NORWICH BULLETIN WILLIMANTIC OFFICE Telephone 195 23 Church St.

What Is Going On Tonight. Meeting Lodge No. 32, Knights of Pythias, meets at 8:07 Main street.

Willimantic Odd Fellows were guests of the Providence Odd Fellows at an outing and golf day at the Hammonds, near Hamilton, R. I., Sunday. About forty local men attended the outing, making the trip in five automobiles. A luncheon was served at noon, and at 3 o'clock baseball teams representing Willimantic and Providence went forth to battle. At the beginning of the third inning Providence led, 4 to 3, but the game was called on account of several players getting injured. Two Providence men were knocked out and Lester French, catcher for the locals, took the count and lost two teeth when he was hit by a tip foul.

Later in the day a fine clam bake was served, about 250 partaking of the feast. Four local young men saw a new angle to "spinning the top" when each paid a dollar and cents, amounting to $17.75, in the police court Monday morning, after pleading guilty to gambling. They were George Hornberger, Arthur Clifford, Roland Champagne and Donald Connell, and were "spinning" in a main street doorway Sunday when Officer Pauling snatched them along. The officer made the prize spin, for he took all, including the 50 cents in the kitty, as well as the players.

Harry Schinman was also before the court on a charge of reckless driving. Sunday evening his car collided with a car owned by Charles Snow of this city. Witnesses claim that Snow's car was turning right on a private driveway and almost practically on the sidewalk, when struck. The case was continued until this (Tuesday) morning.

Cornelius Sullivan, native of Ireland, a citizen of this city for over 50 years, died at his home at 34 Brook street, Sunday, following a long illness. He was employed by American Thread company for over 45 years and had been retained for about seven years. He is survived by his wife, Sarah Nickelson Sullivan, a daughter, Mrs. Mary McCaffrey and a son, John J. Sullivan, all of this city.

Funeral services for Harriet E. Stone were held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of her nephew, Walter E. Wilson of 222 South street, Rev. Arthur W. Clifford of the Windham Center Congregational church, officiating. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery, Central Village. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Jay M. Shepard.

Mr. and Mrs. Kutz of New York are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Max Kilay of Pleasant street. Mr. and Mrs. William Tibbitts of Valley street have returned home after spending their vacation in Pelham, New Hampshire.

Misses Helme and Beverly Dalton have returned from their vacation spent at Oakland Beach, R. I. John Donahue is spending his vacation at Newstead Beach.

H. M. Herrick, who has been employed by the American Thread Company in this city, left Monday for Fall River, where he has been transferred. Superintendent of Schools E. A. Case has returned from his vacation spent at St. John, New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hill of New Haven left Sunday after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Somers of this city. Miss Margaret Smith is visiting her sister at Lake Compounce.

Misses Viola and Mabel Foster have returned to their home at Florence, Mass., after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pauling. Captain Thibault of Engine Co. No. 1 is on his vacation which he will spend at Conway Lake. During his absence Lieutenant Kelley will take his place.

STONINGTON Steamer Cape Cod of the Beacon Transportation Co., Inc. of New York, is here again.

The line will take freight from Noank, New London and New York and a good share of western business will be received also. The business men here have given to the steamer in order to get this project in working order and now it has become a reality. The Cape Cod is 110 feet long, 88 gross tons and 450 h. p. She has a speed of 12 knots. Her draft is 12 feet. She is intended to make three trips each week, leaving Stonington Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays, and it business warrants four trips weekly.

The New York and New Haven terminal will be at 1634 street, East River. At the New York end four five-ton trucks will await the arrival of the vessel at each port and freight will be loaded to the consignee as soon as possible.

Stonington High School Alumni association has elected the following officers: President, Fred Johnson; second vice president, Fred L. Cushman; corresponding secretary, Madeline McGrath; recording secretary, Richard Lamb; Mrs. E. Stewart, Jr., chairman of the executive committee; William E. Cushman, social committee; chairman athletic committee, Robert Adams; chairman music committee, Merton Clarke; chairman of the yearbook committee, Fred Johnson; chairman of the yearbook committee, William E. Cushman; the new principal, and the committee are to arrange for a dance during the Christmas recess. It was voted that the association hold its annual meeting at the graduation class commencement week. The constitution was amended so the music committee could cooperate with the social committee and secure new songs for the association and school. It was voted to limit the charter membership to those persons signing during 1921. The list of applications now follows:

The Portuguese celebrated the Feast of the Holy Ghost Sunday and the emblem was removed from the home of Manuel Madona on Oyster street to that of Antonio Sylvia on Diving street. The procession was headed by the Stonington band. The celebration will end Sept. 4. Judge E. B. Hingley, successor of tasks in the borough, has completed the abstract for 1921 and filed it with Borough Clerk C. E. Bates, and it can be found there for inspection. The borough tax rate this year is 19 cents on the dollar for some years past. The warden and burgesses will soon assign a date to sit as a bar of relief.

Miss E. M. Miller has returned home, having been the guest of her brother-in-law, A. G. Randall, and his family of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Miss Lois Brown has returned after her week stay at the Girl Scouts' camp at Gale's Ferry.

Mrs. John Wood has returned to New York, having been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hyde.

Hector Dwyer, who has been ill with typhoid fever, spent a short while out of doors Monday at his home on Elm street, the first time since his serious illness of several months.

The White House of the Confederacy is still standing at Richmond, Va. It was owned by Jefferson Davis as president of the Confederate States of America. The house is now a museum of Confederate relics.

Deputy Sheriff George F. Holbrook on Monday reached the 74th anniversary of his birth. He has been confined to his bed since the Friday before Christmas, 1919. Sheriff Holbrook continues to keep in a fairly cheerful state of mind. Many friends throughout the county have sent the members of the Putnam police department, remembered him with words of greeting Monday.

Victorine B. Everett, 55, wife of J. A. Everett of Putnam and Pomfret, died at her home in Pomfret Saturday afternoon following an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Everett was born in France and for many years before coming to this country served as a governess and traveled in Poland, France and Germany. She was an accomplished linguist. About 27 years ago she came to the United States. She was married in New York Nov. 25, 1859. For 27 years she has been a resident of Putnam. Besides her husband she is survived by three daughters, Marcelline, at home; Martha, of New York; and Camille of Hartford.

Nearly 200 members of the Canadian Athletic club were present Sunday at the ball game between the teams representing the single and married men of that society. The game was played at the Hinkley farm on the river road where a clubhouse was served at noon. It was agreed in advance that the winners would be guests of the losers at the banquet. The game was won by the married men in a spectacular ninth inning rally. Arnold, of the home team, threw a six-hitter, with three men on the sack and the score 7 to 6 in favor of the single men. The game was a close one and the home team led by a single run in the eighth inning. Peter Miller is credited with helping the winners to their victory and his efforts in the ninth proved many good laughs. Both teams started out like cyclones and scored four runs in the first inning. In the third inning the home team scored a single man in the fifth inning and into a two-run lead which they held until Lott's' clutch saved the game, as well as the price of a clam dinner for the happy bachelors.

Score by innings: Single Men 4 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 7 Married Men 4 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 2 Batteries—Single men, Lapaine and Dugre; Married men, Bouley and Dugre.

At Camp Chester the past few days Putnam boys have had a very successful hunt. Most all members of the local detachment had either been on one or read of it, but the few that hadn't were sentenced to bag. After an hour's wait in which the snipe were very scarce, the boys were told to appear, the baggers went home snipeless. The baggers were safe in bed, and had been for at least an hour, when the snipeless baggers arrived.

The next night came the overnight Mikes. There were several decent parties. All went to decent camping sites, ranging from seven to a dozen miles from camp. Most of the expeditions were to the shore or to a point near the Connecticut river. All included Putnam boys. Several Woodstock and Thompson boys also took advantage of the opportunity to enjoy a night's under the stars. Those who stayed home from the hikes played war games in the evening. Friday evening, some more war games were played and at their conclusion before hopping into their bunk the campers enjoyed a moonlight swim.

All the boys are putting in hard hours of work finishing up the requirements for earning the camp emblem. These emblems are to be given out this (Tuesday) evening at the conclusion of the last camp period.

WINDHAM

The program of the concert of familiar songs of the south includes such old favorites as "The Old Folks' Home," "The Old Virginian," and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," as well as some of the newer melodies such as "Mighty Lark" and "Home and Many Others." Besides the chorals, numbers, there will be solos, quartets, and instrumental numbers. The members of the chorus will be in costume and the concert promises to be as good or better than the old folks' concert given last fall.
