WEATHER

Winds

North of Sandy Hook—Fresh southwest winds and partly overcast weather Thursday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras—Moderate to fresh southwest winds and partly overcast weather Thursday.

Conditions

High temperature prevailed generally Wednesday in the eastern states and in the northwest. Maximum readings of 91 degrees were reported from several stations in the middle states.

There will be considerable cloudiness in the states east of the Mississippi river Thursday with local thunder showers or widely scattered rains. Unsettled, showery weather is probable Friday in connection with the northward advance of the Texas storm.

There will be no important changes in temperature Thursday but somewhat cooler weather is probable Friday in middle and northern sections east of the Mississippi river.

Forecast

South New England east New York partly cloudy and somewhat unsettled Thursday; Friday unsettled, probably showers, not much change in temperature.

TAFTVILLE

Friends have received postal cards from Leon Decelles and William O'Brien at Niagara Falls, N. Y., where they are spending a few days. Recently they were fishing in Albany, N. Y.

Some young fishermen caught home yesterday a nice string of perch that were caught in the river.

Curp stones has been laid from South B street to Providence street, on Norwich avenue, on the side in front of the mills.

Many automobiles have been seen to stop near fields in this vicinity and gather about.

The upper end of Norwich avenue has been given a coating of oil and sand.
Near the city line a new water pipe line is being laid and motor vehicles and vehicles are obliged to use the car tracks.

A number of villagers who owned machine mowers yesterday afternoon, returning late in the evening.
Several of the younger people are planning to have a picnic down the Thames river boat race day.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

EXPLAIN ROTARY'S VALUE

Rotary and what it means to the individual and the community was ably explained in a series of educational questions and answers presented at the noonday luncheon of the Norwich Rotary club on Wednesday at the Wauregan house.
There were about 30 present, including several guests and visiting Rotarians.
The business meeting of the club was held with President Lucius Briggs presiding, after which the educational part of the meeting was taken up.

Arthur M. Brown was the leader of this part of the program and before making the questions for which answers had been prepared he spoke on the general fundamentals of Rotary. Never before in the history of this organization has the world faced such problems as it does at the present time. Here in America the American people have been shaken to their foundations as well as international institutions. In my opinion, said the speaker, it is due largely to the human selfishness that is being manifested on all sides. People seem to be possessed with the idea that they must demand their rights without regard for others.
As has been said here before, there are no rights without a corresponding obligation, but the majority of people lose sight of the obligation for which they are in position better able to combat this tendency than Rotary, whose principle and motto is "Service Before Self" and "He Who Serves Most Serves the Best."

Mr. Brown then read 20 questions explaining the aims and objects of Rotary, and the answers given by the individual members of the club, proving an entertaining and instructive part of the program.

Richard Tarrant, speaking for the entertainment committee, reported that plans for a golf match between Norwich and New London Rotary clubs would be held next week after the regular noonday luncheon. New London is to send up a team of 10 of the best golfers to compete with a team of 10 from the local club. Although Norwich lost to the New London club on the diamond, they will certainly take all honors when it comes to the golf course. F. Russell Smith, chairman of the entertainment committee, also spoke regarding next week's meeting, at which the ladies will be present. Willis Austin is to be captain of the local team and in all probability a cup will be the prize to be played for.

A communication from William G.
Park of Hanover, who is attending the international convention at Edinburgh, Scotland, was read by Secretary A. Nelson Waymouth, saying that the trip across had been fine and that everyone had enjoyed a wonderful trip. Mr. Park was made chairman of a committee to arrange for a golf tournament on the famous St. Andrew's links there.

Clinton E. Lane was the song leader and the members enjoyed chorus singing and several individual solos and duets.

Feeping Youth Caught at Beach For peeping into a family bath house at Ocean Beach, occupied by a mother and two daughters of a prominent Norwich family, a 14-year old son of a well known family of New London was taken into custody by the police at New London Tuesday and was placed under the charge of Probation Officer Richard W.
Mangfield.

SECOND TRIAL OVER $50,000 FUND

Retrial of the case of E. Frank Morgan and others of New London against the Savings Bank of New London to recover stocks and bonds and damages of $50,000 was started before Judge Gardiner Greene in the superior court in Norwich last Wednesday morning. The contest arises over the alleged illegal loaning of money belonging to the estate of the late Elias F. Morgan to Ricardo R. Morgan, a son of the testator.

The case was tried before the late William S. Case in October, 1918, and he gave judgment to the plaintiffs for $23-500. The bank took an appeal to the superior court and before Judge Case could give a finding of facts he died, necessitating a retrial of the case under the statutes.

The suit brought by E. Frank Morgan, Constance Morgan Chappell and George Curtis Morgan, brothers and sister, and Mrs. Annie E. Morgan, third mother, as trustees of the will of the late Elias F. Morgan, who died in 1905. It is claimed that in August, 1906, George Curtis Morgan was appointed trustee of the estate created under the will of his father and that the following September Ricardo R. Morgan, a brother of the plaintiffs, borrowed $25,000 of the defendant, on a note signed by George Curtis Morgan and Mrs. Morgan as trustees, and that the loan was made for the purpose of engaging in speculation. It is claimed that neither of the endorsers of the note had any power to make the loan and that the money was used for no legal purpose in connection with the estate.

Subsequently, it is claimed, Ricardo R.
Morgan pledged as collateral security stock in the Great Northern, Baltimore and Ohio, Reading and other railroads and that the stock given as security was the property of the estate, which was known to the bank, which also knew that neither Mrs. Morgan, Ricardo R. Morgan or George C. Morgan had any power to pledge it as security. Furthermore, it is claimed that the bank has since received the entire income and collected it and applied it to the use of the bank. The total income amounts to $11,000.

It is also claimed that the late Elias F. Morgan borrowed $3,000 on a note, depositing some stock for security, and that the note was either paid by him during his lifetime or by the executors since his death, yet the bank is still retaining and collecting the interest on these securities unlawfully.

After the case was called for trial in the morning counsel in the case went into consultation in an effort to reach a settlement. After conferring for about two hours, however, they returned and announced that the case would be retried.
George Whitley, assistant cashier of the bank, went on the stand and gave testimony regarding the transactions alleged in the complaint.

It is expected the trial may take three days.
Judge Stoddard of New Haven, Judge Waller, Belcher and Coit of New London and Attorney Gallup of New London are the counsel for the litigants.

RIVER REGULATIONS TO KEEP CREWS' COURSE CLEAR

Unusual precautions are to be taken Friday morning and late afternoon in the Thames river, between the bridge and the Yale-Harvard boat race. The race near Gates Ferry, to safeguard the lives and boats of spectators and to safeguard the crews from any molestation.
The United States government, through the United States coast guards, has in charge of all defense and patrol of waters adjacent to the United States, which, of course, includes the Thames river, has issued a warning that is being sent to the New York, New Haven and Harvard railroad bridge and an imaginary east and west line crossing the river 4 1/2-miles north of said bridge, shall be anchored or moored, well clear of the course, at least 30 minutes before the scheduled time for the beginning of each race and shall remain so anchored or moored until 30 minutes after the race shall have ended.

No vessel or boat of any description shall move on the Thames river within the area described in paragraph 1 between a time 30 minutes before the scheduled time for the beginning of a race and a time 30 minutes after the race shall have finished, except when directed by, or by special permission of, the United States officer charged with the enforcement of these regulations.
These regulations shall apply to all craft except only patrol vessels or boats engaged in patrolling the coast under the direction of the United States officer in charge of the river during the time prescribed in the regulations.
The safety of life on the congested waters of the Thames river during the regatta requires the rigid enforcement of these regulations and they will be so enforced. Severe penalties attach, under the law to a violation of the regulations.

NEW HAVEN ROAD TRAINS FOR BOA RACE DAY

New Haven road has announced its special train and car arrangements for the Yale-Harvard boat race Friday.
The observation train for the freshman race in the morning will consist of only 16 cars this year, instead of 32 as in former years. This train will leave New London Union station at 9:30 and will take spectators for both the freshmen and the second varsity races.

The observation train for the varsity race will be made up of 32 cars and will leave for the race at 1:20. The observation train for the Porcelain, A. D., and P.Y. clubs and three coaches for open travel.

The other two trains will be run boat race day, one from Boston and another from New Haven. The first will leave Boston at 12:01, due in New London at 2:40, consisting of three parlor cars with the Harvard club, two parlor cars for open travel, a dining car and two coaches.

The New Haven train will arrive at New London at 1:40, leaving New Haven at 12:30, making no stops en route, and will consist of six coaches for open travel, one special parlor car with the Jennings party, and New Haven business car No. 2, occupied by special party.

All of the regular express trains from Boston and New York will be equipped with extra coaches.

FIRST MEETING HOUSE AT NORWICH TOWN

Doris Lucy Browning of the 1921 graduating class at the Town street school selected a subject close around home for her essay, writing upon "The First Meeting House in Norwich Town." The essay was as follows:
The first meeting house stood in the southwest corner of the green, very near what used to be the parsonage. This primitive church had neither steeple or gallery. It is thought that a sun-dial stood near the door, and perhaps a horse block. In 1688 a small amount of money was collected to pay Samuel Lachance for repairing and beautifying the meeting-house. But even this did not satisfy the people of the fast growing

Longest Days of Year

Tuesday was the first day of summer.
Incidentally, it was the longest day of the year or rather one of the three longest days, for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were of equal length, the sun rising at 4:17 and setting at 7:24. Edgingling today (Thursday) and for the following three days, the days will be two minutes shorter, the sun rising one min-
