

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN WILLIMANTIC OFFICE Telephone 185 23 Church St.

What is Going On Tonight. United Order Golden Cross, Willimantic Commandery, No. 156, meets.

Today morning about 1:30 o'clock the body of a woman was seen floating in the Willimantic river close to the bank of the water wheel of the west mill of the Goldrick Windham Manufacturing plant...

Mrs. Weiden was fully dressed when taken from the water. For the past three years she had suffered attacks of paralysis when in that state would get up late at night or in the early morning hours and walk in the street...

Mrs. Weiden was fully dressed when taken from the water. For the past three years she had suffered attacks of paralysis when in that state would get up late at night or in the early morning hours and walk in the street...

ONCE UPON A TIME THERE WERE NO DOCTORS!

The Doctor Was Not Much Needed Until Folk Began to Break Nature's Laws.

Doctors' French Prevention is Better Than Cure.

Ninety per cent of all disease is preventable, so doctors say. Eat simple food, exercise wisely, sleep sufficiently, and what is vitally important—make sure of the daily, regular, thorough elimination of body waste...

Two Willimantic men were members of the class of 1921 at the Scientific School. One is Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bowen, of No. 25 Grove street was one of the five honor students of the class...

Union street still presents a town appearance due to the tearing up of many old sidewalks on either side of that street. Several of the old tar sidewalks have been replaced by pier cement sidewalks and workmen are now engaged in laying gutters...

FOR CONSTIPATION BEECHAM'S PILLS

Dr. F. C. Jackson DENTIST 715 Main Street, Willimantic Hours—9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Phone 44

JAY M. SHEPARD Succeeding Filmore & Shepard Funeral Director & Embalmer 50-52 NORTH ST., WILLIMANTIC LIA Assistant. Tel. Connection

Killourey Bros. FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS 15 Union St. Willimantic, Conn. Phone 290 (Lady Assistant)

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE Willimantic, Conn. Domestic and Imported Weaves, in attractive small checks, are in a wide variety of patterns. On account of the beauty of the fabric, very little trimming is needed to produce a pretty and attractive frock.

GAY GINGHAMS For Frocks Because they tub and wear so well, Gingham is the ideal fabric for Summer Tub Frocks. 36-inch and 38-inch wide Imported Checked Gingham, 75c and 89c a yard.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

will be before the police court this Wednesday morning charged with the theft of a bag of corn stolen from the local grain store. The boys in court Tuesday morning reversed their testimony of Monday and said they sold Mrs. Lachappelle a bag of the corn.

The weekly meeting of the Willimantic Rotary club held Tuesday noon took the form of a "Vacation Day" social. Following is the dinner membership list...

Justice Frank H. Foss was occupied in court matters at Rockville Tuesday. Herbert W. Fisher of this city is in New York on business.

Walter Bennett, charged with intoxication, was before the police court on Tuesday morning and pleaded guilty. He said that he had been in the city for fifteen months and worked at the Quindick-Windham Manufacturing plant.

Further developments in the case of three small boys who filed two bags with corn from a freight car in the rear of the Willimantic grain company came up when the boys were brought to answer to charges of theft.

The case of the three boys were continued until this Wednesday morning. They are Clarence Peiky II, Henry Provost and John Sarakowski. Mrs. Lachappelle is the aunt of the Peiky and Provost boys.

Local people are receiving in the mail registration blanks to be filled out if the Miller is desirous of entering the Millinery Training camp to be held at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., from August 1 to 31 inclusive.

The other local man is John Weiden, Jr., son of Dr. John Weiden, who received a medical degree from the University of Yale this fall to take up the study of law.

James Brown of this city was a recent visitor in Colchester. The lady in charge of Woonsocket, R. I., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Theophile Galpeau of No. 27 Main avenue.

Union street still presents a town appearance due to the tearing up of many old sidewalks on either side of that street. Several of the old tar sidewalks have been replaced by pier cement sidewalks and workmen are now engaged in laying gutters.

The washbasin on the way was almost leading from Union Hill to Pleasant street have been filled in with crushed rock and will soon be rolled down into a firm foundation which it is hoped will prevent further washouts of the kind experienced after Monday afternoon's hard shower.

Mrs. D. Jordan of this city has been appointed by Governor Lake as one of the trustees of the Connecticut Hospital for the Insane at Middletown.

Mrs. Helen E. Macgregor, 55, died on Monday on Winter street, following two days' illness of double pneumonia. She leaves her husband, Patrick Harrington, two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Barry at this city and Miss Mary Barry of Ireland; a brother, David Barry, of this city; two nieces, Bridget and Mary Shea, of New London; a nephew, Patrick Barry of this city and three grandchildren.

The funeral of Cyril W. Gosson was held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Jay M. Shepard, No. 52 North street. Rev. Arthur D. Carpenter officiated. Interment was in the Curtis cemetery, Mansfield. The bearers were William Turner, William Elmendorf, Lester Hicks and Frank Potter.

Mrs. Mary C. Merritt, 45, of Andover, died early Tuesday morning at St. Joseph's hospital. She was born in Hartford, April 12, 1846, the daughter of Edward and Anne Gray Cooney. She leaves her husband, Leonard J. Merritt, two sons, Edward and George Merritt, and a daughter, Miss Anne Merritt, all of Andover; and two sisters, Mrs. George Cope and Mrs. John Towler, both of Hartford.

Mrs. Jennie Lachappelle of Main street will be before the police court this Wednesday morning charged with the theft of a bag of corn stolen from the local grain store. The boys in court Tuesday morning reversed their testimony of Monday and said they sold Mrs. Lachappelle a bag of the corn.

Rev. Frank S. Robbins of Preston delivered an inspiring sermon Sunday morning in the Second Baptist church here. Mrs. Mary B. Russell was a Norwich visitor Monday.

Alexander Ballentine, who died in New London, Thursday, had many friends here who were shocked at his sudden death at the age of 32 years. Surviving besides his wife are his parents, residents of this place attended the funeral Saturday at New London. Burial was in Jordan cemetery at Waterbury.

Mrs. Jane Reynolds of Mystic is visiting Mrs. Mary A. Malne. Many people attracted by the flames, visited the scene of the fire that totally destroyed the large barn of W. A. Phillips, Tuesday evening. Two other buildings near the barn were consumed at the same time and the residence was badly damaged.

COLCHESTER

The top dressing demonstration at the farm of Clayton Miller was held Monday, June 27, between 10 and 11 a. m. and was weighed June 28, between 1 and 2 p. m. A number interested in looking over the farm had a demonstration present at both the cutting and weighing of the crop.

The annual graduation exercises of the Bacon academy were held Tuesday at 3 p. m. in the Congregational church. The program: Prelude; procession. March of the Friesies, from Abbaie, Mendelssohn, Mr. Heilmann, violin, Mrs. Van Cleve, organ; invocation; salutation.

The class of 1921: Classical course—Alice R. Condon, Maurice A. Hankin, Helen R. Kilgore, Abraham N. Leitner, Isador Stutz.

General course—Jacob Berman, Alice Brown, Josephine R. Chabaud, Isabella Cohen, Fanny Curphey, Sara H. Cutler, Hachette, Fredrick Lillien, Mildred Porter, William J. Shugrue.

C. H. Miller of Cleveland was a caller at the school and office Monday. Mrs. W. F. Becker of New York is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Eva Friedman, of Norwich avenue.

Miss Catherine O'Connell, supervisor of writing in the North of Plainfield, is at her home on Windham avenue for the summer.

PLAINFIELD

A partial list of pupils neither absent, tardy nor dismissed in the public schools of the town of Plainfield for the spring term is as follows: Plainfield High school—John L. Chapman, principal; Addie Baker, Ellen Holman, Laura Hildreth, Elizabeth Bell, Gay Eaton, Catherine Garvey, Lucia LaFrance, Richard Sherman, Helen Stear, James Wallace.

Room 1, Miss Ruth H. Clark, teacher. Cyriel Bergeron, Lena Butler, Alice Colombe, Francis Davignon, Edward Latour, Hector Lavesque, Anita Salva, Howard Taber, Raymond Wood, Samuel Hollingsworth.

Room 2, Miss Helen L. Newton, teacher. Annet Colombe, Blanche Hollingsworth, Pearl Levesque, Francis Mathewson, Irene Mercier.

Room 3, Miss Mabel C. Frink, teacher. George Colombe, Edmond Davignon, Philip Desjardins, Yvonne Poehle, Francis Sullivan, Dorothy Whiteley, Muriel Whiteley.

Room 4, Miss Alice B. Gallup, teacher. Claire O'Neill, Bernard Sullivan, Ernest Velt, Charles Wilcox.

Miss Irene Jolicoeur was presented a June box Monday evening by a number of her friends. The gifts were Miss Clara Gibben, Annie and Jean Hutchins, Mrs. Esabel Button, Beatrice and Berneice Jolicoeur, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. White, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Bottomley, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Beckett, Mrs. Newell, Jolicoeur, Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Walker. Games and music were enjoyed.

There was vocal selections by Miss Irene Jolicoeur accompanied by Miss Jean Barre, Clifford Davis, Ernest Hopkins, Mary Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregson Taylor and daughter of Annapolis, Md., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hancock and son of New Bedford, were here to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor. T. Gregson Taylor is on the physical instructor's staff at the U. S. naval academy.

MYSTIC

Workmen have been engaged for some days in painting Columbus hall and the building presents a fine appearance in its new coat of paint.

Dr. George S. H. Leonard was in Hartford recently in the interests of the state dental commission. A message was received here Monday from John E. Lewis that he sailed for South Africa for home on June 25th.

Mrs. Emma Lamphere has returned to Willimantic after a visit in the village and from there expects to go to Chester, Penn., to visit her brother.

Mrs. John P. Gray was a caller in New London Monday. King is home from Auburn for the summer vacation.

THE BIG VALUE for the SMALL CAR

Fisk Standard Non-Skid

30 x 3 1/2 - $15.00

Plain Tread $14.50—Red Top, Extra Ply Fabric $22.00—Cord $27.50

Built to Sustain a Reputation Sold to Meet Competition

on friends in the village Saturday. George S. Richmond spent Sunday at Willimantic camp ground.

NORTH LYME

Miss Madeline Rogers of Lyme is visiting at Edwin Rogers' this week. Mrs. Warren Rogers, who underwent a serious operation at Lawrence hospital, New London, last week, is improving rapidly.

The Misses Vanderbilt of New York are summing at the Fossilick place. Mr. and Mrs. Schmand, Mrs. Oscar Fisher and Miss Helen Balderson spent several days in New York last week, making the trip in Mr. Schmand's car.

JEWETT CITY

John Perkins, boss farmer for the Ninigret Company, was busy Monday afternoon getting some heavy bales of cotton under cover before they should be wet by the coming shower. A bale started to roll from the truck, he jumped to catch it and the truck wheel ran over the third finger of his left hand, smashing it and crushing the bones.

Between two and three o'clock Tuesday morning people living on the east end of Brown avenue were awakened by a disturbance in Mr. Cudbird's back yard. From an uncovered well nearby there came awful howls. Investigation showed that a pig dog was down in the water of the well thirty feet below. B. C. Bliss and Levi Adams unsuccessfully worked an hour with ropes and a ladder. Warden J. H. McCarthy was notified and Officer John Dolan, Mr. Dolan recognized the dog as a valuable bull belonging to Steven Rodzicki who lives on the Colligan farm. He was also notified. As the dog grew weaker, resulting from his frantic struggles to escape, a ladder was let down again. Officer Dolan then went down and secured a rope around the dog's body. He was hauled up but died in a few minutes.

CHAUTAQUA

Chautauqua opens Thursday. Get

New Federal Prohibition Commissioner

Sleek, healthy cows, fed on sunny meadows, give milk that's churned into Wedgwood Creamery Butter. That accounts for its rich, delicate flavor.

And Wedgwood Creamery Butter goes farther because we're careful to give you a full, honest pound. Water is pressed out before the butter is packed into the odor-proof, dust-proof package. It's all butter.

You not only enjoy wonderfully good butter when you use Wedgwood Butter, but you put yourself in line for a set of Parisian China Dishes. Read how saving the coupon that comes with each pound will help you get these dishes.

Parksdale Farm Eggs

Just try a carton of these big, full-yolked eggs. They're thoroughbreds. And with each dozen you get a dish-coupon.

Folks who appreciate good-eating and good-value very generally use Wedgwood Creamery Butter and Parksdale Farm Eggs. That means you'll like them too. Let us know if your grocer hasn't them.

P. BERRY & SONS, Inc., Hartford, Conn. Sole Distributors for New England States

MOHEGAN

The Ladies Sewing society will meet at the home of Mrs. Matthews Wednesday evening. Miss Quideon and Miss Fielding were in New London Sunday.

EAST KILLINGLY

Mrs. Mary F. Burton of Barrington, R. I., a former resident, celebrated her seventy-fifth birthday, June 21, at the residence of Mrs. Julia Burton. There was quite a gathering of neighbors and friends. Music was furnished by Henry Hill and Edebya Sheffield, and dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

AMERICANISM AS A CURE

Americanism has always been used to cure a multitude of ills.—Weekly Review. Bridgeport.—His mind believed to have been affected by the strain of an ineffectual struggle to provide for his wife and three children, because of prolonged unemployment, Fred O. Hadley left his residence at 465 John street early Saturday and has not been seen since.

CHAUTAQUA

Chautauqua opens Thursday. Get

CHAUTAQUA

Chautauqua opens Thursday. Get

The flavor tells of clean, rich milk

Sleek, healthy cows, fed on sunny meadows, give milk that's churned into Wedgwood Creamery Butter. That accounts for its rich, delicate flavor.

And Wedgwood Creamery Butter goes farther because we're careful to give you a full, honest pound. Water is pressed out before the butter is packed into the odor-proof, dust-proof package. It's all butter.

You not only enjoy wonderfully good butter when you use Wedgwood Butter, but you put yourself in line for a set of Parisian China Dishes. Read how saving the coupon that comes with each pound will help you get these dishes.

Parksdale Farm Eggs

Just try a carton of these big, full-yolked eggs. They're thoroughbreds. And with each dozen you get a dish-coupon.

Folks who appreciate good-eating and good-value very generally use Wedgwood Creamery Butter and Parksdale Farm Eggs. That means you'll like them too. Let us know if your grocer hasn't them.

P. BERRY & SONS, Inc., Hartford, Conn. Sole Distributors for New England States

