These women passengers in a light buggy owned by E. W. Ellison of Mansfield had narrow escape from injury Sunday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock when the horse attached to the buggy became frightened at something and ran away.

The horse dragging the buggy ran down Church street and turned into Main street heading east, and before reaching the railroad, smashed one of the shafts on the buggy.

Continuing on its way the horse succeeded in getting by the trolley without a mishap. From the railroad crossing west the horse turning and headed the animal off.

The horse then turned to the left and took New Haven railroad tracks, one of the women jumping out of the buggy as it struck the tracks. Not far up the tracks the horse freed itself from the buggy and went on up Jackson street.

The woman, although badly frightened, was uninjured. The buggy was hauled to the bank at the right of the tracks and left there until later in the day when it was returned to its owner.

The week-end passed quietly for the town, no calls coming in during the past 48 hours.

A stabbing affray that nearly cost Thomas Dertch his life occurred at about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the fruit store of Natale Gabriele on Pine street. A cut three inches long and to the bone was inflicted on Dertch's left shoulder by Joseph Genacarella following a brawl. Only efficient first aid treatment and the services of a physician, Dr. Scanlon prevented the wounded youth from bleeding to death.

According to the story told by witnesses of the affair, Dertch had called on Natale to purchase some cigarettes, and Genacarella was standing near the door when he started to go out. As Dertch went out the door slammed and a pane of glass fell out, striking Dertch on the forehead. Dertch claimed that it was Dertch's fault and requested him to pay for the damage. According to Mr. Dertch, he agreed to do so and put his hand in his pocket for the money. As he did so, he alleged that Genacarella struck at him with a pool cue, and Dertch retaliated with two blows that knocked his adversary to the floor, smashing up his nose and bruising his eye. Dertch then pulled out a spring jackknife and stabbed him while his back was turned.

Dr. M. H. Scanlon dressed Dertch's wound and then Dr. E. H. Hais was called to treat Genacarella's injuries. Notice of the incident was called to the attention of the police about 3 o'clock Sunday by Miss Jennie Scelidino. An attempt will be made to apprehend Genacarella.

A fusillade of hits in the sixth inning, including several doubles and a triple, drove Sullivan to the showers and enabled the Westerys to win a decisive victory over the Broadways from Pawtucket Sunday afternoon at Riverside park. The score being 14 to 3.

Due to the tardy arrival of the team from the northern city, the game was not started until about 5 o'clock, and it was agreed to play eight innings. The play was fast and close for the first five innings, both Mooney and Sullivan hitting good balls and everything indicating another pitchers' duel.

With the score 3 to 1 against them, the local team started on a rampage in their half of the sixth and by the side was retired 15 men had batted, nine runs had been scored, and the game was won.

The score by innings: Broadways - 0 0 0 2 0 1 6 - 11 3 Kayses - 1 0 0 1 1 3 3 - 2 1 3 Batteries: Kayses, Mooney and Keller; Broadways, Sullivan, McCormick and Williams; umpires, O'Sullivan and Murphy.

Federico Gabriele and Miss Marie Coffone, both of Westery, were united in marriage Sunday morning at the Church of the Immaculate Conception by Rev. William C. Daland, D. D. The bride was attended by Miss Marie Morrone. Patsy Genacarella was best man. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride on Marion street. The couple will make their home in Westery.

On the evening of Flag day, tomorrow (Tuesday) Westery will observe the day by a parade of the members of the O. E. U. will conduct annual flag day exercises in Wilcox park. This custom prevails throughout the country, as the keynote of the society is patriotism.

An impressive program of public exercises has been arranged for the members of the Past Exalted Ruler James Connelly of Pawtucket, an able speaker, will deliver the address.

Following the exercises in the park, a street parade of the members of the O. E. U. will be held. The entire French band of the inter-allied commission General Lerond, but has the cooperation of the Italian forces, according to advices printed in Berlin newspapers. The advices state that the entire area is expected again to be under allied control within ten days.

The killing of an English sergeant by Polish insurgents is not expected to affect in any way the British plans to pacify the country with the least possible bloodshed, and no reprisals will be permitted. It is understood that General Henniker does not contemplate a direct effort at disarmament of the district, but merely intends to reestablish allied prestige by dissolution of the organized rebel forces. This hope may be accomplished without the actual use of force, although it is understood that in the event the Polish offer resistance in the industrial district, particularly in Katowitz, where they are strongest, the British are prepared to quell them with rifles and machine guns.
