COLUMBIA

Miss Eliza Hutchins spent the past week in Colchester, where she formerly resided for several years, being the guest of Mrs. Mary Day.
The cottage of Fred H. Avery on the green is being occupied this month by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wolf of Hoken, N. J., who were there in July last year. Mrs. Wolf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold I. Phillips, who is well known in Columbia, has left the garage where he was employed for several years and has started in business for himself, having erected a garage on his own property in Willimantic. He began business last week.
Susan Clapp of Hartford is in town for her annual vacation and has a room at the home of Miss Josephine Hutchins, as formerly.
Mrs. Edward Curtis of Hartford was in town last week, the guest of Mrs. Mary B. Yeomans.
The cemetery at the center has been moved during the past week by the sexton, James A. Utley. The grass which had grown up in the gravel road leading to it has been taken out and more gravel is being put on the road so that the cemetery and approach have a well kept appearance.
Word has been received from Miss Faith Lucy Little and a young woman friend who started with her in May on an automobile trip to California that they had arrived at Detroit in good health and without accident to the car. They are having a most enjoyable trip, visiting friends, also libraries, in which they are interested, and are being treated with great courtesy by all whom they meet.
Donald Everett and Jack Barker of Montclair, N. J., two Boy Scouts, started on a hike last Thursday morning to the Scout camp at Columbia like. They arrived Friday afternoon, having walked 25 miles each day and on the rest of the trip they were fortunate in being assisted by passing automobiles. They were brought to the camp by Mrs. Nathe, who was returning from Willimantic, and discovered that she knew one of the boys. They stated that there are 70 boys now at the camp and that their appearance would be a surprise. The camp is under the direction of F. S. Gray, Scout commissioner.
Sarah Staciardini, who went on an automobile trip to New York over the Fourth with her parents, has been ill since her return with a severe attack of tonsillitis, and will soon undergo a minor operation at 10 W. Thompson Street, Philadelphia, recently.
A year ago I had a very bad spell of nervous indigestion and although my doctor did all he could for me, nothing he gave me relieved me of the dreadful attack.
I lost my appetite, I could not sleep, my nerves got worse and I rapidly lost weight.
I had read about your wonderful tonic Wincarnis—for wonderful it certainly is—and I decided to give it a trial. Its effect was truly wonderful. Almost immediately my appetite came back and soon I was able to get a refreshing night's sleep. My nerves grew steady, my indigestion disappeared and I began to put on flesh. In fact, I gained 8 pounds while taking Wincarnis.
Mr. Jos. Moller, a business man of 42 Chandler Street, Worcester, Mass., who was in a nervous and run-down condition when he started taking Wincarnis, says:
"I really cannot praise Wincarnis too highly as a tonic and nerve-builder. For it certainly did me a world of good. I always keep it in the house, for Mrs.

PHILADELPHIA LADY RELIEVED OF NERVOUS INDIGESTION

Others testify to wonderful virtues of world-renowned medicine
"Let anyone who may question the truth of your claims for Wincarnis come to me and I will soon dispel all their doubts," said Miss Helen Miller, who lives at 10 W. Thompson Street, Philadelphia, recently.

EXALTED HORNS.
(The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, after 67 years' existence, is able to report more than 1,000 lodges; 781 members, and over $15,000,000 assets. It is to build a central structure in Chicago to cost $2,500,000.—New.)
The Elk, his head held proud and high,
His voice a trumpet over battle.
If history's page cannot lie,
His horns shall ever be exalted!
And why? The reason can be seen,
And study with proper meekness:
He holds to the equality
Of human strength and human weakness.
He knows no "charity" that stings
The self-respect of a receiver;
He doesn't hunt for angel-wings
When need converts the unbeliever—
He lives and laughs and helps his kith,
His heart is sound, his voice is mellow,
He feels for all the ties that bind—
In short, he is a "regular fellow."

THE UPLAND ROAD.
The road I love winds up a hill,
Past laughing brooks, through woods,
Until
Traversing it, my spirit sings,
And many a foot are lifted with wings.
The road I love climbs up and up
To where the sun is shining
Holds in a loving green embrace,
The heart of Home, dear resting place.
All of my way road beguiles,
The hills and valleys, the trees,
The cool rain as guardian, sun and breeze,
And dear protection of the trees.
O blessed road, O road we've trod
Up to the heights, the hills of God,
Where all our hearts are set,
Till, where all heaven is so near,

In the presence of a large number of distinguished guests both in political and educational circles, a new service centre was opened recently in Stamboul, the old city of Constantinople, by the Y. W. C. A. Speeches were made in both English and Turkish. The house and garden obtained for the centre are both attractive and well adapted to their new use, as well as conveniently situated. Another meeting place which the Y. W. C. A. has provided for Constantinople girls is a spacious garden on the beautiful Sea of Marmora. It has been rented from a wealthy pasha to serve as a summer camp.
Piles
Can't Be Cured From the Outside.
External treatments seldom cure Piles.
Nor do surgical operations.
The cause is inside—bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.
The bowel walls are weak, the parit almost dead.
To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation, send a fresh current through the stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one sure method.
J. S. Leonard, M. D., set at work some years ago to find a real internal Pile remedy. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1906, because before he was satisfied, now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It's easy to take, and can always be found at Lee & Oswald's, who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.

CHAPLIN'S UNDERSTUDY STARTLES

NEW LONDON COURT
Charlie Chaplin's understudy appeared in police court today, said the New London Day of Monday. He was given 24 hours in which to get out of town. The accused, who gave his name as Michael Bukhish, of Bethlehem, W. Va., admitted to the court that he had tried to imitate Charlie Chaplin in the middle of State street about 6 o'clock last evening, that he spun around the silent policeman on the parade, and that he had stood on his head in the middle of the street. He was arrested by Detective Sergeant Charles P. Hammond.
Mike appeared in court today wearing a bathing robe in his buttonhole and a bowtie on his shirt front that glistened like a Fifth avenue show window. In his tie he wore another sparker. He had a $100 gold piece, two $50 gold pieces and considerable other money in his possession. He showed a single pay envelope for $174 for two weeks from the Bethlehem Coal company. He stated that he was on two other vacation trips, that he had gone to Norwich to spend the two weeks with a friend, and that yesterday he came to this city because he had a couple of hundred to spend, and he had heard that this was "a pretty good place." His hair was cut in a pompadour and a forelock hung over his forehead not unlike a famous picture of Napoleon.
When asked by the prosecutor what he meant by cavorting in State street, he declared that he was imitating Charlie Chaplin, and he immediately jumped down from the witness stand and tumbled into the court room in the best of good faith. Pandemonium reigned in the court room until the police collared the jester.
Once before the witness box, Michael stated that he was "neither foolish nor fooling" and that he was a real actor. The court informed him that if he wanted to act he had better wait until he got back to the coal mines. Michael left on the first car for Norwich.
EMPHASIS TO CHECK FRAUDULENT SOLICITORS
The Norwich Chamber of Commerce is again calling the attention of the people of Norwich to their advice that suspicious of any kind should not be given to any solicitor unless the solicitor presents an approval card from the chamber of commerce. This method will insure to the people of the city that the solicitor presenting such a card shall have been fully investigated and found to be authentic and trustworthy. Because of the fact of some such kind in the past, the people of this city have been victims of many fraudulent subscription schemes. If the people of this city will follow this method, fraudulent solicitors will soon find that they cannot perform their nefarious work in this community, and will give our people a safe method for the protection of their interests relative to these matters.
The approval card does not in any way endorse any soliciting proposition, or act as a free-will of the people whether or not they desire to subscribe for the solicitation. The approval card does assure the people, through a careful investigation that the solicitor is duly authorized to receive subscriptions for his solicitation. It is hoped, therefore by the chamber of commerce that everyone who cooperates to keep all fraudulent solicitors away from the city, through this method.
