

Will keep without ice. With the cream left in!

Eng Wing American and Chinese Restaurant. WILL BE OPEN MORNINGS FOR DINNER, FROM 11 A. M. TO 2 P. M. SUPPER, FROM 5 TO 8 P. M. A LA CARTE UNTIL MIDNIGHT CHINESE WAITERS AND CHINESE COOKS.

BLOUSES FOR ALL OCCASIONS. French Voiles, Crepe de Chine, Georgettes, Dimities, Handmade, Sport Models.

HAGBERG'S 310 Main Street. The annual get-together of state health officers is planned at the New Haven club, June 1.

THE QUAKER FURNACE. Marvel of Hot Air Furnaces, made of Riveted Hot Plates. No dust or gases from this heater, because there are no joints to leak.

THOMAS F. BURNS 91 FRANKLIN STREET.

KEEP UP TO DATE BUY THE 1921 Automobile Blue Book NOW ON SALE AT CRANSTON'S

Director Edward Robinson of the New York Museum is also the curator of the Department of Classical Art.

KEEP UP TO DATE BUY THE 1921 Automobile Blue Book NOW ON SALE AT CRANSTON'S

Automobile Blue Book NOW ON SALE AT CRANSTON'S

THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE 40 FRANKLIN STREET. WHEN YOU WANT to put your business better than through the advertising medium of newspapers.

PERSONALS

S. A. Gilbert, of Norwich, has been a guest at the Hotel Green, in Danbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ross and family moved to Milford, Mass. Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. John E. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Baldwin of Baltimore, recently called at the home of the former brother, Samuel Baldwin, of Goodyear.

The annual meeting of the State Homoeopathic Medical Association at New Haven was attended by Dr. Franklin S. Wilson, Dr. J. H. Van, Dr. Edward J. Linnell, Dr. Lester E. Walker and other physicians from Norwich and vicinity.

Broody hens make cut in store egg yield. Too many broody hens have the same effect on egg records that too many cooks have on a pie—according to the laymen's content.

Another effect of the slow-down among the American varieties was to let the Leghorns get away with about everything in sight.

When Coventry grange meets Thursday evening the topic for discussion will be 'Do Women Give Sufficient Attention to the Domestic Education of Their Children?'

Trinity Methodist Home Guards are planning to give an entertainment at the church. This is not a military company, but an organization of boys and girls of the church.

Thursday and today (Wednesday) the Connecticut diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church is holding its convention in the parish house of Christ Church Cathedral, Hartford.

The annual banquet of the Rockville Teachers' Club was held Tuesday evening. The club consists of the teachers in the Vernon public schools, the school board and school officials.

Choice blue, sea trout, haddock, cod, mackerel, pomps, shad, butterfish, at Powers Bros.—adv.

Deacon Thomas Collins of Deep River, celebrated the 80th anniversary of his birth a few days ago. A part of the day spent calling on acquaintances in Niantic, his birthplace.

The Saybrook Point round house and yards are being used by the Hartford division of the New Haven Railroad for storing engines. Eleven came Friday from East Hartford.

George E. Bartlett, of Laurel Hill, who has had charge of the 1921 directory canvass in Norwich, is now working on the New London directory for the Price-Lee company of New Haven.

A rummage sale held Monday in the Shields' store by Clara Barton tent, No. 2, D. of V., in charge of Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. John C. Atterbury, proved very successful, over $50 being cleared.

The institution of Clon Graham, O. S. C., will be held Wednesday evening, May 18th in Storer hall at 8:45 prompt. An evening of devotion will be held at 8:45. E. H. Erbery of Scotch broom or descent are cordially invited—adv.

Connecticut tobacco growers are being warned to be on the lookout for the appearance of "wild-fire" an insidious plant disease which attacks tobacco plants in the seed beds and soon destroys them.

The annual summer meeting of the Connecticut Forestry Association will be held at Mt. Higby reservoir, Middletown, Saturday. About 100 members of the association from various parts of the state will attend.

All interested in growing tobacco and the latest discoveries in the control of diseases in the crop were invited by the Southern Tobacco Growers' association to attend an open meeting held in the association building there Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Robert Allen of 25 Sycamore road, West Hartford, Conn., has been commissioned director and organizer of the Sons and Daughters of the Pilgrims for the state of Connecticut. Those whose ancestors came over before 1700 are eligible.

Massachusetts leads the country in the first week's contribution to the Mt. Holyoke College endowment fund, Connecticut is second and New York, third. The total received to date is $170,475 of which Massachusetts has subscribed $45,328 and eastern Massachusetts, $18,746.

A large and symmetrical pink wood tree in the grounds at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Vignot, 218 Washington street, has been a thorn to many of the neighbors. This handsome tree was planted by the late William Camp Lanman, then owner of the property.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT SPEAKER BEFORE WOMAN'S GUILD ANNUAL MEETING

The Women's Guild of the United Congregational church celebrated its first anniversary on Tuesday with a business session, supper and a highly interesting address by Dr. Benjamin T. Marshall, president of the Connecticut Woman's College at New London.

The election of officers for the coming year took place and the following will have charge of the affairs of the guild for its second session: President, Mrs. D. L. Deane; vice president, Mrs. A. H. Abbott; secretary, Mrs. Ernest L. Palmer; treasurer, Miss Edith Young; departmental chairmen—Misses Margaret M. Hildner, Helen M. Hildner, Evelyn Beebe; girls' work, Mrs. Harry F. Clark; hospital, Mrs. Archibald Mitchell, Jr.; flowers, Miss Marion Fitch; social activities, Mrs. M. S. Kula; parish districts, Mrs. Anna A. Brown; buildings, Miss Mary A. Porteous; program, Mrs. E. W. Higgins; membership, Mrs. Charles E. Bard.

Following the business session a supper was served to well over a hundred women in the basement of the Community House. The supper was in charge of Mrs. Arthur W. Thompson, chairman of the programme committee, and William H. Ost, chairman of the social committee, assisted by various members of the guild.

Women and the Community. At the conclusion of the supper Dr. Marshall presented the danger of very inspiring message on Women and the Community. Dr. Marshall in his opening remarks spoke of the kind feeling co-operation that has always been manifested in the past toward the college of which he is head.

During my life I have met a great many women whom I have honored from my mother on, teachers and others, who have helped mold my life, he said. Always have I been keen for suffrage, but in no way should it mean the minimizing of the duties of women in the home and in the community. It is the great conservators, stabilizers and guardians of the morale of the community.

When we look at the world today we see that it will be the woman who will do us and it will be the woman who will do us.

W. H. B. Kent (Barred) Casenovia, 1121 Rock Rose Farm (Barred) Katonah, N. H. (Barred) Rocks, 956 Jules E. Emerson (Barred) Westhampton Beach, L. I. Ernest W. Plicker (Barred) Glen Ridge, N. J.

Charles H. Lane, Southboro, Mass. 1180 H. E. Rickford, Greenfield, N. H. 1061 P. S. Clark, Lowell, Mass. 1025 Henry P. Walker, Hudson, Mass. 1025 White Leghorns. James O. Le Pere, New Paltz, N. Y. 1081 L. E. Ingoldby, Cooperstown, N. Y. 1075 Hollywood Farm, Hollywood, Wash. 1069 Ernest H. Scott (White Leghorns) Farmington, Conn. 1064

Other Varieties. Obed G. Knight (White Wyandottes) Bridgton, Me. 1217 H. P. Clouse (Buff Wyandottes) 801 E. R. Lane, Conn. 996 A. E. Hampton (Black Leghorns) 860 Harry D. Emerson (Black Leghorns) 850 (dotted) Plymouth, Conn. 850

OBITUARY. Mrs. William H. Beckwith, a well-known resident of Uncoisville, died at the Lawrence and Memorial Associated Hospital in New London, May 12, 1921, Monday evening as the result of a paralytic shock, which she suffered on Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Tarasoski, of 58 St. Francis avenue died Tuesday afternoon at her home after a lingering illness that had kept her in bed for the last four years. She was born in Poland forty-six years ago and had lived in this city about fifteen years. Besides her husband she is survived by five sons and four daughters.

WEDDING. Patrick J. Casey and Miss Annie M. Sullivan, both of this city, were married on Tuesday morning at St. Mary's church by Rev. William Wilcox. The nuptial mass that followed was celebrated by Rev. Farber Keefe. The couple were attended by John T. Casey, a brother-in-law of the groom, as best man and Miss Mary T. Haskell as bridesmaid. Henry J. La Fontaine was at the organ and Mrs. H. E. Corbin and Miss Elizabeth I. Sullivan, were bridesmaids.

The groom was born in Norwich, the son of John and Mary March Casey. He has been employed as foreman in the U. S. Finishing Co. and has made his home at 408 Central avenue. His bride is the daughter of Matthew and Mary Palmer Sullivan and has always made her home at 48 Tenth street.

TATFVILLE WON SERIES FROM PALACE BOWLERS. Tatfville took the final match from the Palace and also won the series, on Tuesday night, on the Tatfville alleys, winning the best two out of three strings. Both high honors went to A.J. of the Palace.

There was only six pins difference in the total pinfall, Tatfville having 1611; Palace 1595.

Tatfville's. Pepin ..... 112 100 124- 336 Bentley ..... 108 120 98- 327 Edwards ..... 106 88 117- 313 White ..... 113 124 95- 334 Dugas ..... 85 118 31- 214 525 544 532-1611

Palace's. Shea ..... 106 95 84- 289 Foster ..... 100 107 97- 284 Simcox ..... 113 115 113- 321 McCarty ..... 100 104 121- 325 A.J. .... 101 144 104- 349 313 563 529-1605

Local astronomers were watching Jupiter Tuesday evening through their glasses, in the hope of witnessing the eclipse of its fourth moon.

CITY BUREAU SPEAKER FOR C. C. LUNCHEON

The officers of the Norwich Chamber of Commerce are competing plans for a noon day luncheon Friday for the members of the chamber. David A. Adie, formerly secretary of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce but now connected with the American City Bureau of Boston, is the speaker. Mr. Adie was one of the American City Bureau speakers heard during the chamber members' luncheon about a year ago. He is an eloquent speaker and a business man in the chamber assured of an interesting talk on Chamber of Commerce activities.

It is planned to start the luncheon at 12 o'clock sharp in order that the members can be back at their stores or offices by 2 o'clock at the latest. Noon day luncheons for members are in vogue in a number of cities and it is hoped that members here decided to try out the plan here in Norwich. The luncheon will be held at the Wauregan house.

CLEAN-UP VISIT MADE TO REPORTED PLACES. Tuesday Henry Gebrath, public health officer, and J. J. O'Rourke, secretary of the chamber, visited most of the 75 places in the city required by the Boy Scouts during clean-up week as needing attention. The majority of the places visited showed an improvement over their original condition. Several manure heaps in the city were removed. These heaps of manure are a menace to health and are a violation of the city ordinance.

Three or four premises belonging to prominent people were found to be in poor condition, as they have been given little or no attention by their owners. As a result of the inspection revealed a strictly clean city and it is hoped that owners will keep their property cleaned up from now on.

FIRE FROM SMOOT IN FIREPLACE. At 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the deputy chief and several of the firemen at the Central Fire station responded to a telephone call for a small fire at No. 15th street. The firemen found a quart of burning oil in the base of an old fireplace which now forms the end of the chimney.

The burning smoot had covered a hole in the paper on the chimney. The fire was extinguished without the aid of chemical. The house is owned by Paul Skindzin and is occupied by Joseph Urbanowicz and family.

TALK OF JULY OUTING FOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. The officers of the Norwich Chamber of Commerce are engaged in securing the sentiment of the members on an outing to the island of Long Beach in July. If the outing is held it will take place during the early part of July and the programme will include a dinner at one of the hotels, a boat ride, a picnic on the shore, and the steamer Nelsco II will be chartered for the day. The outing will be held for the Chamber of Commerce and their friends, including the ladies.

AT DAVIS THEATRE. Cohen's comedians in "Mary." George M. Cohen's comedians played a return engagement of "Mary" at the Davis theatre here on Tuesday evening, scoring the same big success with a crowded and applauding house that it had on its first appearance. It was the same company again, with Bert Gardner as Jack Keene, holder of the Love Nest cottage, and Edna Pendleton as Mary. Those who were favorites again including Edna Mae Kains Pierre, Joseph W. Herber, Nick Jolina and others, while the Colosseum quota added to the completeness of the whole in the snappy music, peppy dances, pretty chorus and gowns and song stage settings, especially the lovely scene in the last act.

The dance specialties by Charles J. Adler and Ethel Rose, Willie and Nellie Spalding, Billy and Conny, were again features that went big with the house.

ABSOLUTE STATE FORTS DOOMED BY WAR DEPT.

Washington, May 17.—How many forts and military reservations will Connecticut lose under the recent determination of the war department to drop off all that are not useful as an expense to the government? No one yet knows definitely what will be done, but recommendations have been sent to the house military affairs committee by the secretary of war regarding the number of such places to be sold or transferred and so set the war department free from their care and upkeep. Recently published items seem correct in a number of instances. In Connecticut the list submitted to the military affairs committee. Until that committee makes some report nothing official can be stated, but on the best obtainable authority few any place in Connecticut will be affected by the secretary's recommendation. The names of Fort Hale, at New Haven, New London Dock at New London, Fort Trumbull at New London, do not appear on the list of recommendations for sale as filed with the house committee by the secretary of war and it is doubtful if these forts and reservations will be disturbed.

Fort Griswold at New London, now being used as a public park is of great historic value and no expense to the government; Fort Hale at New Haven, acquired in 1803 consists of 20 acres and is regarded of great historic value and will be undisturbed. Light House at East Haven dating back to 1844 is now used by the weather bureau for day and night signals and besides its historic value is exceedingly useful. The New London dock is the base for supplies for all the neighboring forts and are very valuable for that purpose and could not well be spared; Fort Trumbull at New London harbor acquired in 1775 is used by the coast guard revenue cutter service and is both historical and useful. So it doesn't seem likely that any of these forts will be thrown into the hands of the war department. Secretary of War Weeks, in his effort to cut down all unnecessary expenses or keep in the name of the department useless land and buildings.

The whole movement started several years ago when the house military affairs committee of which Congressman John Q. Hilson of New Haven was then a member, felt it was wise to ascertain what property of the war department held in the name of the war department. So a group of experts was sent out over the country to take an inventory of all forts, posts and government reservations and return their findings to the military committee. That has now been completed so far as the first corps area, which forms the New England area is concerned, and the findings have been submitted to the committee and to Secretary of War Weeks, recommendations followed and it now rests with congress to decide what if any action shall be taken. When such property is found not to be useful to the war department, but that it might be of value to some other branch of service recommendations for transfer in stead of outside sales may result. New Haven presented the case for the preservation of the Fort Hale reservation for a public park and the park board of the city wrote Congressman Hilson urging him to take whatever action might be proper to secure the city an opportunity to secure the land if it were to be disposed of. But so far nothing here goes to show that it is the intention of the war department to sell the reservation at present.

Secretary of War Weeks said today to the Bulletin correspondent, "I am in full sympathy with the idea of preserving historic spots but feel if property is not useful now or seems likely to be in the future, to the war department, it should be either transferred or sold. We have already transferred three reservations in the middle west to the public health service and it is likely other forts or reservations can be cared for by such transfers or by the cooperation of states, societies or organizations desiring to obtain them for parks or preserve them for their historical value. But the war department cannot afford to keep them unless they are of value for war department purposes." It is being suggested that the vocational education branch of the government, as well as the public health service may be interested in their branches very desirable in some instances. At any rate unless the list submitted is not complete Connecticut will not be greatly disturbed, in spite of rumors to the contrary.

Eleventh Birthday Party. Little friends of Marjorie Hyde of 68 Franklin street enjoyed a pretty party on her eleventh birthday. The party was given at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hyde, and was a most enjoyable one. The table and Mrs. Hyde served fruit, cake and ice cream for the children. Marjorie received many pretty gifts.

North Grosvenordale. Friday night, May 14th, an unusually large audience gathered in the M. H. auditorium to hear the jubilee of the Myster of the Deacon's Second Wife. Malvina, Deacon Fitz's wife, went down to Dorchester to get her two nephews to help with the singing. The deacon and two children, Ellen George, Malvina, and Nancy Melissa, in charge of her niece Kitty (right from New York) and a meddlesome neighbor, Mrs. Brown, held order to the deacon was to take no summer boarders. While Kitty was playing old lady with the children an automobile party came seeking lodging. Mistaking Kitty in a curvy white wig for Mrs. Fitz, in her excitement she promises to take them in. During the week that follows the automobile party, composed of the Bullock family and Mr. Rencho, do the deacon's having to keep her masquerade, although Mrs. Brown complicates matters by continually running in and talking of Malvina. Kate tells the guests that Malvina is the first wife and she herself is the second. Mrs. Fitz, Dorothy Bullock's lover, who is an artist and whose courtship is opposed by Mr. Bullock, also arrives. When the visitors, through Mrs. Brown, talk of Malvina's return, are very much alarmed at the prospect of a family squall. Malvina unexpectedly returns in the flesh. Explanations follow. Kitty is revealed, Mrs. Bullock promises to settle young Rencho, who is in love with Kitty, on the deacon's farm. The deacon is glad to move to the village because of his "rheumatism." Mr. Bullock becomes reconciled to Dorothy's lover, Phillis (damsel), and the party returns to the city.

The characters were taken by members of the Junior class as follows: Milton George Washington Pitt, Robert Luther Cassella, Nancy Malissa Pitt, Ethel Pauline Sandstrom, Mrs. Brown, Emma Chubbuck, Kate Rollins, Helen Edwile Kimball, John D. Bullock, Joseph Leon Baker, Mrs. Bullock, Alice Marion Erickson, Dorothy Bullock, Evelyn Francis Kies, Hartley Bullock, Felix Eugene Grenier, Ernest Rencho, Charles Tolman Baker, Philip Gomboge, Edward Stans Grand, Putnam Livingston gave an excellent impersonation of the old New England farmer, Deacon Fitz, and was greeted with laughter whenever he uttered his favorite expressions, "Jolly graveyard," "Ethel, Johnson was very good as Mrs. Malvina, who had changed nothing in her house for eighteen years," "The Fastine Sandstrom and Robert Cassella," "The children secured rounds of applause for their song, King Alcohol. Helen Kimball was clever not only as the fun-loving Kate but also as the able Mrs. Fitz. Look

THE LIGHT HOUSE OF NORWICH

Over 30 years ago we began to install electric wiring in the homes of Norwich. It has been our business to furnish light and by virtue of this fact and our long established position in the industry our customers have come to think of us as the NORWICH LIGHT HOUSE. We wire houses. We are agents of the General Electric Co. We sell Mazda lamps and all electrical lighting and heating devices.

When in the dark, think of us. EATON CHASE CO. 129 Main St., Norwich, Conn. Electrical Contractors-Dealers

Baker and Felix Grenier made a bit in the wood sawing scene, while Emma Chubbuck contributed the address. The evening was a most enjoyable one. Even Brown, Charlie Baker's dog, and Felix Grenier's hen and four chickens behaved admirably. The play was coached by Miss W. H. Potter, assisted by Miss Florence Partridge. The committee on society was Charles Baker, Wilfred Duquette and Robert Cassella. The committee on costumes was Clara Mathewson and Edna Robbins. The receipts were very satisfactory.

The pupils at T. M. H. S. at the regular singing period are rehearsing in preparation for the operetta "The Feast of the Little Lambs," to be presented next week. This is the school's first attempt to stage such an elaborate musical entertainment. The girls are working on Japanese costumes and securing big Japanese fans.

The seniors netted $26 from the 6000 sale held in Thompson May 13th. They also received a gift of $18 from Mrs. Ross, formerly of Thompson. Ariele C. Wood of Lakeview, N. C., is visiting friends in town.

Pupils perfect in attendance on Legion Hill for April are: Paul Auger, Louis Auger, Harrison Mills, Marion Wain, Norman Watson, Marjorie Lewis, Leroy Ballard, John Sherry and David Sherry. Miss Clara M. Armstrong is a teacher.

Perfect attendance for April in District No. 16, North Grosvenordale, primary rooms: Inez Agard, Oscar Agard, Zenil Beatin, Irene Beaulieu, Elizabeth Cettin, Peter Demeter, Clara Gault, Burton Jar, Mike Lada, Joseph Leidy, Frank Lynde, Vasil Makali, Phyllis Nelson, John Can, Thoma Proxa, Marjorie Stone, Letae Tangle, Tonnell Vangel, Miss Leola Copeland is the teacher.

Middleton.—Sunday afternoon the Old Guild band of this city gave the third in a series of free concerts at the Swedish country in Tronholm. The previous Sunday the band played at St. John's industrial school in Deep River, and the week before at the county home in Hartford. The concerts have proved very popular among the children at these homes.

THE EFFICIENT WOMAN. We hear a great deal nowadays about the efficiency of women. In the realm of fifty years ago who ever heard a woman praised for her executive ability, force, and energy, in the sense that it is used today? The great difficulty, however, of womanhood has passed away. How is it possible to measure up to the ideals of modern womanhood? In the first place, we must keep our bodies in the best possible condition. Thousands of women have succeeded through daily baths, exercise in the fresh air, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at the first sign of female weakness.

Miners Must be Kept Busy. even though the demand for coal is less now than in winter. That's Why Coal Prices Are Down. It's your move on the checker-board of economy. The Edward Chappell Co. Norwich, Conn.

There is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bulletin for business results.