Richmond, formerly of Canterbury, now of Plainfield, was found dead.
