AMERICAN FLAG FOR SUPERIOR COURT TO BE USED AT NATURALIZATION

Aliens who will be naturalized in the superior court here next week will see the Stars and Stripes displayed before their eyes in court at the time they take the oath of allegiance to their new adopted country.

A handsome new American flag has been presented this week to the court for use at naturalization sessions by Sedgewick Woman's Relief Corps, No. 14, of this city, whose president in presenting the flag made a most interesting address.

When the corps president, Mrs. Annie L. Kannon, and the Americanization committee of the corps, failed at the office of Judge George E. Truesdell, clerk of the court to put the flag in his care.

In presenting the flag, Mrs. M. Florence Dean, spoke as follows: "The flag is the symbol of our country and the emblem of our unity. It is the flag of our fathers and the flag of our future. It is the flag of our hope and the flag of our glory. It is the flag of our love and the flag of our life. It is the flag of our faith and the flag of our courage. It is the flag of our strength and the flag of our power. It is the flag of our wisdom and the flag of our knowledge. It is the flag of our justice and the flag of our mercy. It is the flag of our peace and the flag of our harmony. It is the flag of our freedom and the flag of our equality. It is the flag of our unity and the flag of our brotherhood. It is the flag of our love and the flag of our life. It is the flag of our faith and the flag of our courage. It is the flag of our strength and the flag of our power. It is the flag of our wisdom and the flag of our knowledge. It is the flag of our justice and the flag of our mercy. It is the flag of our peace and the flag of our harmony. It is the flag of our freedom and the flag of our equality. It is the flag of our unity and the flag of our brotherhood. It is the flag of our love and the flag of our life. It is the flag of our faith and the flag of our courage. It is the flag of our strength and the flag of our power. It is the flag of our wisdom and the flag of our knowledge. It is the flag of our justice and the flag of our mercy. It is the flag of our peace and the flag of our harmony. It is the flag of our freedom and the flag of our equality.
