What is Going On Tonight ANNOUNCEMENTS Sold Bevels Avenue Property. Through the agency of A. C. Cavelli Mrs. Pauline Kern sold the three-room tenement house with bakery to Mrs. Marjorie Placencia. Mrs. Placencia purchased the property for investment. Sell Sachem Street Property. John A. Moran, the real estate broker has sold for the estate of John Stambly the property 259, 263, 257 and 261 Sachem street, consisting of a store building and a two-family house. The property is at the corner of Sachem and Yantic streets and is bought by the purchaser for speculative reasons. Lucas Beach Lots For Sale. The late Aaron Lucas owned a large tract of land on the shore of Quonochontaug, R. I., it being considered one of the very best tracts along the coast, and it is now divided into building lots and offered for sale. Thousands of people who have been to this popular summer resort will watch the development of this property with the greatest interest. William P. Hill, the real estate broker, has the property in charge. Breed Theatre and Majestic Meet Garden. Love or Money, which should be the greater consideration in marriage? Made Kennedy, in her latest Goldenwyn release, The Highest Bidder, which comes to the Breed theatre and Majestic Roof Garden today and Thursday, finds this ancient problem to be as vital as ever in deciding the destiny of a girl. As "Bally," born to wealth, but condemned by fate to orphanage and poverty, she is rescued from her plight by a Mrs. Steese, an adventurous girl who plans to marry her to a wealthy man. Bally, desperate, agrees to the plan. But when she finds that a girl of her feelings cannot expect to marry a man who she does not love without a struggle. She accuses Mrs. Steese's love by her attitude, and is finally forced to carry out her duty. The meet of Henry Lester, a millionaire, who is in love with her, as she with him. Lester, in early life, had been fitted for a man with more money, and had never quite recovered. His bitter feeling towards women is aroused when he discovers, as he thinks, that Sally and Mrs. Steese are merely after his money. In a critical moment he plots to have Sally become involved with an outcast, dressed up in comedy productions, one never can anticipate what is coming next, and good direction is combined with clever acting. Miss Mary Childs was in Plymouth last week and witnessed the pageant of the day President Harding was in attendance. She pronounced it a never to be forgotten experience. She was called home Thursday by the illness of her mother who remains in a very weak condition. Miss Gladys Gallup and Julia and Bertha Styles accompanied by Miss Eather and Mabel Prink, of Jewett City, start this Tuesday morning for Lewiston, Maine, where they will attend a two-day session of the New England conference of grange lecturers. On their return they will visit the White Mountain and other places of interest. Cart Galt will convey the party in his car. A large gathering was held Sunday at the home of George Cole, who has just passed his 76th birthday. A fine dinner was served. W. W. Noone of Peterboro, N.H., was a week-end visitor here. HEBRON Irving G. Will and family, of Herkimer, N. J., are guests of Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Martin. Mrs. Will is sister to Rev. Mr. Martin. Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Mills and son and a friend, James Peckham, of Hartford, were guests of Rev. E. H. Martin on the first of the week. Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald, rector of Christ Episcopal church, Bayridge, N. J., and his mother, Mrs. Helen Fitzgerald, of Andover, are at their summer home in Hebron for their vacation. The members of the L. A. S. have been invited to meet with Mrs. E. T. Smith Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Seyma and Mrs. Eunice Seyma were in Colchester Friday evening. Miss Gladys Hough was home from Hartford for the week end. Mrs. Annie Gilbert, Miss Helen Gilbert, Miss Susan Pendleton and Miss Clarissa Lord were in Plymouth last week to attend the celebration. Among the local people out of town last week were Mrs. W. O. Seyma in Hartford one day, Mrs. E. T. Smith in New London, A. Smith at Storrs, W. B. Chamberlain in Hartford. Mr. and Mrs. Davies of New York are guests of the Griffin family. Miss Ruth Griffin of Hartford was home for the week end. Mr. and Mrs. James Martin and son Sherwood of East Hartford were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Little. NORTH STONINGTON A few weeks ago a musical and literary contest was held between the men and women of the grange at Stonington. The judges pronounced the men the winners. They were consequently, it having been so stipulated, entertained at supper by the losers Friday evening last. Arrangements were in charge of the women's work committee of the grange. Mrs. R. D. Cook, Mrs. J. D. Avery, Mrs. G. D. Coats, Mrs. L. B. Maine and Mrs. E. W. Chapman. The menu included roast beef with gravy, mashed potatoes, relishes, rolls, apple pie, ice cream and coffee. About 75 were present. Following the supper, dancing was enjoyed until 11 o'clock. Forty-four members of North Stonington grange visited Pachaug grange last Thursday evening, several taking part in the program, which was given by visiting grangers. The Baptist church and Sunday school are to have a joint picnic at Atlantic Beach Thursday. The New London county farm bureau will have a field day, beginning at 10.30 a. m., today (Wednesday), Aug. 10, on the North Stonington fair grounds. Rev. O. D. Fisher preached in Leyard Sunday morning in exchange with Rev. G. F. Goodenough. The pulpit of the Baptist church was occupied Sunday by Rev. Lucian Drury, who also administered communion. Brown & Stone have moved their business into larger quarters. The grange fair will be held in September. Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Williams spent last week on Block Island. Rev. A. L. Townsend of Philadelphia is spending part of his vacation at the home of Mrs. H. W. Perkins. Mrs. Perkins and Mr. Charles S. Noyes, Jr., and son of Stonington and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Adams and children of Norwich were in town Sunday and attended morning services at the Baptist church. Irving C. Ecclestone has entered the employ of Brown & Stone. HOPKINTON Rev. E. F. Mathewson, who has supplied the pulpit of the Rockville Seventh Day Baptist church most of the time for the past ten months, went to Rockville last Saturday to take part in the installation of the new pastor, Rev. A. Burdick. Mr. Mathewson conducted the devotional exercises and gave an address of welcome from the state and towns. The church clerk, Albert S. Babcock, welcomed Mr. Burdick to the church and community and the pastor responded and preached a sermon. He is also to be pastor of the church of the same denomination at Hopkinton City, a brief installation service was held there in which Rev. A. Burdick was the guest. Walter D. Keayon, clerk of that church participated. The Witter bungalow at Hopkinton City has been purchased by Henry Pennington, who has been in the city for some time and is being completed for his occupancy. An Italian laborer, member of a gang engaged in making improvements at the home of the Ashbury Wagon Co., stepped on a rusty nail one day last week and it penetrated his foot. Blood poisoning resulted and he has been taken to the Rhode Island hospital in Providence. WEST KINGSTON Charles E. Larecki, who has been spending several weeks at the Cross Roads, returned to Providence Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. James Tourje, Jr., of Gould were callers here Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Watson, Mrs. Annie E. Webster and daughter Mildred, Miss Sarah Randall, Everett Kenyon and Jessie Correll spent Thursday at Franklin Park, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Lord and Mrs. E. L. Lord of Providence were visitors here Sunday. Mrs. Leroy Knowles of the village received a telegram Friday to come to her father at once. She went on the next train to his home in Massachusetts. Her father is very ill, but was living Sunday. Bert Franklin of Wickford Junction was an caller here last week. Miss Dorothy Kenyon and Miss Mildred Bonin, who were callers at the Girl Scout camp at Larin's pond, are very enthusiastic over the visit and are planning another year to spend some time with the girls. An old bachelor says that he never married because marriage is a lottery and lotteries are illegal.
