POETRY
THE SEA
It was a day of mist and vapors
As we walked past the rocks, the briny
Of many crawling creatures of the deep
We walked past crabs, lobsters and
And turning saw in one blue line
The sea.

Round on these lay a shimmering expanse
Of water, bright and blue, the sun
Warmed into emerald shafts of sunny
And on the rocks the white waves thundering rolled.
Tumbled in unrestrained immediacy!
Far out where the faint sea just meets
The sky
With a blue smile and misty kisses, he
A few white sails * * * dreamships from
The East
Rounding forsaken to strange, nameless strands Through magic fogs and boundless harmony!

A feeling of forgetfulness and calm
Came over me as I felt the tepid bath
Of water, bright and blue, the sun
Lulled by the languid soothing of the
And mist. It slept * * * as sleep Eternity!
Max Stearns, Philadelphia, in Philadelphia Public Ledger.

SPRING FEVER
Robin Redbreast, sitting in a tree,
You sing and sing and sing the day;
You run around and chatter all day—
Looks like you've got a whole lot to say.
But don't you think you're a little bit
Sitting and prancing at me up there.
That's the way you sing and sing the day
While you just sing and chatter all day!

Spent your time hunting? Of course you did!
I'd like a chance to go hunting too;
But I don't know how to do it.
While you do neither, and yet it's plain
You get your feet on a whole lot to gain.
You must dig some out of the ground;
Robin Redbreast, sitting in a tree,
Quit your hunting and singing, and say
Lynn C. Doyle, in New York Sun.

HUMOR OF THE DAY
Edith—So Mr. Boreleigh called on you last evening? I suppose you didn't get a chance to open your eyes?
Ethel—Oh, yes, frequently; but it didn't do any good. He didn't pay any attention to my wares.—Boston Transcript.

Mrs. Striptease (to her modest)—This evening you'll be among the girls today. I call it your line model!
Modest—Ah, madame, it is the shortest distance between two points.—New York Sun.

Little Jackey—Look, mother! That bulldog looks just like Aunt Emily.
Mother—Hush, child! Don't say such things.
Little Jackey—Well, mamma, the dog can't hear it.—Detroit News.

"I care not who writes the songs of a nation."
"Hold on. There's too much careles-ness in the respect."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Jackson has just been telling me that he moves in the best society."
"Quite so. He is in the trucking business."—Buffalo Express.

Irate Father—Your dilatory habits annoy me. It's been my rule through life to be at my desk early and late.
"Incredible! So early with me! I Sometimes I get there early and sometimes late."—Boston Transcript.

"Mr. Galahad was the perfect knight."
"Quite so. He is in the trucking business."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"She declined to marry him after all."
"I suppose her heart-broken."
"Things worked out all right. He asked for a raise in pay, thinking he was about to get married, and received it, and so he is now ahead of the game."—Detroit Free Press.

"My wife made out an itemized expense account for last month," said Mr.
Dudweller.
"What do you learn from her statement just what she bought?"
"No. Most of her purchases were made at 'Ed's'."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Solicitor—Can I see you?
Office Boy—Yes.
Solicitor—Can I see you?
Office Boy—No, he's in for sixty days.
—Detroit News.

"So you are going to the inaugural period."
"To be sure," replied the mountaineer.
"I thought you were a lifelong democrat."
"I am. I understand some of these parades are going to be called on to ride headed for the first time in their lives, and I want to be on hand to see what happens to 'em."—Washington Star.

LEDYARD
Ledyard grange, No. 147, held its meeting Friday evening, April 15th, with Joseph A. Clark, master, in the chair.
The very stormy night did not prevent a large attendance. This was the 14th anniversary of the grange and the woman's work committee furnished a supper consisting of baked beans, salad, meat, rolls and cake. Sisters Fanny Lamb, Ursula E.
Avery, Fanny Clark, and Brothers Billings T. Avery, Joseph A. Clark and Karl Wieman, all chapter members, were presented and spoke briefly.

who have been visiting Mrs. Taylor's parents in Groton for several days, have returned home.

Miss Louise Clark observed her 18th birthday Saturday by entertaining several of her little friends. Games of various kinds were played and refreshments were served. Miss Clark received a number of gifts.

R. G. Gould of New York is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Gould.

Irving Maynard was the leader of the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening.

hurt the peach, plum or pear trees which were in bloom.

CANTERBURY GREEN
Several from the parish attended the conference and anniversary celebration at the Central Village church Tuesday.
Among them were Mrs. L. B. Hildes,
Miss Sarah Hildes, Miss Edwina, Deacon
Hale Bennett and Mrs. Bennett and Rev. Robert Humphrey and Mrs. Humphrey.

Next Sunday evening the meeting will be a praise service. All have been invited to come and assist in the singing at 7:30 in the church.

The meeting of the grange Wednesday evening presented several novel features.

Be Better Looking—Take
Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil.
You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

IN NORWICH FIFTY YEARS AGO

A half century ago this week the members of the William M. Williams Steam Fire Engine Company held their annual meeting and elected James Graham, foreman for the ensuing twelve months. The same week, the official board of canvassers announced the vote for governor in the state election which took place two weeks previous. The vote gave James English a majority of 13 over Marshall Jewett.
