

Brighten Up Your Woodwork

YOU spend the biggest part of your time inside the home, so why not make it as pleasant and comfortable as it can be made.

Wearette INTERIOR VARNISH

The varnish that makes your dull surfaces look new. It's easy to apply. Wearette because it flows freely under the brush and dries clear in a few hours.

Shea & Burke

CENTRAL STORE Phone 1238

SPECIAL SALE THIS EVENING TELEPHONE PEAS Picked Today

J. M. YOUNG & SON

YOU SHOULD KNOW

that eye health is essential to continued well-being and success. You should choose your optometrist with the same care that you use when you select a dentist.

C. A. SPEAR OPTOMETRIST Franklin Sq. Norwich, Conn.

COMMANDER RICHARD CASSIDY VISITING FATHER HERE

New Life for Sick Man

Eaton's Works Magic

"I have taken only two boxes of Eaton's and feel like a new man. It has done me good than anything else," writes O. O. Frappir.

LEE & OSGOOD 131 Main Street

DR. SICK HEADACHES

PERSONALS

William H. Shields, Jr., Herbert W. Lippard and Perry H. Corning left Friday to see the Dempsey-Carpenter bout in Jersey City.

Miss Miriam Bergstromer is spending two weeks visiting friends at Wilmington, Del., Philadelphia and Allentown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ringland of Platt avenue leave today for Groton Long Point, where they have spent their long vacation, for the season.

JUDGE LIBBY'S FIRST DAY IN CITY COURT

Previous to the opening of the city court on Friday morning Arthur F. Libby was sworn in as judge of the court by the retiring judge, John H. Barnes.

Among hospital bills approved Thursday by Governor Lake are the following: Lincoln Memorial hospital, $1,250; Day Kimball hospital and W. W. Backus hospital, $1,250 each.

Read construction on Sunset avenue at Watch Hill is being hastened, and it is expected that the new road will be completed before next week is over.

The unloading of the new $10,000 giant walking dredge and truss to be used in draining the Indian pond swamp in Chatham, near Westley, has been completed after four days' work.

Open 8 to 9 a. m. Monday, July 4th. One delivery, 7:30 a. m. Order your salmon early and be sure of a good dinner.

A paper on the history of the Hebron public library was read by Miss S. Tennant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tennant, at the recent graduation exercises of the public school.

The engagement of Miss Gertrude M. Hooper of Boston to Dr. Stanley H. Osborn of Hartford, director of the bureau of preventive diseases of the Connecticut state department of health, has been announced.

The importance of the uniformity of judicial decisions is explained by the Connecticut commission for the promotion of the uniformity of legislation in the United States, whose report to the governor has been issued.

Sea-bathes will again be a feature of summer recreation in Connecticut. Peter Zeitler, a special tax-dancer on Monday, July 4th, and every Tuesday and Saturday and dancing $1.-adv.

At the first annual reunion of the Massachusetts association of Connecticut in Meriden Wednesday, Benjamin Jones of Williamette and Joseph P. Voldwarka of New London were elected associate members.

Patients discharged from the Lawrence hospital, New London Thursday were: Mrs. Thomas Stimpney and baby, of Norwich; Mrs. Warren Rogers of Lyme; Oliver Phinney of West Mystic and Miss Grace Harding of Lyme.

A large number of pupils were examined several days ago for entrance to the Connecticut state school, North Stonington. The same principal and corps of teachers will be in charge of the school the coming year.

On Wednesday at 8 a. m. at the Holy Catholic cathedral in Boston, Peter Zeitler, formerly of Mystic, now of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle A. Prendergast of Boston, formerly of Berlin.

Green eastern salmon for the Fourth lobsters, founder steak, prawn, eastern white halibut, fresh mackerel, oysters' arrival, at Powers Bros.-adv.

The Watch Hill chapel was opened about two weeks ago for religious services, and mass will be said there every Sunday morning from now on. Protestant services began last Sunday and will be continued throughout the season.

There is local interest in the announcement that the Connecticut state school, formerly of this city, and Miss Helen Marguerite Dunton of Providence, they were married Thursday in Providence, where they will be at home after July 15th.

Miss Elizabeth A. Farrell, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Farrell of Franklin, and Bernard L. Loughlin of Hartford were married Tuesday morning at St. Peter's church, Hartford, by Rev. P. J. Cunnane of Brooklyn, N. Y., cousin of the bridegroom.

The annual school meeting of the eighth school district in Noank was held in the schoolhouse this week with over 100 voters present, among them being a good many of the women voters. It was the largest attendance for many years.

As soon as Waldo E. Clark returns from a business visit to Washington, the state rivers, bridges and harbor commission will meet to formally approve the awarding of the contract for the installation of a sprinkler system at the state pier.

The state tax of one cent per gallon on gasoline sales became effective Friday. The tax is only on sales of gasoline used for the propulsion of motor vehicles or under heat and not on gasoline sold to be used commercially or for manufacturing.

Wireless operators at shore stations in this vicinity, and on vessels operating in the vicinity of the coast, are required to receive ringed descriptions in the Dempsey-Carpenter fight this (Saturday) afternoon, through means of the wireless telegraph.

Our special for Saturday: Live and bottled lobsters, boiled crabs, swordfish, 3 pounds for $1.50; sea trout, pound 15c. Broadway Fish Market, 30 Broadway.

Bills introduced by the Connecticut Children's Aid society for the maintenance of the home for crippled children at Meriden, and amounting to $100,000, were approved Wednesday by Governor Lake. The bills cover the quarter ending June 30.

Henry D. Stanley of Bridgeport has presented to the Connecticut state library an original broadside tax warrant issued by the state of Connecticut against the town of Cornwall, June 21, 1789, levying a tax upon that town for $197.36, $4. lawfully money."

Thomas J. Carney of Pogoquooc, a farmer, was arrested in Hartford Thursday on a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor after he smashed a traffic lantern and performed other antics with his automobile in front of police headquarters.

Railroad officials in this section are preparing to handle the greatest holiday movement of trains ever known, during the coming holiday period. Not in long time has such a schedule extra service such as is being planned now, been worked out on the New London division.

A total of 19,000,000 lobster fry were raised during the season just closed at the hatchery and hatchling station. This number includes only the eggs that were hatched out on the hatching table in the hatchery, which was really a very small proportion of the total number handled.

In a night-page bulletin, just issued, the Connecticut League of Women Voters presents a concise review of the work of the recent session of the general assembly, summarized what was done with the two chief legislative programs—the child welfare code and the bills sponsored by the state board of education.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

PERSONALS

William H. Shields, Jr., Herbert W. Lippard and Perry H. Corning left Friday to see the Dempsey-Carpenter bout in Jersey City.

Miss Miriam Bergstromer is spending two weeks visiting friends at Wilmington, Del., Philadelphia and Allentown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ringland of Platt avenue leave today for Groton Long Point, where they have spent their long vacation, for the season.

JUDGE LIBBY'S FIRST DAY IN CITY COURT

Previous to the opening of the city court on Friday morning Arthur F. Libby was sworn in as judge of the court by the retiring judge, John H. Barnes.

Among hospital bills approved Thursday by Governor Lake are the following: Lincoln Memorial hospital, $1,250; Day Kimball hospital and W. W. Backus hospital, $1,250 each.

Read construction on Sunset avenue at Watch Hill is being hastened, and it is expected that the new road will be completed before next week is over.

The unloading of the new $10,000 giant walking dredge and truss to be used in draining the Indian pond swamp in Chatham, near Westley, has been completed after four days' work.

Open 8 to 9 a. m. Monday, July 4th. One delivery, 7:30 a. m. Order your salmon early and be sure of a good dinner.

A paper on the history of the Hebron public library was read by Miss S. Tennant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tennant, at the recent graduation exercises of the public school.

The engagement of Miss Gertrude M. Hooper of Boston to Dr. Stanley H. Osborn of Hartford, director of the bureau of preventive diseases of the Connecticut state department of health, has been announced.

The importance of the uniformity of judicial decisions is explained by the Connecticut commission for the promotion of the uniformity of legislation in the United States, whose report to the governor has been issued.

Sea-bathes will again be a feature of summer recreation in Connecticut. Peter Zeitler, a special tax-dancer on Monday, July 4th, and every Tuesday and Saturday and dancing $1.-adv.

At the first annual reunion of the Massachusetts association of Connecticut in Meriden Wednesday, Benjamin Jones of Williamette and Joseph P. Voldwarka of New London were elected associate members.

Patients discharged from the Lawrence hospital, New London Thursday were: Mrs. Thomas Stimpney and baby, of Norwich; Mrs. Warren Rogers of Lyme; Oliver Phinney of West Mystic and Miss Grace Harding of Lyme.

A large number of pupils were examined several days ago for entrance to the Connecticut state school, North Stonington. The same principal and corps of teachers will be in charge of the school the coming year.

On Wednesday at 8 a. m. at the Holy Catholic cathedral in Boston, Peter Zeitler, formerly of Mystic, now of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle A. Prendergast of Boston, formerly of Berlin.

Green eastern salmon for the Fourth lobsters, founder steak, prawn, eastern white halibut, fresh mackerel, oysters' arrival, at Powers Bros.-adv.

The Watch Hill chapel was opened about two weeks ago for religious services, and mass will be said there every Sunday morning from now on. Protestant services began last Sunday and will be continued throughout the season.

There is local interest in the announcement that the Connecticut state school, formerly of this city, and Miss Helen Marguerite Dunton of Providence, they were married Thursday in Providence, where they will be at home after July 15th.

Miss Elizabeth A. Farrell, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Farrell of Franklin, and Bernard L. Loughlin of Hartford were married Tuesday morning at St. Peter's church, Hartford, by Rev. P. J. Cunnane of Brooklyn, N. Y., cousin of the bridegroom.

The annual school meeting of the eighth school district in Noank was held in the schoolhouse this week with over 100 voters present, among them being a good many of the women voters. It was the largest attendance for many years.

As soon as Waldo E. Clark returns from a business visit to Washington, the state rivers, bridges and harbor commission will meet to formally approve the awarding of the contract for the installation of a sprinkler system at the state pier.

The state tax of one cent per gallon on gasoline sales became effective Friday. The tax is only on sales of gasoline used for the propulsion of motor vehicles or under heat and not on gasoline sold to be used commercially or for manufacturing.

Wireless operators at shore stations in this vicinity, and on vessels operating in the vicinity of the coast, are required to receive ringed descriptions in the Dempsey-Carpenter fight this (Saturday) afternoon, through means of the wireless telegraph.

Our special for Saturday: Live and bottled lobsters, boiled crabs, swordfish, 3 pounds for $1.50; sea trout, pound 15c. Broadway Fish Market, 30 Broadway.

Bills introduced by the Connecticut Children's Aid society for the maintenance of the home for crippled children at Meriden, and amounting to $100,000, were approved Wednesday by Governor Lake. The bills cover the quarter ending June 30.

Henry D. Stanley of Bridgeport has presented to the Connecticut state library an original broadside tax warrant issued by the state of Connecticut against the town of Cornwall, June 21, 1789, levying a tax upon that town for $197.36, $4. lawfully money."

Thomas J. Carney of Pogoquooc, a farmer, was arrested in Hartford Thursday on a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor after he smashed a traffic lantern and performed other antics with his automobile in front of police headquarters.

Railroad officials in this section are preparing to handle the greatest holiday movement of trains ever known, during the coming holiday period. Not in long time has such a schedule extra service such as is being planned now, been worked out on the New London division.

A total of 19,000,000 lobster fry were raised during the season just closed at the hatchery and hatchling station. This number includes only the eggs that were hatched out on the hatching table in the hatchery, which was really a very small proportion of the total number handled.

In a night-page bulletin, just issued, the Connecticut League of Women Voters presents a concise review of the work of the recent session of the general assembly, summarized what was done with the two chief legislative programs—the child welfare code and the bills sponsored by the state board of education.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

PERSONALS

William H. Shields, Jr., Herbert W. Lippard and Perry H. Corning left Friday to see the Dempsey-Carpenter bout in Jersey City.

Miss Miriam Bergstromer is spending two weeks visiting friends at Wilmington, Del., Philadelphia and Allentown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ringland of Platt avenue leave today for Groton Long Point, where they have spent their long vacation, for the season.

JUDGE LIBBY'S FIRST DAY IN CITY COURT

Previous to the opening of the city court on Friday morning Arthur F. Libby was sworn in as judge of the court by the retiring judge, John H. Barnes.

Among hospital bills approved Thursday by Governor Lake are the following: Lincoln Memorial hospital, $1,250; Day Kimball hospital and W. W. Backus hospital, $1,250 each.

Read construction on Sunset avenue at Watch Hill is being hastened, and it is expected that the new road will be completed before next week is over.

The unloading of the new $10,000 giant walking dredge and truss to be used in draining the Indian pond swamp in Chatham, near Westley, has been completed after four days' work.

Open 8 to 9 a. m. Monday, July 4th. One delivery, 7:30 a. m. Order your salmon early and be sure of a good dinner.

A paper on the history of the Hebron public library was read by Miss S. Tennant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tennant, at the recent graduation exercises of the public school.

The engagement of Miss Gertrude M. Hooper of Boston to Dr. Stanley H. Osborn of Hartford, director of the bureau of preventive diseases of the Connecticut state department of health, has been announced.

The importance of the uniformity of judicial decisions is explained by the Connecticut commission for the promotion of the uniformity of legislation in the United States, whose report to the governor has been issued.

Sea-bathes will again be a feature of summer recreation in Connecticut. Peter Zeitler, a special tax-dancer on Monday, July 4th, and every Tuesday and Saturday and dancing $1.-adv.

At the first annual reunion of the Massachusetts association of Connecticut in Meriden Wednesday, Benjamin Jones of Williamette and Joseph P. Voldwarka of New London were elected associate members.

Patients discharged from the Lawrence hospital, New London Thursday were: Mrs. Thomas Stimpney and baby, of Norwich; Mrs. Warren Rogers of Lyme; Oliver Phinney of West Mystic and Miss Grace Harding of Lyme.

A large number of pupils were examined several days ago for entrance to the Connecticut state school, North Stonington. The same principal and corps of teachers will be in charge of the school the coming year.

On Wednesday at 8 a. m. at the Holy Catholic cathedral in Boston, Peter Zeitler, formerly of Mystic, now of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle A. Prendergast of Boston, formerly of Berlin.

Green eastern salmon for the Fourth lobsters, founder steak, prawn, eastern white halibut, fresh mackerel, oysters' arrival, at Powers Bros.-adv.

The Watch Hill chapel was opened about two weeks ago for religious services, and mass will be said there every Sunday morning from now on. Protestant services began last Sunday and will be continued throughout the season.

There is local interest in the announcement that the Connecticut state school, formerly of this city, and Miss Helen Marguerite Dunton of Providence, they were married Thursday in Providence, where they will be at home after July 15th.

Miss Elizabeth A. Farrell, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Farrell of Franklin, and Bernard L. Loughlin of Hartford were married Tuesday morning at St. Peter's church, Hartford, by Rev. P. J. Cunnane of Brooklyn, N. Y., cousin of the bridegroom.

The annual school meeting of the eighth school district in Noank was held in the schoolhouse this week with over 100 voters present, among them being a good many of the women voters. It was the largest attendance for many years.

As soon as Waldo E. Clark returns from a business visit to Washington, the state rivers, bridges and harbor commission will meet to formally approve the awarding of the contract for the installation of a sprinkler system at the state pier.

The state tax of one cent per gallon on gasoline sales became effective Friday. The tax is only on sales of gasoline used for the propulsion of motor vehicles or under heat and not on gasoline sold to be used commercially or for manufacturing.

Wireless operators at shore stations in this vicinity, and on vessels operating in the vicinity of the coast, are required to receive ringed descriptions in the Dempsey-Carpenter fight this (Saturday) afternoon, through means of the wireless telegraph.

Our special for Saturday: Live and bottled lobsters, boiled crabs, swordfish, 3 pounds for $1.50; sea trout, pound 15c. Broadway Fish Market, 30 Broadway.

Bills introduced by the Connecticut Children's Aid society for the maintenance of the home for crippled children at Meriden, and amounting to $100,000, were approved Wednesday by Governor Lake. The bills cover the quarter ending June 30.

Henry D. Stanley of Bridgeport has presented to the Connecticut state library an original broadside tax warrant issued by the state of Connecticut against the town of Cornwall, June 21, 1789, levying a tax upon that town for $197.36, $4. lawfully money."

Thomas J. Carney of Pogoquooc, a farmer, was arrested in Hartford Thursday on a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor after he smashed a traffic lantern and performed other antics with his automobile in front of police headquarters.

Railroad officials in this section are preparing to handle the greatest holiday movement of trains ever known, during the coming holiday period. Not in long time has such a schedule extra service such as is being planned now, been worked out on the New London division.

A total of 19,000,000 lobster fry were raised during the season just closed at the hatchery and hatchling station. This number includes only the eggs that were hatched out on the hatching table in the hatchery, which was really a very small proportion of the total number handled.

In a night-page bulletin, just issued, the Connecticut League of Women Voters presents a concise review of the work of the recent session of the general assembly, summarized what was done with the two chief legislative programs—the child welfare code and the bills sponsored by the state board of education.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

Charged with having broken into the grocery store of Oliver E. Neff, against which a warrant was issued Wednesday evening, Charles W. Wilcox, 36, was arrested Friday by Sheriff J. H. Tutts. The accused was lodged at New London police headquarters Friday afternoon and will be arraigned before Judge John H. Walker of Waterford.

PERSONALS

William H. Shields, Jr., Herbert W. Lippard and Perry H. Corning left Friday to see the Dempsey-Carpenter bout in Jersey City.

Miss Miriam Bergstromer is spending two weeks visiting friends at Wilmington, Del., Philadelphia and Allentown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ringland of Platt avenue leave today for Groton Long Point, where they have spent their long vacation, for the season.

JUDGE LIBBY'S FIRST DAY IN CITY COURT

Previous to the opening of the city court on Friday morning Arthur F. Libby was sworn in as judge of the court by the retiring judge, John H. Barnes.

Among hospital bills approved Thursday by Governor Lake are the following: Lincoln Memorial hospital, $1,250; Day Kimball hospital and W. W. Backus hospital, $1,250 each.

Read construction on Sunset avenue at Watch Hill is being hastened, and it is expected that the new road will be completed before next week is over.

The unloading of the new $10,000 giant walking dredge and truss to be used in draining the Indian pond swamp in Chatham, near Westley, has been completed after four days' work.

Open 8 to 9 a. m. Monday, July 4th. One delivery, 7:30 a. m. Order your salmon early and be sure of a good dinner.

A paper on the history of the Hebron public library was read by Miss S. Tennant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tennant, at the recent graduation exercises of the public school.

The engagement of Miss Gertrude M. Hooper of Boston to Dr. Stanley H. Osborn of Hartford, director of the bureau of preventive diseases of the Connecticut state department of health, has been announced.

The importance of the uniformity of judicial decisions is explained by the Connecticut commission for the promotion of the uniformity of legislation in the United States, whose report to the governor has been issued.

Sea-bathes will again be a feature of summer recreation in Connecticut. Peter Zeitler, a special tax-dancer on Monday, July 4th, and every Tuesday and Saturday and dancing $1.-adv.

At the first annual reunion of the Massachusetts association of Connecticut in Meriden Wednesday, Benjamin Jones of Williamette and Joseph P. Voldwarka of New London were elected associate members.

Patients discharged from the Lawrence hospital, New London Thursday were: Mrs. Thomas Stimpney and baby, of Norwich; Mrs. Warren Rogers of Lyme; Oliver Phinney of West Mystic and Miss Grace Harding of Lyme.

A large number of pupils were examined several days ago for entrance to the Connecticut state school, North Stonington. The same principal and corps of teachers will be in charge of the school the coming year.

On Wednesday at 8 a. m. at the Holy Catholic cathedral in Boston, Peter Zeitler, formerly of Mystic, now of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle A. Prendergast of Boston, formerly of Berlin.

Green eastern salmon for the Fourth lobsters, founder steak, prawn, eastern white halibut, fresh mackerel, oysters' arrival, at Powers Bros.-adv.

The Watch Hill chapel was opened about two weeks ago for religious services, and mass will be said there every Sunday morning from now on. Protestant services began last Sunday and will be continued throughout the season.

There is local interest in the announcement that the Connecticut state school, formerly of this city, and Miss Helen Marguerite Dunton of Providence, they were married Thursday in Providence, where they will be at home after July 15th.

Miss Elizabeth A. Farrell, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Farrell of Franklin, and Bernard L. Loughlin of Hartford were married Tuesday morning at St. Peter's church, Hartford, by Rev. P. J. Cunnane of Brooklyn, N. Y., cousin of the bridegroom.

The annual school meeting of the eighth school district in Noank was held in the schoolhouse this week with over 100 voters present, among them being a good many of the women voters. It was the largest attendance for many years.

As soon as Waldo E. Clark returns from a business visit to Washington, the state rivers, bridges and harbor commission will meet to formally approve the awarding of the contract for the installation of a sprinkler system at the state pier.

The state tax of one cent per gallon on gasoline sales became effective Friday. The tax is only on sales of gasoline used for the propulsion of motor vehicles or under heat and not on gasoline sold to be used commercially or for manufacturing.

Wireless operators at shore stations in this vicinity, and on vessels operating in the vicinity of the coast, are required to receive ringed descriptions in the Dempsey-Carpenter fight this (Saturday) afternoon, through means of the wireless telegraph.

Our special for Saturday: Live and bottled lobsters, boiled crabs, swordfish, 3 pounds for $1.50; sea trout, pound 15c. Broadway Fish Market, 30 Broadway.

Bills introduced by the Connecticut Children's Aid society for the maintenance of the home for crippled children at Meriden, and amounting to $100,000, were approved Wednesday by Governor Lake. The bills cover the quarter ending June 30.

Henry D. Stanley of Bridgeport has presented to the Connecticut state library an original broadside tax warrant issued by the state of Connecticut against the town of Cornwall, June 21, 1789, levying a tax upon that town for $197.36, $4. lawfully money."

Thomas J. Carney of Pogoquooc, a farmer, was arrested in Hartford Thursday on a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor after he smashed a traffic lantern and performed other antics with his automobile in front of police headquarters.

Railroad officials in this section are preparing to handle the greatest holiday movement of trains ever known, during the coming holiday period. Not in long time has such a schedule extra service such as is being planned now, been worked out on the New London division.

A total of 19,000,000 lobster fry were raised during the season just closed at the hatchery and hatchling station. This number includes only the eggs that were hatched out on the hatching table in the hatchery, which was really a very small proportion of the total number handled.

In a night-page bulletin, just issued, the Connecticut League of Women Voters presents a concise review of the work of the recent session of the general