Irish Parliament is Bidders for Labor to Meet Wednesday at Auction Block

Consensus of Opinion is That Plenipotentiaries Will be Appointed to Meet British Cabinet.

Dublin, Sept. 9. (By the A. P.)—Convention of a private meeting of the Irish republican parliament for next Wednesday to consider the British cabinet's invitation to a conference on the Irish question at Inverness on Sept. 29 was decided upon this afternoon by a meeting of the Dail Eireann cabinet over which Eamon De Valera presided.

Plenipotentiaries to the conference are to be appointed, as was suggested in Premier Lloyd George's letter, delivered to Mr. De Valera last night, it is understood that in order to give them greater authority their names should be submitted to a full meeting of the Dail Eireann. Consequently, members of that body have worked for all the men in the cabinet to attend the parliament meeting.

Optimists over the status of the negotiations tonight drew the inference that a decision had been taken to recommend the appointment of plenipotentiaries, while some pointed out that a final breach of negotiations also would require a full meeting of the Dail. The optimists, however, appeared to constitute a large majority.

SUBJECT MATTER HEARING A SPECTACULAR DRUG RAID

Frank J. Fitzpatrick, Head Narcotic Investigator, Mystified New York Raiding Party—Had Worried Over His Health

Probably Became Demented in the Excitement of the Fight—Stepped Into a Washroom and Put Two Bullets Through His Own Heart—Had Led 13 Agents in a Hand-to-Hand Fight With Seamen on the Greek Steamship King Alexander—Three Seamen Were Wounded—$100,000 Worth of Drugs and Whiskey Seized.

New York, Sept. 9.—One of the most spectacular drug raids New York has known ended today with the mysterious suicide of the chief raider.

Frank J. Fitzpatrick, head narcotic investigator, led 13 agents in a gallant charge up the gangplank of the Greek steamship King Alexander and engaged in a hand to hand fight in which volleys of shots were fired, five seamen wounded, three of them fatally.

The raid over, Fitzpatrick stepped into a washroom on the Brooklyn dock where the King Alexander was tied up. Two shots rang out, Fitzpatrick was found lying face down in the water.

The suicide completely mystified the raiding party. Their only theory was that their chief, who the said had been worrying over his health, suddenly had become demented in the excitement of the fight. Tonight they were awaiting the arrival from Washington of Colonel O. G. Porter, executive assistant to the chief of the narcotic division of the internal revenue bureau ordered to New York to make a thorough investigation.

The raid had been laboriously planned by Fitzpatrick over the week. King Alexander raced into port on September 1 with a quota of Greek immigrants which her captain feared would exceed the monthly allowance.

Through swift pilfering he had arranged for purchase of $200,000 worth of whiskey and drugs. These were to be delivered through a middleman, Mr. Teague, to the federal agents, and preliminary payments of $1,200 to a ship's officer and $300 to a watchman was arranged.

Fitzpatrick was 58 years old and, before joining the federal forces, had lived in Bridgeport and Waterbury, Conn.
