

IRON AGE WIDE ELEVATOR POTATO DIGGER

Potato digging is hard work without a machine digger, and it may even be a mean job with a digger if you haven't one that will stand racking, grinding work through stony ground, weeds, grass and heavy tops.

Iron Age Potato Diggers are built by specialists on potato machinery, and will stand the test.

HAVE A CHAT WITH OUR IMPLEMENT MAN THE JORDAN HARDWARE CO. WILLIMANTIC, CONN. Telephone 700

ANDOVER

There is to be a public entertainment this (Friday) night at the town hall, following a dance.

Mrs. Louis Hain, who has been at Mrs. N. W. Minth's for some time has returned to her home in Coventry.

Alfred Yeoman, who has been with a party of girl friends at Yale's Ferry in at home, returning a few days ago.

Mrs. A. C. Brown was a Hartford visitor a couple of days this week.

Frank E. Thompson and friends of Springfield, are visiting at Mr. Thompson's home in town.

Mrs. L. M. Whitcomb is ill with diphtheria.

Dr. F. C. Jackson DENTIST

715 Main Street, Willimantic Hours—9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Phone 44

JAY M. SHEPARD

Succeeding Filmore & Shepard Funeral Director & Embalmer 90-92 NORTH ST. WILLIMANTIC, Conn. Tel. Connection

Killourey Bros.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS 90 Union St. Willimantic, Conn. Phone 250 (Lady Assistant)

HOW ABOUT IT!

The Church-Reed Co's July Sale of Clothing, Shirts and Shoes is Going On and You Should Make It a Point to Get in Here Soon and Get a Suit at $22.50, $28.50, $34.50 and $37.50

Ralston Shoes For Men NOW AT SALE PRICES

$10.00 quality NOW $8.50 $ 9.50 quality NOW $7.95 $ 8.50 quality NOW $7.25

All High Grade Shoes With Goodyear Welts and Styled in 1921 Models.

JULY SALE NOW ON

CHURCH REED COMPANY

MAIN AND CHURCH STREETS

Willimantic's Livest Men's Shop

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN WILLIMANTIC OFFICE Telephone 705 23 Church St.

Funeral services for George H. Allen, formerly superintendent of the Willimantic pumping station, were held from the family home in Mansfield Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Another double bill over the week-end for the edification of local fans will be presented by the management of the American company team 'Saturday, the New Departure team of Bristol will play here and Sunday the Ludlow, Mass. outfit will meet the local visiting nine expected to give the Willimantic players the stiffest kind of opposition.

The local outfit will present a somewhat different lineup in Saturday's game as Shortstop Horkheimer has signed up with the Waterbury team in the Eastern League. In his place will be Petty, formerly with Graton-Knight team of Worcester.

FITCHVILLE

The Fitchville Community picnic is to be held July 29th at Ocean beach, going from Fitchville to Yantic by auto truck, leaving Fitchville at 8 a. m. A special electric car will leave Yantic at 8:30 and arrive at Ocean beach at 10:45.

The meetings in the Baptist church July 24th will be as follows: 11 a. m. preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Herberington, followed by baptism in the lake near Robert D. Adams' home.

Mrs. A. E. Ayers and her sister, Miss Glover, who have been making George Penney a visit, have returned to their home in New York.

Torrington—Joseph Kocik and John Kowalski of Torrington, who ran up to Torrington and tried to sell a machine which they claimed would make money, were fined $300 and costs each and given jail sentences of six months besides judgment was suspended on the sentence provided they paid the fine and left town. They paid.

FRIENDS SEE A BIG CHANGE IN SCHMUS They Say Waterbury Man Looks Like Different Person Since Taking Tanlac.

"My friends tell me these days that I look like a different person, and I know I certainly do feel that way," said James Schmuss, well known painter living at 241 Bank St., Waterbury, Conn., in relating his experience with Tanlac.

COLCHESTER

One of the heaviest showers of the season, named over the village Wednesday afternoon. The rain fell in torrents for a while and the Main street ran like a river. The shower seemed to work to the eastward. About four miles below the village where the men are laying cement on the road, it did not rain.

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE

Willimantic, Conn. THE JULY CLEARANCE SALE IN WHITE SKIRTS The July Clearance offers you a good opportunity to provide for your vacation needs. For instance, you may need a White Skirt, and here they are at a good saving.

street has joined the staff of the Prudential company in this city. Saturday morning a party of boys in charge of Secretary Frank L. Custard of the local Y. M. C. A. will leave for a week's camp at Crystal Lake, Eastford. Those who are to make the trip are Harold Simonds, Allyn Rose, Durward Oldenhouse, Merritt de. Edwin Cross, Arnold Storey, William Jackson, Jr., Gunnar Nelson and Edward and John Melkie.

Thursday morning's rain storm was quite severe, doing considerable damage to the mill section and the storm sewer main holes on Main and Valley streets were filled. Superintendent of Streets Iron M. Fox had force of men at work early with auto trucks carting away the dirt that had collected at the foot of some of the streets.

Judge L. P. Waite Marvin of Hartford has decided in favor of the defendant in the case of Thomas Marra vs George Rood of Windham, tried at the June term of the Windham County Superior court in this city. Marra sought to obtain an injunction to prevent Rood from cutting on disputed boundary lines of the former's land in Windham Center. Patrick J. Danahy was counsel for the plaintiff in the action and Samuel B. Harvey for the defendant.

Major Dwight K. Shurtieff, who is serving a few weeks with his wife and son at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Shurtieff in this city, has just received from King Albert of Belgium, a decoration appointing him an officer of the Order of Leopold II, dating from August 12, 1919. It was given in appreciation of the services Major Shurtieff rendered since the armistice as chairman of the ordnance salvage corps of the war department, in connection with supplying machine tools and manufacturing equipment for the rebuilding of Belgian shops and factories destroyed during the war.

Oscar Peterson, charged with intoxication pleaded guilty. He was arrested on Main street Wednesday afternoon by Officer Oederick Larverson and his conviction was such that a jitney had to be secured to get him to the station house. Peterson was taken to the station house under a physician's care for six weeks and had not worked during half of that time. Jamaica ginger was the cause of the trouble. Peterson is a party filled bottle of that concoction was found in his person when he was arrested. Judge Curtis Dean imposed a fine of ten dollars and costs amounting to 17.15 which was paid.

A Ford touring car that rolled down Main street Tuesday evening with a banner attached to the rear on which was inscribed "Sweet Herter and his Sheats County, California" attracted considerable attention which was increased when the driver pulled up at the curb in front of the Ames Hotel. The car was owned by Albert E. Sumner, who happened to be the person accosted. Mr. Sumner replied that he was the one asked for and then the men shook hands, for it transpired that they are first cousins who had not seen each other for fifty-three years.

The Westerner was Frank Keyes and he and his wife, Mrs. Keyes, were on an automobile tour of the United States which is to take six months. Mr. Keyes was born in Astoria, February 25, 1887, the son of Andrew Piag and Julia Hanks Keyes. His father was well (Continued on Page Eight)

Miss Marjorie Sullivan has returned to St. Joseph's hospital, Willimantic, where she is training as a nurse, after a week's stay at the home of her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. J. J. Sullivan. C. W. Blakeslee and R. G. Reighelth of New Haven were at the state road office Wednesday.

Sheriff Oscar Main of Norwich was in town Wednesday on business. A. N. Lewis and D. T. Williams were in Norwich Tuesday. Wednesday, S. P. Sears and Daniel O'Brien motored to Marlboro, Wednesday.

Louis E. Baldwin of Middletown was in town Tuesday. A. W. Bushnell from Norwich, division engineer of the state highway department, was a caller here Wednesday. George Sabine motored to Norwich on Wednesday.

JEWETT CITY

Notice has been received that the charter for the Jewett City Trust commission has been granted by the bank commission in Hartford. The stockholders will meet at an early date to form the organization.

Mrs. M. D. Fuller is visiting her sister in Chicago. Rev. M. D. Fuller is at Block Island for a week. Miss John Foster has children, Lynnwood and Margaret, are spending two weeks on Fisher's Island.

Lloyd Wechsler is visiting relatives in East Orange, N. J. Ernest Branga and Miss Jessie Branga of Wellesley Hill are guests at F. C. Whiting's.

Mrs. Henry Olsen is substituting as night operator at the local telephone exchange. E. H. Hiscox has been in charge of Slater library this week during the absence of both the librarian, Miss Mabel Wilcox, and the substitute, Miss Jean Burleson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Robertson and Miss Portetta Robertson of Jewett City and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Miller of Greenfield, are spending the week-end vacation in New Jersey, going by automobile.

Prentice W. Chase, the Ashland welfare supervisor, has accepted the re-employment of the New London County Agricultural association that he take charge of all the athletic features of the annual fair at Norwich in September. Jewett City has figured in the contests in previous years, always with winners.

Miss Bertha Davis goes to Camp Terrehagan next week for two weeks. This camp is situated on the northern shore of Rogers lake in Lyme. John Chadwick has recently spent two weeks at the Y. M. C. A. camp for boys at this delightful place.

Miss Judith Wechsler, Harold Wechsler, Blanche Minofsky, Harry Minofsky and Rose Olnsky of New York are spending the summer at Oscar Silverberg's in Lisbon. Mrs. Esther Cohen of Albany, N. Y., is a guest at Maurice Goldberg's in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Carpenter have as their guests for two weeks Mrs. Sarah Buckman and Miss Edith Buckman of Willimantic. Miss Elizabeth McNeil and Miss Lena Lentenback of New York. Mrs. E. B. Cheney entertained the ladies' Aid society at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. James McCluggage and Miss Beale McCluggage are at their cottage at Willimantic camp ground. Mrs. Prentice W. Chase spent a few days at Eastern Point recently. James LaPointe, who sold his property to John Minth, has bought two dwellings in Brewster court. He will occupy one and his son, William LaPointe, who has also sold his property to John Minth, will occupy the other.

A. C. Burdick and William McNeal attended the annual outing of the Aetna Casualty and Insurance company at Thursday, R. L. T. Tuesday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Byron Sweet Mrs. Sweet's granddaughter, Miss Loleta Lord, was united in marriage with F. H. P. Clement. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. Richardson of Pachaug. Mrs. Richardson played the march from Lohengrin as the couple, who were unaccompanied, entered the room. The bride wore a gown of white georgette, carrying a beautiful arm bouquet of bride roses. Her grandmother wore brown satin. Only one hundred guests were present. A breakfast was served, at which the bride cut the handsomely decorated wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. Clement left by automobile for a trip to the White mountains. The bride's traveling gown was blue cloth, with which she wore a white satin hat. They will reside on Mathewson street, Jewett City, on their return. Mrs. Clement is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lord and since their death has lived with her grandmother, Mrs. Sweet. She has taught the school in the White district very successfully. Mr. and Mrs. Clement are members of Pachaug grange and the Community club. Mrs. Clement is a member of the Whiteoaker club of Pachaug. Mr. Clement is superintendent of the Griswold schools and principal of Riverside grammar school, Jewett City.

Solomon Paquette and Medos Perry made the banner catch of black bass in Glasco Thursday. They had six fish, weighing 15 pounds. The largest one was landed by Solomon and weighed six pounds.

OLD FORMULAS UNKNOWN Numerous are the trade secrets handed generation by generation from father to son, and vast is the capital made out of some of them in the commercial world today.

Many are the priceless trade secrets buried far down below the moldering dust of misty past and lost to the world, perchance never again to be recovered.

To cite the first example that occurs to the mind of the writer, for instance what would a Royal Academician do on a present day save to be possessed of the secret held by the old masters for mixing their colors so as to render them imperishable and impervious to the ravages of time?

The red colors, especially, of these artists of a bygone epoch are every whit as bright now as they were three long centuries ago. On the contrary, the colors of pictures painted only a hundred years ago have lost their lustre and are faded and decayed to a deplorable extent.

Again, in the world of music, the manufacturers of violins treasured a recipe for a varnish that sank into the wood of their incomparable instrument and mellowed it as well as preserved it.

With such extreme, relentless jealousy, however, did they guard their great secret that it, too, is lost to all appearance, irretrievably.

Rather more than 100 years ago there lived in a quaint, Old World village in Wales a working blacksmith, who had managed, by some means or other, to bring to the welding of steel to such a pitch of perfection that the point was absolutely invisible, and the temper of the steel as fine as on the day it left the tilters hands.

He was offered large and tempting sums to divulge his secret, but kept it obstinately to himself, and when his span of life had run its course he took it with him to another world.

The ancient Greeks had a substance which we call Greek fire, and which they used in naval warfare. Their method of employing it was simply this—to throw the substance upon the surface of the water, where it flamed up and set fire to the ships of the enemy.

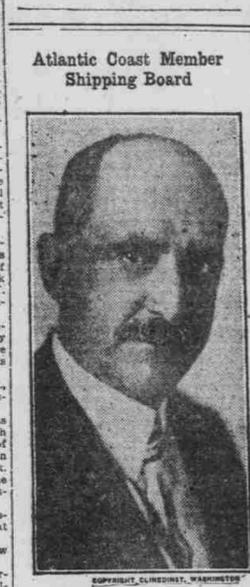

What was it? The only known substance of the present day that would do this is the metal potassium, but to set fire to a ship in the manner described would necessitate the use of at least half a ton of that metal.

Where did the Greeks obtain the substance they used with such effect. Or how did they make it? If Greek fire was potassium, the secret of the process is another that must be numbered with the lost.

The man who could distill the buried recipe for Roman mortar would be hailed as a hero of the present day. How he bowed down to and worshiped by them made it a profound secret, and bids fair to remain so.

The mortar is as firm now as it was 2000 years ago; it has calmly

It's toasted LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE Atlantic Coast Member Shipping Board

Member of the U. S. Shipping Board, Edward C. Plummer, of Bath, Maine, appointed for three years as representative of the Atlantic Coast. Mr. Plummer has had wide experience as an admiralty lawyer in the shipping industry. Before the war he was a leader in the movement for a ship subsidy.

der them imperishable and impervious to the ravages of time? The red colors, especially, of these artists of a bygone epoch are every whit as bright now as they were three long centuries ago.

Again, in the world of music, the manufacturers of violins treasured a recipe for a varnish that sank into the wood of their incomparable instrument and mellowed it as well as preserved it.

With such extreme, relentless jealousy, however, did they guard their great secret that it, too, is lost to all appearance, irretrievably.

Rather more than 100 years ago there lived in a quaint, Old World village in Wales a working blacksmith, who had managed, by some means or other, to bring to the welding of steel to such a pitch of perfection that the point was absolutely invisible, and the temper of the steel as fine as on the day it left the tilters hands.

He was offered large and tempting sums to divulge his secret, but kept it obstinately to himself, and when his span of life had run its course he took it with him to another world.

The ancient Greeks had a substance which we call Greek fire, and which they used in naval warfare. Their method of employing it was simply this—to throw the substance upon the surface of the water, where it flamed up and set fire to the ships of the enemy.

What was it? The only known substance of the present day that would do this is the metal potassium, but to set fire to a ship in the manner described would necessitate the use of at least half a ton of that metal.

Where did the Greeks obtain the substance they used with such effect. Or how did they make it? If Greek fire was potassium, the secret of the process is another that must be numbered with the lost.

The man who could distill the buried recipe for Roman mortar would be hailed as a hero of the present day. How he bowed down to and worshiped by them made it a profound secret, and bids fair to remain so.

The mortar is as firm now as it was 2000 years ago; it has calmly

WE HAVE HAD HEATLESS MONDAYS AND GASLESS SUNDAYS—NOW WE HAVE Heatless Dresses A Heatless Dress is the latest sleeveless Dress with a little patent leather belt We Sell Them In All Our 5 Stores At $1.97 Checked Material and All the Leading Plain Shades You can make use of any waist you may have to wear with them or you can get some wonderful Waists at 97c and $1.24 to wear with the Dress.

Ladies' Voile Dresses $3.47 We Buy Big, We Sell Cheap We Have Ladies' White SILK HOSE With Seam Up the Back at 97c They are scarce in the market, but we have them Why Pay Fancy Prices? THE NEW SATIN HATS Up to the Minute Styles $3.97 Worth Up to $8.50 Here is Another Eye Opener CHILDREN'S RIBBED SEAMLESS HOSE Sizes 5 to 9 1-2 9c a pair On Sale in All 5 Stores

NEW NET WAISTS Short sleeves and Peter Pan collars, worth $5.00, our price $2.97 LADIES' PORCH DRESSES Made of Amoskeag Gingham—Extra heavy sizes included 97c CHILDREN'S DRESSES WITH BLOOMERS 97c CHILDREN'S CHAMBRAY CREEPERS 67c

We Sell a Lot of Corsets Short Girdles with Garters 59c Rubber Top, Flesh Color Corsets 77c Brocaded, Well Boned Corsets 97c Bust Supporters (flesh) 27c BUYING FOR 5 STORES The Paskin Co.—SELL FOR LESS 5 GOOD STORES IN FIVE GOOD TOWNS Norwich—Willimantic—Danielson—Putnam—Westerly

SPECIAL SALE ON Aluminum Ware $4.00 Tea Kettle for $2.98 $2.50 Double Boiler for 1.79 $2.25 Percolator for 1.49 SEE WINDOW THE J. C. LINCOLN CO. UNDERTAKING Willimantic, Conn. FURNITURE Tel. 705-2 Tel. 705-3

scoffed at the ravages of time and weather.—Columbus Dispatch. No More Senslessness. Senslessness may be unknown in the near future. Interesting research work is being carried on in the experimental tank of the national physical laboratory at Ted-

Blow Hot Or Blow Cold Blow your tea to cool it, and your hands to warm 'em! If given half a chance nearly all propositions will contradict themselves in time. And here is a bottle (empty) which will keep your drink sizzling hot or freezing cold for twenty-four hours. Just the thing for noontime luncheon whether in the shop or on an automobile outing. The biggest value for the money we have ever seen in a Vacuum Bottle. You can see them in our window, but none will be sold until Saturday morning, and then only one to a customer. The price is a joke; only 89c. J. B. FULLERTON CO. Willimantic, Conn.